

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 234

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 234-The Ryan before her, unlike the one seen on television, sophisticated and composed, was also different from the one who openly declared his desires for her in private “Nathan! Nathan, don’t scare me! Wake up!” Joseph held Nathan, who had collapsed to the ground.

Joseph’s cries brought Audrey’s attention back. She looked down at Nathan, who was lying on the ground after taking the blow meant for her, and quickly dialed 911 on her phone. Audrey had just finished reporting the address on the phone when her arm was grabbed by Ryan, who had a grim look on his face.

He pulled her out of Room 8923 and toward the exit of the Night Palace.

Ryan, tall and with long strides, walked extremely fast, while Audrey had to jog to keep up with him.

“Ryan, slow down!” Audrey’s voice was drowned out by the intense music, just like the screams from Room 8923 had been earlier.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

“Ryan!” Ryan dragged Audrey out of the Night Palace through a side door and straight to the parking lot. He walked to the car, opened the passenger door, and tried to push Audrey inside.

“Ryan.” Audrey braced herself against the car. She was unwilling to get in.

Ryan looked at Audrey and chuckled before releasing his grip on her arm. “Are you planning to leave with Nathan?” He slammed the passenger door shut with his bloody hand. “Fine, go ahead.” His handsome features showed no hint of anger, and he even wore a faint smile. However, Audrey could sense that Ryan was fumed with rage.

“No, I’m not going with him. He has nothing to do with me! Your hand is injured.

Give me the car keys. I'll drive you to the hospital." Audrey stared at Ryan's still bleeding fingertips. She breathed heavily as she reached out to him.

Ryan saw the deep concern in her eyes and he gulped. He held a stern look while suddenly started to breathe heavily and rapidly.

Audrey felt a strange tingling sensation at the soles of her feet for being stared by Ryan.

She shook her outstretched hand to Ryan. "Give it to me!!

He tugged at his tie, muttered a curse under his breath, then grabbed Audrey's hand with one hand and the back of her head with the other. He pressed her against the car and kissed her. He forcibly pried open her lips, entwining his tongue with hers and kissed her savagely.

No matter what situation he faced, Ryan always handled it calmly. His loss of control was all because of Audrey.

"Mr... Mm....

She recalled about her and Nathan being in the same room, fighting with others, and being caught by Ryan!

She recalled Ryan's loss of control.

Audrey's heart beat faster and faster. She understood why Ryan was angry.

Ryan had always been bluntly telling her that he liked her!

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 235-However, Ryan also needed Audrey's affection.

Although she seemed to have been drained of all her strength by Ryan's kiss which left her defenseless, she still tried to respond to him.

Audrey sensed a momentary pause from Ryan. Leaning against his neck, she took the initiative.

Audrey recalled Ryan's indifferent expression as he beat up the middle-aged man earlier. She tightened her arm around his neck and stood on tiptoe.

Her inexperienced and eager response soothed Ryan's boiling emotions, but his greed and illicit desire for her grew infinitely.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

He was reluctant to part their lips and tongues. He pulled Audrey into his arms with his bloodied hand, forcefully opened the back seat door and stuffed her inside while she was still dizzy.

The door closed.

Audrey braced herself and moved backward.

She saw Ryan take off his glasses and throw them into the front seat. He then quickly grabbed her ankle and pulled her down beneath him as his fingers caressed her face. In his cold, sharp, pitch-black eyes, there was a frightening greed and obsession.

The bright red blood on Audrey's pale face was glaringly obvious. She was oxygen-deprived and still feeling dizzy. Her eyes were filled with tears. She clung tightly to Ryan's suit and panted. "Your hand needs to be cleaned and bandaged at the hospital. Let me drive." Audrey's sobbing voice made Ryan lose his wits. He pinched her cheek and kissed her again. He used brute force to pry open her lips and teeth, and their tongues intertwined once again. His rough actions were filled with abnormal fervor.

