Chapter 231

A woman was breathing hard as she stand on top of a building, she was exhausted because she kept using her Term Attribute for two hours now. She wiped the sweat on her face as she looked around.

"He's not here either..."

She bit her lip, she still could not find him. Yuna Garcia was worried because she could not find Calix.

When the island was split causing them to be separated, Yuna began searching for Calix. She teleported all around, hoping that she would find him but she failed miserably.

For a second, a tragic scene invaded her mind.

"No, no. That's impossible, we're talking about Calix here... He better not be dead, or else I will kill myself."

Yuna erased the horrible fiction in her mind. Calix must be alive, she could never live without him.

"But how can I find him? I tried using my phone but there is no signal, the monsters probably destroyed the communication tower."

Furthermore, while Yuna was searching, she determined that the island was slowly sinking. Monsters were crawling up from the ground and massacring innocent people. It was horrendous.

Yuna was already tired but she could not take a rest, not until she found Calix. Suddenly, Yuna felt that the building that she was standing on started crumbling. It seemed that the monsters attacked the building causing it to fall.

Before the building tilted, Yuna immediately transferred to another building. The dust flew until the surroundings blurred.

In the midst of it, Yuna remembered something important.

"Ah, I'm so stupid!! Now that I think about it, I recalled that Calix has a tracking device. Kimberly has a device to monitor where Calix is."

Perhaps because of the situation, Yuna forgot about it.

When Yuna abducted Calix a year ago, Kimberly used that device to find him. That was the reason why Yuna's plan failed. Scarlett and Kimberly bust open her hideout and saved Calix.

"Tch, if not for that, I already have him."

Yuna was bitter but it was not the right time, she created a portal that connected to their house.

The place was rundown by something because half of the house was knockdown.

"That bitch is rich so she can afford another one."

Yuna said.

She decided to enter the place and checked if Kimberly and Patricia were fine. However, she couldn't hear any noise.

"They are not dead, right?"

Yuna narrowed her eyes as she looked around, the place was a mess. There were broken vases on the ground and dust where everywhere.

She took a step, then marched to Kimberly's laboratory where she usually stays. She never enter the laboratory so she couldn't open her portal to get in.

"I think there's a password but Calix and Kimberly are the only ones who know... Anyway, I have a gun here."

She pointed the energy gun at the door and pulled the trigger, a deafening blast echoed but the door was intact without any scratch.

"As expected, even the door is tough."

So instead of gunning the door, Yuna decided to knock instead. Hoping that Kimberly and Patricia could hear her.

"Kimberly! Open the door! We have a problem, Calix is missing!!!"

Then she kicked the door with a loud bang.

No one answered.

And Yuna kicked it again, but the door didn't move.

"Kimberly, can you hear me?! Patricia!"

Yuna was starting to lose her patience. She was already stressed that she could not find Calix.

"Kimberly! You fucking bitch! Open the goddamn door or I will shoot you in the pussy!"

Yuna screamed and kicked the door dozens of times and her feet began to throb.

"Sister?"

A voice came from behind her.

"Huh?"

Yuna turned around in confusion. She saw Patricia holding Kimberly's hand. The little girl was frightened because Yuna was acting crazy.

As for Kimberly, she rolled her eyes.

"Kimberly! I thought you were in the laboratory!"

Yuna didn't have the time to show proper behavior, she faced Kimberly.

"Okay, never mind! I want you to find Calix! He's missing!"

Yuna grabbed her shoulder, shaking her. Kimberly frowned and pushed her off.

"Calm down, you're acting crazy."

Yuna glared but she endured her awful personality.

"First, we have to leave this place. I already prepared everything in the flying car."

Kimberly carried Patricia and started walking out of the house. Yuna nodded and followed them.

Patricia curiously looked at Yuna who was grumbling.

"Sister Yuna, what is a pussy? You want to kill a kitty cat? But that is bad."

"Puh--!!!"

Yuna almost lost her balance. It looked like Patricia heard her cursing.

The little girl was confused, killing a kitten was bad.

"Ah that? N- no, I didn't say that. I said coochie, no, I- I mean cookie! That's right, cookie!"

