

Chapter 241 How Do You Know Him?

"WHO ARE YOU?"

Rose was shocked by his question. 'Why is he here? Can't he just be with his so called lover?'

"Hello Alpha, I'm Mark Harrison."

"Why didn't I see you before?"

"I was abroad. I come back here very rarely."

"And how do you know him?" Arvan turned his head to Rose and asked.

"I have known him for a long time, Alpha." Rose replied boldly.

Arvan raised a brow and glared at Rose.

"Mark, let's grab a drink. I'm feeling bored here." Rose said.

Mark nodded. He was watching them glaring at each other.

They went to the bar and grabbed two glasses of beer.

Meanwhile, Arvan became infuriated. How dared she ignore him and leave without asking his permission?

"What are you doing here?" When Liam got there, he saw Arvan talking with Rose and another guy.

"Nothing, just thinking about something."

"Something what?"

"Day by day my pack members are getting bolder."

"What do you mean?"

"I think they forget who they are talking with."

"What are you saying? I can't understand, dude."

"There is nothing to understand, let's go back to our group."

Liam shook his head and went to their group with Arvan.

Rose was drinking beer. "Rose."

"Yes?"

"Do you know Arvan?"

"Everybody knows him. He is our Alpha."

"No, I mean do you know him personally?"

"Why did you ask that?"

"I was just thinking how he came to ask questions about whether you know me or not."

"Relax. He is the head Alpha. He has a lot of work to do. He doesn't have time to think about me. It's just that he is very aware of his pack members. So, when he saw a new member, he called someone to inform him about them. He called my mother too."

"That's a relief."

"Why are you afraid of him?"

"No, it's not like that. He is the head alpha. I don't want any problem with him."

"Don't worry, he doesn't have any single interest in me, nor did I have any."

Then they started to drink more.

"Babe, why are you so silent?" Lina asked Arvan.

"Maybe he is upset." Rita said.

"Why? Why would he be upset?"

"Don't know, maybe regret something."

"Shut up, Rita. I can understand what you are trying to say."

"And what am I trying to say?"

"I know you very well. You don't want me to be your pack's Luna. You are so vicious, woman. How dare you provoke my boyfriend?" Lina snarled.

"Don't you dare talk in that way with my mate again." Liam growled at Lina and she got scared.

"Arvan, I didn't mean anything bad."

"Liam, relax. They are friends. Let them handle their arguments."

"You know what? You two are the perfect match."

"What do you mean?"

"Neither of you cares about your mates. But we do. You will both never understand the bond."

"Liam!"

"Oh please. I was silent only because of our parents. Because you are my brother. But your so called girlfriend dared to insult my mate and I won't take it."

"Liam! Don't forget I am your Luna." Lina said.

"You are not my Luna and will never be. So don't you dare to talk like that with my mate ever again, otherwise, I am the second authority in this pack and no one will stop me from killing you."

"LIAM"

Arvan yelled at Liam.

Liam grabbed Rita's hand and left the club.

Lina hugged Arvan and cried. She tried to convince Arvan through her tears.

"Arvan, why are they behaving like that to me? Rita is provoking you for Rose. I didn't say anything wrong."

When Lina talked about Rose. Arvan looked at the bar side and saw Rose and Mark. They were talking and laughing. Rose looked drunk and that Mark guy was looking at her as if he had some feelings for her.

He frowned at them. 'I don't care about that weak girl. We are not mates anymore. And she said she knew him very well. They know each other from abroad. Who knows, this girl has so many flings outside. So I should not care about her.'

Arvan shook his head and said to Lina,

"Let's go. We should leave too."

"But what about Taylor? I have not wished him yet."

"It's ok. He will understand."

Lina nodded and they left the club.

Rose was drinking nonchalantly. She was drinking after a year. She was sad about her life. So she wanted to forget the pain.

"Rossy, Mark. He is Taylor." Alice came with a guy.

"Hi, Taylor. Happy Birthday." Rose wished him.

"Happy birthday, man." Mark shook hand with him and wished him.

"Thanks a lot. You all came, I am happy about that." Taylor said.

They chatted for some time, then he left with his friends.

Rose was feeling dizzy. She looked around and saw Arvan had already left.

She smiled at herself sadly. Life was very unfair to her. She lost her every hope. She lost her wolf. She lost everything. Her mate didn't even care about her. She said she would move on, but that was not so easy for her. There was no one for her to lean on. Life was cruel to her. Fate was brutal.

She looked at her best friend Alice. Vector liked her. He cared for her. Rose could feel that Vector had feelings for her. She hoped that Alice would not face the same fate she had faced. She prayed that her best friend would have all the happiness in the world.

Alice was very drunk. So Vector said, "We are leaving now. I will drop Alice at home. Mark, will you drop Rose at her home?"

"Sure."

"No, I can go myself."

"No, you can't. When Alice wakes up she will kill me if I let you go alone." Vector said.

"Don't worry. I will drop her." Mark said.

Rose didn't deny it. She was feeling drunk. She didn't know if she could get a cab there.

Vector looked at her and she nodded. Then he left with Alice in his arms.

"Are you okay? " Mark asked.

"Yeah, I'm fine."

"What is your plan? I mean you came back here suddenly and started to live here."

"I came back for my mom. She was all alone after my dad's death. I am here to accompany her."

"So are you planning to live here forever?"

"I don't know, Mark. I'm confused. I don't know what will happen next in my life."

"Don't worry, you will find your happiness."

She smiled at him and said,

"You are a good person, Mark. You know how to motivate people."

"That's nothing." Mark said and chuckled.

Rose started to sip another glass of beer when she said, "Mark, let's go. We should leave now."

"Yeah let's go."

Rose finished the glass and headed outside with Mark.

They went to Mark's car. Mark opened the car door for her. When Rose was about to sit in the car she felt a grab on her arm. They heard a deep voice.

"WHERE ARE YOU GOING WITH HIM?"
