Chapter 164

Allison's eyes were fixed on Ryan. The alphas of different packs gathered around him just to greet him once.

He was the main character of the party. In fact, he was the most wanted man in all of the packs.

She could see others' behavior in front of him. At such a young age, he built such a massive castle that others could not even dare touch one stone of it.

He was the Alpha with the most success and an accomplished businessman who effortlessly maintained his dominance over them.

"Did the two of you have a fight?" Allison heard Ella's question.

"No. We can't fight. He believes that I am not strong enough to converse with him. Therefore, the conflict is not even close to it." While she was looking at Ryan, she whispered.

"Run?"

She recalled that before her, he left the pack house after telling her that his driver would drop her home.

'So he ran for the whole night? Why?' She thought about it and tried to locate him.

"He is drinking nonstop. I think you two should clear up your misunderstandings. He is the head

As her eyes wandered, Ella understood that she was searching for Ethan.

Alpha of this pack. Other Alphas are trying to greet him, but he is not giving them a chance and has made himself busy." "Don't worry, Aunt. I will talk to him."

Ella gave her a nod in relief and gestured her toward the bar area.

Allison found Ethan sitting on a stool. He was looking somewhere while drinking.

Allison walked to him and stood next to him. He was so lost looking somewhere that he did not "An apple juice for her." Someone ordered the bartender.

Allison was stunned and turned her head beside her. She saw Vernon standing beside her.

She raised her brows at him. He glanced at her and asked,

"What?"

"Nothing." She replied with a warm smile.

She was surprised that Vernon remembered what drink she preferred.

"You were so busy looking somewhere. I can see these days. You are lost. What happened to you, Ethan?" Allison asked him.

He did not respond to her. She stared at him while observing him carefully. She sipped her drink

Her eyes met a pair of dark eyes. She immediately averted her eyes. Ethan got on his feet, and she also followed him.

Ethan looked away and chugged down the drink from the glass in his hand.

"Alpha, nice to meet you. We were looking for you. We thought you would be the one who introduced us to Alpha Ryan."

A few Alphas approached them and said to Ethan.

them.

They glanced at Allison and greeted her.

Allison could only smile at them politely. She did not know what to answer. She knew Ethan and the whole pack's reputation would be destroyed when a girl rejected the marriage proposal or called off the wedding with the head Alpha.

"Should we call you Luna? We got the invitation to your wedding. We are eager to attend your

"You should count your blessings that he is your brother. Alpha Neil never introduced him to us before. We wonder why. Perhaps he has no interest in your pack and went for the biggest pack to rule." Another voice came from behind the Alphas, who were standing there.

These Alphas made a slight movement, which allowed the man who was speaking to go closer to

"I thought it was Alpha Ryan's day. So I gave you all the time to meet him freely." Ethan replied

"Alpha Easton."

Flow pack's head Alpha.

Allison was taken aback by looking at the young man. She remembered that he was the one who attacked Ethan two years ago. Because of him, he almost lost his life.

Ethan recognized the man who approached them slowly. He was the second biggest pack, the East

Ethan's fists tightened, which Allison noticed clearly. She held his hand and patted his hand with

"Oh! Beauty! Who is she?" Alpha Easton asked as his eyes fell on Allison.

"I can't believe it. What a fate! She is gorgeous." He muttered.

"She is our future Luna." Wade replied, and he came to handle the situation.

Ethan almost growled at him, but Ryan's voice stopped him.

Everyone's attention was drawn to Ryan. It was Elora who brought him there.

"Ryan, long time no see." He let out an enraged tone.

"Not more than your sister, East."

Easton rolled his eyes. His amazed face turned grim.

"No see? Did you want to see me? You should have contacted me. I am always free for vacation. Can't you see me right now? I am here for vacation." Ryan said and let out a chuckle.

Everyone laughed when they heard Ryan but paused when they heard his next sentence.

"Until someone provokes me because, after that, my vacation turns into war."
