

Meeting The One For Me

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 181-“Sweetie.” Nathan adjusted his mood, not intending to blame Amelia. “You shouldn’t stay in Sheysea for now. Go to the film set first.” “But Mr. Norman is still in the hospital and hasn’t woken up yet. I grew up in his house from a young age. I can’t ignore the Murray family’s affairs.” Amelia’s eyes reddened. “I’ll try to raise money in the next few days, but I’m worried that my pace will be too slow and will delay the progress of Franklin Group. Even if the Murray family borrows from the bank, we may not make it in time!

“Nathan, can Franklin Group lend some money to the Murray family first? After getting through this difficult period, I will definitely repay the money.” Nathan was frustrated due to the Murray family’s lack of cooperation.

Audrey then received news. She didn’t react much after learning Michelle’s firm stance on not allowing Zenith Pharmaceuticals to intervene. She just lowered her head to pack her things.

“Zenith Pharmaceuticals has always been very interested in Evergreen Biotech’s project. If Franklin Group persuaded Zenith Pharmaceuticals to participate, they must have promised something significant and are bound to invest heavily.” Audrey spoke calmly.

As for Murray Group, how could they possibly give up on such a valuable opportunity?

The Murray family had become accustomed to relying on Nathan whenever they encountered problems, expecting him to resolve their issues without repercussions.

The Murray family members wouldn’t care even if Nathan encountered major trouble.

Elsewhere, Taylor, the head of Evergreen Biotech’s Cascadia region, chuckled over the phone.

“I haven’t been able to find out about this. I can send someone to investigate if you need it, boss.” “It’s okay, let’s see how Nathan handles it first. If Franklin Group can deliver the goods on time, we can still expose the formula leakage later. Franklin Group won't be able to escape no matter what," Audrey said to Taylor.

Just as Audrey finished speaking, another call came through.

It was from Ryan.

Audrey quickly said goodbye to Taylor and answered his call. "Hello, Mr.

Lambert." "Dallas wants to see you," Ryan said without allowing Audrey to speak. "I haven't taken any vacation days these past few years, and internal arrangements in the group are proceeding smoothly. I can take a few days off. If you're still busy there, I'll accompany Dallas while you're at work." Chapter 161 2/2 "I'm already packing up and planning to return to Mythravia. I should be able to get what I want tomorrow or the day after," Audrey said, looking at the items already packed in her suitcase. "Then I plan to make a trip back to Eastville." "Would it be convenient for Dallas and I to accompany you?" Ryan asked again.

Audrey remained silent, thinking it might be good for Dallas to visit Anne's and Harper's graves.

It was said that Nathan had personally gone to Murray Group.

Nathan refused to help the family, and Charles couldn't pay his gambling debts.

Charles was afraid the casino would detain him and tried to escape overnight by sea.

Unexpectedly, he was caught by the casino's people and was tied up on a large yacht.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 182-Audrey replied to Shawn's message.

"Follow Lucy's instructions and treat Mr. Murray well. I hope he'll be satisfied when he returns," Just as Audrey sent the message, the doorbell rang. She quickly put down her phone and opened the door, Standing at the door were Ryan and Dallas, Dallas stood silently before a large suitcase, still pouting.

Ryan gently patted Dallas' head and said to Audrey, "Dallas misses you; and coincidentally, I have nothing else to do these days." Audrey quickly squatted down to pick Dallas up and reached out to pull the suitcase.

"I'll do it," Ryan said.

She stepped aside to let Ryan in, not even paying attention to the teary-eyed Dallas in her arms.

She asked Ryan, "Have you arranged everything in the group?" "Don't worry, everything's been arranged. I haven't taken a vacation in years, so this time I'll take a break. If there's an emergency, Julian will contact me." Ryan took off his coat and went to check the refrigerator. "I'll take Dallas to the supermarket later and buy some things for dinner. You can do your own thing." Ryan's first visit felt strangely familiar, as if he were returning to his own home.

"Dallas hasn't caused you any trouble these past few days, has he?" Audrey patted the little one in her arms and smiled at Ryan.

"No, Dallas is very independent. He can do things on his own." Ryan's words came from the heart.

For a child under four years old, Dallas was indeed very independent.

Dallas raised his eyebrows and showed a proud expression.

Audrey chuckled and pinched Dallas' cheek. "Dallas is the most independent!" When the three of them went to the supermarket, Ryan put Dallas in the shopping cart and pushed him while Audrey walked ahead to grab a carton of milk.

