Chapter 191

"Here, take this."

Calix pulled a tiny box from his necklace. This was the battle suit that Kimberly gave to him.

Nikki caught it and the box returned to its original size. Her hands trembled as she looked at it.

"T- this is the newest version of Cudgel Tech's battle suit! The C- series!"

She was surprised. She didn't expect that she would touch a high-end tech like this, much less use it herself. This was the only battlesuit that could shrink up to an inch.

"I don't even have the lower version that can be shrunk to a fist-size and yet you're just giving me this?"

Nikki was saving money for her daughter. Besides, the price of the battle suit from Cudgel Tech was enormous. So even buying was impossible. Nikki didn't have a battle suit(normal one) because carrying them was a hassle.

"Yup."

Calix nodded. He didn't care much about this C- series. He could ask Kimberly for another one.

'Nikki needs the battle suit more than me. She was paralyzed earlier. I can't let that happen again.'

He remembered how Nikki struggled to live. She was doing her best to swim yet her body was not listening, Calix didn't like to see her in despair. Especially now that he was guilty of what he did.

"... After this, I will talk to you. For now you have to use my battle suit because it's dangerous if the Umibozos hit you again."

"All right."

In the end, Nikki agreed. It was stupid to act timid right now.

'B- but this is his battle suit. I'm sure he wore at least one... D- does that mean that--'

Yup. You could say that Nikki was going to use Calix's t-shirt or boxer shorts, that was the best comparison.

"Quick, the Kraken is coming!"

Calix roared, reminding her. This huge monster kept attacking him earlier, and Calix did their best to protect Nikki. That's why he couldn't swim in the ocean and leave her.

The Kraken screeched. Its body was wounded, and three of its tentacles were missing because of Calix. The Kraken was clearly mad and wanted revenge.

"Yare yare daze. Are you angry that you can't hurt me even though I cut three of your tentacles? Pathetic."

He muttered, grinning so wide.

"Calix, that's a Kraken."

Nikki was wearing the battle suit and grabbed her golden hammer. She was confused why she felt refreshed.

"I know."

"No, you don't understand. The lowest level that a Kraken can be at is 3rd-Class. That means that you are going to fight a 3rd-Class or higher."

"Pfft-haha."

Calix chuckled.

"Huh? Is something funny?"

Nikki was offended. She was just concerned yet this guy laughed.

"Nothing. I'm just surprised that you can actually speak like that, and your expression is quite cute too."

"W- what!!"

Her face turned red. No one ever said that she was cute. She might understand if Calix said that she looked like a gorilla or her face is frightening. Yet...

"M- me? Cute!!?"

She lost her mind for a second. She immediately slapped herself when she realized that this guy has a girlfriend and flirting with him was bad.

"Nikki? Why did you do that?"

"Are you stupid?"

"Huh?"

"You can't just say that to someone! They will misunderstand it! Lying is the thing that I really hate the most! Do you get it?"

Her voice was like that of a roaring gorilla. She was puffing, mad at Calix.

"I said do you understand?"

"Y- yeah!"

Calix instinctively said.

"No?"

"U- understandable, have a nice day!"

Calix even stuttered. He experienced how Nikki slammed him against the wall, but this was his first time seeing her angry like this. God her voice was frightening.

"Now, we must find a way to survive."

Nikki erased the sweet feeling in her heart. She calmed her beating. It would be bad if she looked at Calix in a different way. She just met the guy for not even a week. Yet her feelings for him were starting to get out of control.

She clenched her hammer. She decided to release her fury against the monsters.

"I will fight these lackeys while you face the boss."

"Got it."

Mikael nodded.

"By the way..." Nikki swallowed hard. She was nervous too. After all, they were in this tiny piece of land that might sink at any second where hundreds of Umibozos and Shokoys were surrounding them.

"Can we win?"

She asked. That was the important thing that she wanted to know.

"Don't worry." Calix chuckled. "You're Lucky."

"Huh?"

Nikki tilted her head, but her immersion ended when Shokoys started running toward her.

"Damn it! I don't know why there are Shokoys here but I don't care anymore!"

This was the only time that Nikki could speak well, whenever she was on the battlefield and shedding blood.

"Graaahh!!!"

A group of Shokoys pounced on her but Nikki brushed them like dust. Then, she swung her weapon and smashed them to pieces. Their organs splattered onto the other Aberrants.

"Strange, am I this strong? Never mind, it's probably because of the battle suit and my adrenaline."

She said to herself and confronted the monsters.

As for Calix, he was already prepared for round 2.

"Last time you escaped because I let you. I have to protect Nikki while she's asleep. But now that I'm free. Let's see if you can win."

"Quaarghh--!!"

The Kraken screeched.

"Tiger-Class, huh? Well, you're a strong monster but sadly, you met me."

Calix raised Mento, the gun was in an electric harpoon form. The harpoon was buzzing with electricity and everything around Calix began steaming.

He grinned.

"They say that electricity and water are a dangerous combination, let's see why!"

He aimed his harpoon at the upcoming monster. Last time, he used a rocket launcher but the Kraken successfully escaped, only losing three tentacles.

"Now!!"

Calix pulled the trigger right when the Kraken spread its tentacles to smash him.

The harpoon flew and successfully stabbed the monster.

"Gaaarrggg!!"

The Kraken roared and tried to break free against the harpoon.

"Nope, that harpoon is not that easy to pull off. Besides, it's connected to Mento."

There was a thin line connecting the harpoon and Mento.

"Maybe you're wondering why the harpoon has a line. It's actually simple because that's where the electricity will travel!!"

Calix pushed the button right under the trigger and Mento began generating energy!

The electricity flowed into the line reaching the monster. Then,

"Rrraaahhhhhh!!!"

The Kraken cried as voltage slowly cook it.

Chapter 192

The Kraken cried in pain, wriggling in the water while a high voltage was burning its body to crisp.

"Craaahhhh!!!"

The tentacles started smashing everywhere, causing some large splashes of water, almost like great streams of tidal waves.

Even the monsters around the small piece of land were affected. Some lost their control over swimming while most were injured by the tentacles and the electric current running in the water.

Fortunately, Nikki was wearing a battle suit so she was not affected by the electric current.

She started pummeling the affected monsters, killing them one by one. It was good that she was wearing a battle suit, or else the Umibozos might paralyze her again.

"Calix, are you okay?"

She raised her voice, looking at Calix who was fighting a tug of war against the giant octopus.

"I'm fine!"

Calix replied, grinning while keeping on his feet.

He sighed in relief that he training his muscles these days. Maybe gym training was worth it too.

