

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 65

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 65-Audrey stood up to open the curtains and looked down. Nathan was standing under the streetlight dressed in all black.

Under his leather jacket, he wore a cashmere sweater, black pants, and black boots. He was tall and slender, which was attractive enough when he stood under a streetlight.

She wore a long jacket over her pajamas, changed her shoes, and went downstairs.

Seeing her coming out, he walked toward her and pulled her into a remote corner.

“Are you pregnant?” he asked anxiously.

“Did Joseph tell you that?” she asked instead.

He didn't answer but asked gloomily, “Why didn't you tell me?” She looked at him with doubts. “Why should I tell you?” “You can't keep this child! You have to abort him!” Hearing his al commanding tone, she stared at him like looking at an idiot. “What does it have to do with you? Are you crazy? I've already left Sheysea City. Why do you come looking for me repeatedly? Are you hitting on me? Or do you think that even if we're divorced, I'll still stick to you as soon as you show up?” “Audrey!” “Are you in need of someone to please you? Do you want me to follow you?” “Audrey!” He grabbed her arm and pulled her forward. Looking at her angry expression, he paused. Then, he gritted his teeth and said, “I've successfully proposed to Amelia. I can't let this child be born! She has a strong sense of morality and has been anxious to leave me since you woke up! If she knows we have a child, she won't marry me even if we're divorced!” It turned out that he was so anxious because he thought the child was his.

She broke free from him. “Who told you that the child is yours?” He pursed his lips, and his eyes turned cold. “Do you want to give birth to the child?” “The child isn't yours,” she answered firmly.

He didn't believe it. "Then whose child is that?" She couldn't tell him whose child it was. So, she pursed her lips and remained silent. There was way for her to find a random man as her child's father!

The cold breeze blew past them, and the withered yellow leaves rustled to the ground.

The chill creeping up from her soles made her sober. She closed her eyes and gradually calmed down.

"You were with me that night..." He gulped and couldn't continue.

"That's impossible!" He sneered. "Since Ryan went there that day, nothing would have happened to you! Unless the child is his!" She didn't say anything, just looked at him quietly.

"Firstly, the child isn't yours. Secondly, I won't keep this child because I want to continue my research." She was calm and clear. "Please don't appear in front of me again."

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 66-Nathan clenched his fists, and his expression darkened.

"How did Joseph know I was pregnant?" Audrey asked.

"Your laboratory seniors mentioned that in the group. They said they wanted to take care of you" Hearing his answer, she was sure Azure had seen the pregnancy test kits in her trash can "Thank you," she said, wrapping her jacket tightly around herself and leaving Maybe it was because he found out that she was pregnant. He felt guilty, For a moment, he didn't have any temper and Just stood there watching her leave.

As soon as she entered the dormitory, she saw Azure carrying snacks and looking at her with concern.

"Audrey, that's Joseph's cousin. You..." Azure hesitated.

Seeing that the lights in Audrey's room were still on, Azure went downstairs to buy snacks, worrying that Audrey would be hungry.

But as soon as she returned, she saw Joseph's cousin bringing Audrey toward the corner.

She was worried about Audrey's safety and was about to protect Audrey when she heard Audrey's angry voice.

Joseph said that his cousin had proposed to someone. Obviously, his proposal partner wasn't Audrey.

Unexpectedly, Joseph's handsome cousin was Audrey's scumbag boyfriend, who lost his memory on the day they married! He was her ex-husband!

He was a super scumbag! He divorced his pregnant wife!

"He's my ex," Audrey said lightly, "I'm fine. Don't worry.

"I saw your lights were still on, so I bought you snacks." She showed the midnight snacks to Audrey.

Seeing Nathan standing before the dormitory, she took Audrey's arm and walked inside. "If you want someone to talk to, we can eat together." Early the next morning, when Joseph came to the laboratory, he saw that Audrey had put on protective goggles and a mask and started conducting experiments. He glanced at her while sorting out yesterday's experimental data.

Although he didn't know what her relationship with Nathan was, Nathan told him to take care of her before he came here. He was curious.

After Azure filled Justin and Daphne in on what happened last night, they found out that Joseph's cousin was Audrey's scumbag ex-husband. Because of that, they even disliked Joseph by extension.

He was puzzled by their attitude all morning.

At noon, she came out from the laboratory and took off her rubber gloves. Her fingers were already turning pale.

"Audrey, I brought you food! Come eat at the lounge!" Daphne invited her.

"I'm coming!" Sitting in the lounge, she sent a message to Harper to remind her to have lunch, only to see a message in her text box.

Seeing that it wasn't an advertisement, she clicked on it. Her pupils suddenly tightened.

Audrey looked at the photo in a rage. As if someone was strangling her, she almost couldn't breathe.

She held the phone and couldn't help but tremble. It was the uniform of Eastville Junior High School!

