

Meeting The One For Me

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 221-Taylor's eyes were cold. "Don't waste the chance I'm giving you to talk!" The six people huddled back to back while holding sticks in their hands without saying a word.

Audrey sighed while Taylor gestured with a stern face.

Soon, the six people were beaten to a bloody pulp, and they all screamed in agony.

Twenty minutes later.

Audrey walked up to the six people lying on the ground who were barely breathing. She took out a photo from Andrew's shirt pocket and looked down at them, asking, "I'll give you one more chance to talk. Who sent you to deal with me?" Before Andrew could respond, his phone, which was lying nearby, rang.

Just as Andrew reached for his phone, Audrey's high-heels landed on the back of his hand, and it caused him to scream in pain.

Audrey bent down to pick up the phone and looked at Andrew, whose mouth was gagged, then answered the call.

"How's it going? Is it done?" Yolanda's voice came through the phone.

Audrey raised an eyebrow. She glanced at Andrew, whose mouth was gagged.

"Are you Amelia's manager?" Upon hearing Audrey's voice, Yolanda immediately hung up the phone.

Audrey chuckled lightly as she looked at the hung-up phone. Then, she opened Andrew's WhatsApp and saw a screenshot of a payment from Yolanda.

Audrey looked at Andrew and asked, "Why did Amelia's manager give you 500,000 dollars? What were you supposed to do with it? If you don't talk now, you won't have another chance after I leave." Andrew looked at Audrey, whose smile had a deeper meaning. Then, he glanced at the thugs around him. Fear crept into his heart, and finally, he nodded.

After the rag stuffed in Andrew's mouth was removed, he said, "It was Yolanda who gave us 500,000 dollars to film a video of you and... and cut your face.

There's a record of the conversation in the phone call. If you don't believe me, you can listen to it." Audrey raised an eyebrow. Amelia's manager was indeed ruthless.

Of course, Audrey knew what kind of video he was talking about.

Her despicable methods were the same as Charles'.

Taylor clenched her fists tightly. She kicked Andrew in the face. "You bastard!" She found the folder in the phone where the call recordings were stored.

Then, she played Yolanda's call recording.

"Do you think I'm that stupid? I'll use the video to threaten Audrey, that bitch!

What do I have that's worth threatening?

you Upon hearing this, Audrey paused the phone call recording. This evidence alone was enough.

Audrey handed the phone to Taylor, who was grinding his teeth in anger.

"What should we do next?" Taylor asked.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 222-Andrew nodded repeatedly. "I understand. Since I've been deceived by that bitch, Yolanda, she shouldn't have it easy either!" If Yolanda had truthfully told him how powerful Audrey was and that she had someone backing her, he would have demanded an extra 500,000 dollars to be fully prepared!

Fortunately, he hadn't done anything to this woman yet. Judging by her appearance, she had some power backing her. She was not to be trifled with.

Audrey got into Taylor's car and headed back.

Taylor was furious. "How can Matteo's savior turn out to be such a despicable person! How dare she make her manager do such a thing? I won't let her off easily!" Audrey looked out of the pitch-black window indifferently. "If I'm not wrong, Amelia is likely unaware of this. Amelia has always been a pure little flower!" Even if it was just a pretense.

Taylor frowned. "You're Nathan's ex-wife while Amelia is his current fiancée! If it wasn't Amelia, who else could have done this? Don't think too highly of people!"

If it weren't for your alertness, who knows what could have happened?" Audrey's lips curled up, just like they did with Charles. "From what I know of Amelia, she would at most turn a blind eye to this happening. She would never have ordered it. But since Yolanda is Amelia's manager, let's put Amelia on the hot search as well!" Yolanda hung up the phone, feeling anxious. She wondered how Andrew managed things so poorly.

Audrey had answered the call with a calm voice, so Andrew probably hadn't succeeded in the plan and had been caught instead.

Amelia came out after showering and saw Yolanda pacing anxiously by the tall window.

"Yolanda? What's wrong?" As soon as Amelia finished speaking, the doorbell rang and the housekeeper opened the door.

A police officer stood at the door and flashed his badge. "Ms. Jones, please come with us to assist with the investigation!" Yolanda's face turned pale instantly.

As Taylor's car stopped downstairs at Audrey's house, photos and videos of Yolanda being taken away by the police had already made it to the hot search, though they were currently at the bottom.