"Thanks to my gym bros out there."

He huffed.

"Amazing..."

Nikki had incredible strength too but she couldn't see herself fighting a tug of war against a Kraken and winning. Yet Calix could do it flawlessly, with a smile on his face.

Even Calix was surprised that he could actually do this. He understood that a Kraken this big could drag him like nothing, but he was wrong, this Tiger-class couldn't do anything except accept its fate.

"Mmuuwaaaatggg!!"

The Kraken was deep in pain. It felt that its inside was slowly getting cooked, it didn't feel good at all. Furthermore, no matter how many times the monster tried to rip the line, it didn't tear at all. The worst was that it couldn't pull Calix.

The Kraken was confident in its strength, but facing Calix made it lose its self-esteem. The guy didn't budge at all.

However, since the Kraken was a tiger-class and it had strong rationality. Its will to survive was far stronger. The monster could think, and this was the right moment to use its brain.

"Woah."

Because the Kraken couldn't budge Calix. The monster decided to destroy the land instead. The Kraken slowly crushed the land until Calix and Nikki only had a small space to walk on.

Then,

"Gaatrgghhh!!"

The monster raised its tentacles to completely eradicate the tiny island.

"Ah, as expected, even the harpoon is not enough."

"Calix, we have to do something. We're in the middle of the ocean and it's a suicide to fight water-type Aberrants in their natural habitat!"

Nikki reminded Calix. It seemed like electrocuting the Kraken was not enough to finish the monster. They had to kill it in one swoop.

She stared at Calix, waiting for his answer. However, out of her expectation, Calix did not move at all.

"Calix?"

He was just standing, holding his weapon as if he didn't care about his safety.

"Don't worry," He chuckled and looked at the sky. "I'm Lucky?"

"Huh?"

Nikki was confused why this guy kept mumbling about luck. She started to ask himself if Calix had a trump card.

"T- then--"

"Nope, I know what you're thinking. I'm sorry but I don't have a trump card."

He shook his head. In the first place, he didn't have anything in his pocket.

"Then why are you so confident!?"

"Look at the sky."

"Huh? What do you mean?"

Nikki didn't have a choice but to do it. Perhaps the reinforcement had arrived. She looked up and...

"There's nothing, I can't see anything except for some clouds!"

"Exactly."

"..."

Nikki facepalmed. This guy, she thought Calix was the most sensible of all. But maybe she was wrong, this guy had some loose screws too.

'An arrogant Elf who thinks that she's the best. A crazy pink-haired woman who likes to stalk Calix. And Scarlett who didn't care about anything except for Calix... This is indeed the Special Unit. The Special Children Unit.'

She confirmed the reason why Calix was a member. It was actually amazing that Nikki easily gather information about the team in just a short span.

"Calix, we have to leave this place. Grab on me!"

Left with no choice, Nikki decided that they have to forfeit the tiny island. Because she was wearing a battle suit, her strength and speed were boosted and she was confident that she could swim at least a hundred meters.

"I will stop the monsters while you escape."

That was her plan.

"Of course... You have to make sure that you will return. I don't want to die."

She muttered. Calix saved her earlier, it was her time to return the favor.

"Nikki, you know what, you should always talk like that. Your voice is quite raspy but soothing in the ears. I like it."

Yet, the bastard flirted with Nikki instead.

"W- what are you saying!? This is not the time to compliment me!"

Nikki was mad although her cheeks were bright red. Everyone likes compliments, after all.

"I said don't worry... She's here."

Calix's eyes turned serious that even Nikki was startled for a second. She swallowed hard and turned around.

"I know that you're spying on me since a week ago."

Calix whispered, looking at the upcoming person.

The monsters saw that a speed boat was approaching them at maximum speed. The boat hit the monsters that blocked its way, rupturing them.

There was only one person on the boat. The woman was wearing a maid uniform, her silver hair shone because of the reflection of the sun, and she was holding a metal bat as if that was the normal thing to do.

"Athena Hercul."

Calix said.

The silent woman who would always follow Scarlett but act that she was nothing but air, that was Calix's impression of Athena. One way or another, she would always prioritize her lady.

Athena turned the speed up and directly collided into the head of a 30-meter tall octopus.

The Kraken growled as another hole appeared on its body. On top of that, the boat exploded and burned it.

Athena successfully landed on the land and glared at Calix.

Yet Calix casually shrugged his shoulders.

"I thought You were not going to show up."

"How long did you know?"

"It's a secret."

"Tch."

Athena clicked her tongue and swung her bat towards the crying Kraken.

Chapter 193

One hour ago.

Athena learned that Scarlett's team was having a mission to check an island. She decided to follow them, after all, she had her reasons too.

However, because Athena couldn't use teleportation, she decided to use a speed boat instead. The travel was quite hectic, some monsters showed up along the way, but Athena was known for being a talented woman.

She became a 2nd Advance through talent alone, she didn't use a dick to break through. She was 25 years old, sexy, and mature, she even have courtiers who pursued her. But Athena denied all of them. Since young, she already decided to she would serve Scarlett no matter what. So any romance was nothing but a distraction.

"This is the island."

Athena muttered after killing a bunch of monsters that blocked her way. Her metal bat was covered with blood, she washed it using the sea.

However, just as she spent a few seconds cleaning her metal bat, she found that the island started crumbling.

"Huh?"

On top of that, Athena felt something dangerous under the sea. She started sweating, even a talented woman like her could never defeat something as powerful as that. She was frightened, her hands trembled.

"A Demon-God..."

Thankfully, the creature swam away and left her and the others.

"It just destroyed an island like that."

She bit her lip. She couldn't believe that something as powerful as that was lying under this ocean.

"... I have to check the island."

Athena wanted to confirm if Scarlett was fine. Athena didn't care about the others as long as her Master was in good health.

Yet just as she speed up her boat, hordes of Shokoys pounced on the boat to attack her.

"Weaklings. You shouldn't have shown up."

She clicked her tongue and killed them without a problem. Then, she returned her focus to the broken island.

"What?"

She found that Calix was carrying the tall new recruit. Maybe they were left behind.

"What is he doing?"

Calix started taking her clothes off. He pulled the needles that paralyzed Nikki. Athena nodded, that was the first procedure to prevent paralyzing.

'At least Calix has enough knowledge about this. W- wait, what the hell is he doing!!?'

However, out of Athena's expectation, Calix kissed Nikki as if he didn't have a choice but to do so. He even fondled her breast. Athena's expression turned livid. This guy has the audacity to pull that off in the middle of this situation.

The rest was history.

.....

...

"We will talk after this."

