

One Click 801

Chapter 801: Seven immortal level exercises

Sweep away at a glance, a total of seventy-nine books.

Originally, Su Lang had sixty-two immortal-level exercises, and he even took them out for the newly-reliant Tuantianlou and Wuwei immortal martial artists.

After collecting all the possessions of everyone, there are of course many exercises.

Obtained five immortal-level exercises from Li Feilou, two immortal-level exercises from Xiao Lutian, and one emperor-level exercise.

From those dozens of martial immortals, he obtained ten immortal level exercises.

Although the number of Wuxian is as many as dozens, they can be divided into two camps, and many of the exercises that everyone practiced overlap.

Immortal-level exercises are precious, and it's pretty good to get ten books from them.

However, there are so many holy-level exercises, a total of 636!

Needless to say, god-level exercises, at this level, there are no more eggs.

What made Su Lang most happy was that all of these new exercises were unsuccessful, and could be used to synthesize more advanced exercises.

The first is the seventeen non-synthetic immortal level exercises.

Take ten of them and you can synthesize an emperor-level exercise!

"First, synthesize the holy level technique."

Su Lang murmured, then used those holy-level exercises to synthesize 64 new immortal-level exercises.

The reason why it was sixty-four instead of sixty-three was because Su Lang used the four holy level exercises he had obtained before to make up the number.

So far, the total number of Immortal-level exercises Su Lang possessed has reached 143!

This number has already surpassed 99.99% of the forces in Canglan Continent!

I am afraid that only Wudi Palace, a force that has survived in the river of time, has such a rich accumulation.

But maybe not as good as Su Lang!

After synthesizing 143 immortal level exercises, Su Lang did not immediately start synthesizing emperor level exercises.

Instead, I chose "Burning Soul and Solitary Lamp Jue", "Ten Thousand Qi Immortal Code", "Tianchu Wuque Immortal Code", "Birth and Birth Immortal Jue", "Bing Yuxian Yuan Zhen Lu", "Futian Immortal Jue" and " "Wish the fairy secret" seven exercises to practice.

These seven exercises basically have corresponding rules.

The first "Burning Soul and Solitary Lamp Jue" corresponds to the spiritual rules. Although this rule has been understood, Su Lang chose this exercise for a reason.

Because this exercise involves the soul source, it can increase the soul source.

Spiritual power exercises are extremely rare. Even if Su Lang has hundreds of immortal-level exercises, thousands of holy-level exercises, and countless god-level exercises, he has never seen a second one. !

Therefore, Su Lang was the first one to choose this exercise.

However, using this technique to increase the soul's origin requires an extremely painful process, that is, 'burning soul'!

Burning soul refers to burning spiritual power, calcining the essence of the soul, integrating into the soul's origin, and increasing it.

Using the Burning Soul once, the spiritual power level will directly drop to a large realm, but the soul origin will increase a lot.

For the remaining warriors, it takes a long time to consider, and then with great courage, to make the decision to burn the soul.

Because it is too difficult for them to cultivate spiritual power.

Even Xiao Luntian, the host of the Lantian Tower, the astounding quasi emperor, has only experienced soul burning once.

After burning the soul, his soul origin was enhanced, but his spiritual power level dropped to Huiyue, and it took a long time to return to the realm of Xiri.

To experience the second soul burning, I don't know how long it will take to accumulate enough spiritual power.

But Su Lang is different.

His current cultivation speed is 286.4 billion times the basic cultivation speed of a genius with no lack of qualifications.

The cultivation of spiritual power also follows this rate.

Even though spiritual power cultivation is much harder and slower than cultivation at the realm of cultivation, Su Lang's spiritual power has also grown extremely fast with the addition of nearly 300 billion times the cultivation speed.

It took less than an hour from the one-key training function to level 31.

But in the mysterious black space, the halo behind the cultivator's head, which represents the spiritual power cultivation base, has already turned nearly one-tenth into gold.

In other words, in about ten hours, Su Lang would be able to accumulate the spiritual cultivation base of Xiri level breakthrough to a higher level.

In a day's time, Su Lang can accumulate enough spiritual power for two breakthroughs!

If you use Burning Soul to amplify the soul source, you can use it twice!

Although I don't know what benefits the increase in soul origin can bring, there is no doubt that the benefits do exist, and they are absolutely amazing!

Chapter 802: Really look forward to it!

"This soul-burning solitary lamp art will definitely give me a surprise."

With a faint smile on Su Lang's face, he immediately looked at the other exercises.

The second book "The Immortal Code of Ten Thousand Qis" corresponds to the "Rules of Qi"!

Between heaven and earth, Qi is everywhere. It is one of the basic structures of the world. It is very important and must exist!

And to go to the 'rules of qi' also involves various energies between heaven and earth, aura is one of them.

The third book, "The Immortal Code of Immortality at the Beginning", this exercise has no corresponding rules to comprehend.

But this is the immortal level technique obtained from Li Feilou, and it is the foundation of the Wuwei immortal clan's life.

The qualifications of a warrior are destined by the sky, but the day after tomorrow can be supplemented and perfected.

For example, in Dongfang City, King Jing Qianyi used living humans as raw materials to refine pills to improve the qualifications of other warriors.

The Immortal Code of Immortality in the Beginning of the Beginning is a method to improve your qualifications.

