

Chapter 239 Decided To Move On

"HOW DID YOU LOSE YOUR WOLF?"

I was shocked. "How do you know that?"

I almost screamed but controlled myself.

She was silent. I asked again, "Tell me."

"Well, you said, you are an omega. But you didn't know that I was a witch at first because you couldn't smell me."

"Oh"

"So? How did you lose your wolf?"

"Well, that's my personal-"

Before I could say more, I saw Alpha Arvan and his friends. They entered the cafe and went to their table. Lina was there too. She hugged Arvan's arm as if someone would steal him from her. I looked at Arvan. He was looking okay. No regret, no sad feelings, nothing.

"Wow, so it was just my consequence of losing my wolf, but he can live his life happily? Good." I rolled my eyes and looked back at Delilah.

She was noticing my every move and glanced at Arvan.

"You love him?"

"What?"

"Just asking," she said while smiling.

"Let's not talk more and focus on our project, okay?"

"Sure."

We started our work on the project.

Third P.O.V

Arvan was watching Rose from the corner of his eyes. He thought she would take more time, but she came back in a week.

"Arvan, let's go tomorrow, okay?" Lina asked.

"What? Where?"

"Looks like your attention is on somewhere else." Rita smirked.

Arvan glared at her.

"Lina, sometimes I am confused if Rita is really your friend or someone else's."

"What do you mean, baby?" Lina frowned at Rita. She asked Rita, "Did you do something behind my back?"

"How dare I do something behind your back when our head Alpha is always protecting you?"

Lina smiled and kissed Arvan's lips and said,

"I know, my baby loves me a lot."

She said loudly. She glanced at Rose and saw Rose was looking at them. She smirked at Rose.

Everyone watched everything that Lina was trying to do. But they didn't say anything.

Rose saw the kiss. She felt a slight pain in her chest. She didn't know why her heart could not stop loving that brutal guy.

"Rose, are you okay?" Delilah asked.

"Yeah, I'm fine. I have a class. I'll meet you later, okay?"

"Okay, give me your number. I'll contact you."

Rose nodded and gave her her number, then left the cafe.

"She is strange but a sweet girl. Poor girl has to lose her wolf at this age. It must be very painful." Delilah said to herself.

After the classes, Rose met Alice.

"Is everything okay? Why are you in deep thought?" Alice asked.

"You were right. I should stay away from Delilah. She is a witch."

"Did she do something to you?"

"No, but she can tell everything like a past life reader or a mind reader."

"What did she say?"

"She asked me if I love Arvan and how I lost my wolf. I didn't even tell her about that. When I asked her she replied that I couldn't smell her, that was why she assumed."

"Don't worry, we will handle her. You just go home. And one more thing."

"What?"

"Tomorrow is Taylor's birthday."

"Who is Taylor?"

"My project partner, Rossy."

"Oh yeah. What about him?"

"He is throwing a party tomorrow. Please come with me."

"Again a party? I guess it's at the club, right?"

"R-Right." Alice chuckled nervously.

"No, you can go with Vector." Rose said.

"I broke my friendship with Vector."

"Wait, why??"

"Because his friend and his Alpha broke my best friend's heart and almost killed her."

"But he didn't do anything."

"It's his punishment for being the Alpha's friend."

Rose giggled, "My lovely bestie, relax. Everything will be okay. Don't break your friendship with anyone else."

"We are sisters from different mothers, remember?" Alice asked.

"Yes."

They headed to Alice's car. She said she would drop Rose off and Rose didn't refuse. Rose saw Arvan when she was passing the entrance. She didn't look back at him. She should not think about him nor did she give him any reaction. That was what she decided.

"Rose, let's go tomorrow with me. We will have fun. This party is not from that bastard Alpha. This is from our classmate, so we should go and have fun."

"Ok. I should also think about moving on."

I didn't want to be the same Rose anymore. I would have to live my life cheerfully like everyone was doing right now. So I decided to go.

"I WILL GO TO THE PARTY."