Athena glared at him. Calix nodded his head. He knew that Athena was half-curious and half-mad. But Calix had to do it, or else Nikki would die. There was no antidote against the paralytic substance that Umibozos released, except for waiting. And Calix didn't have the leisure to wait, he knew that monsters were going to kill them if they lay still.

"I will explain everything so you don't have to look at me like that."

Calix understood that hiding his secret would only make Athena suspicious. Besides, Athena was never a bad guy. She was just highly loyal to Scarlett.

"Good."

Athena liked that answer.

"So let's kill this Kraken first... I'm actually amazed that you have a weapon that can wound this creature. Maybe you got lucky."

Even Athena would have a hard time fighting a Kraken.

"Thanks, it's a magnificent gun, isn't it?"

"Indeed."

Calix did nothing but bombarded the Kraken till the monster ran away to ease its pain. Only a weapon like Mento could do that.

"Well, it looks like this Kraken is raring for revenge."

"It's already weak so it will not be a problem."

Athena said, acting as if she could defeat a full healthy Kraken. She knew that it would be impossible unless she became a 3rd Advance.

'I'm more of an offensive type, but I know that my Swing Blade is not that powerful to hurt a Kraken big as this.'

Unlike Scarlett who could increase her fire through hatred, Athena's Term Attribute was constant.

'10 meters, that's the best that my blade can reach.'

That was actually a long-range...

Anyway, Athena was amazed at Calix's job. He injured a powerful monster like this in its natural habitat. Calix was not even afraid to attack the Kraken, as if he knew that the Kraken couldn't kill him.

"U- um, Calix, excuse me but this is..."

Nikki joined in, however, her voice was much weaker compared to earlier when she was roaring like a beast.

"Ah, this is Athena. She's Scarlett's maid."

"I- I see."

Nikko became nervous and looked down. She was afraid that Athena might hate her, after all, Nikki was always the one who received hatred.

"I pity you."

"Huh?"

Yet, instead of being disgusted or mad, Athena looked at Nikki with a pitiful expression. Then, she glared at Calix and the guy averted his gaze.

"Calix... Make sure that you have the right excuse, or else."

"I know, I know. Let's kill these monsters first, okay?"

"Fine."

Athena raised her metal bat while Calix kept his weapon to electrocute the Kraken. As for Nikki, she was defending the two against the smaller monsters.

Athena started swinging her metal bat and wind blades materialized and slashed the Kraken. The giant monster started curling in fear while enduring the attack. The monster tried to flee but it couldn't escape from Calix. The harpoon continued hurting it and even moving was torturous.

After ten minutes of constant battle, the Kraken lost its life. It didn't stand a chance against Calix's armor plot. The monster started sinking into the ocean until its silhouette was gone.

"Phew, I thought we were going to die."

Calix wiped his forehead. This battle was quite intense. He smiled and looked at the two. Nikki had a shy expression while Athena was looking at Calix with unknown motives.

"Um, I can explain--"

"Calix!!"

Just before Calix could start his explanation, a portal materialized over the small island and a flying car came out.

Chapter 194

Calix and the others looked up at the sky and found that a portal appeared. Before they could even speak something, a pink-haired woman jumped out of the flying car and hugged Calix.

"Calix!!"

Calix caught Yuna and chuckled. They were hiding their relationship to Nikki but because of the recent event, Yuna couldn't control her emotions and cried on his chest. She didn't care about Nikki.

'So what if this giant realized that I love Calix, hmmp!' That was probably what Yuna was thinking currently.

"Waaahhh!! Calix!!!"

As expected, Yuna figured out how to use her tears. Calix kissed her forehead to pacify her. He didn't have a choice but to spoil this girl.

'I'm the one who suffered but here I am, pacifying this girl.'

He chuckled. Yuna rubbed her cheek against his chest but someone pulled her out of his embrace. She glared at Marianne, but this Elf won't easily back down.

"Don't try that bitch-act me, it will not work."

Marianne was a bad girl in the first place, if this Yandere wanted a piece of her, so be it. But she had to be prepared to die and be wrapped in ice.

"And, you... Hmmp!! Good thing you're alive."

Anyway, Marianne glanced at Calix then averted her gaze. She didn't want to show that she was relieved to know that Calix was safe. Instead, she scoffed and crossed her arms.

"W- why are you smiling, don't look at me!!"

Calix genuinely smiled and Marianne blushed, she immediately turned away so that her expression couldn't be seen. She didn't want to show her affection. Because she kept saying in herself that her true intention was to seduce Calix and increase her cultivation, nothing else but that.

'Marianne don't be fooled... Calix is nothing but a tool for your greatness... Y- you don't love him! Okay?'

Ah, the art of deceiving one's heart, is truly incredible.

As for Scarlett, the woman took a step and pulled Calix, and stole his lips. She didn't care about the others, this guy was hers.

Besides, she was officially his girlfriend so there was no problem kissing him in the public.

The three people who were affected by that action, were Yuna, Marianne, and Nikki. The three were hurt. Yuna and Marianne wanted to stop them but they know how to control themselves.

As for Nikki, her chest felt constricted, she didn't know why she was having these feelings.

'At that time in the gym...'

Nikki realized that her impression about Calix started back when they met in the gym. He was the only person who didn't show any disgust the first time he met her. That means a lot. Perhaps that was the reason why she was disappointed.

"Oofff off!"

Calix was shocked as Scarlett's tongue invaded him. She attacked him and Calix felt jelly and had fun with her game. They started making out that the three women were mad and jealous.

"Tch!"

Marianne instinctively clicked her tongue. Indeed, she hated Scarlett so much that the idea of Scarlett's death was not bad.

Marianne looked around. Aside from Yuna who kept muttering "kill, kill, kill", Marianne found that there was another person.

'Why is Scarlett's maid here?'

She was confused that this woman who was always holding a bat was on this island. It looked like Athena helped Calix too.

'...'

She observed the woman but Athena didn't flinch. She was good at hiding her emotions.

"Scarlett..."

Calix was panting when their lips parted, he didn't even have the time to react. Unlike the others, Scarlett had this possessiveness that even he had a hard time adapting.

"I'm happy that you're alive."

Scarlett weakly punched his chest. She was holding her tears. She thought she would lose Calix. She was afraid and her hands were trembling.

Calix sadly smiled and hugged her. The last thing he wanted to do was to make her worry. The woman sobbed and hugged him tightly.

"I'm sorry, I promise this will never happen again."

"Un, you better be."

She sniffed as Calix wiped her tears. He was weak against this woman. Maybe he will never win against her. But that didn't matter, because Calix was happy to lose just to see her smile. He's a bastard but he's a good bastard.