A passing vehicle illuminated them with its headlights. Audrey was startled. She grabbed onto her pants, which were about to be removed by Ryan. She blocked her legs with her hands and said, "Let's go to the hospital!" Ryan gasped violently in the darkness. It was a close call but was interrupted.

His tone was not very nice as he asked, "Are you that concerned about my hand?" "Yes! Let's get your wound cleaned and bandaged. Then, we'll continue at home, okay?" Audrey replied while trembling. Her voice had softened.

Audrey couldn't see the lustful desire in Ryan's eyes. All she could feel was his feverish breath against her ear.

“Okay?” She pleaded softly.” What Audrey didn’t know was that her voice was a great indulgence for Ryan’s out-of-control emotions.

This only inflated his dirty and terrifying desire for her to horrifying extend.

In the emergency room, a nurse cleaned the glass shards from Ryan’s hand before the doctor came to suture and bandage it.

Ryan looked down at his hand, which had been washed with hydrogen peroxide, and a faint smile appeared at the corner of his lips.

The nurse wearing a mask replied, “No, he can’t. He’ll have to endure it.” Ryan received three stitches on his hand.

As the doctor bandaged Ryan’s wound, Audrey stepped out of the emergency room and called Daphne.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 236-Daphne had witnessed Nathan taking a hit for Audrey. She guessed that Audrey must be concerned about Nathan’s condition out of guilt. Thus, she briefly informed Audrey about Nathan’s situation.

“Is that Audrey?” Azure’s voice came through the phone. Upon receiving Daphne’s confirmation, Azure took the phone and bombarded Audrey with questions. “Who was the guy that took you away today? Oh my god! The way he smashed the table with that old pervert’s head was so cool! He knocked the old pervert out with just a few punches. Who is this handsome suit-wearing thug? He must be at least six feet tall, right? Is he? His legs must be two meters long, and his presence fills an entire room! His long legs and slender figure exude power! I could sense his handsomeness even in the dim light! Audrey, spill the beans! Is he your new crush? Is he?” Audrey absentmindedly touched her burning ear upon hearing Azure’s exaggerated excitement. She awkwardly changed the subject and said, “I was in a hurry earlier. Are you and Daphne hurt?” “Daphne leaned closer to the phone and said, “Audrey! Don’t change the subject! Even if Azure didn’t ask, I would have asked too! Who was that man who took you away? He was so handsome!” Just as Azure said, the lighting was too dim for them to see clearly. Thus, they could only rely on their intuition to sense that the man was handsome. Still, they didn’t recognize him as Ryan.

Audrey saw Ryan coming out with his wounds bandaged. She stood up straight and said through the phone. "Let's talk about it later! I have to hang up now!"

Bye." After hanging up, Audrey walked up to Ryan. Seeing Ryan's injured hand wrapped in gauze and blood staining his shirt cuff, she asked, "How often do you need to change the dressing?"

"Every three days." "Let's head back now!" Audrey worried that Ryan might attract unwanted attention. She pulled out a mask she had requested from the nurse's desk and handed it to Ryan before grabbing his wrist and leading him to the elevator lobby.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

As the elevator doors opened, Amelia, wearing a baseball cap and a mask, with red-rimmed eyes, was standing inside.

"When Amelia looked up and saw Audrey, her pupils shrank. She glanced at the tall man beside Audrey, who wore a mask, and whispered, "Audrey." Audrey ignored Amelia. Just as she hesitated whether to enter the elevator or not, Ryan took her shoulder and walked into the elevator.

Amelia, too, was heading down to the underground garage.

Amelia and her assistant moved inside the elevator. They looked up at Ryan, then turned to Audrey.

Amelia had rushed over upon hearing that Nathan had been taken to the hospital after a fight at Night Palace. Nathan was awake, but for some reason, he had kicked everyone out of the ward, including her. She had gone to knock on his door, but Nathan had told her to get lost!

This had never happened before.

At first, she thought Nathan had mistaken her voice for that of a nurse or someone else. However, when her assistant knocked on the door and said it was her, Nathan grabbed something and slammed the door. He even told them to stay away.

