

Only Fuel 111

Chapter 111

"This place is indeed huge."

He looked around, amazed at Kimberly's creation. Calix decided to take a piss so he go to the toilet. On his way, a woman intentionally pushed her chest towards him.

"Kyah~"

"Be careful."

Calix caught her shoulder before she could even do her intention. The woman clicked her tongue and looked up at him. She was pouting.

"Mou, I want to surprise you."

Yuna hissed while pouting her lips. Calix chuckled and tapped her head. This woman knew how to make his heart beats faster.

"This is a public place, it's bad to flirt here."

"But I miss you."

"We just have sex last night."

"And I still miss you."

She hugged him and the passengers started looking at them. Some raised their brows, while some clicked their tongues.

"You show yourself, that means that you already completed your fuel."

"Un."

She nodded. She stalked Calix for ten hours straight and she completed it now.

"I don't want to become an emotionless woman ever again, I want to be happy with you."

She rest her head on his chest, sniffing his scent. She couldn't believe that she smelled his scent all night long. That thought sent shivers down her spine, it was the best night of her life, she felt like her underwear was getting soaked.

"Where are you going?"

"I'm going to the toilet."

"Yey! Let's go together!"

"W- Wait!"

Yuna didn't listen to him and she pulled him into the toilet. The toilet was crammed and they were sticking together.

Yuna helped Calix and unzipped his pants, she guided his cock and aimed it to the toilet bowl... To be honest, Calix couldn't piss like this especially when a woman was holding his peaceful cock.

"Go on, just release it."

Yuna said playfully and Calix gritted his teeth. He released his urine while Yuna was holding his rod of destruction.

Yuna pushed the flush with a smile on her face.

She was just getting started.

She was biting her lip, bent her body forward, she was looking at Calix with her begging expression. Then, she raised her skirt and slowly took off her g-string and gave it to Calix.

"This is my gift."

Calix gulped and instinctively put the g-string into his pocket. Yuna giggled as she watched Calix putting her g-string into his pocket gently like it was a treasure.

She was still bending over and her pussy was quite clear to see, it was shaved smoothly, moist as juice slowly rolled down to her legs. Possibly the love juice last night was still inside of her pussy, this was a sign of Calix's territorial conquest. The fact that his cum was inside her raw pussy made him proud of himself as a man.

Calix's little buddy was getting excited and stood up.

"We don't have to do foreplay because I'm already wet. And we have to do it quickly because people are going to get suspicious."

She gazed at him seductively, she was wagging her ass and enticing him.

Calix didn't think twice and inserted his fat cock into her pussy. Yuna moaned but Calix covered her mouth and put his fingers in her mouth. Yuna sucked his fingers and kissed them. Yuna turned her head and accepted his advance.

Calix pistoned her pussy like there was no other day. The best thing about Yuna was she was used to rough fucking, she easily get off whenever Calix strongly pounded her.

He was smashing her plumpy bottoms and Yuna couldn't control her voice anymore. She covered her mouth to muffle her voice. Instead, the sounds of pounding echoed inside the toilet.

"Haaahhh, yes baby, yes baby. Mmmm, Fuck me, fuck meeeeeee!!!"

Yuna was pleading Calix to ravage her more. Calix grabbed her waist and started whacking her. Yuna's eyes rolled and her hips started convulsing, she cum so hard that she lost her strength. If not for Calix who was holding her waist, Yuna would definitely fall.

Furthermore, Calix was still not finished, he still didn't cum. Despite being weak, Yuna did her best to give him pleasure. Calix sensed that Yuna wasn't comfortable with the position because her legs were getting strained.

So Calix guided her. He closed the toilet bowl and Yuna sat down with her legs wide open. Calix inserted his huge shaft into her juicy meaty hole.

Yuna began moaning, her legs locked Calix so that he would definitely cum inside her. This was her gesture to Calix, saying that she wanted his sperm inside her. She kept her leg locking and Calix was banging her non-stop.

"Calix..... Caliiixxx!"

"Yuna..."

Calix growled as he felt that he was going to release it.

Yuna bit her lip as she felt his cock convulsing inside her. Yuna's legs were firmly locked to make sure that Calix won't pull it out.

Just as she wished, Calix pumped his semen inside her. Slapping his balls against her wet pussy to make sure that every drop of his sperm was inside. They were both breathless and their faces were so close. Calix kissed her sensually.

He only pulled his dick when it was already limped, he looked down and he witnessed how his semen slowly oozed out of her pussy. But before they could escape the gash and drip, Yuna scooped them up and licked them. She swallowed them with no hesitation.

I tell you, she's so goddamn hot! A keeper, a Yandere keeper!

When they came out of the toilet, their sweat was all over their bodies and people looked at them with firm gazes. Apparently, they heard the whole show that they did inside the toilet. Particularly, Yuna's moans were so loud that the passengers heard her across.

Most of them glared at the two. Yuna just giggled while Calix scratched his head. It was kind of embarrassing, but it didn't change the fact that it was exciting to do it outside of their comfort zone.

Calix returned to his seat and found that his seatmate changed his location, his seatmate was an ordinary guy. I mean, who wants to seat with a man who just fucked? Perhaps girls would find it hot but not for boys.

So Yuna sat beside him, she was hugging him the whole travel. She was squeezing her boobs against Calix, rubbing them on his shoulder.

To top it off, Yuna would sometimes lift her skirt to show that she wasn't wearing any panties. After all, she just gave her g-string to Calix.

She got closer to him and whispered.

"Welcome to the High Mile Club, baby~~"

Chapter 112

"Impressive, you hit me once."

"Gah!!"

Calix crushed into the wall, his head bleeding and his vision was getting fuzzy. His ribs were definitely damaged at that.

"Good job, Leon."

"Yes, milady."

The bodyguard kneeled before his master, the beautiful blonde woman.

Calix raised his head, he saw Marianne smirking at his suffering. That was the last thing he saw before he lost his consciousness.

.....

.....

...

The city of Evitac, Calix's hometown.

They landed safely and the passengers started coming out of the flying ship. Calix stared at Yuna who was sticking so close to him, she was hugging his arm, rubbing her boobs against his.

"Yuna, I just want to ask, where do you plan to stay?"

"Me? I want to stay with you."

She said, with her golden eyes begging him. Calix averted his gaze, he couldn't stare at her like that. Or else his strength would crumble. He might pull her to the toilet and fuck her again.

"Well, I don't have a problem with that... but you have to keep our relationship a secret. You see, I only talked to my father about Scarlett... He didn't know that I have other girlfriends."

"Can't you just say to him that I'm one of your girlfriends?"

She was pouting, acting so cute.

"No, my father will become confused."