"By the way, Calix why are you topless right now and why is Nikki wearing your battle suit?"

After consoling Scarlett, the woman immediately muttered something terrifying. She narrowed her eyes, glinting coldly.

"A- ah. That's because..."

Calix scratched his head and averted his gaze. He didn't know how to explain it. Everything was too fast, he only did the thing that he knew was the right thing to do.

"... And why is Athena here?"

Scarlett turned her eyes towards Athena and the maid fidgeted. She didn't tell her that she was actually investigating Calix. She averted her gaze too.

"Hm... sus."

Scarlett was skeptical, she examined the three who could not look in her eyes. In the end, she sighed and decided to ask them later on. She understood that this was not the time to dilly-dally, especially when a whole company of soldiers arrived.

All of them looked at the incoming boats and flying ships. Scarlett and the others notified the Port of Aoneon that something powerful was living near the island.

The soldiers started doing their job, eradicating the monster to keep the ocean safe. They found some Tiger-Class and two Dragon-Class Aberrants. It was a tough battle but because the Port of Aoneon brought powerful Vindicators the battle ended peacefully on their side.

The army was thankful to them because they informed them about this crucial information. On top of that, their group had been given two weeks of rest.

Marianne and Scarlett met the higher-ups and further explained what they witness. They said that the Umibozos were gathering trees before the island crumbled.

However, when they searched the ocean, they could not find any clues, which added another mystery.

'A Demon-God is living close to the Port and no one even knows about it...'

Athena was biting her nail. She was anxious, but not because of that. She was anxious that her Lady might be angry again.

Athena glared at Calix and the man anxiously smiled too. He had a lot of things to explain later on.

Chapter 195

The ocean of Dilim, it was an endless body of water. Full of life, it was one of the main sources of income for the Dellia. However, it was the door for the Aberrants too. After all, the ocean of Dilim is free for anyone.

After the incident, the army decided to carry stronger security around the Port and cities close to them. The ocean housed powerful creatures that even their country would have a hard time fighting them. So they decided to intensify their security surrounding the areas that might be affected. After all, the entire western part of their country was open for attacks coming from the ocean of Dilim.

When Scarlett and Marianne left the office after talking to the higher-ups, they sighed in relief and glanced at their friends(?). Well, both Marianne and Scarlett only looked at Calix. The others were just there as eyesores.

Calix scratched his head and greeted them. He knew that acting intimately in the Port of Aoneon's Headquarters would be stupid so he just smiled.

"Hmmp!!"

Marianne scoffed and walked away.

'I- It's not that I'm waiting for Calix to console me or something.'

She justified and left them. Today was quite hectic. They confirmed that the Umibozos were acting strange and they found that there was a Demon-God that might attack the Port at any moment. Marianne was tired... That's why she was hoping that Calix would console her.

'... Hmmp!'

She was acting tough, just as always.

As for Scarlett, she looked at Athena and her maid immediately understood what she was declaring. Athena and Scarlett left the place to have a conversation. Scarlett was curious why Athena was on the island when they came back.

"... I guess we're the only ones here."

Calix muttered while looking at Yuna and Nikki. The tall tanned skin woman was silent and couldn't look at Calix. She was the most affected right now.

"U- um, I will return to my room."

Nikki stood up and left them. She didn't want to talk to anyone right now. She was stressed, she almost thought that she would die. It was fortunate that Calix was there to save her. Actually, Nikki wanted to thank him but she was afraid that he might misunderstand her.

She couldn't look into his eyes. On top of that, she didn't want to cause a misunderstanding. It seemed that the three girls had some strange relationship with Calix. Nikki bit her lip and did her best to move her heavy body. She was wondering why she was born, she looked like a gorilla(she's not), and she has tall stature. She was not pretty at all. She has scars all around her body. She was deceived once and she didn't want to experience it again.

She hated herself. She walked away, looking down the floor.

"Wait..."

Calix wanted to stop Nikki because he wanted to talk to her but he failed to do so. He could see that Nikki was bugged by something and he didn't want to stress her. He knew that what he was going to say might hurt her.

'... I have to apologize.'

Calix understood what he did. Although he didn't have a choice but to do it. The only way to assure Nikki's safety was to make her Lucky. Calix didn't have any ulterior motives. In fact, he didn't enjoy it because it ended in one insertion.

'Kimberly said that the sexual activities that I do have a different scale of Luck.'

A simple kiss won't refuel him. As for blowjob, it would only neutralize his Backlash but he won't experience Luck.

'There's no other choice but to have sex.'

Calix knew it. But he was guilty of what he did. He was not a bastard that would take advantage of the situation. The action earlier was purely for the purpose of saving Nikki, nothing else.

'I kept swimming down into the ocean to reach her. When I grabbed her, I found that her heart is not beating anymore... That's why I immediately swim up to reach the surface but dozens of monsters attacked me. It's fortunate that they only ripped my t-shirt.'

When he arrived at the small piece of land, he gave Nikki CPR but he didn't succeed because Nikki's body was paralyzed and even her organs were affected. Left with no choice, Calix did what he believed was right.

'I don't regret it, I saved her because of my action... but I still have to apologize. Nikki has a big arm so I guess I'll receive a powerful slap, huh.'

He already accepted that he would get slapped. At least Calix still had the mentality to accept his mistake. As long as he was not drowned by his power, he won't suffer. After all, Luck can be a curse too...

If he leaned too much on his power, perhaps he might be put in a 'Lucky' moment again, such as when the time when he was caught in the hijacking of Flying Ship. It was not considered Lucky at all.

"So what are you doing this time?"

Scarlett raised her brow, looking at Athena who was fidgeting and couldn't look in her eyes. Athena understood that she was spying on Calix without Scarlett's approval.

"Did Father know about this too?"

"..."

Athena averted her gaze.

"Athena!!"

"N- No, I have never, Lady Scarlett."

Athena still didn't know the whole story so she didn't inform the General and even the Shadow.

"I see. So what did you know so far?"

Scarlett was actually relieved to know that Athena didn't speak to General Bronal, or else Calix might be burned alive.

Scarlett knew that Athena won't easily speak so she decided to use her hidden technique, even Calix could never win against her if she used this.

"Answer me honestly... I thought we are sisters but I can't believe that you will do this to me... Sniff."

Scarlett was acting hurt and cried out crocodile tears. Yet it seemed that Athena was affected so much.

"L- Lady Scarlett, please don't cry!! I will say everything! I promise!!"

As someone who always looked over Scarlett, Athena didn't want to make her cry. She wanted to protect her.

