

Chapter 46

Jaxson

I was pacing in my office. I wanted to shift and search for her, but my wolf was just as restless as I was. It was taking a lot to keep in control and not rip this territory apart until I found her. I needed to keep my head about me. I can't lose it now. She needs me to be level-headed.

I had called Harrison, but he wasn't in his office, so I left a message with the omega, telling him it was urgent and that I needed him to call ASAP.

I sent out my trackers. Tracking a witch's trail is a lot harder than tracking a rogue or vampire's. Witches are tricky and sneaky. But I was covering all bases if they found anything. I didn't care how small I wanted to know.

Wayne has been questioning all the staff. Harley was helping him.

There was a knock on my door.

"Enter." It sounded more like a growl.

"Alpha." Joey pops his head in.

"What do you have?" I asked as I stopped pacing.

"Not a lot. The trackers have picked up the witches scent in three different spot along the boarder. But then, on the far side of the border, one noticed a scent that was not from a witch. But it seems to be a wolf. And its strong, im guessing, an ALpha. But it fated out in about three steps, so I assume he used a scent cover or a spell. It holds an odd scent along with his."

A low rumble builds in the back of my throat.

"An Alpha?" I grit out.

"Yes, Alpha. Im sorry, I do not recognize the scent." Joey says as he drops his eyes.

"No need. I have a feeling who it is. And he will die when I find him."

My phone rings. I rush to answer it.

"Alpha Jaxson. Elder Luke here."

Hanging my head, I was hoping it was Harrison.

"Elder Luke."

"I wanted to let you know I will arrive later today,"

'st,' I breathe out. I forgot he was planning on coming here I just thought it be another day or two.

"Alpha Jaxson. Is there a problem?" He asked.

"Rose has been taken," I blurt out without thinking. I can't avoid it; he will learn of it once he gets here.

"When?"

"A few hours ago. I have trackers out, and I have some information. I was about to plan out my next move."

"Wait for me; I will be there as soon as possible. Emily is with me as well. She is a top tracker, and she can join them in searching. But answer one thing: Do you suspect a certain someone?"

"Yes," I growl. "And when I get my hands on him."

"Wait for me, Alpha. Do not do anything till I am there."

I didn't say anything.

"Alpha?"

"Yeah, I hear you."

The call cuts out.

"Joey, Elder Luke, and Elder Emily will be here shortly. Please greet them and bring them to the office when they arrive."

"Yes, Alpha." He turns, walking out.

Just as the door closes, I get a mind link.

"Alpha, an Alpha Harrison is at the gate, wanting to see you."

"Let him in."

Denise

The pack was in an uproar as trackers were heading out.

"Dad. What's going on?" I asked as soon as I saw him.

"Luna Rose has been taken. Trackers are being sent out, and all warriors are on standby for further instructions."

A small part of me wanted to do a dance hearing she was gone. But I can't show it.

"How? It's not like anyone can walk in here."

He shook his head.

"I do not have the full story. All I know is she was in the pack house. And patrols have picked up a Witches scent."

Hmm. I wonder if his aunt had something to do with this. She seemed rather pissed at the party. She didn't look like someone who would not worry about stupid things as to work with witches.

"Do you think that lady from the party had something to do with this?" I figured it couldn't hurt putting it there.

He looked at me for a minute. "That's not a bad thought. I know there is a lot of bad blood between them. But I'm not sure if she will go that far. But it is something to look at."

I smiled to myself.

"So what happens if they find her? Are we attacking?"

"It looks like it. Alpha will not sit back and not punish those who took his mate. I need to find Beta Wayne."

He started towards the pack house.

"Wait, Dad, I will go with you. See if there is something I can help with."

"Alright, come on then. After all, it was you who thought of that woman."

I couldn't care less. But this will give me a chance to see him.

As we approached the house, Jaxson ran out the front door and moved down the driveway. You could feel the anger flowing from him. I wanted to run after him.

Beta Wayne and his mate came out after him.

"Beta Wayne." My father called out. Making him look over at us.

"Roger, you have something?" He asked my dad.

My eyes moved to see Jaxson, but he was gone.

"I know you guys are looking at all sides. But what about his Anut? I know they have had a rocky relationship. But I wasn't sure if she would go this far?"

"That's not a bad thought, Roger. Seeing as she did show up here." The Beta says as he looks at his mate. She is staring at me. Her eyes squinted as she watched me. She must have seen me watching Jaxson run down the driveway.

"It wouldn't hurt to look into where she is." He says, rubbing the back of his neck.

"Thank you, Roger. With everything going on, I didn't even think about her."

"I know there are trackers out, but can I do something to help? You guys have your hands full."

"I'm not sure what more we can do right now. Alpha is meeting with Alpha Harrison right now, And we have two Elders on their way as we speak. Why don't you make another sweep around the border? See if there is anything that got missed. Any leads right now with help."

"I can do that. I'll take Denise with me."

The Beat just nodded. We heard voices. Looking over, I saw Jaxson walking with another man. This must be Alpha Harrison, the Beta was talking about. He was cute. But he was no match next to Jaxson.

"Wayne. Alpha Ron is MIA. They said he left out a few days ago but has not returned." Jaxson says as he approaches us.

He stopped when he saw us standing there.

"Is there more information?" He asked as he looked at Dad.

"No. Roger just wanted to remind us about Helen. He thought she may have something to do with it after he displays at the party."

Jaxson nodded as he listened.

"I do not want to rule her out. But my money is missing on a certain Alpha."

I need to think of something. With her gone, this is my chance. I sucked in a sharp breath when Jaxson turned his head towards the man standing next to him.

fg hell, right there on his neck was a mark. He let her mark him. How could he?

Rage filled me, but I had to hold it in. I cant lose it in front of them, and that dam Betas mate is watching me like a hawk.

An idea popped into my head.

I need to find this woman. Maybe we can help each other out,

I must ensure that little girl does not return to this dam pack. It is going to be more complicated with him being marked. The only way I can see breaking that bond is by killing her.