Moreover, this exercise is not Jing Qianyi's evil way, but an upright cultivation method, which can make up for one's own aptitude. There are only benefits, no harm!

Why is Wuquexian clan called "Wuqi"?

It's because in their clan, all high-level martial artists have made up for their aptitudes to the level of 'wholesome'.

The qualifications of low-level warriors will one day be promoted to the infinite level.

The reason why Su Lang chose this exercise was to try whether he could change his 'turbid body' aptitude.

Since activating various system abilities, the whole person is almost perfect, but the problem of lack of qualifications has never been solved.

Although this 'turbid body' aptitude has no effect, it looks an eye-catcher.

Su Lang was also afraid that he would be promoted to a higher level in the future. This 'turbid body' aptitude had become a life-span, a weakness, and it would have caused irreparable losses.

"Don't let me down, Wuque Immortal Clan's famous immortal level practice!"

Su Lang took a deep breath and looked at the next exercise "Life is Immortal".

This exercise corresponds to the 'Rule of Life', which was synthesized by Su Lang's luck.

The 'rule of life' is the opposite of the 'rule of death', and this alone shows its extraordinariness.

Of course, its various wonders can only be known after comprehension.

In addition to the "Birth and Unbreakable Immortal Jue" exercise method, the fifth and sixth books are "Futian Immortal Jue" and "Wish of Immortal Secret", which are also made with good luck.

"Futianxian Jue" corresponds to the 'radiation rule'.

Radiation, like 'light', 'qi', etc., is also an indispensable part of the world. It is ubiquitous, strange and mysterious.

"The Immortal Secret of Wish" is a more mysterious technique. It corresponds to the 'rules of wishing power' and is related to the incense of beings.

Su Lang instinctively felt that this exercise was very important, so he picked it out and practiced it.

The seventh exercise is the "Ice Jade Immortal Yuan Zhenlu", which is Chu Xiaobei's fairy-level exercise. The corresponding rule is the ice system, and Su Lang has understood it.

The reason for practicing this exercise is that Su Lang intends to teach it to Chu Xiaobei with the 'initiation of exercises'.

Although this exercise is not the strongest fairy formula Su Lang possesses, it is one of the most suitable exercises for Chu Xiaobei.

Even if there are more and better exercises that can be taught to Chu Xiaobei in the future, this exercise can also play a very good transitional role.

After turning over all the seven exercises, Su Lang placed it on the Wushu villain to start automatic training.

Although the speed of one-key martial arts is a hundred times slower than one-key training, it is also 2.864 billion times!

Therefore, the practice speed is surprisingly fast.

Su Lang predicted that these seven exercises can be practiced to the founding level in two days at most!

"Seven immortal level techniques...I really look forward to it!"

Su Lang chuckled, "Next, it's time to synthesize the emperor level exercises!"

Chapter 803: Emperor Phase Without Beginning Sutra

Looking at the seventeen non-synthetic fairy-level exercises in front of him.

Su Lang naturally allocated four of them and put them aside.

"The four unsuccessful methods that have already begun to be practiced can be put aside to avoid repetitive exercise characteristics after synthesis."

"Of course, these four immortal-level exercises will still have to be synthesized into the emperor-level exercises, but they will be used first, and the rest of the immortal-level exercises will be used first for synthesis."

While thinking about it, Su Lang brought the rest of the immortal-level exercises in front of him, and selected ten exercises with attributes that were relatively close in the general direction.

"System, synthesize these ten exercises into emperor-level exercises!"

Su Lang's eyes lit up slightly, and he gave instructions to the system.

next moment.

"Ding! After the synthesis is completed, you will obtain the Emperor Level Cultivation Technique "Emperor Phase Without Beginning Sutra"!"

A bright golden light suddenly appeared in front of Su Lang.

This ray of light is like a golden thunderball, the silk threads are messy and intertwined, but it also contains mysterious meaning.

Immediately after.

The golden thread on the light ball gradually shrank, and the whole light ball slowly turned into a human-shaped phantom.

This human figure is only three inches tall, has a slender figure, long hair on his back, and his face is blurred, and he can't see men and women.

There are golden silk threads with special laws inside the body of the humanoid phantom.

If you look closely, you can find that these densely packed golden threads are actually composed of tiny mysterious words.

Although the villain's phantom is only three inches tall, there are countless golden threads inside, and there are even more mysterious texts, which are calculated in units of 100 million.

Even with Su Lang's mental power, he couldn't distinguish them all in a short time.

"Is this the original text of "The Emperor's Phase Without Beginning Sutra"? It is as special and mysterious as "The Reincarnation of Emperor Heart"."

"In this world, I am afraid that the emperor-level techniques are originally so strange."

Su Lang smiled faintly, and then carefully checked this exercise.

Like "The Reincarnation of the Emperor's Heart", Su Lang didn't see it real, and he was dizzy and dizzy without even looking at it, his chest was tight and his brain was up, and he had to look away.

However, Su Lang had a superficial understanding of this technique anyway.

"Emperor Phase Without Beginning Sutra" is an emperor-level body-building exercise method, but also a exercise method of the 'Great Way of Power'.

As we all know, in order for Wuxian to become Emperor Wu, he must understand the Supreme Way, that is, various types of avenues.

This kind of avenue is different from the heaven and earth avenue formed by the 3,600 rule, it is a avenue that belongs exclusively to Emperor Wu.