"Huhu... Then speak..."

Scarlett continued acting like a pitiful girl who suffered injustice.

Athena bit her lip, she didn't have a choice but to say what she found.

"I found that Calix is having a relationship with Miss Kimberly, Yuna, and Marianne."

She left Nikki out because Athena was still not sure about her.

"Huhu, and what else?"

Scarlett probed.

"I know that Calix is fooling you, last time they even have a foursome... Wait a minute, Lady Scarlett why are you not surprised that Calix is having sex with other girls? "

Athena became confused.

"Oh, looks like I'm been found out."

Congratulations!!! We have now 1.5 million views on Webnovel!! Wwwwooooohhhhhh!!! Let's gooooo!!!

Chapter 196

"Oh, looks like you found out."

Scarlett smiled looking at Athena who was dumbfounded. Well, she didn't have any reason to hide it anyway. She knew that Calix's relationship with the other girls would be known sooner or later.

"L- Lady Scarlett, what are you talking about? This is not the time to smile like that! Your boyfriend is cheating on you and you're letting him do that!? I will find Calix and beat his meat!!"

Athena became mad. Calix did a mistake and he had to suffer. Athena was ready to literally smash some balls but Scarlett stopped her.

"Athena, if you dare lay a finger on my property you will die."

She said coldly despite having a lovely smile. Kill? Hurt? Scarlett was the only one who could do that to Calix. Not even Marianne was allowed to bully Calix, that Elf received a deafening slap last time and Scarlett won't hesitate to do it again.

"But Lady Scarlett!"

"Athena, listen, I give Calix permission to have sex with another woman."

"W- what!?"

She decided to tell Athena. Because she was indeed the one who gave Calix the approval to have a relationship with different girls. She would rather let Calix have sex to another woman than see him suffer. She understood how painful it was for Calix whenever his backlash was active.

"But why? Calix is hurting you! Can't you see, he's not the right man for you."

Athena just wanted to protect her. A guy who couldn't be honest with his lover won't bring a good life. Athena clenched her metal bat.

"Athena, I love Calix. I know you can't accept this but I already talked to Calix. We have an agreement that I will be the only one in his life no matter how many times he cheats."

Scarlett confidently said. She just confirmed it earlier. She smirked recalling it, those bitches did nothing but grit their teeth while looking at her and Calix kissing passionately.

"... Kuck."

Athena grunted. She couldn't accept that Calix did this to her Master.

"Athena, I know that you can't accept this situation but it will not change my decision. I love Calix."

Athena swallowed her frustration and sighed, she was comforting her heart so that she won't rush and beat Calix.

"How about the other girls? Based on what I can see, it looks like they are infatuated and they are ready to fight for Calix's love."

"Pfft--"

Scarlett blurted a laugh. Athena frowned, looking at her Master who was not showing any grievance.

"Athena, did you see their expressions earlier when I kissed Calix? They are mad and jealous, yet they can't do anything about it because Calix loves me the most."

"... What if they tried to hurt you? What if they try to kill you?"

Athena was worried. Kimberly, Yuna, and Marianne had their own expertise and they could kill Scarlett.

"Oh come on Athena, don't make me laugh."

Instead of being afraid, Scarlett's crimson eyes were glowing deadly. She grinned and the atmosphere turned hotter.

"Me? Do they want to kill me? So be it, but they must be ready to die. Because I don't like a half-hearted assassination."

Scarlett was already prepared a long time ago to commit multiple murders.

"..."

Athena couldn't say a thing. She swallowed hard. Now she realized why Scarlett didn't want anyone to touch the girls... Because she wanted to be the one to kill them. As expected from her Lady.

Scarlett may act like a good woman but her heart was not that of an angel. If any of the girls tried to kill her, then Scarlett would burn her alive.

"It's actually good because I have an excuse to kill them."

Scarlett never liked any of them, not even Kimberly. She knew that her throne as the first wife was still not cemented, if someone dared to steal it, Scarlett won't hesitate to summon hell. Besides,

"I'm the one who gave Calix permission to have sex with other women, I can stop him if I want to."

Because Calix loves her the most. So far she still confirmed that.

Scarlett liked seeing them raging in hatred so that they would despair and attack her. In the first place, Scarlett was never a good woman.

'We had a fight last time, it is quite sad that all of us are Lucky at that time so no one died.'

They had wounds after that and they did their best to hide the wounds from Calix.

'Because we are women, we love competition, we love attention. And we hate other women. I know that no matter how much we try, we will never be friends.'

Their goal was to have Calix, except that, they didn't care about the others.

Scarlett grinned devilishly. She was eager to slap them with the truth that Calix would always love her.

'Ah, it feels so good to see them angry. Hehe, maybe I'll try that more, fufu.'

She giggled and Athena had goosebumps while looking at her Master. Indeed, Scarlett was Bronal's daughter, they were both the devil's incarnation.

Perhaps she didn't have to worry about Scarlett anymore. If someone bullied her, Scarlett herself would return the favor ten times. Furthermore, Athena could see that Calix's feelings for Scarlett were overflowing. Athena knew that guy since childhood, Calix was the type who will protect his family even in death.

' Still, something is strange...'

However, Athena frowned and thought of something. She was confused why these girls were obsessed with Calix. She knew that Calix is handsome but his physical appearance was not enough to answer that.

'For them to become attached to Calix like that means something...'

The idea of love charm, brainwashing, and love potion entered her mind.

'Before I leave, I have to confirm this first.'

... That was the exact reason why Athena fell onto his cock.

Anyway, their conversation ended and Scarlett immediately visited Calix to spend her time with him, only to find that Marianne and Yuna were licking Calix's balls and cock.

"Calix, mind explaining?"

She raised her brow.

"Ugh... I'm sorry, they pinned me down and--"

"Hush, you don't have to speak anymore."

Scarlett started taking her clothes off and gave him a passionate kiss. Foursome was not bad anyway. Although she would never kiss any of the girls, she finds it disgusting yet...

Splashes of water could be heard as two people giggled. In the bathtub, Calix was hugging Scarlett and they were both naked. Scarlett rest her head against his shoulder and her hands were rubbing his chest.

'This is not bad...'

She thought. Lately, she was getting stressed because of the people around her. The Elders in her Clan started acting up when General Bronal announced that Scarlett would be the next in line as the Matriarch. The Elders and some of the Clan members didn't like it, they have their thoughts and opinions. Particularly her uncle, Scarlett understood that he wanted the throne for themselves.

She sighed.

'And now I found that Athena is gathering information about Calix. It was good that I stopped her before she relayed the information to Father.'