Yuna found an excuse. Patricia nodded, believing her.

"So you want to kick sister Kimberly's cookies? But that's bad, Mommy said that wasting food is bad."

"Y- you're right, I'll never say it again."

Yuna sighed in relief after knowing that the little girl believed her.

However, Kimberly was looking at Yuna with disgust. What a vulgar woman, she thought.

They reached the flying car and took off. Some monsters tried to block the car but two heavy machine guns came out of the partitions and blitzed them thoroughly.

"Wow..."

Patricia was amazed instead of being scared. Perhaps she found her dream.

"Yuna, you said that Calix is missing?"

"Yes."

Yuna nodded seriously. She was worried about him.

"Okay."

Kimberly started typing and the whole map of the island was projected. Then, a red dot was blinking close to the shore.

"Looks like I found him."

Yuna, who was at the back, was furious that she couldn't find Calix even though she search the whole island. Yet Kimberly easily did the job.

"Hmmp!!"

She snorted.

Kimberly shrugged and started operating the car.

But in the middle of the process, an ear-deafening roar reverberated. Even the car's tough glass cracked.

"W- what is that!?"

Yuna was dumbfounded as she witnessed something shocking. She thought this kind of thing only happened in history, she could not believe that she would see it with her very own eyes.

Chapter 232

Destiny, a situation that was inevitable. Where consequences lead to a predetermined path.

Perhaps this moment was part of that. Perhaps Scarlett was meant to die here. Maybe the Blood Moon was part of the same fate that was going to happen. Fate may seal the future.

However, there were chances and choices that may break fate and create a miracle. A few examples were a poor person winning a lottery and turning the table, overcoming his future. An actor that was deemed to be forgotten but because of a single film, his life's direction completely changed.

In a way, fate would never be finalized and even if there were factors that may seal a person's fate, there were still opportunities to change it.

What was the best way to turn a miserable fate? Hardwork? But sometimes hardwork was not enough, it needs opportunities, and opportunities are closely related to Luck.

Luck may be the best way to destroy fate, the way to flip the situation and become successful.

In a spec of milliseconds these ideas entered Calix's mind, he was sober the whole time despite being burned alive. His prickling skin was melting, the Battle Suit was not enough to protect him despite having heat resistance. This means that the heat that Scarlett is releasing is so powerful.

"Hrughh....!!"

Calix gritted his teeth, he tasted the taste of iron as blood slowly lunged up from his organs. It was painful.

Still, Calix couldn't take his mind from the enlightened. That Luck is connected to fate, and sometimes, Luck destroyed fate.

"If this is Scarlett's destiny, to die here, then I will do my best to create another destiny!! Where she will live, where we live happily together!!"

He screamed at the top of his lungs.

The creature that he was hugging was getting weaker. The flame that the creature was releasing was decreasing its lifespan. Once the flame lost its life, the creature would die too.

The tree from her back expanded, slowly becoming a full-bloomed tree. Its red color signifies the blood that it absorbed from Scarlett.

"Ggrrr..."

The creature weakly growled. Perhaps it would die here. Scarlett didn't have the strength to fight the transformation.

Calix squeezed the creature's cheeks. He smiled and looked into her eyes, he believed that Scarlett was still there.

"I love you."

He said and kissed her lips. The creature lost the will to struggle. The creature kneeled and the tree on her back bear red beautiful flowers, the flowers bloomed in the middle of destruction.

However, Calix opened his eyes and regained his fighting spirit. While kissing the weak Scarlett, Calix raised his hand.

"That's why I will never give up!"

The dormant Mento transformed into a handheld chainsaw!

His eyes were serious, and using his other arm, he hugged Scarlett tightly. Then, without hesitation, he began cutting the tree on her back!!

Calix held the chainsaw, never releasing it. The fully grown tree was getting cut, the tree discharged blood and the blood splattered all around. Calix's burned face was painted red, it was painfully stinging. But it didn't stop him from cutting the tree!!

"Graaaahhhhhh!"

The creature screamed in pain. Scarlett cried, her weak stance disappeared and began struggling. Her claws started grazing Calix, she injured him rapidly. She bit his neck and chew his flesh so that he would stop.

