Chapter 66

Allison opened her eyes. She felt strange. She glanced at the window. It was dark outside.

How long had she been sleeping?

She moved her hand to the nightstand and grabbed her phone to check the time.

When she unlocked her phone, she gasped.

"Eighteen Missed calls!"

Her parents called her many times, and she was sleeping peacefully. How could she? She saw that her phone was on silent.

She remembered that she turned her phone on silent before entering the exam Hall and forgot to turn it off afterward.

The first thing that came to her mind was,

'Is Ethan okay?'

She called her father's number and got it busy. So she called her mother.

Her mother received the call and spoke out, "Allison, are you okay?"

"Mom, I'm totally fine. How is Ethan?" She asked with a worried tone.

"He woke up, Allison. He is out of danger now."

Allison felt relieved. She felt a weight leave her chest. If something happened to Ethan, she could have never forgiven herself. All the time, he was protecting her. She would never forget that.

"But.." Her mother paused.

"But what, mom?"

"Come to the hospital. I am calling the driver to go back to our house to pick you up."

"Okay, mom. I am coming."

After hanging up the call, she went to the bathroom to freshen up.

When she was about to wash her face, her eyes fell on her hand. Her eyes widened when she saw her clean palm.

Her jaw dropped. She glanced at the mirror and saw that her forehead was also clear.

There was no wound in her hand or forehead.

'How did they heal?'

She blinked her eyes a few times and thought she was still in a dream or her eyes were sleepy.

However, she was stunned when she realized that the scratches on her forehead were really gone. There were no scars left there. Even the nurse told her that it would take some time to heal. She told her that she would have to go to the hospital again. The doctor would prescribe her some cream to remove the scars when the wound healed.

"I can't believe this!"

She was in a daze. Was she seeing any illusions? Because she was not an Alpha, who would be healed fastly. She was an omega. Her wolf was weak a few weeks ago.

"Did my wolf get some power after the rejection?" She thought about her wolf.

Her wolf had no idea about it. She regarded it as a stroke of good fortune that the wound had healed on its own.

She washed her face and wore a brown dress. She put her sneakers on and combed her hair hurriedly before grabbing her phone and bag, then left the house.

She saw their driver standing outside the house, waiting for her.

She got in the car and the car proceeded to the hospital.

When she reached the hospital, there were so many guards wearing black clothes and carrying guns.

She understood that Alpha Neil had set them up to protect Ethan.

Her eyes fell on Max, who looked like he was leaving.

'Did Ryan come to meet Ethan?' She thought and walked to Max.

Max noticed her and waved at her. He saw her eyes peeking behind him.

"Ryan is not here." He informed her.

"What?"

"You are looking for him, aren't you?"
"What? No!"
Max nodded his head. "Oh! my mistake then."
"By the way, where is he?" She mumbled.
Max heard her clearly. "He will come to the hospital later. I was here because I thought if anyone needed something, I could be their help."
Allison smiled at him and bid him goodbye. She hurriedly strode to the cabin where Ethan was shifted after the operation.
She saw Luna Ella and her mother outside the cabin. Linus was there, talking with them. Luna Ella was crying.
"What happened?" Allison asked them.
Linus looked at her and replied,
"Ethan is okay, but his body is weak right now. He will be healed soon. But his right hand is temporarily paralyzed."
"P-Paralyzed?"
"Yeah. But it's temporary. That means his hand will be okay, but it will take some time to recover.
I think his right arm was pressing against something. His two fingers have broken. I plustered his fingers and his whole hand."
Tears welled in Allison's eyes. She remembered that Ethan wrapped his arms around her. His right hand was pressing on her knees so that she did not get hurt.

He took the pain for her.

Luna Ella and her mother noticed her eyes. Allison whipped her tears away and looked at Linus.

"How long will it take for him to heal completely? "

"He is a powerful Alpha. It will heal soon. Maybe one and a half months."

Allison nodded at him and glanced at the door.

"Go and meet him. He was asking about you. I am going to the pack house with Luna Ella. I will send dinner for you two. We will return in a few hours. She hasn't eaten anything the whole day. She will get sick." Her mother told her about Luna Ella.

Luna Ella wiped her tears and said to Allison, "Take care of him."

They left, and Allison went inside the cabin.

She saw Wade sitting on a tool close to the bed. Ethan's eyes were closed.

Wade looked at her and asked,

"Are you okay?"

She nodded her head. "Yeah."

He looked stunned when he noticed she had no bandage on her hand or any wound in her forehead.

"Your wounds healed so fast."

"Y-Yeah. I don't even know how."

Wade stood up and signaled for her to use the tool.

"You can sit here. I am going outside."

She went to the tool when he left the cabin. She sat down and looked at Ethan.

"Are you okay?" She asked but she thought he was sleeping. However, he opened his eyes and turned his head toward her.

"I am fine. What about you? Are you okay?"

She stared at him. She was unable to believe that it was the same Ethan who had rejected her.

Because that Ethan only gave her pain, and this Ethan was only thinking about her.

She recalled his words.

'This is why I was afraid to make you my Luna.'

He was afraid of danger coming to her because of him, because of the position.

"I am good." She replied.

They did not talk to each other and stayed quiet for a while.

"I am happy that you came to see me." He broke the silence.

"Of course, I would come." She replied while looking out the window. Dark sky was visible from there.

"Allison"

The way he called her made her look at him.

"I thought I was going to die."

His words pierced her heart. She also thought that something bad would happen to him.

"But my fate gave me another chance to live my life. I am alive. I didn't die, and you are also fine. If something happened to you, I would have never forgiven myself for the rest of my life."

She stared at him, paying her whole attention to him. He lifted his hand slowly and shut his eyes as if he felt pain in his whole body.

She immediately grabbed his hand. He opened his eyes and looked at her.

"I know I gave you pain. I broke your heart. I rejected you foolishly. But now I want you back in my life. I asked you that time if I came back, if you would accept me again. I know that was not the situation to ask those things. But now I am asking you, will you give me another chance in your heart?

Allison, will you be my girlfriend?"

She bit her lower lip and thought she would never get a man like Ethan in her life again.

Her parents liked him, and she used to love him. He was a nice guy. A perfect son and a perfect Alpha for everyone.

Though she had moved on, she could give him a chance since he was the one who was in her heart all the time.

She closed her eyes and tightened her grip on Ethan's hand.

But she opened her eyes immediately when Ryan's face came to her mind.
She shook her head. 'No, I can't think about Ryan. We can't be a thing. All the things that happened between us were mistakes. We should not have come this close.'
Ethan thought she was rejecting him. He looked pale and loosened her grip to let go of her hand.
But she gripped it firmly and replied,
"Yes, I will give you a chance in my heart. I will be your girlfriend, Ethan."
A bright smile spread on Ethan's face. Allison saw his smile and nodded her head at him.
At that time, a deep voice interrupted their moments.
"What a perfect timing! We should celebrate this good news, big brother."