"Then how about you tell him that you broke up with Scarlett and you're dating me. That's a great plan."

She whispered the last sentence. Her intention slowly crept up.

However, Calix just shrugged and didn't treat her seriously.

"Silly, I'll never do that."

"Why?"

"Because I love Scarlett."

"... Tch."

Yuna clicked her tongue and hugged him more. She didn't care about the gazes of the people around. They could watch all they want.

"Yuna, promise me that you will not act like this in the house."

"Okay, sir~"

"Good."

"If you want, I can maintain my stalking mode so that you can be relieved."

"No, I want to introduce you properly to my father and my nanny... Although I have to introduce you as a friend, sorry."

They took a taxi and went to their destination. Calix lived in a simple subdivision and he loved this place, where he grew up.

To be fair, Andreas Romoel, Calix's father earned millions annually. He could buy a mansion without a problem if he wanted to.

But Andreas thought that it was useless to buy a large house just for a small family. On top of that, he was not the type who brags about his earnings. He only spent his money whenever he needed to. He would send a fair amount of money to Calix's bank account once a month. Calix was thankful for his father.

The taxi dropped them right in front of the house.

"I'm back..."

He said. His heart swelled as he looked at the home that he didn't see for three years.

He would be lying if he said that he didn't miss his home. This was the place where he grew up. The home where he spent almost all of his life. He sniffed, trying to hold back the tears. Real men only cry when they have to cry.

"Yuna, let's go-"

Calix turned around and realized that Yuna was missing.

"Yuna? Where are you... that girl, it seems like she's serious about full-time stalking. I guess I have to prepare a lunch for her in my room."

When Calix found Yuna's fuel, he realized that his existence would become a huge part of Yuna's life. Because Yuna would lose her emotions once she didn't stalk him within a week. He became a cure and curse for Yuna.

"This means that Yuna will always be close to me to keep her emotions..."

Honestly, he feels sad that Yuna had to go so far just to maintain her fuel. Fuel was like a curse to TA Users, because once they failed to maintain their fuel, the backlash would spring back and torture them. Just like what Calix experienced.

This means that Calix had to have sex at least once every three days. Perhaps this was the moment that Yuna was waiting for. She wanted to show Calix what she could offer, she wanted to become his fuel source(Intimate fuckbuddy with the intention of stealing him from his girlfriend) to keep his Luck.

Calix took a step and knocked on the door. Then, someone inside the house flinched and ran towards the door. An old woman who had wrinkles but her eyes were sharp and healthy appeared before Calix.

"Hello, Nanny Lola..."

Calix choked up and looked down at his old nanny.

Nanny Lola changed, the last time he saw her, she was still standing straight. But now, her back was slumped and she was having a hard time standing straight.

"You little boy, welcome home."

Her eyes slowly teared up. She tried to stop her eyes from tearing up but in the end, she cried. She weakly punched Calix on his chest, this young boy made her anxious for years. Andreas said that Calix didn't want to return home so Nanny Lola became worried.

Now, the pain stuck in her chest vanished. Nanny Lola was already 67 years old and yet this little boy of hers made her heart anxious.

"Do you know how much I want to go to your Academy to talk to you?"

"I'm sorry Nanny, I promise I will always visit from now on."

"You better be, or else I will die because of heartache."

"Nanny."

Nanny Lola scoffed and smiled after. Calix entered the house and found that there was another person inside. He heard from his father that Nanny Lola brought her granddaughter to help her because she was getting old.

The woman in front of him had a stiff smile. She had long black hair and dark brown eyes, simple features with minor freckles on her nose that made her appear to be innocent.

"Nanny, she is..."

"Ah, she's Lou. She's my granddaughter, she's eighteen. Just like you, she just graduated from high school. She's planning to go to college while she's here."

"Ah yeah."

He nodded.

"I- I'm Lou Viola. Nice to meet you, s- sir." She added sir, stuttering and blushing for unknown reasons.

The maid tried to bow gracefully but she failed. Her face was blushing because of that. She couldn't believe that she was acting like this in front of the young master. Especially when he was so hot and sexy! Oh, God, it was embarrassing. She wanted to hide her face in a hole.

"I'm Calix Romoel, nice to meet you."

Calix smiled and the girl was awestruck. Calix was so handsome.

Chapter 113

Kimberly was sighing a lot these days. She was working under her father's company, the Cudgel Tech, one of the greatest weapon companies in the world, its stock price reach above a trillion dollars. Especially when the newest version of the battle suit was released. Each neighboring country ordered their battle suits and the Cudgel Tech was earning tons of money.

CEO Mark was smiling these days, opposite to her expression. Actually, CEO Mark gave Kimberly 25% of the earnings so this clumsy woman was a bonafide billionaire. She earned from the sales of the flying cars, a massive discovery. And now, she has another source of income through this new version of battle suits.

"Haaaahhh..."

Yet, Kimberly was not happy at all. She took a long sigh. She had her own office room and a cute secretary, but she didn't feel satisfied at all. Not when she was missing Calix so much, she was itching, addicted to his scent. She wanted to see him, kiss him, and have him inside her.

"Haysst..."

She sighed as she felt like her body was getting hot. Just by remembering Calix, Kimberly already became horny. What more if Calix was here? Kimberly would definitely pounce on him and beg him to fuck her so bad that she would forget her name.

"I promise, after this week, I will go to his house and greet his father... My father-in-law..."

She squealed at that idea. She didn't forget the reason why she became the Chief Operating Officer(COO) of the Cudgel. Kimberly wanted to stand equal with Scarlett. Especially now that Scarlett became famous because of the recent news that she broke through and became a 2nd Advanced.

"Maybe the world will be deceived, but not me. Scarlett, I know that you became a 2nd Advanced because of Calix."

Just like how Kimberly gained the ability to read and write Runes, Scarlett gained something from Calix. Kimberly fixed her glasses, she only had to stay here for a week. Then she would travel to Calix's house and greet her future father-in-law. She planned to give Sir Andreas the newest version of the battle suit, she was doing her ways to get his approval.

"Miss Kimberly?"

Her secretary, Harper Elizabeth showed up. She was a top graduate from a great college, Horvart University, and she worked for the company for five years. CEO Mark made her become Kimberly's secretary because she was a smart woman.

"Yes, what is it?"

Kimberly raised her head, the trouble in her face vanished and she became concentrated on her work.

"They already finished with the documents, the only one remaining is the practical experiment."

Harper said while giving the documents to Kimberly.

Kimberly read the documents and signed them. This experiment was not that big, they were still in the first stage.

"Um, Miss Kimberly ... Do you have a boyfriend?"

Harper shyly asked.

Kimberly halted and glanced at her, she raised her brow as she fixed her glasses.