However, instead of losing his strength, Calix remained still.

"I will not stop!! I will not stop until I see you again, you are mine!!"

He commanded. The wounds didn't make him flinch. Rather, his hand that was holding the chainsaw further pushed into and reached half of the tree.

Marianne, who was witnessing the horrible scene, wanted to prevent Calix from killing himself.

"Calix!"

The flame was killing Calix, his skin was nonexistent and his flesh could be seen. Any longer and he would die.

Marianne ran and tried to stop him.

"No, don't stop him! It's dangerous!"

Devon blocked her, he tackled the woman so that she won't get closer.

"Don't stop me! Can't you see that Calix is going to die!"

Marianne cried and struggled. She attempted to escape but Devon's physical strength was strong. She couldn't escape his grasp. They were both 2nd Advanced, but because of their gender, Devon has a physical advantage.

"Let go of me!!"

She sought.

"Marianne, it's dangerous to go there! The flame will kill you! Calix knew that once he was touched by the flame, he can never escape!! He's gambling his life!"

"I know that! That's why I have to stop him!"

Her tears were flowing nonstop, her vision was covered in tears. She couldn't accept it if Calix died.

"You have to believe in Calix. I don't know what's going on but I believe that Calix will overcome this. Just trust him."

To be honest, Devon didn't know where this confidence was coming from. All he knew was that Calix was not an ordinary person. Calix could do it.

'That's all I can do. We will only die if we get close to them, that flame is dangerous.'

Surrounding Calix and Scarlett were the blood and the endless flame. They were both suffering from the pain, but Calix was much stronger. Suddenly, his hair started growing longer.

He acquired it. His second Term Attribute. But it was not simple.

Calix didn't become a 2nd Advanced, he transcended.

There was a certain myth, there was a hidden class that only a few people could achieve. No one could clarify this claim because no one achieved this class for the past hundreds of years. Except for one, the Legendary Hero, Arthur Pendragon.

That's right, Calix acquired the secret class.

Calix Romoel became a Hero! An existence that would vanquish the darkness!!

[Calix Romoel]

[Luck Term Attribute]

[Hero: Fate Reversal Term Attribute]

[Fuel: Have sex once every three days.]

[Backlash: Will suffer from misfortune if he didn't have sex within three days.]

Chapter 233

Calix's hair grew longer, his greenish-brown eyes turned a golden shade. With his gaze alone, could create fear in anyone whom he stared at.

"Aahhhhhhh!"

Calix roared.

The lesson he learned from his father echoed.

By continuous use of his Term Attribute, it would naturally evolve but it would take years.

The other way was by further deciphering his Term Attribute.

When Calix was trying to find a way to save Scarlett, the concept of fate entered his mind. Calix thought that perhaps Scarlett's destiny was to die here which was unacceptable. He would rather curse fate than let Scarlett die.

So he realized that fate and his ability, Luck, were connected. That his Luck would determine the fortunate event of the girls whom he had sex with.

Scarlett, Yuna, and Marianne became 2nd Advanced despite being young.

Kimberly gained a unique ability and became the best inventor.

Lou entered Horvort University just because she had sex with Calix for a week.

Even Nikki awakened a Term Attribute. This possibility was so low that only a few people could accomplish it.

Calix realized that his ability could change the destiny of a person and turn it into better or the best.

With this enlightenment, Calix recognized his true power and transcended into a being that was almost impossible to acquire. Calix became a Hero!!

"I will protect you!"

Despite being covered in blood, where his skin was none to be seen, and horribly injured, Calix didn't let go of Scarlett. He hugged her tightly never letting her go.

Then, his weapon, Mento the chainsaw glowed. The chainsaw was glowing with an azure hue, the azure light covered the whole chainsaw.

It became an aura. The azure aura seethed into the blood tree.

Calix slowly pushed the weapon, cutting the tree.

Scarlett screamed in pain and her struggle didn't weaken.

But Calix was tough. With all of his strength, together with the azure aura that was covering the chainsaw, he successfully chopped the tree off her back!

The blood tree separated from her back. Scarlett lost her strength and kneeled.

