

Chapter 294 The War

"ARVAN WE NEED TO GO TO THE BORDER IMMEDIATELY, ROGUES HAVE ATTACKED OUR PACK.

Everyone was shocked and stood up immediately. Arvan looked at Liam and Liam nodded at him.

"Let's go." Liam said.

"I will come with you. My beta and Gamma are in this pack right now. I am calling them to join us." Blaze said while taking out his phone from his pocket.

Arvan asked him, "Are you sure?"

Blaze nodded at him. "Of course. We have just talked. We don't have any rivalry anymore."

"Arvan, be careful. Hope everything will be okay." Alpha Micheal said, though he knew his son was very powerful.

Arvan nodded and was about to go out but stopped and looked at Rose.

Rose looked back at Arvan.

"Stay here, don't go outside." He ordered her.

Rose was stunned but nodded at him.

They left the pack house and went to the border.

Arvan saw rogues fighting with his fighter wolves.

"Attack them!"

He ordered and everyone jumped into the war.

Blaze also helped them to fight. He shifted into his wolf form and started to kill rogues. His Beta and Theta were also killing wolves.

Liam came to Arvan and gave him two wooden stakes. It was not any simple stakes but spellbound stakes. Caroline gave Arvan those to fight in the battle.

"Let's go."

He said and started to run into the war. Liam shifted and others also shifted. They started to fight back.

Arvan was running at a speed like an unmatched human. He was killing every single wolf who was coming to him. He was killing wolves with his two hands, piercing the stakes into wolves' hearts and killing them in a blink of a second.

Rogues were shocked when they saw a human fighting with them and killing a bunch of their fighters.

Blaze looked at Arvan and thought, 'Why didn't he shift?' Then he looked away and focused back on the war.

Everyone was busy with the war and Arvan was too. Suddenly, he felt a sharp pain in his stomach. His step trembled. He looked down at his stomach and saw a silver stake. He raised his head and saw a man. He was the king of rogues. Arvan knew him. Arvan killed his father in the last war.

The man smirked,

"You did great last time that you killed my father. I wanted that too. But now I will be able to rule your pack because their Alpha is dying. He is too weak to shift into his wolf form."

Arvan felt that his stomach was burning. It was a silver stake. It was igniting his stomach.

The man shouted, "We won. Let's go back."

All the rogues heard him and started to run back. The King was running back out of the territory but before he could go, he felt pierced in his neck. He was shocked.

He touched his neck and felt a wooden stake. He turned around and saw Alpha Arvan standing far from him.

Arvan shot the wooden stake right at the target. The whole war was stopped. Everyone was looking at Arvan.

Arvan smirked at him. "What did you just say? Their Alpha is weak? Maybe their Alpha is too weak to shift but his human form is enough to win the war and give them protection." He said in his dazing voice.

The King of rogues fell to the ground. In a few seconds, he lost his life.

Arvan then shouted,

"Kill all of them. We won the war."

All the wolves growled and started to kill rogues.

Liam and all the officials shifted back and ran to Arvan.

Arvan fell to the ground. His stomach was bleeding outside but it was burning inside.

"Arvan!" Liam shouted.

Arvan was breathing deeply. All the prevented rogues were killed by their fighter wolves.

The war was over. Alpha Arvan Black won the war.

Blaze also came and was startled." What happened to him?" He then realized that a silver stake was inside Arvan's stomach.

In a few minutes, Caroline came with others. Alpha Micheal, Rivana, Rita, Selena, Alice, and Rose everyone came there.

Caroline heard about the war so she went to the pack house to pick up Rose but the others insisted on taking them with her. So she agreed and let them come with her.

Rose was worried in the pack house. But when she saw who had come to pick her up, she got scared.

The woman who came to her dreams in a black gown came to pick her up. She told her that Arvan needed her. When she heard her she didn't think about her fear, but only Arvan.

When Rose came here she felt horrified. She heard they won the war. She didn't see any war before. She lived with humans before so it was new for her.

But her eyes fell on Arvan, who was lying on the ground, a silver stake was pierced inside his stomach.

His parents ran to him. Alpha Micheal was shocked and Rivana was crying after seeing his son like that.

Rose was standing in shock.

Caroline went to Arvan and touched the silver stake. She spelled something and put out the stake in one pull. Arvan whizzed in pain. He knew his time had come, he would die soon.

He looked around at everyone, then his eyes fell on the woman he loved. He understood everything very late when everything had been lost from his hand.

Rose looked into his eyes. When she saw Arvan looking at her, she came out of shock and ran to him and screamed,

"ARVAN."

Everyone was stunned by her behavior except Arvan's officials, Blaze, Rita, and Alice. Selena was too shocked to understand anything about her daughter.

Arvan smiled at her softly. It was a pure smile. She never saw that smile before.

Arvan caressed her cheek and said,

"I am leaving. "

"NO!"

Rose shook her head.

"I did so wrong to you all this time. At first, I rejected you."

Everyone was flabbergasted. Alpha Micheal and Rivana were dumbfounded.

Arvan continued,

"Then I insulted you all the time. I told you that I hated you. But I never realized it when I started to love you while hating you. Maybe I can't tell you this again, but I love you."

Rose was crying. She shook her head.

"Don't say these types of things. Nothing will happen to you. LIAM CALLED HARRY." She shouted.

"I called him. He is coming." Liam replied.

"Sshh. Relax. Don't cry." Arvan wiped her tears.

"I have a request for you, my love."

"What request?" Rose asked while holding his hand.

Arvan looked at Blaze. Blaze was shocked when Arvan looked at him. Today he was confused when Alpha Arvan apologized to him. Arvan told him that if he wanted to make Rose his Luna he could, and Arvan would not interfere again. He took Blaze's promise to always take care of her. Blaze was shocked that time too.

Then Arvan looked back at Rose.

"Rose, go with Alpha Blaze. He is a good person. He likes you genuinely. He didn't break your heart, but I did. That night he lost his control over his wolf. It was not his fault that Lina drugged him too. I want you to start your life again. So go with him. He will make you his Luna."