The most common avenues are the gold, wood, water, fire and earth in the "Five Elements Avenue", and even the "Avenue of Strength" and so on.

These avenues are the easiest rules and avenues to form.

Practicing the "Di Xiang Wu Shi Jing" to the extreme, we can condense the rules of 'power', form the 'road of power', and formally step into the realm of Emperor Wu.

Although the 'Road of Power' is the most common avenue, it is not weak. On the contrary, many outstanding Wu emperors in history are the 'Road of Strength'.

This is because when 'power' reaches a certain level, it can break through ten thousand laws and open up the world. It is one of the purest powers.

Exercising "Emperor Phase Without Beginning Sutra" can not only condense the 'Great Way of Power', but also condense the 'Heaven, Earth and Law'.

Once the law of heaven and earth is displayed, the performer will turn into a giant in the sky, like the Pangu who opened up the world, capturing the moon with his left hand and the sun with his right.

"Is this a kind of body-building exercise for close combat?"

"Well, although it is not a special type, I happen to lack a high-level exercise technique for bodybuilding."

Su Lang showed a smile, and then stuffed the "Emperor Without Beginning Sutra" in his hand into the storage space and put it together with the golden disc of "Emperor Heart Reincarnation".

Immediately after.

He took out another classic book made of rare materials.

This classic is tall, big and thick, just like a door panel.

The paper inside is made of special materials, as thin as a cicada's wings, and written on it the size of an ellipsis.

This book is called "Burning Heaven Emperor Jing", which is an emperor level exercise technique obtained from Xiao Lutian.

It originally belonged to the Emperor Burning Clan and is currently one of the 37 emperor scriptures known in Canglan Continent.

Chapter 804: The scabbard cannot hold the sword

"Unfortunately, this classic is not the original emperor-level exercise method. Although the content of the book is refined with special materials, it is much worse than the original."

"I don't know what the peculiar appearance of the Burning Heaven Emperor Scripture was originally."

With a trace of reverie, Su Lang also stuffed the Burning Heaven Emperor Sutra into the storage space and put it together with the two synthesized emperor-level exercises.

At this point, he already has three emperor level exercises!

I don't know if this let the emperors know, will they bite their tongues out of horror.

After putting away the emperor level exercises.

Su Lang did not take in those immortal-level exercises, but with a thought, called some clones.

He distributed all the immortal-level exercises, and asked the clones to copy and paste, and burn the copies of the exercises, so as to reward those little brothers who have given their souls.

At this time, the clones have the intelligence of ordinary people, and they are also reliable in doing things. They are fully capable of recording exercises.

After doing all this, Su Lang turned his attention to the bonus function that one-click martial arts was upgraded to level 30-'the source of the technique'!

"Do you want to deduce the move?"

"But I just placed the immortal level exercise method, two days later, the exercise method of ten thousand methods will be updated..."

"But I really want to deduct it!"

"..."

Su Lang's expression fluctuated, and he fell into entanglement.

suddenly!

"the host!"

"What are you doing, are you thinking of spring?"

The voice of You Tian Jian Ling Xiaoyou came from the side.

"Fuck off!"

Su Lang was full of black lines, he even forgot to put these words into the storage space.

Bothered by Xiaoyou.

Su Lang didn't want to deduce the move anymore, so he just tolerated it a bit, and then deduce the move two days later.

"the host?"

"Is the master really thinking about spring?"

"Master, would you like Xiaoyou to help you? Although Xiaoyou can't be used, you can ask the owner to listen to it. Xiaoyou's voice is very good!"

Su Lang's mouth twitched when Xiaoyou continued to scream.

It stands to reason that I didn't teach it so many sorrows, so how come it can be taught without a teacher?

And at this moment.

Su Lang suddenly flashed his inspiration, and took out a scabbard from the storage space.

This scabbard is exactly the scabbard of Slaughter Heaven!

"???"

The scabbard spirit gourd baby emerged from the beads and looked at Su Lang confusedly, wondering why he took out himself.

At this time, it saw Su Lang picking up a fairy sword, and said: "Don't you like to talk poems? I'll find a companion for you, and you two will sing a cross talk!"

"What?"

Qi Ling Gourd Baby widened her eyes and said in her heart that she was looking for a sword to insert me! ?

At this time.

Su Lang picked up the Youtian Sword and inserted it toward the opening of the Slaughter Sky Sword Sheath.

"Wait a minute, Lord Su!"

The gourd baby yelled in a hurry, "I didn't use it to carry a sword!"

"what?"

Su Lang moved for a while with a strange expression, "You are obviously a scabbard, why don't you use it to hold a sword?"

"That's it!"

"Your scabbard is born to be inserted into others."

The two eyes on the Youtian Sword rolled steadily, and another poem came out.

"Shut up!"

The corner of Su Lang's eyes twitched, and he slapped Youtian Sword fiercely, "If you talk nonsense, I will pick your eyes."

Xiaoyou immediately said loudly: "Ah, no, you can't pick it there, no, master!"

"..."

Su Lang rolled his eyes and was speechless.

This little you, no matter what you say, it can answer a super dirty line...

Sighed.

Su Lang simply put the Youtian Sword in the storage space first.

He beckoned, and the gourd baby spirit suddenly flew over.

