

Chu Gang didn't know why Su Lang suddenly became stronger.

But he knew that Su Lang was a muddy body and it was absolutely impossible for him to follow the martial arts.

If you don't enter the way of a warrior, you will always be an ordinary person, no matter how strong it is, you can't fight with the hunting group of the broken axe that has the warrior.

Therefore, he had no fear and was certain that Su Lang would be frightened.

"Broken Axe Hunting Group?"

Su Lang's eyes were cold, his toes twisted fiercely, and Chu Gang immediately screamed, his cheeks twisted.

The Broken Axe Hunting Group is a notorious gang nearby that does everything for * and looting.

Su Lang clearly remembered that the two bullies who had beaten him badly had tattoos on their earlobes!

"Okay, Broken Axe Hunting Group!"

The hatred of humiliation and murder, the two hatreds added together, and the hatred in Su Lang's heart was surging, and he used his feet again.

"Ah! Su Lang, didn't you hear, let me go!"

Seeing Su Lang's changes intensified, Chu Gang suddenly felt a little guilty, "Quickly let go of me, we will settle our grievances!"

"It's not that simple to clear up grievances."

Su Lang sneered, with murderous intent in his eyes, "Counting the care of you by my parents in the past, and your insults to me afterwards, you have to spend your life to clear up this grudge!"

"No! Su Lang, I was wrong!"

After all, Chu Gang was a * and fearful of hard trash. Seeing Su Lang's intention to kill, he suddenly felt horrified and bowed his head begging for mercy.

"Humph!"

Su Lang suddenly stretched out his hand and grabbed it, and fetched a black Tang knife from the side wall.

"Don't kill me, I know I was wrong, I apologize!"

When Chu Gang saw Su Lang move the knife, he was instantly terrified, "You know that you can't kill people in the city. This is the iron law. You will die if you kill me!"

"The iron law is for the weak to obey. This is a consensus!"

Su Lang smiled coldly and slowly pulled out the sharp blade.

"Shao Shao, please go around me! I...I don't want to die!"

The panic in Chu Gang's heart gradually turned into despair, and tears and nose flowed down instantly.

"It's not impossible to spare your life."

Su Lang put a cold blade on Chu Gang's neck and cut out a trace of blood, "tell everything about the Broken Axe Hunting Group, background, location, number of members, and strength."

"I said! Don't do it!"

With a long knife at the point, Chu Gang was cold and his hair was about to stand up.

"I just joined the Broken Axe Hunting Group. I don't know the background of the gang!"

"I only know that the gang leader is an official martial artist, and the two deputy gang leaders are quasi-martialists, very strong!"

"The rest of the members range from the elementary body tempering to the peak tempering body, and there are a large number of ordinary people like me."

"The nest of the Broken Axe Hunting Group is in the Golden Fruit Building. I have only entered the outer Golden Fruit Bar. I don't know the core location!"

"I also know that there is a hunting base of the Broken Axe Hunting Group outside the city, in the F-class Wind Wolf area."

"That's it, I said everything, don't kill me!"

Chu Gang finished speaking in one breath, shaking all over with fright, tears flowing.

"There are two members of the Broken Axe Hunting Group..."

Su Lang explained the appearance characteristics of the two bullies and asked, "Do you know?"

"Yes, I know!"

Chu Gang nodded in horror, "One is Dou Zhong, and the other is Cai Feng! They are both in the tempering stage and have been in strongholds outside the city for a long time.

They came back yesterday, and I happened to have a drink with them all night at the Golden Fruit Bar.

But I don't know why, they left early this morning and brought a wave of people away. I was low-level and couldn't participate, so I came back. "

"well!"

Su Lang nodded, and with a sigh, Tang Dao was sheathed.

Chu Gang heaved a sigh of relief when he saw this, his whole body was sweaty, like a stray dog just picked up from the water.

But at this moment, Su Lang smiled and moved the foot on Chu Gang's head to his other intact arm.

"Su Lang! What are you going to do!?"

Chu Gang's pupils shrank suddenly and his voice was terrified, "No! Don't!"

Su Lang turned a deaf ear to Chu Gang's begging for mercy and smashed it down.

"Crack!"

"Ahhhhh!"

Chu Gang let out a scream like a pig, tears and nose running down his face.

"It's not over yet!"

Su Lang smiled faintly, and moved his foot to Chu Gang's thigh again, "Yes, all limbs will be broken!"

"Please, Master Su!"

"Don't--!"

"what!!"
