

Chapter 297 Together Forever

"Y-YOU REALLY WOKE UP?"

Arvan looked at her with his dark eyes. He pulled her again by her waist and kissed her. Rose was so shocked that she could not react to the kiss.

When Arvan left her lips he wiped her lips with his thumb and looked into her eyes.

Rose looked at him with her eyes widened. "Wh-When did you wa-wake up?"

"The moment you were daydreaming about me at that time." He replied with his raspy voice.

"I was listening to everything that you did and said to me every time. Now tell me, what did you want to confess?" Arvan said as he raised a brow.

"About what?"

"About your feelings or something. I didn't hear it clearly but I heard that you said you would confess when I wake up. Now I am awake, so confess to me."

"You-" Before she could say anything, Alice opened the door. She always came to this room to see if Rose needed something or not. It was her Rossy's room and Alpha was unconscious, so she never needed to knock on the door.

She came there to call Rose to come for breakfast. But when she opened the door she was shocked.

"AAAAHHH!!!"

She felt scared when she saw Alpha Arvan was awake. She didn't care about what he and Rose were doing. For now, it was scary to see a man suddenly awake like this who was unconscious for a month."

Alice ran to others and informed them about Arvan. Everyone was surprised and happy. They immediately came to Arvan's room to see him.

At this time, Rose had already moved from him and went to the bathroom to change her night dress to a simple gown.

Alpha Micheal was smiling after seeing her son sitting on the bed. Rivana was crying while hugging him. "Why did you punish your parents like that? We almost died without you."

Arvan patted his mom while hugging her back. "It was not your punishment but mine. It was my punishment that I had to sleep all day when I could listen to everything. I wanted to reply to all of you but I could not. I wanted to wake up but I could not. It was all my fault and I was repaying it." Arvan replied.

Liam and all the officials came and hugged him. It was a group hug. They were best friends.

"Your mom and Dad were worried about you. I told them their son would wake up soon with double power. Looks like you are finally awake." Caroline spoke out. She came to meet Rose but heard that Arvan had finally woken up.

"Thanks, Caroline," Arvan said.

"Don't thank me. I didn't do anything. It was your mate's healing power that saved you and gave you your wolf back." Caroline notified him.

"Of course, again I owe to her," Arvan said and glanced at Rose.

Pack doctor Harry also came into the pack house to meet Arvan. He gave him some medicine to relax his brain. After all, he woke up after a long time.

Henry told Delilah about Arvan. She came and met him. Arvan thanked her and her grandma for helping Rose so much.

Selena was happy that her daughter's mate had finally awakened. She told Arvan how Rose always cared about him first and spent time with him in his room alone.

At night,

After the long day meetings with everyone, Arvan told Rose, "Come here."

Rose was wiping her hair while Arvan was staring at her. She moved to him. Arvan pulled her and made her sit on his lap. Rose blushed at his action.

"Tell me about that thing you wanted to tell me."

"I don't know what you are talking about." Rose said and looked away.

Arvan pushed her to the bed and went top of her. "What do you mean, Baby? Don't make me wait long. I am hungry at the same time I am thirsty. "

"I wanted to say that I-I love you too."

Arvan immediately kissed her hard. He was thirsty for desire, for her. He started to kiss her body and lick her everywhere. He thrust inside her and she felt like heaven.

Rose was not in the right mind that night. But now she was in her full sense and she was feeling him and enjoying the night.

Arvan could not control himself and took out his canines. He nuzzled his nose at the sweet spot on her neck and bit it. Rose moaned his name. She was feeling a different sensation when he bit her.

Arvan marked her.

Tears rolled from her eyes. They were the tears of happiness.

After that day,

She became the actual mate of Alpha Arvan and the Luna of the Crismon Red pack. Arvan got back to himself with double power than before.

The royal couple, the Alpha and Luna, ruled the pack with their power and strength very dominantly.

Arvan's wolf was hidden inside of him when Rose helped him to come back. It was now much more powerful than others. He had the unbeatable strength of true blood.

He got to know about Rose's power. Rose still had those powers. The Moon goddess gifted her those powers to her, so it was her for her lifetime.

Arvan accepted the alliance of the Blue Moon pack. Blaze and he became friends. After some days, Henry mated with Delilah and she also started to live with Rose and everyone in the pack house.

About Rose's mom, Arvan told her to move into the pack house. Because she was the former Gamma's wife and present Luna's mother, she had the right to live there. Rose convinced her mom. After that day, Selena also started to live in the pack house. Arvan's mother Rivana was happy because Selena was her good friend.

Alpha Arvan got his wolf back when he woke up, it spread all over the pack.

Everyone was happy in the pack. After a long time, the pack was celebrating their happiness.

—

Arvan and Rose were sitting in the garden. They were enjoying the cloudy weather and thinking about the changes in their life. How they became together. All of those were written in their fate. No one could change their fate and they also couldn't do that. It was written for them to be mated.

Suddenly, Rose felt raindrops on her head. "Arvan, it's raining."

It started raining heavily. She stood up. Arvan looked at her and stood up too.

"Let's get wet in the rain." Arvan said.

"What? No. I will catch a cold, Arvan." Rose replied to him.

He smirked at her. She understood Arvan would not listen to her, so she tried to run, but Arvan grabbed her hand and pulled her closer.

"Arvan, let me go. I have a lot of work."

Arvan kissed her forehead and replied,

"Can't Let You Go, Mate."

Previously On: Thank you for your reading~ More exciting chapters are waiting for you in my new stories. And for our loyal readers, the first 7 chapters of the next novel are all free to unlock. Enjoy it!

BookThree——Lonely Lycan's Abandoned Omega

"I'll be your slave. Please, let me stay with you."

"You are digging your own grave."

Delilah was an Omega with a unique scent. Her stepmother took advantage of it and wanted to sell her to different men.

After losing all the way to save herself from the conspiracy of her step-parents, she went to the forest to find a way to live.

But a dangerous beast was living there for years. People were frightened just to think about him and never dared to go the forest. It was like his own kingdom.

What if she collided with the beast? Will he hunt her or let her stay alive?