Scarlett knew that General Bronal would burn Calix alive if he found that Calix was having a relationship with four girls.

'I understand that Athena is worried and she is doing this for me but sometimes she is acting too much.'

Scarlett could not hate her. She might be dissatisfied but her affection towards Athena was not that bleak.

'However, I hope she stopped prying on my life.'

When she returned to the Clan last time, Scarlett personally talked to Athena. She said that Athena could do what she wanted and she was now free. The promise was that Athena would be her personal maid only till Scarlett became 18.

And now that Scarlett was 19 years old, it was time to stand up using her own feet. That's why she applied to this unit so that she could show that she did not need her Clan's resources to become stronger. After all, the best cultivation was right next to her, Calix Romoel.

' But of course, the biggest reason why I'm here is that I love Calix.'

She giggled and kissed his neck sweetly with a hint of tongue. She didn't know why but she wanted to consume Calix as if she yearned for his blood.

As for Calix, he was scrolling the internet and looking for something.

"What are you doing?"

Scarlett seductively said while her fingers were playing with his left nipple, slightly pinching it.

"Ah, this? I'm going to order a C- Series battle suit."

"I thought Kimberly already gave you one?"

"I'm thinking of giving it to Nikki."

Calix honestly replied. It would be stupid to lie to Scarlett, he knew his priorities.

"But why?"

Scarlett was confused. C- Series was the latest version and it was expensive. Nikki could use a normal battle suit instead.

"When we were on the island, I realized that Nikki do not have a battle suit. Maybe she did not like holding the suitcase or perhaps she didn't have the money to buy it."

"She is a soldier, I'm sure she has one."

Scarlett huffed.

Indeed, Nikki is a soldier and she should have a battlesuit for her. However, it was stolen at the same time as Corco. Sadly, Nikki only found the hammer and she still didn't have the time to inquire for a new battle suit to the Army.

"Yeah, but I want to give her a new one."

"But why?"

Scarlett was confused. He did not have to be generous towards that woman.

"Scarlett, she almost died earlier."

"..."

Calix sadly smiled and Scarlett did not know how to react. Calix's expression said it all.

"Calix, tell me what happened on the island when we were gone."

Scarlett commanded. Her instinct as a woman was screaming mayday.

"Okay, I will tell you everything."

Calix did not have a problem telling it. He still remembered his promise, if he had sex to a girl, Scarlett should know it. On top of that, Calix would never lie to her.

Actually, Calix wanted to talk to her earlier but Marianne and Yuna abducted him and tore his clothes. That's why he didn't have the time to explain it when Scarlett returned. By the way, they spend five hours straight fucking...

Calix opened his mouth and told her everything.

Nikki almost died, or perhaps she already died. Maybe Calix's intervention saved her. Calix understood that Nikki was not breathing for almost five minutes when he caught her. That five minute was already fatal, air was an important factor for the organs and brain to function.

Calix clenched his fists. If not because of what he did, Nikki might be dead.

"I see, so you saved her."

Scarlett muttered and her expression was unknown. Of course she did not like it when Calix had sex with another woman. She already had three women to look at, and yet another one sprung up like a mushroom. Scarlett thought that choosing Nikki as the new member was the best decision. Yet it seemed that Scarlett and Kimberly were wrong.

This was the moment where Scarlett realized that Calix's fate was already entangled in the lives of different women around the world.

'No matter what I do, Calix will have a relationship with them.'

She sighed. She accepted it and smiled instead. She did not have a choice anyway. Besides, Scarlett didn't have any issues towards threesome and foursome, maybe fivesome too. Although kissing girls would be out of her plan. Her lips were all for Calix only. No one could kiss her but Calix.

"I'm sorry."

"No, you don't have to. You don't have ill intentions. You did it to save her, that's actually a great feat."

Scarlett pursed her lips. To be honest, she was quite pleased that Calix saved a person. After all, saving was much harder than killing a person.

Scarlett gave him a peck on his cheek and giggled. She recalled that moment back when she was still a child.

'Scarlett, I hope that you will protect Calix. He's strong and healthy but he's too reckless and always does what he wants. I hope you will be there for him, please teach him to be a good guy.'

That was the last time she interacted with Clara before she was caught in an incident.

"Aunty, I'm sorry but Calix is still the same... He is still the best."

Scarlett muttered sweetly. The fact that Calix saved a life was enough proof that Clara and Andreas taught him well. At least Calix knew the wrong and right. It was enough. He didn't have to be a Hero and he didn't have to be a Villain too. He is Calix Romoel.

"Hm? Did you say something?"

Scarlett shook her head and laughed.

Chapter 198

Calix pushed Scarlett to the bed and the woman giggled as she landed on the soft bouncy mattress. She was wooing him by slowly spreading her legs. Her petals were visible to see as she started touching herself.

She inserted her middle finger and moaned sweetly. Then, she licked that same middle finger while looking at Calix with lust.

Calix shrugged and pounced on her.

"Aahnn~"

Calix lifted her left leg and inserted his cock. He didn't have the patience to do foreplay. Especially after her seduction, besides, they already had sex earlier today so he knew that her pussy was still lubricated, particularly since she was horny all this time.

They didn't have a proper time together because Yuna and Marianne were fighting for his attention. After getting their needs, the two girls left them alone.

Since they received a two-week rest, Yuna was called by her parents and she decided to visit them.

As for Marianne, she kept muttering excuses: "Since I already get my daily intake of XP boost, I will leave you guys alone. Hmmp! D- don't think that I'm falling for you! I just need your body so that I can become stronger."

As expected, Marianne won't easily show her true self. It was good that Calix could easily break that face whenever they have sex. Marianne would always squeal and ask for more. She would scream his name and say "I love you" more than a hundred times.

"Nnggh gaah!!"

Scarlett cried as Calix penetrated her pussy. Her eyes turned white for a second before she regained consciousness after Calix thrust for the second time. She gasped and cooed at him.

"Mmm, gosh I love this so much. You are so fucking deeeeepppp!"

She giggled as Calix was holding her left knee while he was moving his hips. They were in the missionary position with a twist.

"Oh God, fuck me fuck me!!"

She screamed and Calix obeyed her order. He started pumping strongly that her boobs were shaking like two tectonic plates converging. Not only that, Scarlett's expression turned loose. Her eyes were unfocused as her tongue weakly came out. She was doing an ahgao without knowing. Yet she was so happy and satisfied.

"Aahh!"

Calix loved her expression and couldn't control himself and squeezed her boob. Then, he smashed his monumental balls deep against her pussy. Scarlett's ahgao expression was further shown.

