Meeting The One For Me Chapter 114-Considering that Audrey was Ryan's family, whom he'd help even if it meant going against George, Cecilia had to protect her.

Besides, she might be able to earn some brownie points—Audrey might put in a good word for her when speaking to Ryan.

The bodyguard stopped Nathan from coming close, so all he could do was watch the ladies leave.

At the hotel entrance, Audrey thanked Cecilia, "Thank you, Ms. Shaw." "It's only natural for me to protect you since you're Ryan's family. If you really want to do something to repay me, could you relay a message to Ryan? Tell him that the marriage is nothing more than a collaboration. I believe that he'll make the best partner." Ryan no longer answered Cecilia's call, so she had no choice but to request Audrey to pass a message.

Right now, she needed Ryan to be her husband so that she could secure her footing within Lambert Corporation.

As the ambitious woman she was, she wanted to surpass her sister to become the owner of Shaw Corporation.

Therefore, she needed to marry Ryan, the heir of the Lambert family. He could be her trump card.

Since he was such a family man and was willing to help Audrey out, Cecilia figured that he would listen to Audrey.

It was a plus to be a family man, because that meant that he would care a lot for their kids in the future.

Audrey looked at Cecilia. "Do you... not like Mr. Lambert?" Sincerity reached Cecilia's eyes when she heard that question. "Marriage is a mere tool to achieve our goals. I believe that Mr. Lambert doesn't wish for me to have feelings for him either.

She met Ryan several times, but it was enough for her to understand his character.

As a man with a heart of steel, he weighed everything in terms of pros and cons.

If one told him that they had feelings for him after meeting barely a few times, he would never believe that.

“Ms. Yeomans, you and Mr. Lambert registered your marriage in Ruplana so that Mr. Franklin wouldn’t take the baby away from you. I hope you’ll keep it a secret so that Mr. Lambert Senior and people won’t misunderstand Mr.

Lambert,” Cecilia requested.

Ryan was her future husband after all.

Even though it was a loveless marriage, she didn’t want the fake marriage to be the reason for others.

to make fun of Ryan or become the blot of her marriage life.

“Don’t worry, I know what I’m doing,” Audrey reassured.

“See you next time then, Ms. Yeomans.” Cecilia flashed a smile and got into the car.

The engine started, and she told John Carrott in the passenger seat, “Run a background check on Audrey... and her ex-husband.” That was her bodyguard, as well as her assistant.

“Understood, Ms. Cecilia.” Back at the hotel, Audrey texted Ryan about her encounter with Cecilia.

Just then, a stranger’s number called in.

Judging from how the incessant ringing didn’t stop, she bet that it was Nathan calling.

Her phone was still ringing.

At long last, she answered the call. “Enough, Nathan Franklin.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 115

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 115-“How persistent, Nathan Franklin.” Audrey scowled.

Nathan gritted his teeth. “Well, I can see how close you are with Matteo Russo.

I’m warning you- stay away from him! He’s out of your league, and someone like you can never get him! Also, abort the baby!” She smirked. “Why do you keep intervening in my life and telling me what to do?

When I still cared for you, your words did matter. But you’re nothing to me now because I don’t have any feelings left for you!” Nathan yanked her over by her wrist, causing the documents to fall from her arms. “The baby is mine, so I have a say in whether to keep it or not!” The moment he finished, the doors of the three opposite rooms opened. The robust bodyguards surrounded the duo. “Mr. Franklin, please let her go.” Audrey knew the bodyguards. They were here to protect Audrey under Ryan’s orders.

“Who are these people?” Nathan’s grasp tightened around her wrist as he interrogated, “Do they work for your husband? Who is he?” “Didn’t you regain your memories? Don’t you remember who’s helping me?” He huffed, “Come with me. You cannot keep that baby!” Dragging Audrey, he glared at the bodyguards. “Get out of my way!” “Let go of me, Nathan Franklin!” She struggled.

The leading bodyguard said, “No one can take Ms. Yeomans away without her consent.” Nathan was going to leave, but the bodyguard stopped him again. “Mr. Franklin, please stop before things get physical. I don’t mind going to the cops with you.” “Who do you work for? Ryan or Matteo Russo? How much did he pay you? I can double—no—I can pay you ten times more than that!” Nathan’s features were distorted in a fury. “I am the father of the baby, so I can decide whether or not it can stay. Scram!” “The father of the baby is... you?” Hearing Amelia’s voice, he turned his head.

Amelia, who covered herself with a mask and a cap, stared at him. Her eyes were red, and they were teeming with sorrow and disbelief.

“A—Amelia.” He curled his hands into fists beside him. His lips parted, but he didn’t know what to say.