"You said you are a scabbard, why can't you carry a sword?" Su Lang asked curiously.

Slaughter Sky Sword Sheath Spirit Cautiously said: "Master Su, among the exercises you got from Xiao Slantian, is there a book called "Sword Without Sword""

"Well, there is such a fairy-level technique."

Su Lang nodded, "Could it be that you have something to do with this exercise?"

Chapter 805: The secrets of Burning Heaven Emperor Sutra

"Yes."

"Not only this exercise method, but also the emperor-level exercise method "Burning Heaven Emperor Jing"."

The Gourd Baby Artifact said, "The predecessor of the Burning Heaven Emperor Scripture is actually an emperor-level refining classic, and it is a kind of sword refining.

At that time, the first generation of Burning Heaven had no emperor-level exercises to break through the realm of Emperor Wu, so he adapted this refining classics and forcibly transformed it into an emperor-level exercise, successfully breaking through to the realm of Emperor Wu. "

"puff!"

"So miserable?"

"If you don't have any practice, you can only adapt the classics of refiners?"

Su Lang was surprised, "What kind of pain is that, alas, I can't understand it anymore."

Of course he can't realize it.

Now that he has three emperor-level exercises before his cultivation level reaches the immortal level, how can he feel the helplessness and pain of others lacking exercises?

"Ah, you keep talking."

After a moment of emotion, Su Lang nodded at the Spirit Slaughter Sword Sheath.

"Uh, all right."

"Because of the initial accomplishment of the exercises, there are many flaws, and the first generation of Emperor Burning will soon fall."

"After that, Emperor Fen Clan continued to improve this emperor-level exercise method from generation to generation, and finally made it completely reborn and became a brand-new emperor-level exercise method."

"However, this exercise still has the characteristics of a refining tool. Cultivating it is like training yourself as a sword, burning yourself all the time, and this is also the origin of its name."

"Cultivating this technique, the cultivator will use himself as a sword to exercise, and when he reaches the level of the martial arts, he will have a magical sword heart."

"In this situation, it's like refining oneself into an immortal weapon and giving birth to an artifact spirit. The sword heart is an artifact spirit."

"With Jianxin, practitioners of the Burning Heaven Emperor Sutra can no longer hold a sword, because they are a sword in themselves, Jianxin will reject all other sword-like treasures."

"At this time, they will practice the Swordless Immortal Sutra, travel farther and farther on the "Sword One Way", and eventually become sword men."

Hearing this, the corner of Su Lang's mouth twitched: "Swordman? Slut? It's beautiful enough to cultivate yourself into a **** abruptly!"

"Ahaha, it's really easy to make a mistake."

Slaughter Sky's scabbard struck haha, concealing his embarrassment, and said, "Emperor Burning clan people eventually become swords, so they will refine their scabbards."

And I, the strongest scabbard of Emperor Fen Clan, reached the rank of Quasi-Emperor! "

Su Lang was a little stunned: "Uh, Emperor Fen Clan has also been out of Emperor Wu, right? You are the most powerful quasi-imperial weapon, even the emperor?"

"..."

The Slaughter Sky Sword and the scabbard said bitterly, "Of course Lord Su looks down on me as a quasi-imperial soldier, but in fact, I am not bad."

"Well, I am asking too much, you are already very good."

Su Lang smiled helplessly, "Then, let's talk about why you can't put the sword in your mouth, and you have any strange abilities."

"The reason why I can't insert... insert me is because only the Emperor Burning Clan with Jianxin can put their body in me for nurturing."

"If it is the other weapons, it will be hurt instead."

Qi Ling Gourd Baby's face crumpled into a ball, "I'm too special. I only work with warriors who have practiced the Fen Tian Emperor Jing and Wu Jian Xian Jing."

"What?"

Su Lang looked stunned, "After talking for a long time, are you useless to me?"

"No no no!"

Slaughter Sky Sword Sheath Spirit shook his head quickly and explained, "Although I can't hold a sword, I can hold sword energy.

I can nurture warriors with sword hearts, and when they are out of the sheath, I can show stronger combat power.

The same is true for cultivating sword qi, as long as I put sword qi into my scabbard body, it will gradually become stronger. "

At this point, the Slaughter Sky Sword Scabbard suddenly moved, and a small white illusory sword appeared on the scabbard body.

The white illusory little sword exudes a very terrifying aura, so that the entire fairy palace seems to tremble.

Su Lang's expression moved, and said: "This is... the sword spirit that is infinitely close to Emperor Wu's blow!"

Chapter 806: The arrival of Hyoshui Ningyuan

"Yes!"

"I can nurture the sword energy that is infinitely close to the attack of Emperor Wu."

"And not just one, I can nurture thousands of sword auras at once."

The weapon spirit of Slaughter Sky Sword Sheath said, "Besides, I can also fight. Without the Emperor Burning Clan controlling me, my combat power is equivalent to a Nine Tribulations Martial Immortal."

"That's not bad."

Su Lang nodded, thinking that if this scabbard was promoted to an emperor soldier, wouldn't it be able to nurture an emperor sword energy?

And it can nurture thousands of sword auras. If it is in a war, it can be taken out as a peculiar 'automatic rifle', fired frantically and covered with firepower!

This is a weapon for group warfare!