"Kuck, Scarlett..."

"Yes, ghnn, yes!!"

"Speak in uwu language."

Calix didn't know why he was saying this but he just blundered it out. Sex makes people crazy. And right now, Calix was commanding Scarlett to say the embarrassing language.

"Hm! Haaa!"

Scarlett sighed a long one and clutched her fingers on the bed sheet. She cried out when Calix pistoned her and she felt that she was close to orgasm.

"Scarlett, speak the uwu language, or else I'll stop!"

Now, he was threatening her.

"I will, I will speak!! Ahnn!! P- please don't stop!! I'm begging youuuu!"

"Then speak!!"

He growled.

"Myaster!! Pwease fwuck my pwussy pwease!! My pwussy loves your bwig cock! Pwease teach my pussy!! Nwaaahhh!"

Scarlett Robinson, a prideful woman who did not show any weakness. Yet here she was, speaking this cringe language while there was a cock inside her sloppy pussy.

Scarlett would listen to anything that Calix said, especially now that they were fucking. Calix was the master of the bedroom, the girls tried to take over but they couldn't win against him. So in the end, Calix made them do what he wanted. Just like right now.

"Good!"

Calix smiled and kissed her while humping his legs. Scarlett trembled and she had an orgasm, her eyes turned white and she squealed. When their lips parted, Scarlett was twitching.

"Nyes... Mwaster, Ahn!"

She muttered cutely but Calix was still not finished. Scarlett may have a climax but Calix still didn't have an orgasm. They changed their position and Scarlett's back was now leaning against the wall while Calix was fucking her. Her world turned upside down and she could not help but scratch Calix's chest.

"Kneel!"

When Calix felt that he was close, he commanded her to kneel to accept his precious sperm.

Scarlett immediately kneeled and opened her mouth. Calix shoved his mighty rod and pumped his seeds into her throat. Scarlett choked and gagged but her throat accepted his seeds willingly. Her teary eyes were looking up at him while there was a cock in her mouth. A sight to behold.

When they were finished, Scarlett weakly lay on the floor and closed her eyes. She wanted to take a rest.

Calix carried her gently and put her on the bed. She smiled as Calix covered her with a bed sheet. She fell asleep peacefully.

When she woke up, she found that Calix was cooking chicken nuggets and chop suey while the radio was playing music. She giggled and sat up, she found that her legs had red marks but she did not mind it. She was used to this.

'Gucci Gang Gucci Gang Gucci Gang Gucci Gang Gucci Gang Gucci Gang Gucci Gang.'

However, her expression turned awful when she heard the nonsense music. Just like her, Calix frowned and stopped the radio. He almost threw it out of the window.

"I can't believe that people like that kind of music."

"Yeah, he just keeps singing Gucci Gang a hundred times. That's not even a talent."

Scarlett agreed.

"Hm? Scarlett, you're already awake. Do you want to eat, I cook some dishes."

Calix offered when he found her awake.

"Yes, thank you. By the way, why are you listening to that song?"

"No, the radio DJ chose that, not me. That's the best joke I ever heard after the NFTs. Mumble rap, more like Murmur shit."

Calix liked songs that has proper lyrics that he could understand. Not those shitty Gucci gang, what the fuck is Gucci gang anyway?

"Scarlett, do you want to eat?"

Calix prepared the food and Scarlett jumped and approached the table. She beamed when she ate the chicken nuggets and the chop suey. The vegetable was fresh and Calix cooked them well.

As expected, Calix is the best. She gave him plus points because he could cook well. She liked guys who can cook after all.

Chapter 199

"Um, Scarlett? What are you doing?"

Calix was confused why Scarlett was hugging him tightly. Her arms were around his waist and she was rubbing her cheek on his back. She was sniffing his scent and sighed in satisfaction. She smiled and stick close to him.

"Fufu, I just want to hug you."

She honestly replied. She did not have much time to spend together with him because they were busy these past few weeks. On top of that, whenever Calix had free time, the girls would abduct him for the sole purpose of procreating. Kimberly called it 'research', Yuna called it fucking, and Marianne called it 'cultivation' but it only has one meaning, sex.

These girls would have sex with him to get their needs. Kimberly wanted to maintain her ability to read and create Runes, Marianne kept saying her excuse to get stronger, and Yuna wanted to have sex... that's her motivation. Overall, they were eager to fuck Calix.

So, Scarlett could not help but spend most of this moment thoroughly. So she was hugging him even though the lovemaking was over.

"But Scarlett I'm washing the dishes, I can't move well."

"I don't care, I want to stay like this. Hmmph!"

She pouted and Calix sighed a long one. He couldn't stop her. He knew that Scarlett would be mad if he tried to stop her from doing what she wanted. After all, Scarlett always does what she wants with him.

He decided to continue washing the dishes instead. He didn't have a choice but to adapt.

"By the way, now that I think about it, if you are going to buy Nikki a C- Series, do you have enough money? I know that you won a lottery and Kimberly gave you shares but spending money for someone who is basically a stranger is not a good idea."

She honestly said her opinion. She was still not sure about Nikki.

'Is that woman even trustworthy?'

She thought.

"Don't worry, I earned big-time earlier."

Calix grinned. As expected, he didn't have to do much to earn money at all.

"And? What did you do this time?"

She raised her brow and probed for an answer. Calix shrugged and wiped his hands, then, he grabbed his phone and showed it to Scarlett.

"This is..."

"I invested around 5 thousand dollars in crypto, in just a week, I earned 2 million dollars."

He grinned. He was just playing with his money because he was bored. While scrolling the internet, he found this crypto called ChinChinSugoi, or CCS for short. He decided to buy 5 thousand dollars worth of coins. But when he opened his phone earlier, he found that he struck a goldmine.

"Eh? Wow! I didn't know that you can do that!"

She was surprisingly shocked. She knew that Calix was Lucky but this was too much. Perhaps if Calix wanted to, he could win the daily lottery. She was impressed.

"Hm? What are these?"

Scarlett was confused when she sniped his browsing history. She found some shocking things such as ear licking ASMR and foot massage videos. She glanced at Calix with complication.

"No, no, don't look at me like that. I just accidentally touched the site about ear licking. As for foot massage, I just stumbled upon that video. It's quite interesting, actually."

Internet was the hell of humanity. An innocent child would become a devil once he/she learned about the internet.

"Okay. Then what about this Hawaiian Pizza recipe? Don't tell me you're going to cook one?"

Well, she was excited to eat his own version of pineapple on pizza. Calix is a great cook and Scarlett loved his food.

