

ONE-CLICK TRAINING SYSTEM INSTANTLY MILLIONS

Chapter 1: One-click training system!

"Ahem! Ouch!"

In a bedroom, Su Lang lying on the bed suddenly bowed and coughed out a large mouthful of blood.

"Ah, it hurts...Where is this?"

"After assassinating the target, didn't I jump off the building? Didn't I fall to death?"

Su Lang opened his eyes painfully and blankly, and immediately countless memory fragments appeared, and there was a sharp pain in his head!

"Red Maple City stronghold?"

"The owner of this body is also called Su Lang!?"

"Here is also Blue Star? But... the barrier? Martial artist? Fierce beast?"

Looking at the memory in his mind, Su Lang gradually widened his eyes, and a stormy sea rose in his heart.

After a while, Su Lang understood his situation-he passed!

Here is also the Blue Star, but it is the Blue Star two thousand years later, everything is very different.

Two thousand years ago, the spiritual energy was revived, the natural disasters came to the world, and the lives were destroyed.

In desperation, human beings have embarked on the way of warriors through ancient Chinese books and developed a brilliant warrior civilization.

However, thousands of years ago, cracks in time and space emerged, and endless beasts invaded Blue Star.

Human beings are retreating steadily, building towering barriers, forming bases, and continue to resist the invasion of beasts.

The place where Su Lang was at this time was called the Red Maple City Stronghold, a weak human base.

And Su Lang's predecessor was born pretty well, a family of three, and his parents are both formal warriors.

The level of martial artist is divided into realms such as body tempering, martial artist, martial master, military commander, military commander, and martial king.

The official warrior is already a figure with a face, with some small privileges, and is respected by most people.

It stands to reason that Su Lang's predecessor had a pair of martial artist parents, so he has a bright future.

However, what is desperate is that his physique is a muddy body that cannot practice martial arts, and the **** is unparalleled in the world.

His parents spent all his wealth, even borrowing from the west, trying to make him a martial artist, but in the end they couldn't even enter the body.

But this is not the worst.

The worst is that not long ago, the parents of the predecessor were hunting outside the city and died!

Without the protection of his parents, Su Lang's predecessor instantly became lonely and unaccompanied.

In a short period of time, he deeply realized the meaning of the phrase 'Life has been suffering since ancient times, and the world's cold and warm are self-knowledge'.

But just yesterday, his predecessor was severely injured by two bullies, died, and ended a sad life.

"Lie noisy, I'm so miserable!"

Su Lang sucked in a cold breath and was dumbfounded, "Then how many meanings do I have when I crossed over? How about being thrown to death!"

If you can't become a warrior, you will be the bottom of the bottom for the rest of your life. He is bullied and humiliated every day, and he doesn't even have a chance to take revenge. It's better to die!

"Boom boom boom!!"

"Little waste, open the door to Lao Tzu!"

A violent knock on the door was accompanied by an unscrupulous clamor.

Hearing the rampant shouts outside, Su Lang took a breath, and a lot of pictures suddenly appeared in his mind.

Being condescendingly abused waste, garbage, and even abused parents who have just passed away!

Being randomly piled up in front of the door with garbage, urinating and defecate, making the door stinking!

Blocked in the stairwell for blackmail, if you don't give it, you just pull your hair and slap!

...

All these kinds of insults come from one person, that is, Chu Gang, who lives alone on the opposite side!

When his parents were there, Chu Gang called Su Langsu Master.

When his parents had no news, Chu Gang called Su Lang the stinky kid.

When his parents confirmed their death, Chu Gang called Su Lang a small waste.

As time went on, Chu Gang began to insult Su Lang, and became more and more serious.

No, I'm here again! !

"Malgobi's, the predecessor is too **** awkward, right? I have been bullied to this point, and I don't want to do it with a knife!?"

Su Lang gritted his teeth with hatred, his veins exposed.

He is a person who does not hold grudges, because once he has a grudge, he will avenge it immediately!

It is absolutely impossible to endure as humiliating as the predecessor!

"Where's the knife? Where's my knife? Fight with him!"

Su Lang found a black Tang knife on the wall, and when he held it with his hand, he was about to get out of bed and grab the knife.

But at this moment, a sharp pain suddenly hit his whole body, causing his strength to be instantly taken away.

"Lying down, it hurts! I hurt... the bully of the whole family!!"

Su Lang's face was pale and he was holding his chest, his eyes were blood red, and he was angry.

"Boom boom boom!"

The knock on the door turned into a kick. If it weren't for the stronger wood in the Reiki era, this door would have been broken by Chu Gang.

"The door won't last long, what should I do?"

Su Lang clenched his fists angrily, "Sit and wait to die? No!"

Suddenly, a voice rang out of thin air in his mind.

"Ding! The one-key training system has been bound and is being activated!"

"1%...12%...56%..."