It's a pity that it takes a lot of time to grow a powerful sword qi, which is not as good as the JXian Cannon. As long as the energy is sufficient, the cannon can be fired at any time.

The biggest function of this scabbard is to nurture the 'sword man'.

But Su Lang did not want to be a 'sword man'.

First of all, once you become a swordsman, you will reject other sword weapons.

Su Lang could not bear the Youtian Sword.

Although Youtian Sword is currently only a primary fairy weapon, but its essence is really too powerful.

As long as the defense is only a trace, it will be killed by it!

Moreover, it itself is tough to death, even better than the defensive immortal level of the same level.

Once its level is raised, it is a super killer, simple and crude, without fancy, and no disadvantages!

In addition, the Burning Heaven Emperor Scripture was adapted from the refining classics. Although it was claimed to be complete, no one knew whether there were any defects, and Su Lang did not dare to take any risks.

Finally, how ugly is the "Swordman"!

"Since you can't carry a sword, I won't force you."

Su Lang curled his lips, then put the Slaughter Sky Sword Sheath into the storage space.

After this episode, Su Lang put the "Burning Heaven Emperor Sutra" originally intended for cultivation into the cold palace, extinguishing the idea of cultivation.

Immediately after.

Su Lang took out a lot of materials and continued to refine the parts of the super humanoid weapon.

After obtaining all the wealth of two quasi emperors and dozens of martial immortals and thousands of quasi immortal great sages, Su Lang's materials are currently inexhaustible.

Therefore, he changed the super humanoid weapon composed of more than 10,000 parts to 120,000 parts!

This also means that Su Lang is about to refine 120,000 immortal artifacts!

A fairy artifact was already a goal pursued by junior and intermediate martial arts, but in Su Lang's plan, it was just a small part.

This will be an extremely vast project, but it can be expected that when it is completed, the results will be terrifying!

In a blink of an eye.

Su Lang refined more than a dozen immortal parts.

And at this moment, a group of people came outside the fairy palace, a large group of people!

At a glance, there are densely packed warriors overwhelming the sky, and the whole world is covered in black, with more than 100,000 people!

They all knelt on the ground, headed by two quasi immortals.

"The next servant Xunshui, please see the Lord!"

"Second servant Ningyuan, please see the Lord!"

Xuan Xiaopingxian and Ningyuan Zhunxian knelt in front of more than 100,000 people, with respectful expressions, and loudly begged to see Su Lang.

It seems that Xuan Xiaopingxian has been well dressed, has a wonderful body, a pleasant appearance, and looks very beautiful.

The hundreds of thousands behind Wuxian Xuanshui and Wuxian Ningyuan are the quasi-sages and the pinnacle warriors gathered from the nine great saints such as Baizhan and the Qishuixian clan.

There are basically 5,000 people in each of the nine great saints, and there are more people in the Coliseum clan than the nine clans combined.

Inside the room.

"Oh?"

"Have they finally brought the Quasi-Sages and the Peak Martial Gods they gathered?"

Su Lang gently swept the crowd with his spiritual thoughts, and did not go out. Instead, after finishing the refinement of this fairy-level part in his hand, Shi Shiran walked out of the fairy palace and appeared in front of Xuan Xiaopingxian and the others.

"The next servant, Xunshui, pay respect to the Lord!"

Seeing Su Lang, Wuxian Huishui once again bowed deeply, looking down from the top, there was a holy light in the wide neckline.

"Second servant Ningyuan, see the Lord!"

Ning Yuan Wuxian watched his nose, nose, and heart, and seriously bowed down to Su Langxing.

"Hyunshui, do you really think I am a good person..."

Su Lang waved his hands with black lines, "You two get up."

"Thank you, Lord!"

The two quasi immortals spoke in unison, and then stood up.

Seeing that Su Lang had no response, Xuan Xiaopingxian couldn't help but feel a little lost.

When collecting the materials of the Nine Clan and the Qiucian Clan, she did not forget to inquire about the information of the Yaochi Saint Clan.

From the Biyu population, she knew that Su Lang did not have any powerful female subordinates for the time being, so she wanted to show herself, hoping to get Su Lang close.

But now, Su Lang is obviously not interested in her.

Chapter 807: Make them holy together

Xuan Xiaopingxian and Ningyuan Zhunxian stood up.

But the quasi-sages and the pinnacle martial gods behind them did not dare to get up, still crawling humbly on the ground, like the ants at the feet of Su Lang.

Looking at these hundreds of thousands of people, Su Lang nodded in satisfaction: "Ning Yuan Zhunxian, doing a good job."

"The servant is terrified!"

Ning Yuan Zhunxian was praised, and immediately bowed to Su Lang again.

"There is nothing to be afraid of."

"Things are done beautifully, I will not only praise you, but also reward you."

"This is a rule immortal crystal, given to you, I hope you will break through the martial immortal as soon as possible."

Su Lang smiled and threw a regular immortal crystal to Ning Yuan Zhunxian.

This rule fairy crystal was obtained by killing Huanyu Wuxian.

Both Huanyu Wuxian and Dingbo Wuxian belong to the Colchicum tribe, and their regular crystals are naturally the most suitable for the quasi-sages of the Colchicum tribe.

Before, Su Lang gave Dingbo Wuxian's rule immortal crystal reward to Duize Zhunxian.

"Regulations...rules fairy crystal!"