Calix, who was weak too, stumbled. Someone grabbed him before he fell and he saw Marianne holding him.

His golden eyes returned to normal, and even the chainsaw that was covered with azure aura returned to its original form of a pistol.

Calix stared at Scarlett who was weakly moving. Her body was injured just like his, perhaps more dangerous than what he received. Scarlett lost a great amount of blood. Her complexion was so pale as if she was dead.

However, something unnatural happened. The blood tree lost its vibrant and melted, it returned to being blood. This blood began moving back to Scarlett.

The blood seeped back to all of the wounds, then the wounds closed by their own will. As if nothing happened, Scarlett's complexion returned to being healthy white. Except for her torn clothes, Scarlett looked normal.

"Ugh..."

Scarlett opened her eyes, she weakly raised her body. The first thing she noticed was Calix's horrible injuries. In fact, it was impossible to recognize him because his skin was burned so badly that his flesh could be seen.

"Calix... Hick, hick..."

Seeing his appearance, Scarlett started crying. She sobbed, she was guilty. Of course, she knew him.

Scarlett was wide awake the whole time. She understood that the reason why Calix was injured was because of saving her. She remembered everything.

Her body was moving out of her own accord as if she was controlled by something. It was painful, her body transformed and her blood was absorbed, it was hell. No, it was worse than hell.

"I- I'm sorry..."

Tears almost covered her face, she couldn't control her sobbing. She hurt him and almost killed him. She did all of this to him. Her hands were trembling as she stretched them to reach him.

She tried to get closer but her body was weak, even moving a finger hurt so much. But it didn't stop her.

"Calix..."

She said, trying to reach him. She didn't care about Marianne's piercing gaze. All she wanted was to be near him.

Thankfully, Calix responded.

"Scarlett..."

"Y- yes. I'm here. Everything's going to be fine."

Marianne was glaring at the woman, she was angry. But she persevered and helped Calix to reach Scarlett.

At the same time, Devon approached Scarlett and helped her.

They helped the two to get closer. As for Marianne, she was hoping that some miracle would happen. She even turned on her slightly broken phone, hoping that there was a signal to call a healer. Her hands were shaking, every time she looked at Calix, her expression grimaced and troubled.

It was obvious that Calix was terribly injured, her heart was torn apart just by seeing him like this.

"This is all my fault. This is all my fault! I'm sorry! I'm sorry. I'm sorry. I'm sorry."

Scarlett kept repeating it like a broken record. She didn't know what to do.

Scarlett grabbed Calix's hand, her tears were still flowing. She squeezed his hand and kissed it. Her cry was so loud, like an innocent child who did a disastrous sin.

"It's fine, this is not your fault."

Calix assured her, but his voice was getting weaker. It seemed that even his Luck was not enough to turn this around.

"No. There is a way."

Marianne looked at her phone. She had an idea.

Out of all the people here, she was the most calm and she knew Calix's ability, unlike Devon.

"Devon, I'm sorry but can you leave."

"What? I don't understand. I think it's best if we take Calix to the nearest hospital."

Devon was perplexed as he explained the reasonable way to help Calix.

However, Marianne shook her head, disagreeing with him.

"We don't have time to do that. You have to trust me."

Marianne was serious that even Devon could not respond. He could not let Calix suffer like this but Marianne's serious gaze pressed him.

Devon sighed. He could see that Marianne was hiding something, and she didn't want Devon to see it.

"I don't know what is happening... but you have to make sure that Calix will be safe."

He said it with a heavy voice, he didn't want Calix to die here. It would strike his conscience.

"I will save him."

Marianne said. It was unknown if she was confident or just hallucinating, but Devon could see that Marianne was serious.

"Okay, fine. I will leave."

"Thank you, please run as fast as you can and never look back. Please go to our house instead and check the others. I will greatly reward you after this."

"I don't need money, just make sure that Calix will be fine."

Devon didn't know what Marianne would do but he decided to trust her. He didn't have a choice but to do so.

Devon turned around and started running away. There were monsters in the way but he blew them apart.

"Get out of my way you filthy creatures!!"