"Audrey, let's eat!" Daphne opened the lunch box and saw that Audrey was pale. She quickly wiped her hands and walked toward Audrey with concern. "Are you feeling uncomfortable?"

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 67-Harper was full of hope and joy when Audrey took her out for dinner yesterday.

She said that she was happy to transfer to a new school and that her life would be good in the future.

It turned out that she was happy to leave Eastville Junior High School.

Anxiety and distress lingered in Audrey's heart, and she couldn't dispel it.

She should have been more careful and discovered earlier that some students had bullied Harper at Eastville Junior High School.

"I'm fine." She forced a smile and sat down to eat with everyone. Her phone vibrated again. Harper replied, telling her to eat well and adding a cute little emoticon at the end.

She was slightly relieved. Fortunately, she transferred Harper to a new school.

She was going to talk with Harper this afternoon.

If Harper was unwilling to pursue the case, she would accompany her out of her trauma in a new environment.

But if Harper was strong enough and willing to deal with those bullies, she would protect Harper and accompany her to send those bullies to the police station or even jail.

But who had sent her the message?

WhatsApp.

After adding them on WhatsApp, she discovered that it was Charles.

Soon, he sent her a video. The photo just now was taken from this video. She stood up abruptly.

“Audrey, are you not going to eat more?” Daphne looked at her.

“I’m full. I want to take a walk.” She sat on the bench downstairs. After turning down the phone volume, she tried to calm down before she dared to click on the video. In the video, the bullies wrapped a shoe in a towel and slapped Harper’s face.

She cried in fear, and those demons laughed wildly. They said they would let her ask for help. But she couldn’t speak and could only silently kneel and beg for mercy with her body language.

Audrey covered her mouth tightly, tears streaming down her face.

Charles asked, “Do you want to see something more exciting?” She originally wanted to make a phone call. But she endured her sadness and anger as she had to leave proof. She typed tremblingly.

“Did you ask them to do it?”

When she sent another message, he had already blocked her.

She took a screenshot of the chat page and organized her thoughts.

Harper replied soon with unbridled joy. She felt relieved and returned to the laboratory.

At 5:40 pm, Daphne received a call while sorting out data. She was startled, stood up abruptly, and turned to look at Audrey.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 68-“Okay! I got it!” Daphne put down the data, walked to the laboratory, and tapped on the transparent glass Audrey poured the reagent in accurately and called Joseph to keep an eye on it.

Daphne pulled her aside as soon as she came out.

‘Audrey, someone posted a video at Cloudmill Junior High School! Harper might not have taken it well. She’s gone! But she hasn’t left school grounds... Audrey!’ Before she could finish speaking, she saw Audrey running out without even taking off her white coat “Azure! Go take a look!” She quickly took off her white coat and shouted to Azure, who had just walked in.

Audrey’s mind went blank.

Did Charles send the video of the bullying to Cloudmill Junior High School? Did the students comment about Harper?

She dialed Harper’s phone as she rushed toward Cloudmill Junior High School.

But it was turned off!

She sped up. All she heard was the roaring wind and her intense heartbeat.

Harper sat on the rooftop, covering his ears. Her bloodshot eyes were full of fear.

The scenes of being insulted and bullied repeated in her mind. She cried bitterly, but her voice couldn’t come out.

Those bullies started bullying her long ago, but she hadn’t dared to tell Anne.

After Anne’s death, they became even more unscrupulous.

She didn’t dare to let Audrey know about it as well. So, she would always tidy up and adjust her mood before home.

She had been afraid that Audrey would discover the bullying, which was why she didn’t want Audrey to return to Eastville.

But later, they took off her clothes, burned her with cigarette butts, and wanted to make her scream... She buried her head in her knees, feeling extremely anguished.

She thought she would have a new beginning in a new city and had left hell. But they didn’t let her go!

Why did those videos appear at Cloudmill Junior High School? She couldn't stand the way others looked at her!

The classmates who were so friendly in the morning called her a bitch in the afternoon. They even asked her how much she earned for a one-night stand. The friends who always had meals with her also avoided her.

She couldn't bear it. It seemed like she would never escape hell.

After some time, she took out her phone and sent a text message to Audrey in tears.

Just as Audrey rushed to the teaching building, she heard a bang and paused.

Soon, there was a commotion and screaming in the classrooms.

"Someone jumped off the building!" "She's behind the teaching building!"

Azure, who was panting and trying to catch up with her, followed her.

The shoes that fell aside were the ones she had bought for Harper before school started.

She immediately rushed over, squatted, and checked on Harper.

Harper was still alive!

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 69-Audrey trembled as she dialed the emergency contact.

"Hello, please come to Cloudmill Junior High School! A girl fell from the building!"

