

Chapter 240 Who Are You

The next day was an off day at university.

So Rose was at home all day. Her mom told her that she would come back home later.

Rose was alone while thinking about her life. She was broke, she was all alone. Rosalie was not there with her. Werewolves could not live without their wolves. It was their habit to live together. From their childhood, they learned how to shift and talk with their wolves. Their wolves were their inner person, their lifetime best friend.

Rose cried for her wolf for some time. Alice called her and she picked up the call,

"Hello."

"Are you ready?"

"It's too early to go, Alice."

"No. it's the right time to go."

"It's not even dark outside."

"Oh, you are a big girl now, hmm? Want to get out when it's dark?"

"Shut up. I'm going to be ready."

"20 minutes, Rossy."

"Okay fine."

Rose went to her room and got ready. She wore a purple top with long sleeves and black jeans.

She looked polite and simple.

Rose did her makeup a little soft. Took her black bag and wore black heels. Then she went outside.

She sent a message to Alice,

"Give me the address, I'll come there directly."

Alice sent her the address of the club.

Rose went to the bus stand and waited for the bus.

But she waited a long time. There were no buses.

She wanted to call for a cab. When she was about to call, she saw a car stop in front of her.

The car window rolled down and Lina was seen. Beside her was the most brutal Alpha, Alpha Arvan, in the driver's seat.

"Hello Rose, Are you going to the club for Taylor's birthday?" Lina asked.

Rose nodded at her and looked at Arvan. But he never looked back at her, he was just looking in front of the car.

"Come, get on. We are going there too." Lina said.

"No thank you. I can go by myself."

"We will drop you there. Are you denying your future Luna?" Lina smirked.

Rose almost rolled her eyes but controlled herself.

"When she doesn't want anyone's help, why are you forcing her? Leave her alone, she can walk there." Arvan said to Lina.

Rose was stunned by his words.

"What are you saying, baby? You are the head Alpha of this pack. Don't you want to help your pack members?"

Arvan didn't say anything more.

At the same time, another car was parked behind Arvan's car.

Vector came out of the car and said,

"Rose, I have come to pick you up. Let's go, we are late."

Rose was shocked and thought,

"When did I ask him to pick me up?"

She looked at Vector and he just nodded as a sign.

Rose nodded back and said,

"You are late. But it's okay. Let's go Vector." She then left with Vector without saying bye to the couple in the car.

"What is Vector doing with her??" Lina asked Arvan.

Arvan frowned his eyes and looked at the side mirror where he could see Vector opening the door for Rose.

Rose entered and Vector got in the car and drove away. He didn't like that at all.

In the car, there was silence.

"Why did you say that in front of them?"

"What? That I came to pick you up?"

Rose nodded.

"I was going to the party but saw you standing alone beside Arvan's car. So I understood Lina's plan."

"Lina's plan?"

"Yeah plan. We know her very well. She was doing that willingly."

"What does she want?"

"You know that all happened, she doesn't like you for that."

"I survived from the death because of her boyfriend and she doesn't like me, as if it was my fault? Why can't everyone leave me alone?" Rose felt exhausted.

"By the way, thanks for helping me, Vector."

"That was nothing, I just want a favor from you."

"What favor?"

"Can you please tell Alice not to be angry with me? She is punishing me for Arvan."

Rose laughed and said,

"I already told her that. Don't worry, I will tell her again. It was not your fault, so you don't need to get punished."

"Thanks, Rose."

"Yeah Welcome."

They reached the club but didn't get out of the car because Rose said that she wanted to wait for Alice.

When Arvan arrived there, he saw Vector's car there.

But they didn't get out of the car. "They got here before us. Why didn't they come out? What are they doing in the car?" He thought.

"Arvan let's go." Lina said.

He nodded and went inside the club.

When Alice reached there, Rose and Vector saw her with a young man.

Vector frowned and asked Rose, "Who is that man? What is he doing with my Alice?"

Rose was shocked and asked,

"Your Alice???"

"I-I mean my friend Alice. What is he doing with my friend Alice?"

"That is Mark. Her cousin brother. But when did he come back?? He was out of the country. We met a lot of times when I was abroad."

"Oh, her brother? That is good."

Rose grinned and asked,

"Are you by any chance in love with my best friend?"

Vector was startled by the question but didn't answer her back.

"Let's go there. We should not waste our time here."

"Okay, let's go."

Alice and Mark entered the club. After that, Rose and Vector also went inside.

"Alice!"

"Rossy, where were you??? I tried to call you but could not connect the call. There was no network there." Alice said and hugged Rose.

"Alice." Vector called.

"What are you doing with my Rossy, Vector? Go away. We don't want to talk to you." Alice said.

"Alice, please, for my sake, talk to him. I don't want you to break your friendships for me."

"But Rossy, his friend-"

"Please, for me? And he is innocent, it was not even his fault." Rose requested Alice.

Alice nodded her head then looked at Vector and said,

"Nice try to persuade my bestie for my forgiveness. Now go to the bar, I'm coming there." Vector was happy. He nodded and went to the bar.

"Rossy, look who is here for you." Then she signaled Rose to the couch. Mark was sitting on the couch watching them for a while.

Rose smiled and said, "Mark!"

Mark smiled back.

"Now you go to him and give him company. He is here for you, to meet you. I'm going to that gigolo boy."

"Gigolo boy?"

"Vector, of course. Now I'm going, bye."

Rose laughed at her and looked back at Mark.

Mark Harrison, was an alpha. He was powerful but not as powerful as their head Alpha. He was the same age as Arvan and their group. He lived outside. He came there very rarely. He had known Rose since childhood. When Rose was out of the country, those times they met a lot of times for study purposes. He was a good friend of Rose's.

Rose made her way to him and Mark stood up.

"Mark! Long time no see."

"Alice."

They hugged each other because they were friends.

When they broke their hug, they saw someone behind them. When they turned around, Rose saw Arvan standing behind her and looking at her with a pair of furious eyes. Then he glared at Mark and asked,

"WHO ARE YOU?"