“How could you do this to me?” She sounded extremely broken.

She gazed at him deeply and then turned around to walk away.

“Amelia!” Nathan wanted to chase her while dragging Audrey, but the bodyguard grabbed her and said “Get out of my way?”

Ignoring her words, Nathan flung a punch at the bodyguards.

One of them grabbed his fist and he kicked in their direction.

Audrey seized the chance to break free from his grasp.

In the meantime, She slipped and hit her back against the doorknob.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 116

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 116-The fear of losing her loved ones engulfed Audrey once again. She bit her lip.

“Take me to the hospital!”

Nathan turned to see Audrey sitting by the door as she covered her stomach.

Before he could react, the bodyguard picked Audrey up and rushed her to the hospital.

Nathan’s heart sank. Just as he was about to follow her, he was stopped by the bodyguard. The bodyguard then made a phone call to the police in fluent Ruplanian.

“Mr. Franklin, you are not allowed to go anywhere until the police arrive!” The bodyguard said in all seriousness.

Ryan had just landed when he heard of the news from Ruplana. His face turned as dark as ink.

“I’m sorry, Mr. Lambert, we weren’t able to protect Ms. Yeomans. Fortunately, both Ms. Yeomans and the baby are fine. The doctor says that she’ll stay in the hospital tonight for observation, and that she’ll be discharged tomorrow.”

After hanging up the phone, Ryan turned to Julian. "Reschedule a few meetings.

I need to go to Slovomonia after the meeting.

Julian was startled to hear that, but he quickly responded, "Yes, sir!" Ryan had been working continuously ever since he got on the plane from Slovomonia. He didn't even rest after getting off the plane, but now he had to fly back to Slovomonia again. It seemed that he really cared about Audrey.

Diego found out that night that Audrey was hospitalized after getting hit. That morning, Joseph sat in Audrey's seat.

It was only during the afternoon session of the conference that Audrey arrived.

Meanwhile, Joseph was busy examining the data they had brought from the laboratory. When she took Joseph's seat, she quickly took off her coat and calmly reported sixteen sets of precise data into the microphone.

Joseph looked up to see Audrey taking off her coat and narrating the data in a calm manner. He then compared the data with the materials in his hand and found no errors.

"The above are sixteen sets of experimental data from our laboratory." The conference then entered into a new round of discussions.

Two hours later, after the conference ended. Both Diego and Joseph approached Audrey to inquire about her condition.

Audrey smiled and said, "I'm fine. It was just a minor collision, but I almost missed the conference today." "The conference is almost over. I've discussed with Professor Ilyich that after it's over, I'd take his beloved disciple back and that you'd go with Professor flyleh!

Remember to learn all of the old man's skills! With your sharp mind, you should be able to learn everything he teaches you!" Diego lowered his voice and urged Audrey with a smile on his face.

Audrey smiled in response, "Alright! Don't worry!" After both Diego and Joseph had left, she tidied up the materials and left the venue. Just as she was about to take a step down the stairs to the nearby hotel, she was grabbed by Nathan and pressed against a pillar.

“Nathan! Are you crazy? Let me go!” Audrey’s bag and documents fell to the ground as she struggled to pry Nathan’s hand off her neck.

Nathan’s bloodshot eyes gazed grimly at Audrey with hatred.

Audrey was almost out of breath from being choked. She desperately tried to push Nathan’s arm away.

Nathan was crazed by Amelia’s accident. He didn’t loosen his grip on Audrey even when her face has turned purple.

and kept backing away from him.

Suddenly, she felt nothing under her feet.

In a whirlwind of chaos, she tumbled down the stairs amid screams.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 117

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 117-She wished that someone would save her child. The child was the last thing she had left in the world!

“Audrey!” In her trance, Audrey seemed to catch a glimpse of Ryan, who had pushed through the crowd and rushed toward her.

“Ryan...” Audrey wanted to reach out and beg Ryan to save their child. However, her consciousness was consumed by darkness. Then, her outstretched hand dropped heavily.

“Audrey, we’ll go to the hospital!” Ryan got down on one knee and took off his jacket to wrap Audrey in it.

Outside the hospital operating room, Julian had just hung up the phone.

He then approached Ryan with a grave expression. “Mr. Lambert, I’ve checked.

The video shows Audrey falling down the stairs while backing away from something.” “What was she trying to avoid?” Ryan asked with a tense face.

“It’s a blind spot that the surveillance didn’t pick up. We’ll probably have to wait until Audrey wakes up from the surgery to find out,” Julian said calmly.

