

Chapter 287 The Royal Witch 2

"Yeah."

Arvan nodded and walked out but Selena asked,

"Alpha?"

Arvan stopped.

"If the Alpha of the Blue moon pack wants her to be his Luna, will you be okay with it?"

"Why are you asking that?"

"I think Alpha Blaze likes her."

"You said the same about Mark last time." Arvan said and didn't turn around.

"I met with Alpha Blaze. He is a good man. I hope you will accept them if something happens like that. It's a request from a mother."

Arvan tightened his fists. "I will think about it." He said and left the house.

He went back to his pack house and thought about the matter all night long.

The next morning, Arvan went to his office and buried himself in work.

There was a knock on his office door. "Come in." Arvan said.

A woman in a black gown entered the office.

"Hail to our Alpha."

The woman smiled at Arvan.

"Welcome back." Arvan said coldly.

The woman grinned and came to sit on a chair.

"Why did you call me so urgently, Alpha?"

"You are the royal witch, Caroline. Why are you roaming around the world when I need you the most?" Arvan asked her.

"Forgive me, Alpha." She apologized.

She was the royal witch of the Crismon Red pack. She was much older than Arvan. But she obeyed him because Alpha Arvan was a true blood Alpha with powers.

"I want to know about something from you." Arvan said.

"Just ask me, Alpha."

"I rejected my mate. She didn't die or lose her wolf. But I want to know how. How did she survive?"

Caroline looked at him with her green eyes. "Looks like your mate is much stronger than you thought."

"I want a clear answer, Caroline."

"Well, I can give you a clear answer, but you need to believe me. You didn't believe in Elias. If you don't believe in me too then I will feel heartbroken."

"That's my matter to believe in or not. Just answer me already."

Caroline nodded and stood up. She went to the window and looked outside. She was feeling the fresh morning air.

"She had to bear unbearable pain. She almost died."

Arvan frowned. "What do you mean?"

"I mean she almost died, Alpha. But then her wolf took everything and gave her a second chance to live. She then lost her wolf."

"WHAT?"

Arvan stood up from his seat. "Lost her wolf?"

"Yes, Alpha. She had to live without her wolf. She felt heartbroken and cried all day long for her wolf. But she could not talk with her wolf. She could not shift. She understood that she lost it eternally."

Arvan was shocked. He could not understand how to react. A werewolf could not live without his or her wolf. Without their wolf, they were a wolfless human. It was the biggest punishment in the werewolf world.

Arvan was feeling regret to reject Rose. Why didn't he think about it before, that she could die? He was so ruthless that he didn't care for her for a single time.

Then Arvan thought about her scent. "If she lost her wolf then how can I feel her scent?"

Caroline spoke again, "She was lucky that she found out one of my high ranked witches. Her name is Claudia. She is a very strong and experienced witch. She helped her to get back her wolf."

"Is that even possible? How did she find her?" Arvan asked.

"Why not? I helped her in her dreams." Caroline said and thought about those dreams she managed in Rose's sleep. She was the one who showed her that dream where Rose saw the hut and told her that her Destiny was waiting there for her. She was the one who showed up in Rose's dream after she got back her wolf. She was the one who told her about her powers.

Arvan thought about the days after his rejection. He didn't feel any scent of her. He thought it was because of his rejection that he could not feel it.

But suddenly he felt her scent again, but it was not like before. She had a totally different scent. Now he understood why it was like that.

"She is a nice woman, Alpha. She had fallen for you before she got to know about her mate." Caroline said.

Arvan was stunned. He felt clenched in his heart. "She fell for me before knowing that I am her mate?"

Arvan remembered those days when she tried to talk with him. She even came to the parties and joined his group. Was it for him?

Caroline said what she needed to say. But she didn't tell Arvan about the powers Rose got from the Moon Goddess. It was all their destiny. She could not spill any single word that she was forbidden to let out.

Arvan was in deep thought when she asked him. "Any other questions, Alpha?"

Arvan looked at her. "Elias told me that if she rejects me or accepts anyone else as her mate, I will lose my wolf. Is it true?"

Caroline looked at him carefully and replied,

"Alpha, if you want my advice I can say that you are going to lose your wolf if you don't mark her soon. Your wolf is losing his space inside you. In just no time he will be gone. You will be wolfless."

Arvan was startled when he heard about his wolf. He didn't want to lose his wolf. His wolf was his companion, he could not live without his wolf.

"It's totally your decision. If you want to wait for her acceptance, then you can wait, but you don't have much time in your hands."

Arvan didn't understand what he should do.

"What if you help me just like you helped her with another witch?" Arvan asked her.

Caroline looked away from him and said,

"We don't have the power to save a true blood Alpha's life."
