

Chapter12

Jaxson

"Jax's Alpha Ron has called again. I do not know how long I can keep putting him off."

Wayne says as he walks over to my desk,

"Have you gotten all the information out of that Corey kid yet?"

Shaking his head, "No, He gave up some, but I know he is hiding more."

"What did the Alpha want? Same thing as last time?"

"Yes, he knows we have some of his members, but he cant prove it. He is being pushy. You are going to have to talk to him; it will buy us some more time, and then we can gure out what to do with that kid,"

Leaning back in my chair, I twist my pen in my ngers,

"I would instead turn him over to the council and let them deal with him. He has broken pack laws by inicting harm on fellow pack members, even though he said he was ordered to do so by the Alpha's son. No one is allowed to just hand out punishment, even though they are the Alpha children. It's still the Alpha's job to handle that,"

"I can make the call,"

Nodding my head, "Do that, let's see what they have to say. If the kid won't talk anymore, then so be it. The council can handle that,"

"And what about the Alpha?"

"I will call him; I won't let him know I have Rose here or Tanner. I will let the council contact him about Corey. Hopefully, they will open an investigation into them. Something is denitely off with that pack,"

"Speaking of Rose, how is she doing? I assume better, seeing as you came into your oce this morning,"

"She seems to be doing better. I gured she needed some space, seeing as I dropped the bomb on her about us being mates,"

"I still cant believe you did that,"

"I didnt mean to. It was my wolf. I mean, she didnt reject me right out, but we can feel her hesitation, and I do not blame her. I need to earn her trust rst,"

"True, when is she going to be released?"

"Not sure. Dr Mary is doing another scan of her leg today. She worries about it healing right, and Rose hasn't eaten much. She picks and takes a small amount of intake of food,"

There was a knock on the door,

"Come in,"

Harley poked her head in, "Um, sorry guys, but some men are at the gate. They are from Blackstone,"

Wayne looks at me, raising a brow,

"Should I tell them to let them in?" She asked as she looked between us,

"NO, I will come out, I dont want any of them on my land, I cant have them nding Rose or seeing Tanner,"

Getting up, I walk out with Wayne and Harley right behind me,

Reaching the gate, I saw it was ALpha Ron, the oldest boy. I remeber seeing him at the party,

"Gentleman, what can I do for you?" I ask, stopping in front of them and looking through the bars on the gate,

"Alpha Jaxson, We came here looking for three of our members we believe are here,"

Huh, He got balls or is really stupid,

"Well. Young man, Firstly, im not sure who has taught you how to speak to another Alpha and on his territory, but I can assure you that I do not have any of your pack members,"

He scoffed at my words,

"Then why are we not allowed to come in? Why have you met us out here?" He holds his arms out,

"I do not allow uninvited guests into my domain. I do not know you, and I will not endanger my pack by letting someone in that I have no idea who he is. Secondly, you have shown no respect. You are too young to know how to handle the proper channels for communication, so I was about to place a call with your father this afternoon. I have received all his messages, but I have been tied up with the pack business, which comes rst. So now you can relay the message to him. That is not any of your members here, but if I have to come across them, I will give him a call,"

He glares at me, taking a step forward,

"My brother told me what you did to him that night and how you asked questions about an omega named Rose. I have not told my father yet, seeing as I am Alpha now, but I will tell you this: If you do not hand her over and the other two, I will wage war on you and your pack, So it be best if you hand them off now!"

My wolf surged forward, hearing his words. Who does this pup think he is,

Stepping closer to the gate, "You listen here, pup, you are no match for me. You are nothing but a spoiled little boy playing pretend. You better think before you speak because if you threaten me with a war, you have no idea what you are doing, I will and I can smash you like the bug that you are, So you can take your threats and shove them up your ass, Now get off my land before I make you,"

I saw a hint of fear ash in his eyes before he took a step back, "Let's go," He told the others with him,

Climbing back in their car, they left,

"Hes going to be a problem," Wayne says as we watch the car disappear. Looking over at the guard,

"Follow them and make sure they leave,"

"Yes, Alpha," He and two others slip out the gate taking off,

"I need to call the council. I can claim that Rose claims sanctuary. It will hold off anything that it boy tries, and if he attacks, then they can take action against him and his father,"

"Yeah, but how will you explain how she got here? I mean, we did take her from his pack lands?"

"She was unconscious when we found her. I can say I brought her here not knwo if she was harmed but them, plus we have that kid yet, he already admitted to doing the punishment on her,"

"Alright, but they will want to hear straight from her that she is claiming sanctuary,"

"I know I will talk to her. Hopefully, it doesn't send her spiraling. She's so fragile right now,"

"Why dont you go talk with her? I will call the council. We need to make sure this all is in order, or they will take her back there,"

"Alright,"

I break off from them, heading to the clinic. Im not sure how im going to explain this. I do not want to scare her or think she must return. I told her I would never let anyone hurt her again,

Walking into the clinic, I head towards her room. As im making my way, I see people running into her room, dragging a cart with them,

Picking up my pace, I rush into the room.

Dr Mary was leaning over Rose's bed,

"What's going on?" I ask as I go to the other side of the bed,

Dr Mary looks up,

"She got an infection in her leg; She crashed three times already. I need you to step out, please, so we can work on her!"

"NO, Im not leaving her!"

Everyone inched in the room as my aura rolled off me,

"Alpha, Please, you are not doing any good in here; we need room to work, Please," She pleaded with me,

A nurse bumped into me as she was handing the doctor something,

"I won't leave. I will wait back there,"

I step back, letting the other nurses ll around the bed as they all work on her. Moving to the back of the room, I wait and watch.

My wolf whines in my head as we look at our mate ghting for her life again. Please, moon goddess, let her live,