Dallas gripped the cart's handle and struggled to grab a box of strawberry milk.

Before Dallas could get it, Ryan had already put two boxes in the cart.

Dallas looked up at Ryan, who was reaching out to give him a cheese stick, his ears turning red again. The young boy couldn't contain his smile.

When the three returned from the supermarket, Ryan and Audrey unpacked in the kitchen while Dallas sat in the living room, snacking and watching TV.

He couldn't help but take a photo with his tablet and send it to Lily.

Soon, a video call from Lily popped up, and Dallas hugged his tablet as he entered his room to answer it.

“Got it. Leave it to me!” Lily made an OK gesture and asked quietly, “Dallas, what do you think of Daddy?” Dallas pursed his lips and didn’t say anything.

Lily giggled. “Dad’s pretty good, isn’t he? He tells bedtime stories at night to help me sleep, and he’s really strong!”

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 183-“Don’t worry. Mr. Lambert Senior is powerful and mighty. How could anything happen to me by his side.” Lily seemed to be doing well these days, her face looking rounder.

“Lily...” George’s voice came from the video.

Seeing Lily on the video call, George, dressed casually, also leaned in. Lily quickly turned off the video, afraid George would be unhappy if he discovered that Dallas was with Audrey and Ryan.

That night, when Audrey put Dallas to sleep, she received a WhatsApp notification.

She glanced at Dallas, who was already asleep. She then muted her phone and unlocked it.

Aside from a video, there was also a message from Shawn.

“Ms. Yeomans, Charles is even more cowardly than we thought. In less than half a day, he’s already begging for mercy.” Audrey didn’t open the video. She just replied and told Shawn to handle it according to Lucy’s instructions.

After sending the message to Shawn, Audrey also sent a message to Lucy.

She warned Lucy to be careful not to cause any casualties.

Someone like Charles should face public scrutiny and suffer psychologically.

Afterward, they should be handed over to the law for punishment.

Lucy’s hatred for Charles was no less than Audrey’s.

Lucy's sister, her pillar of support, met her demise at the hands of Charles.

Charles loved to control naive young girls with videos, torment them excessively, and then deliver the final blow by releasing the video.

Lucy's sister was destroyed by Charles in this way and suffered from severe depression.

Originally, Charles could have been convicted, but Lucy's sister—feeling sorry about Lucy's hardships—chose to settle the issue with money.

However, when Lucy left Sheysea with her sister to start a new life in Mythravia, Charles sent insulting messages and videos that were supposed to be deleted to Lucy's sister.

She was unable to bear it and died in the bathtub.

How could Lucy not hate him?

If the person Audrey sent to watch Charles two years ago hadn't found Lucy hiding in the garage with a knife—planning to end her life with Charles—Lucy would have surely fought him to the death.

However, Audrey said it wasn't worth sacrificing Lucy's future for someone like Charles.

Thus, Audrey funded Lucy's education and let her wait quietly for the opportunity for revenge.

This time, Audrey fulfilled her promise—but she hoped that Lucy could live her life peacefully after she had her revenge.

Sacrificing Lucy for a scoundrel like Charles wasn't worth it.

Amelia glanced at Norman, still unconscious on his sick bed.

Michelle clenched her fists, looking at the unconscious Norman.

She turned to Amelia and said, "If this matter is so important to the Franklin Group, why can't Nathan help the Murray Group?"

“Over the years, Nathan has always cleaned up Charles’ mess. Why is it different this time?”

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 184-“I don’t care! Right now, Charles’ mess is tied to Nathan! If Nathan had put a stop to Charles’ nonsense when he first started causing trouble, maybe he wouldn’t have screwed up so badly this time!

“Nathan spoiled Charles into what he is now. Now that Charles has caused a major disaster, Nathan wants to abandoned our family. This is unacceptable!” Amelia was stunned by Michelle’s twisted logic. “Nathan has always helped Charles out of consideration for me. How could he be in the wrong for helping Charles?” Seeing Amelia getting angry, Michelle quickly held her hand.

“Amelia, talk to Nathan again. Norman still hasn’t woken up. If he wakes and realizes that the partnership with Evergreen Biotech no longer involves the Murray Group, and that Zenith Pharmaceuticals is utilizing our factory and the expensive machinery we purchased, won’t he be livid?” Amelia refused to budge. “Mrs. Murray, let Zenith Pharmaceuticals into the factory. There’s still time! If the Franklin Group collapses, the Murray family will go bankrupt too. It’ll be too late then!” Amelia felt helpless.