By the time Audrey said goodbye to Taylor and went upstairs to her door, the hot search had climbed up to the third spot. However, she didn't notice that along with it, a search term about Matteo's alleged relationship had also risen.

After Audrey opened the door, she saw Ryan standing by the coffee table. He was looking through Samuel's files with an angry tone on the phone.

"Yes, take it down! Remove them even if they're censored!"

"Is it over?" Ryan draped the suit jacket over the back of the armchair.

Audrey had already told Ryan about her dinner with Taylor and Matteo that day.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 223-When Ryan saw the files on the table, he already knew that George had been here.

Ryan loosened his tie and sat on the armrest of the single couch as he watched Audrey approach him.

After unbuttoning the top button of his shirt, he grabbed Audrey's wrist and pulled her closer to him. He then unbuttoned her suit, which belonged to Matteo and threw it aside with disgust.

"Do you know that pictures of you and Matteo have gone viral?" Ryan asked.

Audrey looked puzzled and reached for her phone, but Ryan stopped her. "I've already had the trending topic taken down." The image of Matteo cutting steak for Audrey and then escorting her to the car after they left the fancy restaurant irritated Ryan.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

Ryan's voice was gentle as he asked, "He cut steak for you and even helped you put on your coat. Even if you're friends, isn't that crossing the line?" "These past few years, Matteo has been researching brain interfaces, hasn't he? He asked me about it during an exchange meeting in Slovomia a few years ago. This time, he was so attentive during dinner because he wanted to invite me to join his team.” Audrey looked at Ryan and realized that he was jealous. Still, she hid her smile and didn’t call him out on it.

“So, is that why you allowed him to cross the line or do you have some other intentions with him? If you’re considering a future with him, I wouldn’t recommend it.

“You might as well go with Mr. Lambert Senior’s recommendation for Samuel.” Ryan’s dark eyes behind his glasses made it hard to discern his expression.

Audrey was taken aback. “Do you want me to choose Samuel?” Ryan held the back of her head with one hand and wrapped the other around her waist. He then pulled her into his arms, and his tone was possessive as he said, “I want you to choose me.” Audrey’s handbag dropped as she placed her hands on Ryan’s chest. Her heart raced uncontrollably once again. Her gaze involuntarily fell on Ryan’s lips, which were dangerously close.

Just as she was about to speak, she was tenderly kissed by Ryan’s scorching lips.

He kissed Audrey as he stood up.

“Mmm... “Audrey moaned.

Her steps faltered as Ryan’s kiss made her retreat. Soon, she was pushed back against the dining table behind her.

Her long skirt was pushed up, and Ryan gripped her legs, pulling her toward him. Their bodies were pressed tightly together.

Despite Ryan kissing her more gently than ever, Audrey couldn’t help but tremble.

As Audrey wrapped her arms around Ryan’s neck and responded to the kiss, Ryan, who had always been calm, grabbed the back of her head and kissed her almost frantically.

His kisses grew deeper and more forceful as he pressed her slender, soft waist against him.

It wasn’t until Audrey was about to suffocate that Ryan finally released her lips.

Ryan took off his tie from the stiff collar of his shirt and wound it around his palm. "I'm going to take a shower."

She came to feel because of Ryan's kiss, only to realize that he had no intention of continuing.

It was so embarrassing! How did she become so lustful and unrestrained?

But now, she was easily seduced by Ryan.

Their first time together had been because of the effects of drugs. But what about the many times after that?

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 224-She was ignited so easily by Ryan. She even found herself anticipating what might happen next.

Had her psychological trauma unknowingly healed over time, or was it Ryan's dominant nature that had healed her?

Blushing, Audrey tucked her hair behind her ear and picked up her handbag and Matteo's suit from the floor. She recalled Ryan's dark expression when he was on the phone just now. She was unsure if he was jealous.

If she were to be with Ryan, they would undoubtedly face significant troubles and pressures in the future.

After all, Ryan was the adopted son of the Lambert family.

Even if Ryan were to leave the Lambert family, there was no denying the fact.

Audrey liked Ryan. However, she didn't know if she had the courage to face future troubles and pressures. She also didn't know if she had the courage to resist George.

Unable to sleep after taking a shower, Audrey tossed and turned in bed. She wondered if Ryan planned to sleep in the guest room.

