

Chapter36

***Jaxson***

"No. I never dated her or did anything with her. I barely know her, truthfully. I know she is a daughter to one of my top warriors, but she didn't want to follow in his footsteps, so she asked me if she could work in the pack house."

I had nothing to hide from Rose. I know how awkward it would be when I found my mate if she had to face the women I slept with or messed with, so that was a no-go for me and any pack members.

"She didnt have to follow the rank she was born into?" Rose asked.

I shook my head.

"No. If it is something they wish to do. No. I do not force them. Being a warrior isn't for everyone; It's hard. The training is intense. A lot of the females dont like it. I let them choose something they like. That way, they do their duties to the best of their abilities. If they hate the duty, they will slack off and half-ass it. I cant have that in my warriors."

She nodded her head as she took in what I had just said.

A ping of hurt in my chest made me suck in a breath. There is still a lot I have to learn about her. By the words she just spoke, I could easily read her emotions.

"Rose. I do not punish my pack like that. When i say she will get punish it will be either change her duties for a little. Or adding to them. I can also let her stay locked up for a few days. And seeing as her father is a warrior, I can send her for extra training with him."

Her face softens at my words.

"Rose, let me ask you. What would the punishment be back at ALpha Ron's pack for something like what she did?"

She seemed to think for just a second.

"Most likely whipping. That is the one thing ALpha Ron favored the most. I have seen him collar some members for a few days."

I frowned.

"He also has these holes dug out in the woods. He would put people in there for days on end. I think one person was in there for almost ten days."

Saragation. That was used a lot for torturing or heavy punishment.

"Do you know why that person was in there?"

"Um, I think it was caused by something with the Luna. It was a female. She was to do something, but the Luna didn't like it and ordered her there."

My gut turned at what I wanted to ask her next, but seeing as she was talking, I wanted to find out more about what had happened there.

"Rose. Have you ever been put in one of their holes?"

She chewed on the side of her cheek. Her head nodded just a bit, but I saw it.

"Do you mind telling me about it?"

She sat there, not saying anything. I could see what she was thinking. I didn't want to push.

"Alpha Ron got mad at me for spilling the food tray on Landon when I was serving them. So he put me in one for two days."

Anger filled me.

"Can we not talk about them?" she suddenly asked me, snapping me out of my thoughts of how I wanted to kill that bastard.

"Of course we can, Twinkles."

She rolled her eyes at the name.

There was a knock on the door. I didn't move or put Rose off my lap.

"Come in," I called out. Rose wiggled. She was trying to get off my lap, but I tightened my hold, not letting her go.

The door opened as one of my warriors walked in. It was that girl's father.

Ad

Ads-free >

"Alpha." He bowed his head as he stopped in front of us.

"Roger, what can I do for you?"

"I understand my daughter has caused a problem." His eyes moved from me to Rose. I growled at him, making him look back at me.

"Yes. She hit my mate and her Luna." I felt Rose's body tense when I called her Luna.

His eyes widened when he heard me. Glancing back at Rose but looking away again.

"Luna? Im sorry, Alpha." He bowed his head.

"I let her come work in the pack house 'cause she did not want to be a warrior. But if this is how she will continue to act, I will remove her from working here and place her elsewhere."

"I understand ALpha. I have no idea why she would do that. I know she likes working here. I will speak with her about her actions."

Nodding my head, I knew he was a good warrior. It was not his fault she acted like that.

"I appreciate you taking the time to come here. She will be given a punishment for what she did and be put on probation."

"Can I ask for her punishment to be training? Only cause I know how much she hates it,"

"I think that is a good punishment for her. I will put you in charge of it. I say a week of extra training other than the regular classes. Maybe have her do a few days with the trainees that just arrived."

"That would be good, ALpha, as I am taking them through the course tomorrow."

"Perfect. I will have Wayne let her out. She is to stay with you till her punishment is up."

"Thank you, Alpha." He looked at Rose, "Im sorry for my daughter Luna." He bowed, then spun around and left.

She looked at me.

"See, nothing too harsh, and her father is in charge of her till her time is up."

Not saying anything, she continued to look at me.

"Rose?"

She smiled at me. I loved seeing her smile, and I leaned forward to kiss my lips. But she pulled back quickly, her cheek turning a shade of pink.

"What was that for?"

She wouldn't look at me. I knew her shyness was getting the best of her right now.

"I dont know. After hearing you speak with her father and let him pick her punishment, You didnt pull rank and make him feel beneath you. You found a solution with him, not just what you wanted to give out."

She is so used to ranked wolves throwing their weight around she thought I would dish out the most brutal punishment I could think of and not take in his offer.

went around my neck.

"Come on, let's set this up so I can tell everyone you are mine."

3

Comments

217

Vote

Watch videos get points (0/15) >