Ultimately, the Murray Group belonged to Norman’s family. Amelia could only make suggestions but not decisions beyond Michelle’s authority.

Before Michelle could say anything, Amelia’s phone rang.

Seeing it was a call from Nathan, Amelia answered it outside the ward.

“Hello, Nathan. Don’t worry, I’m still trying to persuade Mrs. Murray.” Amelia’s tears welled up in her eyes.

“Sweetie, I’ve done my best for Murray Group over the years.” Nathan’s voice sounded weary.

“You don’t need to persuade Mrs. Murray anymore. I’ll talk to Zenith Pharmaceuticals again. We won’t use Murray Group’s machinery and premises.

“But Sweetie, if Murray Group can’t deliver the goods by the end of the month, I will have to act according to the contract. I hope you won’t blame me then.” Amelia clenched her fists tightly.

“I’m sorry, Nathan. It’s all Charles’ fault! I know you’ve done everything you could to assist the Murray family despite their greed. I won’t hold you responsible. Do what you need to do.” After hanging up the phone, Amelia leaned against the wall and wiped away her tears.

Michelle came out from the ward, her eyes fixed on Amelia. “How did it go? Did Nathan agree to inject capital into the Murray Group?” Amelia looked up at her aunt, who was looking at her anxiously.

“Franklin Group has come up with another solution. If Murray Group can’t deliver the goods by the end of the month, Nathan will act according to the contract.” “H—how could this be!” Michelle’s legs went weak as she leaned against the door frame.

“He could help solve the problem for the Murray Group as long as he injects capital! Why is Nathan so unwilling!” “Mrs. Murray, please. If Franklin Group had enough liquidity to begin with, why would they let Murray Group have a share when cooperating with Evergreen Biotech?” Amelia felt a heavy weight in her chest. “Initially, by letting Zenith Pharmaceuticals enter, even if we couldn’t get a share, at least Nathan wouldn’t be too hard on the Murray Group for my sake!

“But you insist on holding onto your pride, and it’s hurting Nathan. Do you think he’ll let the Murray Group off?” “Don’t you think Franklin Group might just be bluffing us?” Michelle seemed to have an idea, looking determined.

“Mrs. Murray!” Amelia was on the verge of crying.

Amelia pushed away Michelle’s hand.

“Mrs. Murray, I won’t plead with Nathan anymore. If you believe Nathan is simply trying to intimidate you, then stand firm on not allowing Zenith Pharmaceuticals to enter.

With that, Amelia walked away.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 185-“Amelia! Amelia!” Michelle called out from behind but couldn’t stop her.

She gritted her teeth. “You ungrateful bitch!” At this moment, Michelle still didn’t know that Nathan had abandoned the Murray Group.

Nathan would never resort to scare tactics like this.

He gave the Murray Group an opportunity to rectify their mistakes; and since they declined, Nathan had no obligation to help them.

Zenith Pharmaceuticals cooperated with Franklin Group by investing capital, allowing Franklin Group to work overtime and pay higher wages to workers. It increased their costs but freed them from dependency on others.

Furthermore, Franklin Group would sever ties with the Murray Group and redirect all the benefits originally intended for them to Zenith Pharmaceuticals.

This would be the case for all future collaborations with Evergreen Biotech, ensuring smooth delivery thereafter.

Audrey smirked coldly upon receiving the news. “I thought Nathan would hang onto the Murray Group for Amelia’s sake, but it appears he gave up on them rather quickly.” Initially, Nathan protected Charles at all costs simply because Charles hadn’t threatened his interests.

Indeed, one doesn’t truly understand pain until they feel the knife plunged into their own flesh.

It’s unclear what Nathan and Amelia were feeling right now.

“But Nathan is quite something. I heard he personally went to Franklin Group’s factory. He not only tripled the workers’ wages but also promised them bonuses once this matter is safely resolved, effectively boosting their morale,” Taylor said with a smile.

Audrey said, “Compared to exorbitant penalties, this is the best solution for now—especially since the Murray Group is unwilling to cooperate.” There was still one card left: The formula leakage footage.

Seeing Dallas rubbing his eyes as he came out of the master bedroom, Audrey told Taylor, "Dallas is awake, let's not talk about it for now." Dallas didn't see Ryan in the living room and glanced around.

"Mr. Lambert went to buy breakfast. You said you wanted to eat peach pastries last night.

