

Chapter 276 Why Are You Crying? 1

"He broke up with Lina today."

Rose and her friends were shocked.

"How did this happen? Don't they love each other a lot?" Alice asked.

"Sometimes people get some brains after losing something, then they do what they should have done a long time ago." Liam said while looking at Rose, who was busy in her own thoughts.

"Let's go and start shopping." Rita said, and everyone started to walk to the shops.

"Are you okay?" Delilah asked Rose.

"I am okay. But I don't feel well." Rose replied.

"You can't run away from the situation, Rossy. The table now turned. Let him suffer for what he did to you." Alice said and put her hand around her shoulder.

Rose nodded her head. They went to buy some clothes. Alice bought some fancy clothes for her.

Rose bought nothing much, she was thinking about why suddenly Arvan broke up with his girlfriend. Lina was the soon to be Luna of this pack. Even at the ball party, everyone had seen her as the Alpha's chosen mate. It was not possible to break up with her until the Alpha found his fated mate. Arvan rejected her, so now he had no other option. Why did he do that then?

Liam and Rita bought a couple of t-shirts for themselves. They bought a few things for Alpha Micheal and Rivana. Rita was very carefully choosing everything for them.

Rose noticed that and said to Rita. "You love the former Alpha and Luna a lot. "

Rita smiled at her. "They are not only the head Alpha's parents but also my mate's parents. He called them his dad and mom. I love them as my in-laws. Liam really cares about them."

Rose then realized that when she was in the pack house she heard Liam calling Micheal 'Dad'. Rose smiled back at Rita. "You two are a really adorable couple."

Liam was walking ahead, and in front of him were Rose's friends and Vector. Now it was Rita and Rose who were walking slowly behind.

"We love each other so it is easy for us to settle everything. Hope you will also find your love soon." Rita said.

Rose was thinking about something. So she asked her, "Lina is your best friend, right?"

Rita shook her head. "We had been good friends for a long time. But then she rejected her mate. I didn't like that. I told her not to reject her mate. But she told me she loved Arvan. We all thought Arvan didn't have any mate, so we supported her. But we can't fight over fate. He found his mate and rejected her because of his girlfriend. I felt that time about myself. What if it was me? I had to bear all of this for a man who made it for me. I liked Lina a lot. When I found my mate, I helped her a lot to get into my circle and her family to talk with Arvan about their private matters. Because my mate is the second command in this pack, everyone started to obey me." She paused. Then again she continued,

"When Arvan accepted her as his girlfriend, she began to change. I didn't believe that she accused me of jealousy. She said I am jealous of her because my mate is not the head Alpha but her soon-to-be mate is. She told me that I am envious of her because I didn't get to be the Luna of this pack. We fought and didn't talk for weeks. She lost her place in my heart at that time. She not only insulted me but also disrespected my mate. But after some time, One day, Arvan apologized to me for her behavior. It was very rare for us to see him like that. So I needed to patch up with Lina. But I am happy that Arvan got some brain and broke up with her. Because she only loves the position of Luna. She can do anything for that."

Rose was walking and listening to everything. "I thought she loved him. In fact, I thought they loved each other."

"Do you think Arvan loves her?" Rita asked and turned her head to her.

"Doesn't he?" Rose asked.

"No, never. He can't love anyone. He promised himself not to love anyone. He only cares for Lina because he thought Lina sacrificed her mate bond because he didn't have any mate. That was why he silently accepted her. He thought she was very powerful, so why didn't he make her the Luna? He only wanted a Luna, not a lover."

Rose was silent. They joined everyone and sat in the food court. Everyone ordered something for themselves and sat at a big table.

A few minutes later, Henry and Jack arrived. "You two are late." Vector said.

"We had some work. That's why we are late." Jack said

"Where is Arvan?" Liam asked.

"He got a call, he was talking on his phone. He will join us soon after the phone call." Henry said. He sat besides Delilah and greeted her.

Alice looked at them. "When did you two become close?"

"We are not close." Delilah said and blushed.

"We met last night. You forgot that? We enjoyed the party together." Henry said to Alice.

"Oh yes. You are the one who made her from a nerd into a crazy party lover." Alice chuckled. Delilah pouted and everyone laughed at her.

Suddenly, Rose saw the chair opposite her being pulled back. Rose looked in front of her and saw Arvan sitting on the seat.

Everyone was silent when they saw who had come.

"You are late." Liam said.

"I was busy on my phone. Alpha Alvi just called and talked about the pack meeting." Arvan said.

His mood was not good. He didn't look at Rose for once. Rose told him to stay away so he didn't want to disturb her. He just wanted to see her again. That was why he agreed to come here.

Rose looked away from him and talked with her friends. Alice gestured to her to relax herself. She nodded at her.

Liam saw that Arvan was not in a good mood, so he stood up and said, "Arvan, I need to talk about something, let's go and talk."

Henry, Jack, and Taylor looked at Liam. "Should we come too?"

Liam shook his head. "No, it was related to him, not us."

They nodded and continued to converse.

Arvan narrowed his eyes and looked at Liam. Liam gestured for him to go with him.

Arvan stood up and went with him.

Rose looked at Arvan's back.