Ning Yuan Zhunxian holding the regular fairy crystal, was so excited that he couldn't help shaking.

"The servant will thank the Lord for his generous gift, and will be more cautious and serious in the future!"

He immediately knelt on the ground, his expression enthusiastically grateful for Su Lang's generous gift.

"Okay, get up."

Su Lang nodded and smiled, approachable.

Aside.

Xuan Xiaopingxian stared blankly.

She never expected that Su Lang would have given Ning Yuan a regular fairy crystal at hand, and her eyes would burst with envy.

The hundreds of thousands of quasi-sage martial gods who were kneeling on the ground were also thunderous and numb.

They weren't even Martial Saint, and of course they couldn't help being shocked when they saw the legendary treasure like Rule Xianjing.

Soon, Xuan Xiaoxian reacted—she also came to report on her duties, collected materials from the Nine Saints and the Qiucian, and came to hand in.

This is also a credit.

"Master!"

"The servant has collected the materials from the ten places!"

Xuan Xiaopingxian immediately knelt to the ground and offered a holy space ring, "Please look at the Lord!"

"Ok."

Su Lang nodded, picked up the ring, glanced at it, and put it in the storage space.

Although there are many things in the ring, it is just like that in Su Lang's eyes.

He got the possessions of two quasi emperors and dozens of martial immortals and thousands of quasi immortals, which was more than a hundred times more than the things in this ring.

"well done."

Su Lang glanced at Xuan Xiaopingxian, still admiring him.

"The servant should do it!"

Xuan Jiuxian's expression of joy and anticipation offset some disappointment.

"A reward for merit."

"I don't favor one or the other, I also give you a regular fairy crystal.

Su Lang smiled, and handily gave the Rule Xianjing obtained from Qian Zihou to Xuan Xiaopingxian.

Qian Zihou's immortal level practice is "Huanhai Polang Xian Jue", the general direction of the rule attributes is the same as that of the Qiucian tribe, and it is also very suitable for Xuan level immortals.

"Thank you for the gift!"

Xuan Xiaopingxian got the rule immortal crystal and was extremely happy. He knelt down on the ground again, and his loose neckline dropped again.

"..."

Su Lang rolled his eyes silently, "Get up."

Xuan Xiaopingxian and Ningyuan Zhunxian both stood up and stood with their heads down respectfully, their faces filled with excitement that could not be concealed.

The hundreds of thousands of quasi-sages and war gods below are also frantic.

Looking at Su Lang aloft, how much they hope to be appreciated by Su Lang and be rewarded by Su Lang!

This was the first time they had seen Su Lang, but it was such a short time that made them return.

"The quasi-sages, the gods of war."

Su Lang looked at the crowded group of people below and said, "Presumably you already know that this time you are called here to make you holy. Today, I will take you to cultivate secret places and collectively become holy."

As soon as this remark came out, most of the warriors below suddenly became upset.

Summoning them to become holy together, they did know that the news came from the Biyu tribe, and the Hundred Wars Saint tribe, Feishuang Saint tribe, and Lianhua Saint tribe adjacent to it.

But they don't really believe it because there are really too many people.

More than 100,000 people want to be holy together. What an incredible thing?

Not to mention the Canglan Continent, even the more powerful other continents, throughout the tens of millions of years, hundreds of millions of years of history, absolutely never happened.

But now, this news was spoken by Su Lang himself and confirmed it!

The Lord, really want to make them holy together!

Chapter 808: The biggest party

A hundred thousand people are sanctified together!

Thinking of these words, all the quasi-sages and the Valkyrie present trembling all over, swallowed fiercely.

They didn't know what way Su Lang would make them holy.

But sanctification is a very difficult thing. All of them present asked Sanctification to try their best, but they were still unable to cross the sky.

Therefore, even if the master's method has some drawbacks, they are completely acceptable.

What's more, judging from the news previously inquired, the previous batch of martial sages who guarded the sea of sky after becoming sacred did not have any sequelae.

All of them were excited and couldn't wait.

However, in front of Su Lang, they still tried their best to suppress their emotions so as not to lose their attitude and anger the great master.

At this time.

Su Lang's words continued to be heard.

"Sanctification has been a big hurdle for eternity."

"I don't know how many Tianjiao has risen at the end of the Wei Dynasty, unstoppable, but finally stuck at this step, living and dying."

"However, for me, sanctification is really too simple. The 100,000 or so of you present can be easily sanctified without exception."

"It's just that you have to pay your own price for this opportunity to live, but all those who become holy must turn in their souls to show their loyalty."

"And I will try my best to train you and let you go higher and farther on the road of martial arts."

"These are the meeting gifts for you after turning in the Soul Fire."

Speaking of this, Su Lang waved his big hand, and a bright Tianhe suddenly appeared in the sky.

Everyone couldn't help but look up, only to see a Milky Way in the sky overwhelming the sky, and the stars flickered.

A series of regular visions are like waves, rising and dying in the Tianhe, endlessly reciprocating.

"That is...the Milky Way made up of pills!"

Looking at that Tianhe River, Xuan Xiaopingxian and Ningyuan Zhunxian instantly thundered and stunned.

That is a galaxy made up of countless elixirs, and it is full of holy-level elixirs, quasi-elixirs, and even elixir!

And all of them are perfect quality pills!

