

Chapter 250 The Place In My Dream

The next day, Rose reached university. She was feeling well today. She slept well last night. She went to her classroom and sat in her seat. The teacher had not come yet. So she was watching out from the window.

"Rossy." Rose turned her head and saw Alice had come. Alice sat in her seat and asked, "Today you are early, what happened? Did you not sleep last night?"

Alice smiled at her. "I slept well last night. I fell asleep early. Then when I woke up, I saw it was early in the morning.

"It's good that you slept well."

Rose and Alice were talking when they saw Delilah entering their class. Rose raised her hand and called her.

"Delilah."

Delilah looked at her and smiled. She went to them and asked Rose, "Hi, Rose. How are you feeling today?"

"I am fine, Delilah. Thank you for informing Alice about me yesterday."

Delilah shook her hand. "No, it's fine."

"You can sit here." Alice told Delilah while signaling her to the seat in front of their seats. Delilah looked at Rose and Rose nodded at her. Delilah sat there but she was amazed at Alice's sudden behavior.

"Thank you Delilah for yesterday." Alice thanked Delilah.

Delilah shook her head. "No, that was my responsibility as a friend."

Rose smiled at them and said, "Now both of you, do a friendship handshake. You two are friends with each other."

Alice and Delilah laughed at her. Alice turned her head to Rose. "What are we? five? Friendship handshake? Seriously Rossy?"

"Oh, come on, Alice. Are you both friends now?" Rose asked.

Alice nodded her head and Delilah smiled.

"Good." Rose said.

They were talking about the projects and Taylor joined them too.

"By the way, Rose"

Rose looked at Taylor. "Yes?"

Taylor asked her carefully. "I forgot to ask you yesterday."

Rose asked, "About what?"

"What were you doing with Alpha Arvan on my birthday night?"

"WHAT?"

Alice shouted. Rose was taken aback to hear his question.

"What do you mean, Taylor?" Alice asked Taylor.

"Yeah, Rose was with Alpha Arvan that night, or I can say late night."

"Late night? Rossy, I thought Mark dropped you home quickly but he didn't?" Alice asked Rose.

Rose was silent. She was thinking about how she could explain everything when she didn't even know what had happened apparently because she was drunk. But the next day all she could remember clearly was his insults and how he dropped her home.

"Taylor, tell me everything now." Alice said.

"Actually, I came out of the club because I needed to take a call. But I saw Alpha Arvan and Rose talking with each other so closely. I called her. Then I talked with them. Rose didn't look very drunk that time. I asked them where they were going. Alpha Arvan told me Rose was going with him."

After hearing Taylor, both Alice and Delilah looked at Rose as if they wanted to hear her side of the story.

"I was drunk so Mark told me she would drop me. I was about to go with him when Arvan came and told me that he will drop me because he is the head Alpha and all. He didn't want any unmated she wolf to get any harm so he dropped me at my home. That's it." Rose explained and sighed.

"And why didn't you tell me that yesterday?" Alice raised a brow and asked Rose.

"Actually I forgot about that. It is not important for me to talk about any stranger." Rose said.

"Stranger?" Taylor asked. "He is our head Alpha, Rose. Not any strangers. And you two didn't look like strangers that night."

"Oh shut up, Taylor. If my Rossy said, he is a stranger to her, then he is. You don't have to give lectures for that." Taylor shut his mouth and nodded his head. Anyway, who could win against Alice in talk?

After a few minutes, the Professor came to their class and they gave their attention to the class.

After their classes, they went to the cafe and sat at their usual table. It was exactly in the middle of the cafe.

Rose ordered their food at the counter and went to Alice and Delilah. Then she sat on her seat. "Alice and Rose, I want to ask you something." Delilah said.

Alice and Rose nodded their heads.

"We are now friends, right?"

"Yes, we are, Delilah." Alice replied.

"Then can I invite you to my home?" Delilah asked them happily.

"Home?" Rose asked.

"Yeah, I only live with my grandmother, I told you."

"Yes." Rose nodded.

"So there is no one in my home except me and her. I want you both to meet with her today."

"Today?" Rose was surprised.

"Yes, today." Delilah nodded.

"I would love to go with you, dear. But I have to go home early today. I have guests in my house. I will go some other day." Alice apologized.

"It's okay, I understand. And you Rose?" Delilah smiled at Alice and turned to Rose with her hopeful eyes.

"Sure. If you want me to meet your grandmother then why not." Alice grinned.

Seeing that Rose agreed to go with her, Delilah was happy.

"You know what? Here I have no friends. My grandma asked me every day about my friends and all the time, I lied to her that I have a lot of friends and all. She always told me to take them home and she would cook for them. Oh! Let me tell you, my grandmother is a very good cook." Delilah was cheerful when she was talking about her Grandmother, Alice and Rose smiled at her when they saw how happily Delilah was talking about her grandmother.

After finishing all the classes, Alice said goodbyes to Rose and Delilah and then drove her car home.

Meanwhile, Rose and Delilah set off to go to Delilah's home.

Rose saw they were going inside the forest. She frowned and asked, "Delilah, where are we going?"

Delilah smiled at her and replied, "Don't be afraid. I am not hijacking you. My home is in the middle of the forest."

"What?"

"Yes. Let's go now." Delilah said.

Rose nodded and started to walk ahead in the forest.

After some time, they went close to a hut in the middle of the forest.

That was when it hit Rose's mind and she got goosebumps. She thought,

'THIS IS THE PLACE I SAW IN MY DREAM.'