Chapter 234

"Wwaaaaahhhh, Calix!!"

Scarlett cried hysterically as she hugged the weak Calix. Calix was slowly losing his blood and his injuries were grave.

"Calix! Calix don't die on me!"

She screamed, afraid to lose him.

Marianne rolled her eyes as she stared at the woman. It looked like Scarlett lost half of her brain cells after the battle.

'Bitch, don't forget that you are the reason why Calix is suffering. So don't show me that cry, or else I will tear down your hair!'

Marianne was holding herself, she was mad.

She took a deep breath and calmed down. She knew that being angry would not give her benefits.

Instead, she took a step and grabbed the hysterical woman.

"Scarlett, shut your mouth and listen to me."

"Marianne! I don't know anymore! I don't want to see Calix like this! Please, do something!"

Indeed, it appeared that Scarlett was not in her right mind. She would not show this side of her if she was in her right mind. She looked crazy.

Marianne's expression turned ugly. She could not hold herself and gave Scarlett a slap on her face.

Pah!!

Pah!!

She did it twice, just like how Scarlett did it to her.

"I told you that I will get my payback."

She murmured.

"Huh?"

Scarlett, who was dumbfounded, realized that she was slapped. Her cheeks were stinging, her eyes were slightly teary. But because of it, she regained her composure.

Marianne grabbed her collar. Staring at her, eye to eye.

"Y- you--"

"Scarlett, listen to me! Calix is in danger! I don't want to see you crying like a broken record. Don't forget that you are the reason why he suffered, so don't ever act like that in front of me!"

She raised her voice. This red-haired woman burned one of her legs, yet she was acting childish, of course Marianne would be mad.

Marianne controlled her emotions because it seemed that she was the only one who could think straight right now.

"Scarlett, you know Calix's ability. So I want you to take your clothes off."

She said, she even began taking her tattered clothes off.

"Huh? I don't get it."

"Just do it, or Calix will die."

"Okay!"

Scarlett didn't think twice after what she said. Actually, Scarlett was almost naked right now, most parts of her clothes were already gone.

When they were both naked, Marianne made her move. She kneeled down and started kissing Calix. She didn't care even if Calix was injured, she devoured his lips.

"W- what are you doing!?"

Scarlett was shocked, she almost tried to stop her. However, it seemed that her mind began returning to normal.

"I see..."

Scarlett realized something important.

"Marianne, thank you for the slap. I regain control over myself."

She was still shocked and out of her mind earlier but Marianne helped her to return to normal.

"Just shut up and help me."

Marianne didn't need her gratitude. Time was running and they need to save Calix. Thankfully, it seemed that Calix was responding to her kisses.

"Okay, I'll deal with his cock!!"

Of course, Scarlett would do that.

Scarlett pulled out his broken pants and kneeled over his manhood.

To be honest, Calix's skin was in a horrible state right now. Fortunately, his dong was not affected and looked healthy.

As for Calix, he couldn't speak but his mind was still clear.

'What is this? They want to have sex with me in this state? Is this categorized as snuff? Looks like the author wants to use all of the tags...'

Well, technically, Snuff is a genre where they would hurt or kill someone while having sex. So Calix, no, this is not a snuff...sadly.

Anyway, Scarlett did her best to serve his lower body. Scarlett began stroking his cock, then, she was licking his balls and the head of his cock in rotation. When his cockadoodledo was hard, Scarlett didn't think twice and shoved it into her throat.

Just like a certain song, Scarlett saved a dick by giving it a CPR.

In one insertion, she began deep-throating his cock. Calix felt the back of her throat and his cock twitched.

"Glooobbdllobb glug glug!"

Scarlett had a gag reflex but she continued moving her head. She kept sucking his cock, and as her drool covered it, her head moved up and down. His cock was soaked in her saliva.

Calix slowly regained his strength, his hands embraced Marianne who was still kissing him. Their tongues intertwined, never letting each other go.

Yeah, while kissing Marianne, Scarlett was giving him a blowjob. Calix's hands explored every inch of Marianne's body until his palms rest on her plump ass. He was caressing his tightly packed ass and Marianne weakly moaned as she bit her lip.