As she was about to get out of bed to go to the kitchen for water, she was startled to see Ryan standing outside with a towel around his neck and wet hair.

“Was Amelia’s manager trying to harm you?” Ryan’s phone was still lit up. It seemed he had just hung up.

Audrey nodded. “I didn’t want to tell you to worry you.” “Are you hurt?” Ryan pulled Audrey out of the dim bedroom into the living room and sat her down on the couch to check her.

Audrey responded to Ryan’s examination while saying, “I’m fine. They didn’t lay a finger on me. As soon as I went downstairs, I noticed someone was tailing me.

So, I had Taylor call some people to beat them up and send them to the police station. It also caused Amelia’s manager to trend on social media,” As Ryan examined and confirmed that Audrey was fine, he sat on the coffee table with a frown. His stern and narrow eyes looked at Audrey, silent, as if lost in thought.

If Audrey were to be with him, they might still face such situations.

Are you scared?” Ryan asked.

Hiring someone to harm others was indeed a low-level tactic. If one ever wanted to deal with someone, never use methods that would leave evidence.

Ryan’s expression turned cold. His eyes behind the lenses were calm and they showed no signs of emotion. After a while, he said, “You should go to bed.” Audrey looked at Ryan’s still damp hair and nodded. “Remember to dry your hair before sleeping.”

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 225-Ryan took the glass of water, and he instructed her, “You should sleep early.” As Audrey heard the closing door of her bedroom, Ryan lowered his gaze and took a sip of the hot water she had given him. He clenched the glass and walked to the guest room. The veins on the back of his hand bulged, and his jawline tensed. He dialed a number on his phone and spoke in a cold, stern tone.

“I don’t want those people, including Amelia’s manager, who were involved in today’s incident to come out unscathed. Understand?” When Audrey woke up at seven in the morning and went to brush her teeth, her hand froze upon checking her phone and seeing the top trending news.

Amelia’s manager, Yolanda, who was detained for attempted crime, was beaten unconscious in the detention center and urgently sent to the hospital.

After rinsing her mouth, Audrey leaned against the sink and scrolled through the photos on her phone.

Audrey raised her eyebrows and dialed Taylor’s number. “What’s this tactic?

Medical parole? Did Amelia’s manager get medical parole?” Taylor couldn’t hide his gloating laughter as he spoke. “No. I just got off the phone with the lawyer, and she really got beaten up in jail! I heard that Yolanda was beaten unconscious by the people detained with her. They found out that Yolanda ordered someone to film indecent videos of another girl, so they beat her half to death! Isn’t this a case of the wicked reaping what they sow?” “Oh...” Audrey responded. Then she heard the beep of another incoming call on the line. Seeing it was an unknown number, she said to Taylor, “I forgot to ask you yesterday. How long did you give Nathan?” “I gave him a week.” “We can send Charles to jail now.” Audrey heard the beep of another incoming call again. It was the same number as before. She said through the phone, “I have to hang up now. There’s another call.” “Alright! Charles won’t escape for stealing trade secrets! As for the vicious act the of your ex–husband’s fiancée did, don’t worry, I will make sure to get her the harshest. punishment through legal means,” Taylor said.

manager After hanging up, Audrey answered the other call and pushed open the bathroom door to walk out.

“Hello, who’s this?” Amelia’s voice came through the call and her tone was faintly tinged with cries.

“Audrey! I’ve heard about what happened to Yolanda. I’m sorry. It’s all my fault.

Yolanda wanted to hurt you because of me! Audrey, I know it's too much to ask now, but can you forgive Yolanda?" Audrey held the glass of water and walked out of the bedroom. She said into the phone, "I thought you should be more concerned about Nathan. I didn't expect you to have time to worry about your manager." In fact, when Audrey received Amelia's call, she thought Amelia had seen the trending news from the night before and wanted to ask if she had already told Matteo that Amelia wasn't the one who saved him years ago in Italy.

She didn't expect Amelia to call to plead for her manager.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 226-Audrey walked to the guest room door and knocked, intending to ask Ryan if he wanted breakfast, but there was no response. She pushed the door open.

The room was neatly arranged and showed no signs of anyone sleeping there.

The bathroom was empty too.

He couldn't have gone to work so early, could he?

Audrey tightened her nightgown. Just as she was about to take out her phone, hesitating whether to call Ryan and ask, she received a message, and it was from Ryan.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you. Recommend: Clean Your Browser Cache now to access missing chapters.