“What about the people protecting Audrey?” Julian’s expression darkened at the question. “Audrey had them waiting outside the venue of the conference at the time. They merely saw someone yank Audrey away. By the time they rushed over, Audrey had already fallen down.” “Worthless! Keep investigating! Find out where Nathan was last night!” Ryan’s pent-up anger had already made him lose his usual composure.

For some reason, Ryan had a strong intuition that this incident was connected to Nathan.

Soon, Audrey’s surgery was over.

The doctor regretfully informed Ryan, “We did our best, but we couldn’t save the child.” “As long as my wife is safe, that’s all that matters! Thank you!” Ryan said sincerely.

“It’s our duty as medical professionals. Mrs. Lambert will be out of observation in two hours.” The doctor glanced at Ryan before leaving. He then returned to his office and made a phone call. “I’ve informed them that the child didn’t make it.

Will I receive the promised payment?” Ryan had been by Audrey’s side ever since she came out of the observation room.

She had lost her stepmother and her sister. Unlike his selfish motives, Audrey had kept the child because she genuinely cared about the only loved one she had in the world.

Chanter 2/2 Would she break down emotionally when she woke up and found out that she had lost the child?

Ryan held onto Audrey’s hand tightly and gently kissed her palm.

How should he comfort Audrey when she woke up?

“You’re awake.” When Audrey heard George’s voice, she got nervous and turned her head to look toward the window.

The child!

Audrey hurriedly covered her stomach.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 118

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 118-Audrey was puzzled by George's sudden appearance and didn't understand what he meant. She only looked at him blankly.

George placed his glasses and book on the small table beside him, then picked up the report. "Of course, Ryan doesn't know that I'm here in Slovomla. If I can keep it from him, I don't intend to let Ryan know that we've met. My daughter needs a kidney transplant, and the doctors say that there's lesser chance of rejection with a kidney from a family member. I'm too old to be a suitable donor, but your kidney is a perfect match for her. Would you be willing to donate it to her?" Even though George was asking Audrey for help, he still refused to acknowledge her as his granddaughter.

Audrey, with her fragile arms, propped herself up against the bedhead while enduring the pain. Her teary eyes were filled with worry. "What... happened to her?" "You don't need to know the specifics. If you don't want to do it, I can find a suitable kidney for Wanda. You don't need to worry about that. You're free to choose," George explained.

Audrey's hand rested on her stomach. "As long as it's for her, I'm willing to do it.

But could we wait until after I give birth?" She noticed George pursing his lips in silence, then she asked, "Is my child still alive?" "Wouldn't it be better if the child were gone? You've divorced Nathan already. If you have his child, you'll inevitably be tied to him. I don't like owing favours.

Since you're willing to donate a kidney for Wanda, I'll take care of your life for the next five years." George put down the report upon hearing the choke in Audrey's voice. It was clear that he didn't want to dwell too much on the child's matter with Audrey.

Following that, George stood up with his cane.

Audrey gripped tightly onto the fabric of the clothing over her stomach. She didn't explain anything to George.

As George walked out, he said, “The Lambert family has always been tough.

We repay the kindness. and avenge wrongs! I can provide you with all the resources you need for the next five years, but how far you grow depends on yourself. Don’t spare those who have wronged you.

George left the ward after that.

Edward closed the door and followed behind George. “Mr. Lambert, everything has been arranged. Ms. Yeomans will be transferred before Mr. Ryan arrives from the hotel. But how do we explain this to him?” George’s face tensed up. “Ryan is a grateful person. Over the years, he’s felt indebted to Audrey because I didn’t bother to take care of her. Thus, he consciously looks out for her. This time, he’s even planning to register his marriage with Audrey in Ruplana for the sake of the child in her belly! I know everything! But now, the group is in a critical moment. He should focus all his thoughts on the group. Tell him that I’ll take over Audrey’s matter from there!” Edward followed George into the elevator. “But didn’t you just say you’re only responsible for Ms. Yeomans’ life for five years?” George tightly gripped onto his cane. “If she can’t stand up and step on those who once looked down on her in five years, she’s not worthy of the blood of the Lambert family. Does she even belong in the Lambert family, then?” George’s feelings toward Audrey were contradictory.

He had always appreciated Audrey, for she had once risked her life to save Wanda.

This was because he could feel that Audrey was now doing her best to save her biological mother, whom she had once been unable to save.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 119

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 119-George could sense that if Audrey had the chance to trade her life to turn back time and prevent Wanda from being abducted, she would have agreed to it.

Therefore, George had let go of his resentment for Audrey.

His so-called offer to donate a kidney to Wanda was just a test for Audrey. If Wanda really needed a kidney with lesser chance of rejection, he could easily

George had come to the hospital with the intention of accepting Audrey as his granddaughter.