Nathan had said he would find a way to save Yolanda earlier that day.

However, now he behaved strangely toward her.

Amelia looked at Audrey. Seeing Audrey with this tall, injured man by her side made her heart tighten suddenly.

Could it be that Nathan had fought with the man beside Audrey?

Or did Nathan remember something?

Amelia's mind was in chaos.

“Ding”

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 237-Ryan walked over to the car and opened the passenger door. He gestured for Audrey to get in.

However, Audrey walked over to the driver's seat and opened the door instead.

“You've been drinking, and you're injured! Let me drive.” “Go to my place,” Ryan said after getting into the car.

Audrey drove the car out of the hospital's underground parking lot. As she glanced at Ryan,, who had taken off his mask and closed his eyes to rest in the passenger seat, she felt the need to explain what had just happened.

“Today, two seniors and a junior of mine from Cloudmill University came to Mythravia. They're leaving tomorrow, so we had dinner together. The junior was Joseph, who is also Nathan's cousin.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

“After dinner, Joseph invited us to Night Palace, but I didn't expect to run into Nathan there. Nathan sought me out, and we had a private conversation. He said he wanted me to let go of Amelia's manager, but I refused!” Ryan recalled the image of Audrey gripping Nathan's tie and standing close to him in the dimly lit street near the entrance of Night Palace. The outline of his jaw bite grew deeper.

“Where was Peter?” Ryan’s voice was low.

“After we finished dinner at the hotpot restaurant, I felt sorry for him waiting alone in the car, so I let him go home to rest. I didn’t expect any trouble to happen at Night Palace. Don’t blame Peter. It was my decision to let him go.”
“You’re good at looking out for others.” Ryan spoke indifferently, and Audrey couldn’t discern his tone. She focused on driving in silence.

“Why were you at Night Palace today? Were you there for business?” Audrey tried to probe with a casual question.

“Yeah.” Ryan seemed inclined to talk. Audrey raised the temperature of the air conditioning and drove in silence.

What Audrey didn’t realize was that Ryan was only trying to stop absurd thoughts by closing his eyes and not looking at her.

After witnessing Audrey pulling Nathan’s tie and closing the distance between them, he regretted giving her time until George’s banquet.

He wished he could use all sorts of shameless means to force her to stay by his side and to force her to fall in love with him.

Ryan lifted his hand to loosen his tie and unbutton the top two buttons of his shirt.

He admitted he was jealous.

He also admitted that he lost control because of his jealousy.

But since he had promised to give her time, he had to keep his promise.

After all, this decision affected their future together.

“Feeling hot?” Audrey asked.

“Mm,” Ryan mumbled.

Audrey adjusted the temperature again.

The seatbelt buckle clicked against the wall of the car.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 238-The garage shutter had completely lowered, and it was terrifyingly dark inside the car. Audrey couldn't see Ryan's aggressively penetrating gaze and could only hear both their breathing.

Ryan's jaw was tightly clenched, and he closed his eyes to steady his breath.

Pushing open the car door, he lifted Audrey out.

The motion sensor lights in the garage illuminated.

He set Audrey down steadily on the ground, then grabbed the suit jacket from the passenger seat, closed the car door, and entered the security code of the villa before heading inside." I'll have the driver take you back." Audrey hesitated for a moment, but still quickened her steps to follow him into the elevator and up to the house. She watched as Ryan dialed the driver's number to have the car brought to the front gate.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

Meanwhile, her hands clenched behind her back.

She felt a slight sense of disappointment, though she didn't quite understand why.

Perhaps it was because, despite Ryan's urgency at Night Palace, he was now sending her back as soon as they arrived at the villa.

Was it because she hadn't explained herself properly, or did her refusal anger Ryan?

Or had Ryan grown tired of her?

Before Audrey could dwell on her thoughts, her phone rang. Glancing at the suit jacket tossed on the couch and the tie tak off by Ryan as he went to the kitchen for water, retrieved her phone.

It was Nathan calling.