"Why are you asking me about that?"

"N- no, it's because I saw that you're not engaging much when men talked to you."

Kimberly bit her lip. This was one of her problems too. Men kept pestering her, some tried to make a move on her but she just disregarded them. They could never reach Calix's greatness, in relationships and bed.

"Yeah, I have one."

"Really?" Harper's eyes beamed, she wasn't good with romantic relationships so she was curious how Kimberly handled hers. "Director do you have a tip on how to get a guy?"

"Get a guy? Just seduce him."

She waved her hand, that's what she did to Calix. Heck, she locked the room, wore an alluring dress, and then wham, Calix fucked her to death.

"I see... Maybe I can do that."

Harper ingrained that in her mind.

"Then, what about your sex life. How can he last in bed? My ex is a big derf, he can only last five minutes and sex is not satisfying."

"My baby can last forty minutes straight(that's the minimum)."

Kim Kimberly said nonchalantly.

"Really? He can last forty minutes straight? I'm jealous."

Kimberly smugged, she felt proud because of that.

"Then, ehem, how big is his... you know, down there. How big is his PP?"

Harper knew that she was stepping out of the boundary but she was curious.

"How big, huh... I'm not sure but it's definitely bigger than nine inches."

"What? W- wait? What? Your boyfriend can last forty minutes straight and he had a huge cock?"
Harler glanced at Kimberly, she gulped down.

"I'm surprised that you can still stand up. For me, that kind of exercise will be hellish... But, gulped, was it good? I heard that big dicks are so good."

"Yeah, definitely good."

Kimberly nodded and subconsciously touched her abdomen, she was missing his dick inside her pussy.

.....

.....

...

Meanwhile, Scarlett who was talking to the Clan Elders.

"I feel a great disturbance in the force..."

...

Meanwhile, Yuna who was eating fast food close to Calix's subdivision.

"I feel a great disturbance in the force..."

.....

...

"Achoo!!"

Calix sneezed as he changed his clothes. He didn't know that the 'great disturbance in the force' was moving to give him another smut scene.

After changing his clothes, he went to the kitchen and found that Nanny Lola and Lou were preparing lunch.

Apparently, Andres Romoel was going to come home. It was because Calix came back and Andreas wanted to talk to him. He determined to take a vacation since the problem of the Aberrants around the border was settled. After a month, they successfully killed the Dragon-Class.

Andreas confirmed from Scarlett that Calix man-upped. They met at the border although their locations were different, the border was almost region-wide. It had towering walls to protect them against the Aberrant. Scarlett was blushing at that time when she talked about their relationship.

"Did you finish your bath?"

Nanny Lola asked and Calix nodded.

"Yes, nanny."

"Good, we can wait for your father to come home."

Calix was actually nervous to meet his father after three years. He expected that he would receive guidance/beating. His father was strict and he taught Calix to be a proper person.

'And there's no proper child that will not return to his home for three years...'

He said to himself and swallowed a groan. He had to be ready because Andreas would definitely compel him to have a sparring match. He was the one who taught Calix about Martial Arts, and it was always hellish training.

Chapter 114

The Red Tempest Clan. It was a Clan that had the ability to control heat. As of the current state, Bronal Robinson was the current Patriarch of the Clan.

Robinson was the surname of the person who built the Clan. At first, Red Tempest Clan was made by twelve different Clans that had the power to control heat and turn it into fire. The Robison Family was the head. Although as time passed, the families slowly merged because of arranged marriages to strengthen their powers and Term Attributes. Then, they officially declared their families as a Clan as a whole. So despite having different surnames, they were all connected by blood because all of them had arranged marriages between one another to maintain their abilities.

And right now, Scarlett was facing the Clan elders. They were the head of the Twelve Families under the Clan. So far, their conversation was fine but Scarlett knew the reason she was called.

Scarlett glanced at her father who was sitting at the highest position. Bronal was the only person who reached DemiGod in their whole Clan. So it was worthy for him to become the Patriarch.

Bronal was staring at her and the elders around. Never did he open his mouth the whole time.

"... One day, I will take that seat."

Scarlett whispered but her voice was so heavy. The only way to have freedom was to topple this Clan and rebuild it to her liking. She was not the type who avoid the problem, she was going to fix it one way or another.

"Ah, now that I think about it. Scarlett, I heard that your engagement with the first young master of Cudgel was canceled."

Scarlett smirked. It seemed like their true intention was showing. Just like always, she was going to be used as a tool to further strengthen the Clan. Just like what happened last time, the worst was Bronal agreed to their proposition last time.

"Do you remember Methacula from the Rosanic Clan of the neighboring country Junian? I heard he's currently trying to find -"

"I'm sorry Elder Scroll but I don't have any intention of getting into a relationship right now. I'm trying to do my best to become 3rd Advanced."

"No, I don't have any intention of doing that, I just want to-"

"You don't have to worry, my cultivation is rapidly increasing."

Scarlett stopped his words before he could even finish.

'You old stinky man, I bet you gained something from them. Methacula? I'm much talented than him so don't bother telling his name again.'

She sneered internally.

Genetic is a major factor for the Clan. Just like how Marianne inherited her features of being an Elf, the Red Tempest Clan was taking genetic as important stuff.

Scarlett was a talented woman, she was the youngest person who became 2nd Advanced. It was apparent that her children would be talented too, perhaps more talented than her.

'It's disgusting, I am not a pig that will birth for your conveniences.'

She admitted that this Clan was fucked up from the inside out. She glanced at Bronal who was still indifferent.

She was hoping that her father would protect her, she was disappointed that her father didn't defend her at all.

The conversation kept going on, this meeting was actually for the elders to congratulate Scarlett yet some of them pestered her about having arranged marriage. Of course Scarlett denied them without a problem. She only have one person who she wanted to marry with.

"I think it will be better for the Clan if Scarlett married a stronger Vindicator from the other Clan. Maybe we can arrange her to a Clan Master so that their offspring would become-"

"That's a stupid idea."

It was a heavy voice and the meeting hall was shaken. Bronal opened his mouth for the first time.

"Scarlett will never marry a Clan Master, I can agree that her partner should be talented and worthy but I will not Scarlett to enter another Clan as a wife. It will be such a waste for Scarlett to do that, she's a Robinson, a member of the Red Tempest Clan. She will work for the Clan. I can arrange her to any talented guy but she will remain as a Robinson, the engagement with Chen Cudgel will be the last time, I don't want any connection to any young masters. So all of you here, I want you to listen... From now on, I will declare that Scarlett will be the who will inherit the position of Patriarch."

His eyes were burning with literal fire as he said those.

"W- what!!?"

All of the elders were greatly shaken. Even Scarlett was surprised, she didn't think that Bronal would say that.