"I can't hold it anymore, Scarlett get out of my way and let me have it!"

Marianne was so horny, Calix's gentle caressing sent shivers and she could feel that her pussy was so drenched.

She pushed Scarlett who was choking on Calix's cock. Scarlett stumbled and the cock was sealed with saliva.

Marianne straddled and pointed the cock into her pussy.

"Mmm... Calix, I'm doing this to heal you okay? So don't misunderstand it!"

Ah, yes, a tsundere explaining herself. Well, it looked like her excuse was accepted because Calix nodded.

Marianne began moving her hips, and Calix answered by meeting her in the middle. Their crotches slapped each other as they were hungry for pleasure.

"Aahhnn! Ahhnn! Oh good, it's so good!! I feel your cock deep inside me! Aahhh! You're breaking me apart!! Calix! Do me! Fuck me so good! Nngggghhhh!"

Marianne moaned as Calix's sloppy cock penetrated her, she was riding on that schlong that she forgot about her mission.

That's right, the reason for this sex was to heal Calix... But it seemed that Marianne was too horny to think of that.

"This is unfair!"

Scarlett glared at Marianne who was whining on Calix's manhood. She reached Calix and began kissing him.

Calix grabbed her tiddies and fondled them while he was smashing Marianne.

"Mnn, you want my tits?"

Like a sweet mother, Scarlett offered her nipples for Calix. The injured man began sucking her nipple like a baby.

Chapter 235

While riding on his shaft, Marianne could not control her voice and moaned. Her ass didn't stop grinding against Calix, the pleasure electrocuted her body. She began fondling her own breasts, she pinched her nipple as she moved her hips rapidly.

"Uggnh Ugghnn Ughhn!"

Her image was so seductive that any man would bust, however, because Scarlett was currently using her tits to lure Calix, he couldn't see Marianne's alluring moves.

Marianne clicked her tongue but that annoyance disappeared as she cried out. Calix's enormous dragon twitched inside her tight pussy, it sent shivers that her ass tremble. She came as her eyes rolled up, even her toe curled in disgrace.

Furthermore, it seemed like Calix was not done. His hips were still moving, grinding his pole inside her tunnel.

"Nnggghhhh! Calix, I can feel your big cock penetrating my womb!! Oh my God!! Oh my God! I'm gonna cum again! Calix fuck me! Fuck me like I'm nothing but a sex slave! Aahhh! Yes!! I'm your sex slave Calixxxx!"

She screamed as her back arched up, her body kept shivering. The cock inside her was covered with the white stuff, probably from Marianne's.

She was breathless as she rest on him. It felt so good that she forgot that one of her legs was still missing. Anyway, Marianne would choose Calix's monstrous wiener over her own leg.

She has her priorities.

Cock > Leg.

The sloppy cock came out of her wet vagina, and a trail of love juice ran out of her cunt. It slowly dripped and landed on Calix's body.

"Now it's my turn!!!"

Scarlett happily said and pushed Marianne away. Marianne glared but Scarlett was too busy to see.

"No matter how many times I feel this, I'm still amazed at how hard it is."

"... I want to disagree, but you are right. Calix's cock is always rock hard."

Marianne agreed with her opinion. She only had Calix's cock in her life but Marianne understood that Calix's cock was a masterpiece.

It does not easily lose its hardness. In fact, once the cock entered the state of being hard, it was hard to make it not hard. Hehe, get it?

Well, there were two naked beautiful women in front of Calix, so he could not control his lower body. It would be a great sin if his junior didn't react at all.

There was no foreplay because Scarlett was already wet, and Calix's cock was already covered in juices too. So Scarlett lowered her ass, guiding the rod into her hot wet pussy.

She took a deep breath as Calix entered her, her eyes blurred slightly when she feels him inside her.

"Oh god, I can feel it hard. It's so hot baby."

She muttered with a hint of a whimper. She was passionate as she accommodated his cock deep inside her womb. She felt that her belly was so full, yet satisfied. She didn't start moving until her pussy completely adjusted to his cock.

"Hmmm!! Nnnn!!!"

She bit her lip and closed her eyes.