Audrey frowned and blocked Nathan's number. When she looked up, she found a glass of water placed in front of her.

She glanced up at Ryan, whose expression remained unchanged, and took the water. "Thank you." The headlights outside illuminated the view from the floor-to-ceiling windows.

Ryan said, "The car's here. It's getting late. You should head back." Audrey held the glass of water and nodded. "Be careful not to touch water with your injured hand. Take care." Ryan watched as Audrey left. He then placed the glass of water on the side table, unbuttoned his shirt, and went upstairs.

Standing in front of the liquor cabinet, he poured himself a drink and downed it in one gulp.

Sitting in the back seat of the car, Audrey leaned her head against the window while watching the bustling streets of Mythravia.

She couldn't quite understand what was going on with Ryan.

Perhaps it was because she had so little experience with relationships.

Her past relationship with Nathan was straightforward. He had always been clear about his intentions, and Audrey never had to guess what he was thinking.

But this was Ryan, and Audrey found him difficult to understand.

To Audrey, Ryan was always so superior. He seemed to be in control of whatever was going on, and he also had an extraordinary intellect and determination, as well as absolute control over his emotions.

She had never imagined that someone like Ryan would lose control and resort to violence. It just didn't seem like him.

It'd cause her heart to race. His possessiveness and powerful desire almost engulfed her.

And just now, he had only handed her a glass of water before sending her away.

Audrey's mind was in turmoil.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 239-In the hospital, the doctor gave Nathan a sedative to help him fall asleep.

Joseph also had injuries on his face, but he sat by Nathan's bedside and watched as Nathaan frowned and slept.

Then, he gazed at his injured arm and sighed.

Nathan had acted like a madman just a moment ago. He drove his fiancée, Amelia, away and insisted on leaving the hospital to find Audrey.

Joseph suspected that Nathan might have regained his memory.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

He took out his phone and hesitated about whether to call Audrey and inform her.

However, he remembered the man who had just protected Audrey and taken her away. He was worried that she was now with him. What if calling Audrey led to misunderstandings between them?

Now that Nathan had a fiancée, and Audrey had someone protecting her, perhaps it was best if Nathan and Audrey had no further contact.

When Edmond heard that Nathan was hospitalized, his face turned pale.

This was a matter of life and death for the Franklin Group, and Nathan couldn't afford to let anything happen to him.

"Audrey..." Nathan suddenly clenched the bedsheet beneath him. He murmured Audrey's name. His forehead and neck were covered in sweat.

It was as if he were trapped in a bottomless nightmare.

He saw Audrey wearing her middle school uniform while sitting with him on the rooftop and offering him a lollipop.

“Don’t worry, I won’t go to Mythracia University for my PhD. I’ll grow with you just as I promised.” In the sunset, Audrey’s delicate features remained expressionless. Even as the evening breeze tousled her hair, her clear eyes were warm like the setting sun.

The scene shifted again, showing Audrey struggling to walk after just recovering from a vegetative state. Nathan had pushed her to the ground.

Frustrated, he crushed the lollipop beneath his foot and squatted down while looking at Audrey with tears streaming down her face. “I told you, I don’t want to remember, and I don’t want to try.

“Why are you so despicable? I love candy, but I only eat the candy given to me by my sweetie.

During military training in high school, several schools went to the mountains together. He had secretly hidden a phone and intended to call Audrey, who had missed training due to an external competition.

But when the instructors checked the dormitories at night, they found the phone.

Inside were all the photos he had secretly taken of Audrey, and the dormitory erupted into chaos.

Everyone asked him who the beautiful girl in the photos was, and he proudly declared that she was his wife..

The next morning, he was punished to stand under the national flag. Audrey, who had arrived late due to the competition, attracted the attention of all the boys in the field as soon as she got out of the car.

Nathan had wished that he could find a hole to hide in. He turned his face away in fear that Audrey would recognize him.

He held Audrey in surprise. “How did you get the phone back for me?”