Yes, it's right behind the teaching building! I don't know where she's bleeding from, but she's still bleeding. I know. I won't move her." She gave the address, then called out, "Harper! Harper!" She didn't know where Harper was bleeding from and didn't dare to move her.

She trembled badly while checking on Harper's breath, fearing that her weak breath would stop.

Soon, the principal, director, and teachers gathered around.

Azure didn't know how to comfort Audrey. Daphne also squeezed out of the crowd and covered her mouth in shock when she saw the scene.

Soon, the ambulance and police arrived.

It wasn't until Harper entered the emergency room that Audrey collapsed on a hospital bench. Her hands were full of Harper's blood.

"Audrey, here's your phone." Azure handed her the phone and sat beside her to comfort her. "Don't be afraid. It was from the 9th floor. There's still hope. Wasn't there news that a child who fell from the 28th floor was safe? Everything will be fine." She saw an unread message from Harper and clicked on it with her bloody hand.

"Audrey, I can't take it anymore! I can't escape from hell! Sorry, I want to find Mom! I'm behind the teaching building. There's no one here. Even if I jump, I won't hurt anyone. Audrey, please bury me with Mom! Sorry, Audrey, I can't forget those memories. It hurts. Death is my only relief." Harper sent the text message just before jumping off the building. She typed out whatever came to mind incoherently.

After reading the message, Audrey finally couldn't hold back and burst into tears. Even Azure couldn't help crying after seeing it.

If Harper decided to die, she wouldn't leave a chance for others to save her.

Before she decided to die, she even considered whether she would hurt others by jumping off the building. As a result, she still couldn't be saved. The doctors said she had no will to live.

In less than two months, both Anne and Harper were gone.

Audrey had promised Anne at the grave to take good care of Harper. But Harper was also gone. She stood in despair outside the operating room and cried uncontrollably.

"Audrey!" Azure held her shoulders and wanted to say something, but she didn't know how to comfort her. "Audrey..." "Audrey, you must hold those bullies accountable!" Daphne trembled after watching the video. She had never seen such vicious students. “We can’t let them go!” They abused, beat, and even raped Harper. They were devils!

There were boys and girls, and their behavior in the video was vicious, which wasn’t something that ordinary people would do, “They’re already 14 years old. They can bear criminal responsibility!” Daphne burst into tears.

At the police station, Audrey was determined and wanted to hold all the bullies legally accountable.

She couldn’t hold back tears but spoke clearly, “Here is evidence!”

There was also a photo from this morning and screenshots of WhatsApp chats.

The female police officer kept comforting Audrey, who was shaking, “Don’t worry. The law won’t let them go.

“Audrey!” Nathan rushed out of the car and shouted to the police, “Please help us!”

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 70-In the hospital ward, Joseph sat with Nathan and whispered, “Nathan, is Audrey’s child your illegitimate child?” “Don’t talk nonsense!” He frowned and said distractedly, “she was pregnant before we divorced!” “Divorce?” Joseph widened his eyes. “So she was two months pregnant during the marriage but you proposed to your current fiancée? Nathan, you’re a scumbag!” Nathan looked at the fainted Audrey and glared at Joseph irritably. “That’s not the case!” The phone vibrated in his pocket. He looked at it, frowned, and glanced at Audrey. Then, he got up and walked out of the ward to pick up the call.

He spoke reluctantly, “Mr. Lambert...” “Have you forgotten that you divorced Audrey?”.

Ryan’s deep voice was oppressive. Nathan subconsciously looked around.

“I’ve asked people to suppress the photo of you hugging Audrey in front of the police station. The trending topic of your successful proposal to Amelia is still on the internet. I don’t want Audrey involved with you two again. Go back to Sheysea City now.” to he Ryan sounded calm, but it frightened Nathan.

“Mr. Lambert, my mother asked me to send my cousin to Cloudmill. He’s in the same laboratory as Audrey. I had initially left, but...” he said with difficulty, “I found out Audrey is pregnant.” 1 Before getting a response, he frowned and continued, “I initially wanted to watch her abort the child, but her sister jumped off the building. I didn’t know what to do.” After a while, Ryan said, “You should go back first. I’ll handle this matter.” “But...” Ryan interrupted, “Or do you want the old story between you and Audrey to resurface?” He pursed his lips and said, “But her child is mine.” “Her child isn’t yours.” Ryan’s tone was impatient. She was drugged that night, but he wasn’t. He was pretty sure it was her first time sleeping with a man. The child was his.

“She has nothing to do with you anymore. Understand? Since you’ve chosen Ms. Doyle, don’t get involved with your ex. Don’t make more rumors and cause trouble for everyone!” After a long silence, Nathan finally gave up. “Okay, I understand. I’ll return to Sheysea City at dawn.

“I’ll leave Audrey’s affairs to you.”

“Cancel it!” He turned around, picked up the coat on the sofa, put it on, and walked out.