Ryan's message read, "I won't come over these days. I'll pick you up on the day of Mr. Lambert Senior's birthday banquet." Audrey returned to the living room and sat down on the couch. She held her phone. absentmindedly.

In fact, Audrey had felt something was off with Ryan since the previous night.

She was sure that he had come to have feelings for her at the dining hall, but he had stopped just in time, unlike the previous days when he had been relentlessly pursuing her with aggressive dominance.

She had clearly felt Ryan's mad possessiveness toward her before. But now, was he deliberately being cold to her?

But why?

Was it because he saw Samuel's profile?

Was it because he was jealous and upset when she wore Matteo's suit?

Or was he tired of her?

It wasn't until she heard the sound of rain tapping on the windows outside that Audrey snapped out of her thoughts. She got up and walked to the floor-to-ceiling window, looking out at the pouring rain in Mythravia.

She didn't know when she had started feeling anxious about Ryan.

Perhaps it was because a man as calm and composed as Ryan had shown her extreme and intense affection in private, and his sudden withdrawal left her at a loss.

Aside from Nathan, Audrey had little experience with romantic relationships. She was arguably blank in that regard.

Her initial relationship with Nathan had been natural. She had been attracted to Nathan's persistent and somewhat obsessive love for her. This was because she was abandoned by her family and needed such love to fill the void in her heart.

To Audrey, Ryan had always been more rational than emotional.

Audrey would have found it hard to imagine that she would one day harbor illicit thoughts about Ryan, who was always in suit.

Pushing aside her jumbled thoughts, Audrey warmed up a glass of milk and sat down on the carpet near the couch. She flipped through the files of the board members and senior executives of Lambert Corporation that Edward had sent over.

Once she got into work mode, Audrey quickly pushed aside her distractions, After finishing reviewing the documents, Audrey called Edward. “Edward, could you please provide me with the information on the families of the board members and senior executives of the group as well? It would be best if there are photos to prevent me from not recognizing them when I meet them in the future.” “Have you finished reviewing the documents?” Edward asked.

“Yes, I’ve finished reviewing them all. Don’t worry, I’ve remembered everything,” Audrey replied.

“Alright, I’ll organize it and send it to your email before tonight.” “Thank you.”

Audrey’s phone vibrated, and she turned around to pick it up from the couch. It was a call from Daphne.

She answered, “Daphne!”

“Why did you only tell me now?” Audrey was also pleasantly surprised.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 227-“Are you guys at Mythracia University now? Let me pick you up from there and take you to the restaurant!” Audrey glanced at her watch. It was almost time.

“It’s fine. Mythracia is so jammed! We’ve already booked a restaurant, I’ll send you the address. Leave a bit earlier so you won’t get stuck in traffic! After dinner, Joseph wants to take us to a fun place!” After hanging up, Daphne quickly sent the restaurant address.

Audrey changed her clothes and grabbed her bag. Just as she was about to head out the door, she was startled to see someone standing outside.

“Ms. Yeomans,” a tall, slender young man, around twenty–six years old, greeted Audrey with a nod.

“Who are you?” “I’m your bodyguard. Julian arranged for me to come here. If you’re going out, I have to accompany you to ensure your safety. You can call me Peter.” Peter Peak sounded somewhat inexperienced.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you. Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

“How long have you been waiting outside?” Audrey asked.

“My working hours are from seven in the morning to ten at night. If you continue to stay outside after that, it counts as overtime for me,” Peter replied earnestly.

Audrey noticed there were no takeout utensils outside, so she asked, “Have you e eaten anything since this morning?” “I had an energy bar.” Audrey was speechless.

Just as she was about to call Ryan, she hesitated, worried that he might be busy. Thus, she dialed Julian’s number instead.

Soon, Julian answered the call. “Ms. Audrey.” “Did you arrange the bodyguard for me?” “Yes, Mr. Lambert is concerned about your safety, so he asked me to arrange a bodyguard for you. Since it was a bit rushed this morning, I only picked one person. There will be a new bodyguard for you tomorrow morning. They’ll be working in shifts to ensure your safety.” Audrey closed the door behind her. As she walked toward the elevator, Peter had already pressed the down button. She nodded in thanks. “This is a bit exaggerated, Julian. Over these years, I’ve also practiced some self–defense.