Looking at these pills, the two quasi immortals were more shocked than when they saw the regular celestial crystal.

The key is that this number is really too much, it is beyond their imagination.

Even the two well-informed quasi-sages were so shocked that they were speechless, and the hundreds of thousands of quasi-sages were even more stunned, as if they had become demented clay figurines!

"This... so many pills!"

"Who is the master, who can take out so many pills in an instant!"

"These pills are ours, all of us! The Lord will reward us with them!"

"Unbelievable, unimaginable, we can get such a favor, the lord is definitely the most generous lord since the ages!"

"Oh my God, this is so unreal, I don't dare to do it in my dreams!"

"..."

Stormy waves rose in the hearts of everyone, and thoughts flashed through their minds.

At this time, a loud shout came.

"Are you waiting to give up your soul?"

But it was Xian Xiaopingxian who screamed and awakened everyone!

Hundreds of thousands of people came back to their senses, trembled fiercely, and revealed enthusiasm in their eyes, and immediately rushed out of their souls.

Suddenly.

More than one hundred thousand points of golden soul fire flew out from everyone's foreheads, and floated up like a spectacular swarm of fireflies.

These souls converge in one place, flowing to Su Lang like a river.

"From now on, you will be my servant."

Su Lang smiled slightly, his thoughts moved, the elixir in the sky suddenly turned into a great meteor shower, and it fell on the hands of everyone in the crowd.

The Xuan Level Immortal and Ning Yuan Zhunxian also have rewards. They received a dozen elixir, and they were so excited that they could not count.

Immediately after.

The two quasi immortals took the lead, and hundreds of thousands of people all knelt on the ground, grateful to Su Lang for giving the pill.

By this time, no words could express the gratitude in their hearts, but they had to clasp their heads under Su Lang's feet and be ready to give Su Lang his life at any time.

Su Lang smiled and took a shot with his big hand, grabbing the golden river of soul and heart, and putting it all into the sea of knowledge.

I saw that under the sun, more than 100,000 soul ghosts suddenly appeared on the empty ground.

They sat on the ground one by one, receiving the sun's rays, like devout fanatics.

"These pills can help you become holy, but they are not the only means, nor the best means."

"The sanctified one needs to understand a rule. I will take you to cultivate the secret land now. Keep your minds at bay and don't act rashly."

Su Lang's faint voice fell in everyone's ears.

Immediately, he took a step forward and stepped into the void.

A strange net of illusion emerged from under Su Lang's feet, and immediately spread in all directions, covering everyone.

A huge spatial fluctuation came, and Xuan Shui and Ning Yuan felt the terrifying fluctuation, and couldn't help swallowing their mouths nervously.

This is the space grid.

It was Su Lang who used space rules to pull it out of the surface of space.

The purpose, of course, is to take everyone to Fengling Race New City.

Hundreds of thousands of people, if you use the teleportation array, you don't know how much time it will take. It's better to use the space rules directly and bring everyone to move.

To tear the space and move, even Wu Sheng who doesn't control the space rules can do it, such as Chu Xiaobei.

But it was very difficult and dangerous. If you were not careful, you would die. If Chu Xiaobei hadn't been forced to a desperate situation, he would never risk it.

The warriors of the Six Dao Immortal Clan who pursued Chu Xiaobei were afraid of dying in the cracks in the space, so they did not dare to pursue them.

But for the current Su Lang, tearing space transmission is like walking, simple and safe.

Even with hundreds of thousands of people, it is not too difficult.

Not only did he comprehend the rules of space, but his true combat power also reached the level of the Three Tribulations Martial Immortal, and it was a piece of cake to take some Valkyrie through space.

The strange virtual net under Su Lang's feet among the hundreds of thousands of quasi-valley gods gradually began to twist, and finally formed a void.

The next moment.

The surrounding spatial grid suddenly changed and returned to normal.

Everyone looked around in a daze, only to see that they had come to a strange place.

Here is the sky of a big city. People come and go, but they are not found.

"Where is this?"

"God, we were motionless, we moved out of thin air!"

"This is the Lord's method, how amazing, great, and terrifying!"

"This should be the rules of space, and the master is the master of the rules of space forever!"

"The Lord is so powerful, it is a great honor for me to serve him."

"..."

When everyone was horrified, they couldn't help whispering, and occasionally looked at Su Lang, eyes full of awe and enthusiasm.

At this time.

A martial sage flew up from the city, as well as more than a dozen sages.

When they came to Su Lang, they respectfully bowed: "Respectfully welcome the return of the patriarch!"

These are the Yanxingxing who has broken through the realm of Martial Saint and some newly promoted Martial Gods.

At this time, the hearts of Yanxingxing and others were thumping wildly.

No way, there are hundreds of thousands of quasi saints below!

The previously huge Fengling Clan was only Huangfuqin a quasi-sage as the patriarch, but now Su Lang actually brought over 120,000.

This is equivalent to 120,000 Fengling clan chiefs, how spectacular and terrifying!

"Star, congratulations!"

Seeing that Yan Hingxing had broken through to the martial sage realm, Su Lang was also very happy and congratulated him.

Because Yanxingxing is the second martial sage after the human race set foot on the martial arts civilization.

After only two thousand years, he was sanctified, and placed in the Canglan Continent, he was also a leader among Tianjiao.