"But our Clan was always led by a male!"

One of them protested, trying to defend the policies that their Clan upholds.

"Yes, but it didn't change the fact that Scarlett is the number one candidate for the position. As long as there's no person who can beat her cultivation, then my decision will remain."

The elders gritted their teeth. So far, in Scarlett's generation, she was the only one who achieved great feats so they couldn't nominate someone who could fill the position of the successor.

"..."

Scarlett stared at her father. She immediately understood the gist. She clenched her fists. At last, she was given a chance.

This means that as long as Scarlett continued her cultivation, her position as the successor would never be evoked and she was free from any arranged marriage at the same time.

This was Bronal's way to protect Scarlett.

Bronal didn't look at her. But his intention was obvious.

Once was enough, he almost hurt her daughter by getting her engaged to a sicko like Chen.

This was Bronal's way to help her. It all depends on Scarlett if she could protect her position. Their Clan prioritized talent, and Scarlett has that. As long as she showed achievements, her position as the next Clan Leader would be apparent.

But it had another meaning too, once another Clan member showed talent equal or greater than her, Scarlett would be sold to the other Clan. It was dreadful.

'But I'm ready to take the challenge. People know me as the youngest 2nd Advanced. Then I will beat another record. I will be the youngest 3rd Advanced...'

That could happen. Although she had to have sex with Calix for around hundreds of times. It was not sure but, you know, Luck can find a way.

Chapter 115

A buff guy came out of the taxi and paid two hundred dollars to the driver. He didn't even blink as he paid the money as if it was the most natural thing to do.

"H- hey, this is too big, I don't have change."

"That's what she said... Ehem. Anyway, no, just keep the change."

"Really! Thanks!"

The driver was shocked but he didn't meddle anymore. He was so happy to receive a great tip. The driver grinned and drove away.

"Thanks."

The guy nonchalantly replied and walked away.

Andreas Romoel, he is Calix's father. He's 42 years old, 6'4 feet, and has a buff body. He was still wearing his uniform.

He is a widower, he didn't have any intention of getting married after his wife died. He had a stubble beard, army cut, and serious expression, which made him look mature and hard to talk with. Although he had soft spot for his loved ones, and sometimes he would make corny dad jokes.

Andreas walked into the house but he turned around when he sensed something strange. He narrowed his eyes as he glared at the person hiding in the garden. Their house had enough space to build a garden and Nanny Lola and Lou loved taking care of plants.

Andreas approached the garden to look around. But when he got closer, he found that there was nothing there.

"... Strange, I feel like I saw a woman ."

The woman was still young, probably around the same age as Calix. She had pink hair and she was smelling something.

"It looks like a boxer brief..."

Andreas ignored it and decided to go to the house. He knocked on the door and Nanny Lola open it.

"Andreas, you're here!!"

Nanny smiled and hugged him. Andreas nodded and hugged her back. Then, he raised his head and found that Calix was waiting for him.

"Dad..."

Calix awkwardly smiled, he didn't know what to say. He missed his father, it was three years since the last time they met. They talked on the phone every two weeks but now that they met face to face, Calix didn't know what to do.

"... Welcome home."

Andreas slightly smiled, he approached him and hugged his son. He was happy to see his son again.

"Yeah, I'm home."

"Now that you are here. I guess we have a lot of things to talk about."

Andreas said and stared at him. Calix fidgeted because he knew what his father was talking about. It was probably about Scarlett.

"Yeah, I have something to say too."

Calix nodded, he wanted to clarify his relationship with Scarlett and the others. Now that Calix deciphered his Term Attribute, he understood that having a relationship with numerous women would be a strong possibility. He was not stupid enough to believe that he would have a peaceful life. Not when he got three girls to satisfy.

'My Luck is pushing me to have a relationship with a lot of women. Perhaps that is my Luck.'

As a man, Calix admitted that fucking multiple girls was indeed Lucky. If that's not Lucky, then what is?

"Now that we're all here. How about we eat!"

Nanny Lola started preparing the dishes, Lou and Calix helped her. To be honest, Calix was awkward around Lou. He was not used to having a girl in the house. Nanny Lola was part of the family but Lou was different. Calix saw her as part of the opposite gender. This means that he sees her as a woman.

As for Andreas, he just sat there and waited for the food. He was not the type who shows his expression.

"I'm going to stay here for two weeks, after that, I will return to the border."

He said and Calix listened, at least he had some time to talk to his father. He wanted to receive some advice about his problems. Calix believed in his father. After all, Andreas taught him a lot of stuff. Such as Martial Arts and shooting using guns, Calix learned all of them from Andreas.

.....

...

After the dinner, Andreas invited Calix to his office. He didn't use this room much because he wasn't in the house most of the time. But Andreas was contented when he found that the office was clean. It seemed like Nanny Lola and Lou took great care of the house.

Andreas turned to Calix who was filled with different thoughts.

"So where do you want to start?"

Andreas asked as he sat down. He wanted to know what will Calix say. He had a conversation with Scarlett when she was at the border. At that time, Scarlett was blushing whenever she talked about Calix. Andreas immediately understood the gist of the story.

He was worried about Calix's future but at the same time, he was happy that he man up. Since they were children, Andreas could see that Scarlett had feelings for Calix, albeit adoration. He was happy that Calix found his resolve for her.

"I can talk to Bronal, he may be crazy sometimes but he always does what's the best for Scarlett. I can smack his head to teach him some lessons."

Just a reminder, Bronal was a DemiGod and Andreas was just a 2nd Advanced, yet he was not scared to face him. As if he was hiding a great secret.

"Bronal will understand it. Especially when you and Scarlett are serious about this relationship. But it will not work if you are not brave enough to protect her."

"Don't worry dad, I'm serious about her."

"Good."

Andreas nodded, he could see that Calix was determined to protect Scarlett. This is his son that he nurtured to be a proper man. He was proud.

"Scarlett is famous right now, I bet the greedy elders of the Red Tempest Clan will use this situation to their advantage. It's good that Bronal is there to prevent their plan... but it's not enough. Calix, what's your plan?"

Andreas was clueless about the fact that Calix deciphered his Term Attribute. So he was trying to help Calix to find a way to protect Scarlett.

'Now that he graduated, I can recommend him to the Army. Calix has enough experience to get at least a well position in the Army if he tried hard.'

He nodded, it was not a bad idea. Andreas noticed Calix, he could see that something was bugging his mind. Andreas' brows furrowed.

"Calix, are you hiding something from me?"

Calix flinched, but in the end, he took a deep breath and told his problem.

"Dad, actually I fucked two girls aside from Scarlett."

"... What did you just say?"