Audrey smiled as she allowed Nathan to hold her. He whispered, “I won’t let anyone bully you either.” The scene shifted again. Hugo brought him and Audrey to the shooting range on a snowy day and told them the story of the military training.

But then, he pushed Audrey into the snow, took off his gloves, and pointed the gun at her.” If it weren’t for my sweetie, I’d shoot you dead!” Audrey broke down emotionally. “Stop calling her sweetie!”

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 240-Nathan remembered how he climbed over the wall alongside Audrey to skip class, and how they were caught by the head of the disciplinary office.

He also remembered how Audrey had promised to improve his grades by 50 places in the next exam before they were released from the teacher’s office unscathed.

He had taken Audrey to the horse farm later on and intended to show off his riding skills to her. However, he ended up falling off a spirited horse.

In the end, he could only watch as Audrey, dressed in riding gear, effortlessly tamed the fiery horse with one hand on the reins.

At that moment, Audrey shone brighter than the sun, and he remembered feeling as if his heart was about to burst from his chest.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

He remembered how he beat up the person who confessed to Audrey.

He had panicked when he saw that Audrey noticed him, but she simply grabbed his hand and used a disinfectant wipe to clean his wound. She had also told him not to act so recklessly in the future.

Since then, Nathan knew clearly that Audrey only had eyes for him. Her debate team members and clubmates were less important to Audrey than he was.

He remembered how he would sneak out during class to buy Audrey delicious snacks.

When they were supposed to have different classes, he would threaten Audrey’s deskmates and drive them away just to switch seats with them.

He would sit beside Audrey, observe her in class, and secretly feed her snacks when the teacher wasn't looking. Seeing Audrey with her cheeks puffed up, he felt happy.

But he ended up getting kicked out by the English teacher of the class.

Later, Audrey came to Nathan's class with her books and made his deskmate give up his seat. She had sat right next to him to make sure that he didn't skip class.

That was when he found out that Audrey had approached the principal and requested to be transferred to the regular class.

He knew that Audrey did it for him, and he was so happy that he couldn't sleep for days.

Some people were jealous of Audrey's consistent top performance in exams, so they criticized her behind her back and said that she was becoming too proud and arrogant.

They had said that if Nathan married Audrey in the future, he would have to do all the housework and take care of the children. Nathan beat those guys up and said, "She will be my wife. Only I can marry her!" Then, he also remembered how he climbed the trees to knock on Audrey's dormitory window, only to be chased away by the dormitory manager with a broom.

He recalled Audrey bringing him to that tree and telling him about the incident while pointing at the branches. Yet, he had someone cut down that tree later on.

He watched as Audrey struggled to hold back her emotions—she was stunned and devastated. He had mockingly whistled at her. "Tsk... The tree's gone." These overlapping images kept flashing in Nathan's mind.

They showed him how kind Audrey had been to him in the past, and they made him realize how much he had loved Audrey.

He was willing to give up his life for Audrey. He couldn't control his jealousy if Audrey took a glance at someone else. He would end up beating them up.

He recalled how he forced Audrey to register their marriage on his birthday that year. He had threatened to die if she didn't comply.

He remembered Audrey's firm and resolute gaze as she threw herself on him during the accident to shield him from harm.

Nathan then recalled how he pushed the emaciated Audrey, who was wearing the same dress she wore on the day they registered for marriage, into the swimming pool. At that time, he had held Amelia tightly and didn't allow anyone to rescue Audrey.

He saw how Audrey's friends, who had befriended Amelia, stood up for Audrey after she woke up. They had urged her to give up on Nathan and let him be with Amelia.

Back then, Nathan and Audrey used to argue all the time, but with Amelia, Nathan turned into a clingy puppy and never argued with her.

reach her.

He had watched as Audrey straightened her back and stood against all her friends, insisting Chapter 240 on making him remember the past.

ara Then, after everyone had left, he saw her huddled under the stairs in the storeroom, crying in pain as she clutched onto her knees.

He had remembered how he saw Audrey sitting in the living room, trembling as she held a glass of wine. He then watched as she swallowed the sleeping pills.