Yan Hingxing said modestly: "Thanks to the pill given by the patriarch, otherwise I would not be able to break through to the martial sage realm so easily."

"Hahahaha."

Su Lang laughed and said, "Without my pill, you can quickly break through Wu Sheng, but the time will be a little later."

Yan Hingxing was humble again, saying that without Su Lang's medicine, he was afraid that it would be a life-long bottleneck.

"Yan Hengxing has extraordinary talents. It is definitely not an ordinary 'infinite-level genius'. It must have other advantages. Maybe I can focus on training him."

Su Lang thought, and asked Yan Hengxing: "When you broke through Wu Sheng, what rules did you understand?"

"Returning to the patriarch is a virtual rule." Yan Hingxing smiled.

"The virtual rule is quite rare."

Su Lang was surprised, and he also understood this rule, which was regarded as the corresponding rule of "Nine Stars Purple Rainbow Fantasy".

This is a very mysterious rule, much harder to comprehend than basic rules like gold, wood, water, fire, and earth.

It seems that Yanxingxing is indeed a genius.

"I want to take these people to Blue Star to practice."

Su Lang smiled, "You will go to Blue Star with me later, and leave the defense here to your subordinates."

"Yes, patriarch!"

Yan Hingxing took the lead immediately.

Su Lang smiled, then encouraged the dozens of war gods of the Wind Spirit Race and Human Race, and rewarded them with the pill that they could use.

Seeing that Su Lang had so many martial sages and quasi-sages as his subordinates, but still did not forget them, all the warriors were immediately grateful.

"Next, follow me to the space-time channel."

Su Lang stretched out his hand and a layer of formation barrier automatically opened, exposing the space-time cracks behind.

It was the first time that the hundreds of thousands of people present saw the cracks in time and space.

Time and space cracks are not the same as space cracks. It exudes a more dangerous atmosphere, and everyone can't help but feel terrified.

"go!"

Su Lang gave an order, and Yan Xingxing immediately rushed into the crack of time and space, followed by a large quasi-sage behind.

Soon, hundreds of thousands of people disappeared in the cracks of time and space.

Su Lang also walked in Shi Shiran. In addition to taking everyone to practice, he also went to Blue Star to see Chu Xiaobei's three daughters, and by the way led the sanctified warriors back to Canglan Continent.

Passing through the cracks of time and space is only a momentary matter.

When Su Lang appeared again, he saw Yanxingxing standing there respectfully.

The tens of thousands of quasi-valley gods were looking around with excitement, as if there was something exciting in the air.

Su Lang knew that they felt the rules of manifestation.

"Is this the secret place of cultivation that the Lord said!?"

"All the rules here are easy to manifest and comprehend. It is definitely an advanced world far beyond the Canglan Continent!"

"Let me wait here to comprehend the rules. Taking the pill for cultivation is a great opportunity given to us by the Lord. This is an upright method of sanctification without any side effects!"

"I feel that my bottleneck has loosened, and I will be holy soon!"

"..."

Hundreds of thousands of people were talking noisily, although their voices were very small, but together they were like thunder.

Su Lang did not stop them, letting them discuss there.

Gradually, everyone stopped talking, and then knelt down to thank Su Lang.

Soon, hundreds of thousands of people knelt in front of Su Lang quietly.

"Get up all."

Su Lang smiled kindly, let everyone get up, and then took them to the small island specially used as a place for cultivation.

The arrival of hundreds of thousands of people shocked everyone on the island.

On the island, nearly ten thousand warriors looked up at the sky, only to see the dense quasi-sages descending like raindrops.

"Is it a new servant recruited by the Lord? There are so many!"

"Hundreds of thousands...people from the Baizhan tribe, no, I also saw the Colchicum tribe!"

"The quasi-sages of the Colchicum tribe have also become servants of the Lord, can it be said that the Lord has already subdued the Colchicum tribe?"

"The Qiuquan clan has all worshipped, and the other nine clans are probably already under the command of the master!"

"These people come from a more powerful saint race than us, and even a fairy race. We must work harder to cultivate, otherwise sooner or later we will be surpassed by these latecomers."

"..."

There was a lot of discussion on the island.

At this time, the hundreds of thousands also fell on the island.

The originally small island suddenly became a bit crowded, and some quasi-sages simply sat on the surface of the sea and began to practice directly.

Everyone was eager to cultivate, and the whole island quickly calmed down.

Su Lang looked at the hundreds of thousands of warriors below, and nodded in satisfaction.

Immediately after.

He moved his body and appeared on the top of the mountain on the highest point of the island.

Yan Hingxing smiled intentionally, and did not rush to chase after him.

On the top of the mountain, Chu Xiaobei, Ji Ruxue, and Murong Xianxian are all here.

"Brother Su Lang!"

As soon as Su Lang appeared, Ji Ruxue ran over and plunged into Su Lang's arms.

"Really good."

Su Lang hugged Ji Ruxue, only to feel that this girl had developed a lot, her body was soft and soft, soft and boneless, and she couldn't help but want to hold her for a while.

On the side, Murong looked at this side with a slim face and blushing, a little eager to move, but because he was shy, he didn't dare to ask for a hug.

But Chu Xiaobei rolled his eyes and looked at Su Lang, looking wary of a pervert.

However, the longing in her eyes is also hard to conceal, and the uprightness in her mouth is not too cute.