Audrey smiled, picking Dallas up. "You woke up and went straight to find Mr. Lambert. You didn't even look for Mommy."

"Yeah." Audrey placed Dallas on the couch and went to heat some milk for him.

"What about Mommy?"

"Mommy is going to join the Lambert Corporation," Audrey said with a faint smile.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 186-"Did Mr. Lambert Senior ask Mommy to join the Lambert Corporation?" Dallas knew Audrey always heeded George's advice. "But Mommy's favorite place is the lab. Are you not going to the lab anymore?" Audrey pinched Dallas' cheek. "Mommy can handle both; you don't need to worry about it," The doorbell rang just then.

Audrey thought it was Ryan returning, so she opened the door with Dallas in her arms.

Nathan stood outside the door, observing Audrey cradling Dallas in his pajamas, his gaze lingering on the child.

He remained silent for a moment.

"Do you need something?" Audrey asked.

Nathan snapped out of it. "I heard that you" He avoided talking about the casino, mindful of the child's presence.

He pursed his lips. "Let's talk separately, away from the child." Audrey put Dallas down. "The milk is done. Go sit on the couch and wait for Mommy."

Dallas looked at Nathan with a condescending gaze. He then nodded and walked toward the couch.

“I can provide you with the child’s hair for a paternity test,” Audrey said.

“I’m not here for that.” Nathan handed a credit card to Audrey. “I heard you went to the casino. If you’re short on money, you can tell me.” Looking at the card Nathan handed over, Audrey chuckled but didn’t take it. “I heard that the Franklin Group is having a hard time now, yet Mr. Franklin still has spare money to give me?” “You’re raising a child alone now, you probably need money for a lot of things- “I’m not short of money.” “Audrey! Can you stop being stubborn? How can a woman raise a child alone and not need money? What are your plans? You transferred from Sheysea University to Cloudmill 2/2 University, but you haven’t graduated yet!” do you Nathan couldn’t contain his anger. “Just because someone called you a genius, really think you’re a genius? How do you plan to support yourself and the child?

Are going to let the child suffer with you?” Audrey raised her eyebrows, looking at Nathan as if he were a fool.

She smiled faintly, not deigning to argue with an idiot. She simply said, “If you’re not here for the paternity test, then please leave. The best thing you can do to help is not disrupt our lives.” you At the same time, Ryan, dressed casually and carrying a thermos bag, stepped out of the elevator.

Ryan’s eyebrows furrowed when he saw Nathan, revealing his evident displeasure.

“How did you find out about this place?” Ryan asked.

Nathan tightly clenched the card, reluctantly greeting, “Mr. Lambert.”

Nathan handed the card to Audrey again.

“Take this inside first.” Ryan handed the thermos bag to Audrey, then turned to Nathan as he entered through the door.

“Audrey doesn’t need money; what you’re doing is just trying to alleviate your own guilt –it’s unnecessary.”

“I’ll leave the card here, consider it a token of my sincerity.”

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 187-“Wait a moment.” Ryan stopped Nathan.

Ryan glanced back at Audrey and Dallas, then spoke softly, “Audrey isn’t just called a genius—she is a genius herself. Nathan, even though you haven’t fully regained your memories, you can thoroughly investigate Audrey’s past.

“At 13, she could have been admitted to Mythravia University for her PhD. You need to grasp how truly talented she is. She chose to be with you, to support you in your development, sacrificing the opportunity for a direct PhD.

admission.” “Nathan, you’re hindering the progress of a genius.” After saying this, Ryan didn’t even look at the card and closed the door.

Audrey’s talent was first discovered at the age of 13.

Even the dean of Mythravia University felt regretful upon seeing Audrey at the time.

She might have already achieved something significant by age 13 if she had been discovered and nurtured earlier.

When Ryan first heard about Audrey, he believed she was too young to grasp the significance of being admitted directly to Mythravia University for her PhD.

However, when Ryan saw Audrey’s clear and calm eyes, she knew Nathan was hindering the progress of a genius.

This was also one of the reasons why Ryan had never liked Nathan.

Outside the door, Nathan was speechless.

He had no idea that Audrey had been admitted directly to Mythravia University for her PhD at 13.

“Who’s that?” Dallas asked Audrey.

“That’s your Mommy’s former classmate,” Ryan explained as he removed his coat.

Dallas didn’t seem satisfied with this explanation.

After drinking his milk, he ran into the bedroom. The child then connected his laptop to the surveillance camera at the entrance and took screenshots to investigate Nathan.

