

Chapter 238 A Witch Friend

It had been a week since Arvan rejected Rose.

Rose didn't go to university for a week. She was upset and broken because of the rejection and the pain of losing her wolf, Rosalie.

She didn't say anything to her mom. Because she knew her mom would worry about her.

But she told Alice everything. Alice got very angry after hearing Arvan's rejection. She cursed Arvan. She wanted to scold Arvan but Rose stopped her from saying anything to him because she had already known how much ruthless he was. She didn't want to lose Alice's life.

Today Rose would go to her University, and she would start a new life, without caring for anyone. She would not care about other people's opinions. Well, that was what she thought.

Alice came to pick her up today. Rose got ready and told her mom that she was going to university. Then she got in the car and left with Alice.

When they arrived at University, people started whispering. Rose was stunned. She thought, 'Do they know anything about my rejection?'

"I'm sorry, Rose. I didn't tell you because you would be worried," Alice said.

"About what?"

"Actually Lina spread some rumors about you."

"What rumors?" She frowned.

"She said that you are into Arvan and you tried to seduce him knowing that he loved Lina."

"WHAT??"

"Calm down. All you have to do is, don't give any reaction to them."

"What about your Alpha? Didn't he say something to her?"

"No, he didn't react at all."

"Huh! Whom I expected to defend me." She scoffed.

They went to their class. Everybody was behaving like she was a trash and came to their class. She didn't react at all.

When they sat in their seats, everyone was whispering about her.

"You see? How shameless she is! How dare she try to seduce our Alpha? Our Luna is so kind that she didn't do anything to her. If I were her, I would have killed her." A girl whispered to another, who was loud enough to hear.

"Stop talking about what you don't know, bitch. Otherwise, your Luna won't come here to save you from me." Alice yelled at the girl.

"Alice, she doesn't deserve to be your friend. Leave her. She is not a good girl. You don't know anything." the girl said.

"Oh, and you know everything, right?" Alice started to stand up from her seat and went to the girl when Rose stopped her. "Please Alice. Don't. Just leave them. You are the one who said I shouldn't care about others' opinions, right? I don't care. So please don't bother." Rose said loudly enough to be heard.

The teacher came to their class and started his lecture.

"Today I'll create teams for you all. There will be two members in a team. And I'll decide the members." The professor declared.

Rose was okay, not interested in any group work. She looked outside from the window. She heard Alice's name and looked up.

"Alice, you will be teaming up with Taylor."

Alice looked at Rose.

"Nice. I'll make that boy work on all the projects. I will not be going to do anything." Alice said and they chuckled.

"Rose, you will be teaming up with Delilah." The professor said.

"Yes sir."

After all the teaming up, He said,

"You will start working on the project soon. You have only one week for that."

Rose P.O.V

After the class, a blonde girl came to us and said, "Hi, I'm Delilah."

I was mesmerized by her green eyes. 'Green eyes? Do wolves have green eyes?' I thought.

"Hi, Delilah. I'm Rose, your project partner."

I wanted to shake hands with her but Alice stopped me. She pulled my hand and took me to the opposite side of a corner and said,

"She is a bitch, Rossy. Stay away from her."

"What?"

"I mean she is a witch."

"Witch?"

"Yeah, witch. A few witches are studying with us. You should stay away. What if she harms you?"

I laughed and said,

"You know I have nothing to lose, right? Rosalie left me. Now I'm a human. Nobody can harm me more than that."

Alice didn't say anything. She got emotional. She loved her best friend. But her best friend lost her wolf, and every time she heard that she wanted to kill the Alpha.

"Okay, but be careful. I don't want to kill anyone." Alice said. I giggled and nodded.

"I have a class now, so you can go to the witch girl. I'm going now." Alice hugged me and left for her class.

I went to the girl. She was still standing there.

"Sorry for my friend's behavior."

"Ah, it's OK. I can assume that your friend doesn't like witches."

I was stunned.

"Don't worry. I didn't eavesdrop on your conversation. I just guessed it."

"It's not like that." I said.

"Ok. Can we talk while sitting somewhere?"

"Yeah sure."

We went to the cafeteria and sat at a table in a corner.

"How about that? You tell me about yourself first, then I'll tell you about myself?" Delilah proposed.

"Sure," I said and continued.

"I'm Rose Lee. I'm an omega. I turned 20 recently. I live with my mom. My father was a gamma of the former Alpha of our pack. My dad lost his life while saving his Alpha. And one person who is always with me is my best friend, Alice. She is like my sister. That's all."

She smiled and introduced herself to me,

"Well, I'm a witch. I live with my Grandma. My parents died, I don't know how. Grandma always ignored me whenever I asked her about that."

"I'm sorry for your loss," I said sadly.

"No, it's been a while. So I'm okay now."

I nodded. Then I asked,

"Do you know any witchcraft?"

She laughed and said,

"You are really cute. Do you know that?"

"No, I'm just excited. Now tell me if you are fine with talking about that, of course."

"I'm a witch, Rose. Of course, I know some witchcraft."

I looked at her with delighted eyes but then she continued,

"But tell me one thing,

HOW DID YOU LOSE YOUR WOLF?"