I’m not completely defenseless.” “Well... Maybe you can discuss it with Mr. Lambert later.” Julian chuckled awkwardly.

“Is he busy these days?” Audrey asked.

“Yes, Mr. Lambert will probably be working late tonight.” “Okay, I understand. Make sure you all have your meals.” Peter dropped Audrey off at the restaurant’s entrance, where Daphne, Azure, and Joseph were already waiting.

Daphne rushed forward and hugged Audrey enthusiastically. “Audrey, we’ve won!”

“Alright!” Peter nodded.

Daphne nudged Audrey's arm with her elbow. "Wow, what's going on? Is this your boyfriend? He looks pretty young! What a pup!"

"Let's go in! It's our turn on the waiting list!" Joseph checked his phone and urged them.

The trio and Audrey had similar tastes. They all enjoyed the hotpot.

Fortunately, Joseph had reserved a spot for them online ahead of time, allowing them to get seated as soon as they arrived.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 228-"Joseph's mouth is like a leaky sieve. Tell him something, and it's guaranteed to leak out within an hour!" Azure complained.

"I heard that the collaboration between the Franklin Group and Evergreen Blotech ran into trouble. Speaking of which, it's karma for Audrey's sc*mbag ex-husband! Still, Joseph's family wants to help him." Daphne fumed. She took a bite of snacks while glaring at Joseph.

Joseph hurriedly explained himself. "This has nothing to do with me! It's not me who wants to help him! Besides, even if I wanted to help I wouldn't be able to!"

Audrey smiled and sipped her drink without saying a word. It turned out Nathan sought help from the Gough family overseas! No wonder he had the confidence to negotiate with Taylor for compensation.

"Never mind. Never mind. Let's forget about it. Joseph said he's treating us to a night at the Night Palace. Let's take advantage of it and squeeze him for all he's worth!" Azure suggested.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you. Recommend: Clean Your Browser Cache now to access missing chapters.

"I've heard about the Night Palace in Mythravia. They say just the membership fees there are over 200,000 dollars a year, and the average spending per person inside starts at 20,000 dollars! Their servers are either ripped guys with eight-pack abs or hot women! We'll gain insights! You'd better keep your mouth shut. Otherwise, I'll tell my husband that you're the one who insisted on dragging me to see male models!" Daphne grinned mischievously, then quickly turned to look at Joseph.

Joseph made a motion of zipping his mouth. "Don't worry! I'll keep it a secret this time!"

Just after finishing dinner, Audrey was escorted out of the hot pot restaurant by Daphne and Azure on either side of her. Peter put down his burger and hurried over from the car.

Audrey said to Peter, "You can go back now! I'm going out with friends. We'll go back together later! I'm not alone. You go back and rest early!" Earlier, Audrey and Azure had already made a plan. After all, Ryan wasn't coming over these days anyway.

"But Julian said..." Audrey smiled at Peter, who seemed young. "Julian listens to me too! It's inconvenient for you to follow us. Why don't you take a cab back. I'll reimburse you for the fare tomorrow."

Peter nodded at the suggestion. He picked up his clothes and burger, then handed the car keys to Audrey.

"Alright, Ms. Yeomans, see you tomorrow!" "See you tomorrow!" Audrey nodded as she took the car keys.

Azure watched Peter walk away and nudged Audrey with her elbow. "Your bodyguard looks pretty good! Who's the Julian guy he mentioned?" "Why do you have so many questions! Let's hurry up and go to the Night Palace! I can't wait to see those guys with eight-pack abs!" Daphne said eagerly while looking at Joseph with a red face.

Joseph, fearing Audrey's suspicion, didn't dare to mention that his membership card was a gift from Nathan. He said, "Let's go! We're off!" As Daphne anticipated, the servers at the Night Palace were all tall men over six feet with impressive physiques, while the women were all stunning.

Audrey followed Daphne's gesture but her gaze went past the bar to Ryan, who entered through a side door surrounded by a group of strangers.

Audrey could barely see Daphne's face in the dimly lit and dazzling environment of the Night Palace. Still, she managed to spot her.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 229-The blue and purple lights, along with flickering white lights, flowed over Ryan's sharply defined facial features, yet they failed to leave any trace of the festive atmosphere on his cold and stern face.