Chapter 116

Andreas was surprised that his mind stopped working for a second. Then, he pinched the middle of his forehead because he felt like he might teach his son some lessons.

"Repeat it, what did you just say?"

"I have two other girlfriends aside from Scarlett. So yeah, I have three girlfriends."

Calix didn't hesitate to say it. This should be the moment where he would cower and ask for forgiveness. But Calix strongly believed that he didn't make a mistake. He knew that being in a relationship with multiple girls would be his norm, because of his Term Attribute.

So he just wanted his father to be ready. He was not going to ask for help, he was going to fix and face this by himself.

Andreas confirmed his determination, he was confused why Calix was acting like this.

"Am I hearing it right? You have three girlfriends?"

Andreas wanted to beat the shit out of him, his face was turning cold. He didn't teach his son to hurt a woman, nor take multiple women. This was truly unexpected.

"Does Scarlett know about this?"

"Yes, she knows."

"So she knows but she still agreed?"

This was getting crazy. Scarlett, a prideful woman like her, agreed to that kind of situation? It was unbelievable.

"... Okay, let's hear about it. I know that you won't tell me this without any reason. Scarlett is from a prominent Clan, we can't dare to disrespect her... you don't know how Bronal gets angry."

Having a relationship with Scarlett was acceptable, but having a relationship with two other girls is not acceptable. Bronal would definitely kill Calix if he found that Calix was three-timing his daughter.

Andreas planned to pacify the situation by giving Calix a proper position in the military. But now, Andreas was thinking of giving Calix a ticket to go to another country. So that he could escape the wrath of the Clan Leader of the Red Tempest.

"Son, your mother and I started our relationship when we're 18, just like you. I promised her that I will marry her and build a family, I want her to be the mother of my children. I keep that promise. Even now, I keep my heart close because no one can make me fall in love again--"

"Father, I deciphered my Term Attribute."

"What?"

Andreas' blossoming past was disrupted by another fact. Andreas wanted to show Calix that a man must take only one woman, that's his ideology. Yet Calix bombed another information. It took a few seconds for Andreas to understand what he said.

Andreas was cold the whole time, his emotions didn't change much. But when Calix said that he deciphered his Term Attribute, Andreas's lips curled up.

"I'm proud of you my son."

"Thank you."

This means that Calix's future was going to be better. Deciphering his power means a lot. He could join the military without a problem, or he could go to college, and half of his tuition fees would be revoked if he had an offensive Term Attribute. Never mind the tuition, Andreas was ready to cover the whole tuition fee if Calix wanted to go to college.

"Your Term Attribute is Luck, right? So how did you decipher it?"

"Um... actually, about that... You see..."

Calix scratched his head. Explaining the process was the most awkward thing. It was hard to talk about sex with Andreas because his father was always serious.

However, Calix decided to tell the truth. It was better if Andreas knew about it so that he could manage. Andreas may look bleak but people around him trust him because Andreas is a trustworthy person that always helps people, he doesn't discriminate. He is the Steel Legion.

.....

.....

...

"That explains why you have three girls... Why didn't you say so in the first place?"

Andreas glanced at Calix who was sitting straight, he was not afraid because he didn't make a mistake.

It justified why Calix had three girls around him. However, the most important thing that Andreas found was the power-up ability of his Term Attribute.

'If all he said are right. Then it means that Scarlett became a 2nd Advanced because of my son...'

It was miraculous and dangerous at the same time. People could use Calix to further develop their greed.

"Calix I forbid you from talking about your power to the others. You have good sense so you can judge if a person is bad or not. Stay out of the bad people, even if they are girls. Don't let yourself succumb to pleasure, it will cause you your downfall."

"I promise, I will never do that. I'm thinking of keeping only three girls..."

Calix promised, although the latter was kind of hard to keep. As long as he could, he won't have sex to anyone except his three girlfriends... that promise was immediately broken the second day.

"You must not talk about the pistol and the fragment too. They can cause war."

"Yes, I will."

"Since I don't have anything to do tomorrow, we will go to a shooting ground to practice your accuracy."

To be fair, Andreas taught Calix how to handle different kinds of guns. Calix has already known how to operate guns since he was twelve. However, Andreas always reminded him that guns are dangerous. They are deadly, one mistake and Calix could kill a person. That's why Andreas didn't let Calix own a gun.

But it was different now. Calix was already old and he knew the right and wrong.

Andreas could see his wife in Calix's eyes. His expression relaxed and he smiled.

"You and your mother have the same color of eyes. Green-brown eyes, just like the earthy leave of spring."

"Hm? I didn't know about that."

Calix tilted his head.

"You're still young so your memory about your mother is blurred. Your mother has the blood of the ancient Elves so it explains why she has greenish eyes, you inherited that too."

"I have Elven blood?"

His brows raised, this was the first time that he heard about it.

"Yes, I think your mother said that she's from the lineage of High-Elf of Fate."

High-Elf, or to be precise, the Higher Elves. They were groups of Elves that have unique powers. Usually, the powers of the Elves were always connected to nature, but a few ones had certain connections to some phenomenons such as Time, Fate, Light, Dark, Death, and Life. They were the Higher Elves.

"Isn't the Oracle a High-Elf of Fate?"

"Yes, he or she is a High-Elf."

Both of them were not sure about the gender of the Oracle. He or she was the only person who could discern the future from the string of fate of each person. It was unconfirmed but it said that he or she was sleeping in a certain place.

Chapter 117

"Your mother, Clara, is from the lineage of the Elves. Based on what I know her aunt is living close to Port Aoneon right now."

Andreas tried to recall it. He was not sure. His wife had a broken relationship with her family so they didn't talk much. Although Andreas attended once to their family meeting. Most of them looked young while the others looked old, it depends on the Elven blood. Genetics probably worked their way to their family.

'Clara's parents are from Junian, I heard that her father died last year. I'm busy at that time so I didn't attend... As for Calix...'

Andreas glanced at him. He and Calix had friction last year because he tried to ask him to go to Junian but this kid didn't budge at all. He said that he would only cause trouble there.

"So my grand-Aunt is living close to us? Why didn't I know that?"

Calix didn't even know that his mother had an Aunt.

"I only know it recently, I met her right when you started high school. She visited your mother's grave. Apparently, she's the black sheep of the family so she didn't return to her country. I don't know the exact reason by the way."

Calix furrowed his brows.

"Remember when I said that you have to go to Junian to attend your Grandfather's funeral?"

"... Yeah, I remember that."

Calix scratched his head, he was kind of bitchy that time. His backlash was ongoing and he kept suffering. So he strongly disagreed when Andreas talked to him about visiting his grandparents' place. Besides, he wasn't that close to them anyway. He didn't even remember their face. Heck, he didn't meet them at all.