"Oh shit!! Let me get my phone back."

When Calix realized that Scarlett found his secret, he tried to take his phone but Scarlett stopped him. She narrowed her gaze and stared at him with a questioning look.

"Calix, you're not hiding something from me, right?"

Her voice was cold that Calix swallowed hard. He didn't know how to escape this predicament. He averted his gaze and tried to escape by resuming his job of washing the dishes. However, when Scarlett released her aura, Calix understood that he didn't have a choice but to be honest.

"... I'm practicing how to make pizza because your birthday is near."

"Huh?"

Scarlett blinked innocently. Her birthday is October 20, three weeks to come.

She blushed and covered her mouth when she realized that Calix was planning to surprise her. Her heart was beating so fast right now that she was going to have a heart attack. She wanted to jump, but she settled with fanning her face to cool down.

'Gosh, Calix you're making me crazy!'

Calix scratched his head. It seemed that he had to find another way to surprise her.

"Calix I love you!!"

Scarlett pounced on him and kissed him. As expected, Calix is the best. Now she understood why she fell in love with this guy. Because Calix knew how to make her special. Even when they were young, Calix was always there to protect her.

Calix chuckled and returned her affection. They started making out even though the dishes were still not done.

In the end, they had sex in the kitchen. Scarlett was sitting on the edge of the sink. Her legs were enclosed as Calix was inside. She was leg-locking him while Calix was fucking her. She screamed and came.

After that, Calix returned to his job while Scarlett was looking at him with love and lust. She didn't know why she was so happy. Maybe falling in love was the best part of her life. She giggled as she watched Calix, the guy was naked and she could see his chiseled body moving.

'Gosh, I want to smack that ass!'

She had this urge to smack and grab his butt.

Chapter 200

Scarlett did not hesitate. Calix might be mad if she slapped his ass but her palm was eager to smack it. She raised her hand and swung it with utmost will and respect.

Pah!!

She tapped his ass respectfully, with a bit of "Sheeesh~~"

The slap echoed and Calix flinched. He turned around and found Scarlett smiling triumphantly as if she achieved something great.

"Scarlett, you know that it's sexual harassment to smack a person's butt."

"Why? You did it a lot whenever we had sex. Besides, I'm your girlfriend."

"Okay, fine."

Calix sighed and resumed his chores. Unlike Scarlett who was dependent on her maids, Calix was taught how to be independent. So he knew how to cook and clean the dishes.

"Fufu, I love you!"

Scarlett giggled and hugged him again. She won't get tired of hugging him. She was happy that Calix easily forgave her. She could not help it, her urge was telling her to smack his ass.

"I love you too."

Calix replied.

"I know."

.....

.....

...

"Just as I expected."

Scarlett clicked her tongue when she read the text. She was still lying together next to Calix. She just woke up after a whole night of fucking, Calix is a beast.

When she checked her phone, she found that her father asked her to return to the Clan. General Bronal learned that Scarlett had a two weeks vacation and Bronal wanted to train her and teach her how to control her power. After all, she was still a newbie 2nd Advanced.

General Bronal wanted Scarlett to focus on her path. That was the only way for her to become happy. She had to be stronger, stronger enough to disobey the will of the Elders and survive the cruelty of the world.

"Those Elders will try to attack me again after this. Well, I can stay in the Clan for a week. That's the most I can do."

Calix groaned next to her and stretched his limbs. He woke up and found that Scarlett was already awake.

"Good morning."

He said and kissed the back of her hand. Scarlett blushed and hid her grin.

'Oh my gosh, he's so hot!'

Calix was topless right now. His body was well-toned. Scarlett wanted to smooch his abs. She wanted to lick his scars just like she did last night. His scars made her so horny... She bit her lip, she was fangirling right now.

"You look horny right now."

"That's my secret Cap, I'm always horny."

They both giggled.

However, Scarlett's mood turned 180 degrees when she recalled the text message.

"What's the problem?"

Calix sensed her uneasiness and asked her with worry.

"Nothing." She shook her head. "I decided to visit the Clan tomorrow. I'm thinking of spending a week."

"Ah. So it's the time of the month huh."

He recalled. He immediately understood the gist.

"Geez. You don't have to say anything anymore. You already know almost everything about me."

She pouted and weakly punched his chest. Calix chuckled and defended himself.

"What can I say? You only visit your Clan when it was that week of the month. You said that you would rather waste your time in that place because we can't do it anyway."

As expected, every move that Scarlett does has a reason. Sasuga horny girlfriend.

"These days I'm thinking that you only want me because of my dick. Because you don't want to spend time with me if sex is not an option."

He added jokingly.

"What do you mean? That I only love you because of your dick?"

"Exactly."

"T- that's..."

Now that she thought of it. She always wanted to have sex with him. Maybe she was getting affected by the atmosphere. She sighed when she found that she was getting toxic.

"I'm sorry... I feel like I have to get stronger faster so every time I have a chance to do it with you, I will have sex."

She bit her lip. She couldn't believe that she was using Calix. Her face turned red and her chest was aching. She was a fool.

'Maybe Marianne is not the only one who's obsessed over power.'

She felt her nose burning and tears started rolling down. She was pathetic. She didn't know that she was acting selfishly this whole time. She thought she was a good girlfriend. Yet she couldn't have a proper time with Calix. Every time, they were always having sex. Heck, they didn't even have a date this whole month.

' Unlike Kimberly who set a schedule for Calix and had a vacation on a tropical island...'

Now she was more hurt. Perhaps Kimberly already predicted this and got her chance to one-up against her.

"I'm sorry..."

"No, no, you don't have to. It's okay. I'm just joking, so please don't cry."

Scarlett started sobbing and apologized. Calix immediately sat up and calmed her down. He started showering her with light kisses to comfort her.

"It's okay. I don't have a problem with anything that you'll do, now and in the future. Besides, I like sex too so it is not troubling me."

Calix did his best to stop her from crying. He wiped her tears and hugged her.

"Wuuu..."

Scarlett cried weakly on his chest.

"Phew... I know that you have mood swings whenever you have a period, but I didn't know that you will cry like this. Well, technically, your period will come tomorrow but, anyways."

Calix muttered and patted her head.

After a few minutes of comforting her, Scarlett stopped crying and sniffed her runny nose.

"I want to make baby~~"

She weakly said and it sounds so cute and dangerous at the same time.

Calix chuckled.

"Scarlett, you know that we're doing it unprotected the whole time but--"

"I want to make a baby!! Shut up!! You make me cry so better take responsibility!!"

Scarlett tantrum like a spoiled child and pounced on him.