He told Audrey about what kind of people the Lambert family were.

George wanted Audrey to take revenge on those who had bullied her!

Letting Audrey take revenge with her own strength in five years was George's final test to accept her into the Lambert family.

Ryan quickly showered and changed his clothes at the hotel before rushing back to the hospital. However, when he entered the ward, he didn't see Audrey lying in the bed. Instead, he saw Edward, who was supposed to be next to George.

Edward bowed politely to Ryan with a smile. "Mr. Ryan, Ms. Audrey has been transferred to another hospital. Mr. Lambert asked me to wait for you here." Ryan's gaze darkened. Edward's address for Audrey had changed.

He changed from calling her Ms. Yeomans to now calling her Ms. Audrey.

"Has father decided to bring Audrey back home?" Ryan asked.

Edward nodded with a faint smile. "Not exactly. Mr. Lambert still has one final test for Ms. Audrey. If Ms. Audrey can meet Mr. Lambert's expectations, then he will bring her back to the Lambert family." Ryan stared at Edward intently. "So?" Edward stepped closer and whispered to Ryan, "So, Mr. Ryan, please focus all your energy on the group from now on and refrain from intervening in Ms.

Audrey's affairs or her future. Mr. Ryan, I know you've been trying to persuade Mr. Lambert to accept Ms. Audrey back into the Lambert family. But this time, it was only after Mr. Lambert saw the video of Ms. Audrey calling for harsher penalties for buyers on the program that he reluctantly agreed to give her another chance!" "Father has seen Audrey, hasn't he? Where is he now?" Ryan asked.

Ryan guessed right, and Edward didn't hide it from him. "Mr. Lambert is already on his way to the airport." Ryan turned and walked away without saying another word. Finally, he caught up with George at the airport.

"What about Audrey?" Ryan asked.

“Otherwise, even if you finally get your wish to have her return to the Lambert family and take Lambert Corporation, the Lambert family will collapse.”

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 120

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 120-Edward, who was following closely behind Ryan, stepped forward and said, “Mr.

Lambert, the plane is ready to take off.” George gave Ryan a look. “Also, make sure to quickly settle the matter of your marriage registration with her in Ruplana for the sake of her child.

“The outside world sees you both as blood relatives. How could you guys get married? I don’t want this matter to become a stain on the Lambert family. The both of you better not disappoint me.” Edward watched as George entered the airport. He said in a lowered voice, “Over these years, Mr. Lambert hasn’t been completely indifferent to Ms.

Audrey. After all, Ms. Audrey has Mr. Lambert’s blood. To Mr. Lambert, there’s “Since Mr. Lambert wants Ms. Audrey to return to the Lambert family, he will surely take good care of her life. You don’t need to worry too much.” “Where is Audrey now? Can’t you tell me?” Ryan asked..

“Yes. Mr. Lambert knows that you’ve been overseeing everything related to Ms.

Audrey all these years. Therefore, not only does he forbid me from telling anything about her, but he also forbids you from meddling in anything related to her from now on. By anything, I mean nothing! Starting from this moment!” Edward emphasized the phrase “nothing“.

Then he continued, “Mr. Lambert has told Ms. Audrey the same. Five years. If Audrey can impress Mr. Lambert without needing anyone’s help within these five years, then she can return to the Lambert family! So, please, for the sake of Ms. Audrey, stop asking about her.” Ryan clenched his fists. “She just miscarried and hasn’t recovered yet.” Edward nodded sympathetically. “Don’t worry. I have arranged for someone to take care of Ms. Audrey. I assure you! Mr. Ryan, I have a lot of faith in Ms.

Audrey! If you truly want to help Ms. Audrey, why not focus on safeguarding Lambert Corporation for her?” Audrey’s excellence was beyond doubt.

However, Ryan didn't believe that Audrey would strive to return to the Lambert family.

Audrey was afraid of harming her biological mother because of herself. She wished to stay away from the Lambert family and anyone related to them. Thus, why would she willingly return to the Lambert family?

"I want to call Audrey! I need to make sure that she's safe," Ryan said firmly.

He also needed to ensure that Audrey wasn't being coerced.

Edward gestured for Ryan to follow him. "Alright! I'll arrange it immediately.

Please, go back with Mr. Lambert now. Your current identity isn't suitable for staying abroad." Ryan pursed his lips tightly and turned to walk toward the airport.

When the plane landed in Sheysea City, Edward handed Ryan a phone and said, "It's Audrey on the line." Ryan took the phone and put it to his ear. Then, he walked toward the secluded area behind the private jet.

"Audrey."

"Do you want to return to the Lambert family? Is it your choice?" Ryan asked.