"I know what you're going to say, why didn't your mother take you to your grandparents' place."

Calix nodded, he was curious about that. He didn't have a strong recollection of his mother's relatives. As for Andreas, his parents died early and he was the only child. He didn't have any relatives... Andreas thinks.

"You see, your mother actually ran away. When she was fifteen, we studied in the same high school and that's where I met her. Since then we started our relationship."

Andreas smirked. Clara's father was so livid when he found that she brought a husband to their family reunion. Her parents were shocked that their daughter was already married.

'I heard that Elves has adventurer side, maybe that explains why Clara and her Aunt traveled to another country.'

Overall, they didn't have much connection with Clara's relative.

Calix realized that his mother had a complicated relationship with her family.

"What about you, father? Does your family has a connection to Ogre or Dwarves?"

Calix unintentionally asked.

"Hm? Why do you think so?"

Andreas' pupils slightly trembled.

"Nothing, I just thought about it."

"... Okay," Andreas nodded. "We indeed are from the lineage of Ogre."

"Really?"

Calix felt like he slowly getting close to the answer. Perhaps this explains why he could handle the pistol.

"Your grandfather is a half Ogre. Just like you guessed, your great grandfather is a pure-blooded Ogre... I didn't speak to you about this because I kind of ashamed of my lineage. I'm actually happy that you didn't inherit the Ogre's characteristics... but I guess I'm wrong."

Andreas sighed. Calix's sexual history explained it all, he had the blood of Ogre in his veins.

"What do you mean?"

"Your grandfather is a womanizer. He has strong libido that he always thinks using his lower head, he always fuck around, literally. And girls love him too, he was good in bed. That's the reason why he died. He died in a car crash together with an identified woman, the autopsy found that they were having sex when the accident happened. My mother had a heart attack, probably because of shock from what my father did."

"..."

Calix swallowed, he felt like he saw a premonition.

'Why do I feel like that scene will happen to me?'

"That's why I promise that I will never become my father. I only love Clara for the rest of my life."

Andreas gazed at Calix seriously.

"Son, if I'm right. Your Fuel is connected to our Ogre lineage and your Term Attribute is connected to your mother's lineage, the High-Elves of Fate."

Calix listened.

"Ogres has strong libido and they have strong stamina, they love long hours of sex. It explains much. On top of that..."

Andreas swallowed. He didn't want to say the last part. Because he felt like it was the reason why he has strong feelings for Clara.

"On top of what?"

"Ogres and Elves had a unique relationship since ancient times, it depends on you how you will understand it. I don't want to elaborate on it. There are no pure Elves in the present time anyway."

.....

...

Since ancient times, Ogres and Elves has this sexual relationship. Elves loved to fuck Ogres. Elves may be a noble species but they have insatiable lust, only Ogres could satisfy them with their big dicks and unlimited stamina.

It was fortunate that there were no pure Elves anymore, women from their lineage were not strongly connected to that inscriptions ... But it doesn't have to be a pure Elf, right?

.....

...

"Aannh~ Mmm..."

After Calix came out of the office, he decided to return to his room. On his way, he felt like he heard something unusual. He turned around, trying to find the noise.

"... Someone's moaning?"

He was not sure.

"Does my sense of hearing upgraded or something?"

He asked himself.

He decided to find where the noise was coming from and he stumbled in front of Lou's room.

It was slightly open and Calix peeked inside, then, she found Lou masturbating. Her moans were muffled because she was biting her pillow and it was already covered with saliva, her bottom was up to the air and an egg-sized vibrator was stuck inside her pussy. The vibrator was around 2 inches in size and Lou felt pleasure in it. It was strongly vibrating and Lou was trying her best to stay quiet.

Calix gulped and decided to leave her. He didn't want to disturb her self-touching time. He knew how to respect someone's privacy.

The next day, Calix and Andreas went to a shooting ground.

It was 40/40.

That was Calix's score against unmoving targets from 100 meters course. It was a great score, a complete one hundred percent. To top it all, Calix was using an ordinary handgun which he had to reload every 17 rounds of bullets. He had forty targets and he hit them in the chest and head.

"I feel like my body is slowly changing as time passed."

His senses were heightened as if he became a superhuman. He felt like he had an upgrade. This explains why he could hit forty targets without flinching.

Chapter 118

Andreas approached him and tapped his shoulders. It was 100 percent accurate.

The other people were looking at Calix with awe. They were shocked that a young person like him would be proficient with guns.

"I'm proud of you son."

Andreas nodded his head. However, while looking around, his eyes squinted when he detected a woman from afar. He was sure that this was the woman that he found last night, the same exact woman who was lingering around their house. He tilted his head and glanced at Calix.

"Son... Did you take a woman in our house?"

"Fu--!!"

Andreas asked and Calix lost his aim. Yet his bullet still hit the target, what kind of Luck is that?

Calix coughed and faced Andreas. He wanted to speak about Yuna but Calix knew that Andreas wasn't fond of the idea of a harem. So Calix shut his mouth about Yuna who was stalking him. Yet, it seemed like his father detected her. As expected from a soldier who had decades of experience.

"Father, you see..."

"You don't have to explain to me. I just want to make sure if she's dangerous or not... Because I feel like she's staring at you right now."

It was far away but Andreas felt that the woman had this strong desire to pounce on Calix. He was confused why.

'Is it because of the Ogre blood in his veins? Women around him will always be thirsty. His characteristics as an Ogre are slowly showing... Perhaps that's the reason why his senses are getting sharper.'

Andres deduced it. Calix's lineages were showing up because of his Luck.

"... Let's just hope that he will not inherit their air-headedness."

He mumbled.

Ogres were known for being battle-heated, they used violence to fix problems. So far Calix didn't behave like that.

"That's it for now. I have a meeting with the mayor so I will leave now."

"Huh? I thought you're on vacation?"

"The mayor wants to ask about something important, it's work-related so I can't tell it to you. Unless you decided to work under the military."

Andreas gave him an idea of what to do after graduation.

"... I'll think about it."

Calix reloaded his gun, he would use this last set of bullets and he would be finished. He aimed the handgun at the hundred-meters targets and he hit them perfectly. Was it because of his Luck? Or was it because of his ability?

Not that it matters.

"After all, I can only hit them if I'm Lucky."

Calix understood how his backlash works. No matter how good he was at something, he would never accomplish success if he had a backlash. So even if he was good at handling guns, Calix won't hit anyone once he had a backlash. That's how his backlash works, it won't bring him fortune. Backlash always fucked him up.

.....

...

Because Andreas was going to meet the mayor, Calix drive on his own. He already knew how to use a car when he turned fifteen so it was not a problem. While he was driving, a woman appeared inside the car, next to his seat.

