

Chapter 237 He Doesn't Care

Third P.O.V

Rose got down from the bed and went to the washroom. She looked at herself in the mirror.

She couldn't recognize herself. She looked at her puffy eyes, which were red from crying. She looked at her face and said, "How lonely you are! Rose. Nobody wants you." She smiled coldly. She got fresh and went downstairs.

Everyone was having breakfast. Alpha Michael, Rivana, Liam, his mate Rita, Rose's mom, and the man who rejected him, Alpha Arvan, everyone was at the table.

She didn't disturb them but couldn't stay there anymore. So she called her mom,

"Mom"

Selena turned her head and looked at her daughter. She was shocked. Her daughter was totally okay and stood right behind her.

"Rose!" She screamed with joy. Everyone looked at Rose shocked.

"Rose, are you okay, my child? What happened to you?" Selena cried and asked.

"Mom, let's go home." Rose said and looked at Alpha Michael.

"Alpha, give me permission to leave." she said.

"My dear, please have breakfast with us." He said.

"Yes, Micheal is right. You just woke up, you need to eat something. Have breakfast with us." Rivana smiled.

"No, Auntie, Thanks. But I need to go home immediately." She said without looking at Arvan.

Arvan was watching everything. How she was ignoring him like he was an invisible person. He didn't like that. It was disrespectful to him. But he didn't say anything.

Alpha Micheal nodded his head and said,

"Okay, you can go home and take a rest. Eat something there. Please come to pack house more. We will miss you."

Rose nodded and when she was about to leave Rita called her,

"Rose"

"Yes?"

Rita went to her and hugged Rose and whispered in a warm voice,

"Whenever you need me, I'll help you. Don't worry. Just be happy and make others regret it. You are not weak, you are a strong woman who survived a Trueblood's rejection. Don't think of yourself as weak."

When Rita moved from the hug, Rose was shocked.

Rose looked at Liam and Liam looked down.

Rose thought, 'Looks like everyone knew about my mate except me.'

She nodded to Rita and left the pack house with her mom.

Rita backed to her seat and looked at Liam and then at Arvan.

Liam was upset about Arvan's rejection. He didn't want Arvan to make mistakes like that in his life. He looked at the two people who sat opposite him.

Alpha Michael and Luna Rivana.

Liam called them his parents. He called them mom and dad.

His biological parents had died when he was just ten years old. From then he lived with them. The two people took his responsibility and loved him as their own child. How could he not think about their son? Their son was not only his best friend, but also his brother. So he always worried about Arvan.

"Dad, what do you think? What happened to Rose?" Rita asked Alpha Michael.

"I don't know dear, but I think her health has some serious issues. Something she is hiding from us. But what?" He said.

"Is it related to her mate? Because it was her 20th birthday. And the 20th birthday is the time when we can find our mate." Rivana said.

Rita glanced at Arvan and didn't say anything more.

"Dad, I was thinking about something." Liam spoke out.

"What Son?" Michael asked.

"What I was thinking is whether Arvan will get his mate someday who is not Lina and if he will not like her or her rank and reject her, then what will happen?"

Arvan glared at Liam with his angry eyes and Liam glared back at him.

"Don't say this type of thing, Liam. You know that rejecting Luna or Alpha is taboo in our pack. His mate could die by doing this. Only a foolish Alpha can do this. I know Arvan is not that foolish." Michael said confidently.

Liam raised his brows and glanced at Arvan. "See? Your mate can die also. Don't dare to do this, because what if you choose to make the wrong decisions?"

"Die, huh? Of course. She died for three days and now everything is okay with her." Arvan muttered.

Nobody listened to him but Liam heard him clearly. Then he shook his head and told his mate in their mind links, "He will never understand what he is doing until the Moon Goddess makes him realize it. Hope everything will be good for both of them, otherwise who knows what will happen tomorrow?"

Arvan left the dining room and went to his room.

He was thinking about one thing. Why people avoided their rejection matters when everything was okay now. He was fine, and Rose was fine too. People just made rules and laws without any reason. How dared his ancestors make a fool of all the alphas of the Crismon Red pack? Nothing had happened. Maybe she felt a little pain and slept for three or four days but she was totally okay. Everything was fine now.

He didn't have any feelings of regret for Rose. He didn't like her. Why would he choose her as his mate? His mate could die by doing this. Only a foolish Alpha can do this. I know Arvan is not that foolish." Michael said confidently.

Never. She was an alpha and would be the perfect match for him.

He thought to himself.

He stopped thinking about all of that. He got ready for university. He was the head Alpha of the pack. He needed to be well educated too. So he never stopped his education.

In their university, some other creatures were studying together with them. It was a challenging thing for him as an Alpha that how he would deal with everyone.

But he was known as a ruthless alpha ever because he never showed mercy when it was time for war. Every creature afraid of him even respected his powerful aura.

He was ready to go out when he met Liam and Rita. They were also going to university.

They looked at him. He glared at them.

"You two mates are getting daring, day by day."

"Come on, Arvan. Don't blame us. You are the head alpha but afraid to accept your mate. Rather than that, you rejected her and hiding it from everyone." Rita said.

"You don't have to think about that. Be happy for your best friend. She will be your Luna very soon." He smirked and left.