That afternoon, Audrey and Ryan went to the cemetery with Dallas.

Dallas wore a little black suit and placed flowers before Anne's and Harper's tombstones.

After wiping the tombstone clean with a cloth, Audrey squat down and gazed at Anne and Harper, who were smiling in the photo.

"Aunt Anne, Harper, don't worry. Charles is about to learn what hell truly means very soon!" That evening, news spread that several entertainment venues in Sheysea, including those Charles frequented, had received a shocking video of Charles being stripped naked.

Some parts of the video were pixelated, but Charles' face was as clear as day.

His pleading expression as he begged those people to spare him was captured vividly.

But what awaited Charles was only torture.

Charles became famous in a way that nobody could have imagined.

Conversations about Charles were happening everywhere.

"Wow, I didn't expect Mr. Murray to be so flexible!" "I didn't expect Mr. Murray to spend money like this!" "I didn't expect him to like men!"

spot.

At this moment, Charles was already back home, trembling under a blanket, hiding from the world.

Charles dared not recall the three days of inhuman torture.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 188-All of this was voluntary on Charles' part because he didn't want his organs to be harvested as repayment, On the way home, Charles saw his video being played on the huge screen outside the nightclub's main entrance. Upon the sight, he completely broke down.

People were filming the electronic screen with their phones ceaselessly, commenting on his voice and his body's flexibility.

Even though it was pixelated, the world knew he had been with men! He wasn't gay!

Charles felt his stomach churn, rushing to the restroom and vomiting uncontrollably.

The whole world had seen him fawning over men. He could no longer face anyone and couldn't go on living.

He could even imagine the looks of ridicule and scorn he'd receive.

Charles huddled into a corner, pulling his hair back and trying to hide himself in the crevice between the sink and the toilet bowl.

Charles never imagined that the things he would do to control and bully other women would come back to haunt him.

He had become a trending topic overnight.

"Amelia's cousin enters the adult industry." "Video of Amelia's cousin's inappropriate behavior." "One-night stand with seven men." Those were the headlines that drowned out all other news that day.

Amelia nearly dropped her phone when she saw the video.

Amelia could not reach Charles on the phone, so she called his home and learned that he was hiding in the bathroom, refusing to come out.

Despite Yolanda's efforts to prevent Amelia from contacting Charles, Amelia still went to Murray Residence.

She knocked on the bathroom door.

"Charles, don't be afraid. Nathan has already sent someone to delete the video.

Come out first, let's figure things out together. Were you coerced into making those videos? We can go to the police." "No!" Charles' voice was filled with fear. "We can't go to the police!" Those people had even more damning videos in their hands. They would release those videos if Charles went to the police, and he would have no way of living.

"Okay, okay. Let's not go to the police for now. Just come out first." Amelia spoke gently, trying to soothe him.

Not long after, the sound of footsteps echoed from the bathroom.

Charles opened the door.

He was wrapped in a bathrobe, his body covered in injuries, and his eyes red from crying.

"Amelia, I can't face anyone anymore!" Amelia embraced Charles. "Don't be afraid, I'll help you."

"Is it the people from the casino?" Amelia squeezed Charles' arm tightly.

Tears streamed down his face as he remained silent.

"How much money do you owe the casino?"

"I think in this kind of situation, we should still go to the police first. After all- Amelia burst into tears at the sight of Charles' distressed state.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 189-Thinking about the photos taken by Carol, Amelia recalled Audrey's foster sister, who had been filmed jumping off a building.

With Charles' dire situation, it was hard for Amelia not to see this as Audrey's retaliation.

"Charles..." Amelia followed him into the bathroom.

She crouched down to look at him wedged between the toilet and the sink. She asked softly, "Did you encounter Audrey at the casino?" Charles looked at Amelia with tears welling up in his eyes.

“Did you encounter Audrey or not?” Amelia’s tone was firm.

“It’s that bitch! It was Audrey!” Charles suddenly remembered the gambling incident. with Audrey. “I was winning just fine! But as soon as she showed up, I started losing! I kept losing!” Amelia held Charles’ hand and said, “You should stay at home for a few days.

Don’t use your phone and don’t watch the news. Wait for this storm to pass.

Everything will be fine. We’ll go abroad if we need to.” “Yes, abroad! Amelia, please send me abroad! I can’t stay in Cascadia for another minute!

Charles burst into tears.

Michelle rushed upstairs after hearing the commotion and started hitting Charles..