"Calix!"

Yuna was giggling as she kissed his cheek. She hugged him tightly, Calix chuckled but he didn't leave his eyes away from the road.

"Did you miss me?"

Yuna asked, a little bit pouting as she used her finger to coyly touch his chest. She was playing with the protagonist with her seductive gaze, she wasn't wearing a bra and she lowered her cleavage so that Calix could see it.

Yuna was more on the petite side, she had a C-cup firm chest. Calix loved sucking and fondling them because they always returned to normal. On top of that, Yuna had sensitive nipples so whenever Calix bit them, Yuna would tremble in pleasure. It was a sight to behold.

Yuna glanced at his pants, she licked her lips, bend forward, and her hands started pulling the zipper of his pants.

"... Yuna? What are you doing?"

Calix asked. He already have an idea what she was going to do. He was just surprised that Yuna would do it while he was driving.

"I'm gonna give you a blowjob, fufu. Don't worry, I'm good at this so you just have to continue driving."

She said and pulled his limp cock out, she started jacking him off and Calix swallowed the saliva stuck in his throat.

"I think we have to stop this?"

"Why? You don't want it?"

She said as she licked the head of his manhood, Calix was electrocuted.

"It's dangerous to do this while driving."

"Isn't it hot?"

She giggled and shoved the cock deep in her throat. Calix's fidgeted and he clenched the steering wheel.

Calix remembered what happened to his grandfather, he died in a car crash while having sex. Now, Calix could relate. It was indeed hot while doing it like this, it was dangerous yet pleasurable.

However, since Calix was the type who always prioritized safely. He stopped the car and parked it on the side road. There were trees to slightly cover them.

"Hm?"

Yuna tilted her head while looking at him. She was confused why he stopped but in the end, she didn't ask. Sucking his dick was more important than asking him.

Calix brushed her hair so that it won't disturb Yuna from sucking his cock. Yuna felt that his cock was slowly getting big in her throat. She started bobbing up and down and Calix was breathing hard.

In the end, they had sex in the car. Yuna received multiple backshots, she cried in pleasure. The car was bumping like crazy, some cars saw the oddity but no one decided to check it out.

Yuna was more of a leg locker, the dangerous ones. She wanted Calix's cock deep inside her so she would use her legs to lock him whenever they were in missionary and mating press position.

Well, just like what people say "Leg lockers are dangerous, but it also means that the man is doing something right."

So Calix and Yuna went for five rounds before they ended. Calix returned home in the afternoon, he was fresh as if he released all of his stress.

He found Lou on the sofa watching television, he greeted her and the woman averted her gaze while having blushing cheeks.

Calix decided to go to his room because it felt awkward to stay with Lou, especially after he witnessed her masturbating last night. It was awkward because Calix couldn't forget that scene in mind.

Chapter 119

Calix winced as he opened his eyes, he felt that a heavy thing was on top of him humping his waist. Then, he groaned when he realized that Yuna was fucking him.

"Ugh, Yuna... It's early in the morning."

Indeed, Yuna was different from Scarlett and Kimberly. Scarlett is quite delicate and she always shows her true emotions in front of Calix, she was always cold to others except him.

As for Kimberly, she was the type who always read the atmosphere. She always prioritizes Calix's happiness and pleasure. She always makes sure that Calix will cum first before her.

But Yuna was different, she was advancing, always on the top of her game, and she was always horny. Yes, the other girls were horny too but Yuna had this urge to procreate. On top of that, she was always on the attack side, she made advances towards Calix almost every day. She was flirty, she didn't care about the others opinion.

But to be honest, Scarlett, Kimberly, and Yuna were easily categorized... as horny women.

So anyway, let's return to Yuna and Calix who were fucking. Actually, it was more like a one-sided rape because Yuna took advantage of his sleeping. There was no consent at all. So yeah, technically this was rape.

"Hmmm, ah, g- good morning Calix~~!!"

Yuna greeted him as she bobbed her ass up and down, it was a cow-girl sex position. Yuna's face was covered with sweet sweat as she smiled and did her best to cum. She always runs to pleasure.

Calix groaned as he felt like Yuna was sucking his hard rock cock using her pussy. What's more, she was humping her hips strongly towards Calix.

He was greeted by literal morning sex, Calix was quite confused at first but he immediately adapted to the lovemaking.

He roared and he grabbed her waist, Yuna giggled as Calix started hammering her up. Then her giggle turned to moan until she screamed so hard because of orgasm. Yet before she could make a ruckus, Calix stole her lips before the people outside could hear.

Andreas already knew about Yuna but Lou and Nanny Lola were different. Nanny Lola would definitely be surprised if she found that Calix was having sex the first thing in the morning. Perhaps she might have a heart attack.

Calix glanced at the door, then his eyes gradually widened as he found that a pair of darker brown eyes were watching them! He recognized her.

'Oh shit!!'

Lou was watching him having sex with Yuna, which was an unknown woman to her!!

What a surprising turn of event!

Calix wanted to stop but Yuna kept moving her waist, grinding against him. She even kissed him, fighting using her tongue.

When Calix looked again, he found that Lou was already gone. However, Calix was sure that Lou saw him.

Calix glanced at Yuna, he hugged her and started pistoning her pussy. He was quite mad at what she did. Yuna's pussy was so wet that Calix's huge rod was already covered with slimy white love juice, this made his conquest easily.

Yuna couldn't control her voice so she bit his shoulder instead. This caused Calix to fuck her stronger.

"This woman dares to disturb me! Then she must receive punishment!! Imma fuck her thoroughly!!"

Calix gave her the best rough sex that she could ever experience. Calix tossed her body around and fuck her holes non-stop. He even cum inside her ass.

After that, Yuna left with a contented smile on her face. Her body had red bruises all over, and her pussy was still tingling. After a quick shower, she disappeared into the scene again.

"... I swear, Yuna is the wildest one."

Calix was seriously thinking if he could handle a woman like her. She had this strong libido.

"Just like always, she stole another one of my boxer briefs..."

He sighed. Maybe Yuna was already masturbating using his boxer. He wondered how many boxer briefs did she steal because Calix felt like his collection was decreasing. Perhaps she planned to create a dress made of boxers.

"... Maybe it's a signal for me to stop wearing underwear and go commando instead."

.....

...

When Calix came out of the room, with his wet hair because he took a shower, he found that Lou was waiting for him. The woman was fidgeting with her blushing cheeks.

"Um... I... I..."

She couldn't speak, her mouth only opened but she couldn't form a sentence. Not after what she witnessed.

Calix felt like Lou was going to talk about what happened earlier, it would be a problem so he decided to invite her to his room. It was ironic that he just came out of his room yet he immediately returned again, as if he was speedrunning.