Ryan was impeccably dressed in a shirt, tie, waistcoat, and suit. His trousers were crisply pressed. His expression remained stoic as he walked toward the elevator with a few people respectfully surrounding him. His appearance stood in stark contrast to the men and women in the environment around him.

Audrey held onto the railing and took a few steps in the direction of the elevator, but she could only see Ryan's tall silhouette rising inside the ascending elevator.

Didn't Julian say that Ryan would be working late? How did he end up here?

Daphne caught up with Audrey. Curious, she peered at the elevator ascending.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

"Audrey, what's going on? What are you looking at?" "Nothing. I'm going to make a phone call." Audrey took out her phone after that.

Audrey walked to a quieter spot. She had intended to call Ryan, but as she was about to dial, she hesitated. If the call went through, who would she be to ask him where he was?

Still, Ryan was here with those people, and Julian wasn't with him. Audrey couldn't help but worry that Ryan might be in danger.

She decided to call Julian instead. She dialed four times before Julian answered. "Sorry, Ms. Audrey. I was taking a shower." Julian was home?

Audrey gripped her phone tightly. "Sorry to bother you. I just wanted to ask if you're with Mr. Lambert." "No, about an hour and a half ago, Mr. Lambert said it was getting late and asked us to go home. He should be home by now. Perhaps he still has work tonight, so he went back to his place," Julian said.

So they weren't together.

"Okay, I understand. Thank you." After hanging up the phone, Audrey felt uneasy. She caught the attention of a passing waiter who was about to deliver drinks to a private room.

With a harmless smile, Audrey asked, "Hello, may I ask what's on the fourth floor that elevator over there leads to? I'm a little curious and want to take pictures down on the elevator. Can I go up and take a look?" "Oh, that's our boss's private elevator, and it's not accessible to others. The fourth floor is our boss's office, and it's off-limits," the waiter explained.

So that was the boss's office up there. No wonder there was someone guarding the elevator.

Audrey watched the waiter leave and eventually decided to call Ryan again.

It rang three times, but there was no answer.

Audrey sent him a message instead.

She gave Ryan half an hour. If he didn't respond within that time, she would figure out a way to go 11 and check. She'd be ready to call the police if necessary.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 230-Audrey looked around the private room and then turned to Daphne who was in extreme excitement. "Where are Azure and Joseph?" "Oh, it's Azure's first time here at Night Palace. She got excited and dragged Joseph downstairs to have fun," Daphne replied while pointing to Azure sitting at the bar downstairs. She was busy capturing photos of the bartenders mixing drinks.

"Why aren't you down there? Don't you like men with abs?" Audrey teased Daphne.

"Sigh! I'm already a married woman! It's more than enough to be able to watch them. If Justin finds out I went down there, I'll be in trouble!" Daphne pouted.

Audrey absentmindedly glanced at her phone and there was still no message from Ryan. When she looked up again, she saw Nathan downstairs next to Joseph.

Nathan had his hands in his pockets, frowning as he talked to Joseph. He looked up as if he had sensed something and met Audrey's eyes.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

Joseph also glanced upstairs.

In the glimmering and decadent lights, Nathan turned to head upstairs, but Azure blocked his path. She looked angry and said something.

Nathan impatiently pushed Azure aside, but Joseph quickly caught her and called out to him. from behind. He and Azure followed Nathan upstairs.

A faint smile played on Audrey's lips. Was Nathan here to confront her?

True, Amelia had a good relationship with her manager, but Audrey had gotten her thrown in jail. Amelia's cousin, Charles, had also been sent to prison by her.

Anytime Amelia cried in front of Nathan, he was surely going to get anxious.

Daphne, who was busy admiring the handsome men's abs, saw Nathan approaching and immediately pulled Audrey behind her. She grumbled, "Isn't that your ex-husband? How come he doesn't have the decency to act like an ex-husband? A qualified ex-husband should be as dead as a doornail. Does he still want to talk to you?" Nathan ignored Daphne, who was petite and blocking him. He looked at Audrey and said, Audrey. Can we talk?" The music around them was deafening. Just as Daphne was about to speak, Audrey gently grabbed her wrist and pulled her to her side.

"Nathan!" Joseph and Azure caught up with them.

Andrey smiled at Joseph and Asure, "It's okay, I'm also curious about what Mr.

Frankin wants to talk to me about."

“Thank you, but no.”