“You little rascal! Your father and I have you as our only child, and we’ve given you everything! Out of all the things you could have done, you chose to do this with so many men. You’ve completely disgraced us!” Amelia hurriedly intervened. “Mrs. Murray, please stop!” “It’s all because of you!” Michelle pointed at Amelia. “It’s because you insisted on becoming a star! Would Charles’ situation have been made public if it weren’t for you? If it weren’t for you, no one would even know who Charles is!

“How did I raise a backstabber? You refused to assist the Murray Group, and our family business is on the verge of being taken over by Nathan. And now, she’s trying to kill my son!” “Mrs. Murray...” Amelia was hurt by these words.

didn’t listen.

It was understandable that the Franklin Group wanted to hold the Murray Group accountable.

As for Charles, Amelia could only plead with Audrey to spare him if she was indeed responsible.

Audrey had already left by the time Amelia found her residence in Sheysea.

Nathan had been busy recently, so Amelia didn’t ask for his help. Instead, she kept spending money to have Yolanda buy scandals about other celebrities, attempting to divert public attention.

She hoped that with time, people would forget about Charles.

Returning to Mythravia, Audrey and Dallas finally arrived at the entrance of George's mansion.

This time, Audrey had mentally prepared herself. She slowly calmed down with Ryan's soothing voice.

Wanda was holding Lily's little hands at the gate of the Lambert Residence.

Audrey took a deep breath and got out of the passenger seat, her gaze fixed on Wanda.

Paige noticed Audrey's hesitation. She had watched Audrey grow up.

"Mommy!" Lily let go of Wanda's hand and ran toward Audrey, hugging Audrey's leg.

However, when she looked up, she saw Audrey staring at Wanda.

Lily held Audrey's hand and said, "Mommy, don't you miss Lily?"

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 190-Ryan also got out of the car with Dallas in his arms.

"Dallas!" Wanda's gaze was drawn to Dallas. She smiled and opened her arms toward Dallas.

The usually aloof Dallas behaved like a cheerful puppy, laughing as he leaped into Wanda's embrace.

George stood by with his cane. Seeing nothing unusual with Wanda, he relaxed and smiled at Audrey. "Let's go and talk inside." Audrey lifted Lily and followed Wanda inside, sitting down on the couch.

She handed a box to Wanda. "I brought you a bracelet. I hope you like it." Wanda looked slightly surprised as she accepted it with both hands. "Thank you." "Try it on." George smiled.

Wanda put the bracelet on her wrist, where faint scars could still be seen. She looked delighted.

Lily clapped her hands. "It's beautiful! Wandflower looks beautiful no matter what she wears!" Audrey pinched Lily's little face.

Wanda spoke up, "I really like Lily and Dallas. I don't know why, but I felt a very familiar feeling the first time I saw them—just like when I saw you." Audrey's heart skipped a beat. She hadn't expected Wanda to say that. Her eyes immediately turned red.

She carried the blood of the Yeomans family, after all.

Before sitting down with Wanda, Audrey worried that Wanda would be triggered and recall unpleasant memories upon seeing her.

Back then, every time Wanda saw her in Lambert Residence, it seemed like she wanted to kill her because she was also a member of the Yeomans family.

Ryan smiled and looked at Audrey. "It's probably fate." Anyone would think Wanda's spirits were fine if no one had said anything.

After sitting with Audrey for a while, Wanda took Lily and Dallas to the garden to water the flowers.

George noticed Audrey's gaze following Wanda. He picked his teacup up as he said, "I'm having my birthday banquet next month. Will you have time to come?" Audrey smiled. "I will definitely come to your birthday banquet." "Someone come quick! Ms. Wanda has fainted!" Paige's panicked voice came from the distance.

George stood up in shock as Audrey and Ryan rushed over.

George followed with his cane, spotting the bodyguard carrying Wanda out.

Paige's face was pale as she held onto the two children behind her, his voice rising. "What's happening? What's going on?" Ryan took the frail Wanda from the bodyguard's back and walked into the house, instructing, "Get Dr. Brooks here. Quickly!"

Dallas and Lily quickly approached Audrey, each wrapping their arms around her, looking frightened.

Audrey followed behind Ryan with the two children, but George stopped them after just a few steps.

“Okay.” Audrey didn’t hesitate at all.

She held the hands of the two children tightly. “If she wakes up, please ask Mr.

Ryan to give me a call.” George looked at Audrey’s concerned expression and nodded. He then instructed the driver to take Audrey and the two children back.