Lou was lowering her head the whole time, she couldn't stare at Calix because she was nervous. She visited this room almost every week because she was assigned to cleaning it, she knew this room so well. Yet now that she came here with a man, she felt like she was in a stranger's room.

"Um... Master Calix..."

"Just call me Calix, I'm more comfortable with that."

"Then... Calix," Lou stole a glance, she was getting hot because Calix was so handsome.

She sniffed and she could still smell the scent of sex around the room. She felt like her womanhood was getting wet just because of that smell.

"... Actually, I have a problem and I want you to help me."

She bit her lip, she didn't know how to continue.

"As long as I can help, I will help you."

Calix assured her. To be fair, he heard from Nanny Lola that this girl was hardworking. She always clean his room so he was thankful for that. Besides, he didn't want what happened earlier to come out. It would be hard to explain it to Nanny Lola. Nanny Lola heard that Calix and Scarlett were in a relationship, and she supported them.

So it would be heartbreaking if she found that Calix was actually two-timing Scarlett. Yet Calix was actually three-timing her.

He wanted to keep what happened a secret.

'... I know that it's bad, but if she wants to blackmail me then I will blackmail her too. I will tell others that she is masturbating using vibrators.'

It was the only way to keep her mouth shut. It was dirty but Calix had his priority.

However, what came out of Lou's mouth was different.

"Calix, can you take my virginity properly?"

"Huh?"

Chapter 120

"I want to lose my virginity properly because --"

"Wait a minute," Calix massaged his forehead, this was going fast and he couldn't adapt. This woman, Lou Viola, just drop a bomb that even Calix couldn't take it well.

"You said you want me to take your virginity, properly, why?"

What the heck does she even mean about properly? Does it have another way to take virginity? Calix couldn't understand, he frowned while waiting for her answer. Honestly, he was too shocked.

"I... I saw you earlier and--"

She stuttered while having a reddened face but Calix halted her speech again.

"You saw me earlier yet you want to have sex with me?"

'What the hell is wrong with you, woman?'

This was outrageous, no one even talked to him like this. Even Kimberly and Yuna didn't assault him like this, not directly like this. Kimberly seduced him while Yuna abducted him.

"Y- yeah," She started blushing and looked down the floor. "I realized that you have experience with sex so I want to give my first time to you."

"... Okay," Calix took a deep breath. "First of all, you're not surprised that I'm having sex?"

"I think it's normal for a guy like you, at your age, to do that kind of stuff."

She said straight, and she had a point.

"Then, do you know that I have a relationship with Scarlett?"

He asked, he knew that Nanny Lola had a loose mouth. Perhaps she talked about Calix and Scarlett to Lou.

"Yeah, I do."

Lou nodded. She giggled "hehe"

'Hehe, my face...'

Calix sighed. He started to realize that maybe this woman was an airheaded innocent type. It was much different from what he expected.

'I mean, I couldn't help it. I thought she's a mature woman who has enough experience with the opposite gender because she's masturbating. You can't blame me.'

Calix thought that Lou was a horny woman who had experienced for at least one guy. Yet it seemed like he was wrong. This woman was a bonafide virgin.

"... Then, you know that the woman I had sex with earlier is not Scarlett and you're not surprised? I'm cheating on her, I've cheated on the most talented woman."

Scarlett was famous right now so he was sure that Lou knew her.

"Well, about that, a handsome guy like you will have a mistress or two so I already expected that you're going to cheat on her."

Lou said straight on his face. As if that's how it works.

Calix smacked his face, this woman had a point. From that perspective, Calix's appearance was enough for him to cheat. Because girls gathered around him. It was quite unexpected that Lou could answer his questions as if she was undergoing a job interview.

It was frustrating because Lou said it as if everything was normal.

"Besides..." Lou averted her gaze. "I have feelings for you. When I first saw you, I know that it's love."

Ah, the heart of a fragile woman. Believing that a skip of a beat is love. Well, perhaps it was because of Calix's godly appearance, or maybe it was because of his charisma. Anyway, it was indeed true that Lou fell in love, mixed with Luck perhaps.

"That's why I want to give my first time to you."

"..."

Calix massaged the middle of his brows. First, he had to know the reason why Lou was adamant to lose her virginity. She already explained why she choose him but he wanted to know the reason.

"So why do you want to have sex with me, and about this taking virginity properly, that you are talking about."

He was confused, but he got the spirit.

Lou bit her lip, the actual reason was embarrassing and she didn't know where to start.

Calix could see her hesitation. So he pushed her by saying this.

"I'm sorry Lou, but I will not agree if you don't tell me the reason. I think it's fair for me to know because I'm part of this, that is if you tell me."

Actually, Calix could tell it gently but he didn't have that urge to do that. Not when he didn't even know Lou that much. You see, Calix only respects people who respect others. The fact that this woman peeked at him while having sex and have the audacity to ask for sex was kind of a kill. Although, he peeked at her while masturbating too, but that was another story.

Besides, he could see that Lou won't speak about if he didn't push her. So this was the best way to let her speak. In a way, Calix was being considerate.

Lou listened to him and she couldn't hold her tears from falling. Now that Calix said it, she realized that she was getting improper.

"Hhhuuuu, I'm sorry." She sobbed.

"H- hey, you don't have to cry."

Calix felt guilty, he didn't expect that Lou would cry. He was weak to tears, especially to cute girls like her.

Lou had medium-length black hair clipped and tied together like a proper maid. She was not wearing a maid uniform but her temperament exuded that kind of aura. Her bangs were clipped with black clips while her hair was tied in a bun. She looked firm and proper... It was kind of a shock that she would ask for sex. What's more, asking for someone to take her virginity.

"I- I'm sorry, okay."

Calix stuttered, he didn't like making girls cry. Hah, a fucking simp. Pathetic.

"No, it's okay. It's not your fault." Lou sniffed and wiped her tears, she didn't blame him. "I just recalled what happened last week..."

Calix sighed and decided to wait for her to speak instead. For a moment, he almost agreed to her proposition of having sex without listening to her reason just because she cried.

"L- last week ago, I accidentally inserted a dildo in my... And I broke my hymen."

She was nervous and she even fidgeted when she recalled that moment. She was horny and masturbated but she made a mistake.

"Since then, I feel sad and guilty about it... So when I found you, fall in love with you, and found that you have sex earlier, I decided that I want to give you my first time. I want to lose my first time properly, not with a fake dick... Although, technically, I'm not a virgin and I expect that my hymen is already torn so..."

She averted her gaze, she couldn't look at him and her face was all red. Tears slowly rolled, she couldn't take this anymore.

"..."

Calix didn't know what to say. It was truly out of his expectations.