Calix was slowly thrusting, making sure that Scarlett was fine. He just remembered that this woman almost lost her life earlier.

So they did a slow fucking, a gentle yet satisfied fucking. In fact, it felt better than being rough.

"Don't forget about me."

Of course Marianne didn't like being left alone. As punishment for Calix, Marianne sat on his face.

... And I tell you, sitting on his face was not a punishment at all. A man dreamed of having a thick ass on his face, especially if it was a tier 10 like Marianne.

So instead of frowning, Calix grinned instead. Now that the pussy was right in front of his face, Calix didn't think twice and licked her slit. His tongue cuddled her clitoris and gently impaled her entrance.

Calix was motorboating that ass!

Marianne felt the teasing and was pleased. Her ass flinched whenever Calix used his tongue to play with her soaking hole.

"What are you looking at?"

Right now, Marianne and Scarlett were facing each other. While Scarlett was busy with his shaft and Marianne with his face.

"Hmmp!!"

Marianne scoffed. She didn't forget that this woman almost killed both her and Calix.

As for Scarlett, she didn't care about Marianne. She focused all her attention on Calix's magnificent hard and big angry bird.

"... Tch."

Marianne clicked her tongue.

Suddenly, Calix attacked both of them and the two women came at the same time.

"Nngggghhhh!!"

"Mmmmmm!!"

Their body shuddered and electrocuted.

"God, your tongue feels so good."

"Calix, I love you and your cock!"

The woman compliment him but Calix was busy too. There were two delicacies in front of him and he didn't know what to focus on.

Marianne and Scarlett looked at each other.

"Say..."

"Yeah..."

This was not the first time that they have a threesome. But this was the first time that this scenario happened. Whenever they were having sex with Calix, the two would slowly lose their reasoning and succumbed to pleasure.

Just like now.

The two leaned over and began kissing each other. Their tongues slapped each other, flirting with their teeth and gums. The two women forget their differences and did their best to reach greater pleasure.

This was their first time kissing. They hate each other, but now they are kissing.

Kissing feels so good, especially while having sex, and it seemed that the two agreed on that.

They started making out while Calix was under them, making sure that the two women were happy.

.....

....

...

..

"Phew, that feels so good."

"Yeah, you are right."

The two women got up and wiped their sweat.

However, it seemed that they forgot something important.

The reason why they had sex with Calix was to heal him, they were hoping that Calix would create a miracle after sex.

When they realized it, they immediately checked Calix.

The first thing they observed was that Calix had a wide smile on his face.

However, his injuries didn't heal!

He was still going to die!

... Well, at least he had sex before he died.

[More than a threesome!!]

Chapter 236

It seemed that Scarlett and Marianne forgot about it. Well, when there is a cock inside them, their minds will forget everything.

Furthermore, it seemed that Calix did not care at all. The wide grin on his face showed it, he was satisfied and happy. Perhaps he forgot that he was injured too. Well, when his cock is inside a pussy, he will forget everything too.

"Calix!!"

Both women felt guilty and approached him. They could not believe that they forgot their real mission just because of pleasure, maybe this was one of the curses of Calix's magnificent cock.

"Baby, are you okay?"

Scarlett asked with a hint of sorrow. She assisted Calix to raise his upper body, she grimaced as she confirmed that Calix's situation did not alleviate. His skin was still charred and the flesh was still visible.

'Gosh, I can't believe that I ride his body while he is in this state! Scarlett, you're stupid!'

Scarlett said to herself as her eyes got teary. Then, she turned to Marianne who was surprised just like her.

"Why is Calix still like this? I thought he will be better after we had sex?"

She glared at the woman.

"I- I don't know, I thought he will be fine once we had sex with him!"

Marianne shook her head. Her expression looked defeated, she was going to cry too. She could not accept that Calix would die here.

Her legs got weak and kneeled before him.

"I- I'm sorry Calix, m- maybe we can ask for help! Y- yeah, that's right! I will look for help!"

Marianne was holding her tears. Because of her foolishness, she believed that Calix would heal if they had sex.

Perhaps she should have looked for the nearest hospital and taken Calix there. But instead, she assumed that Calix would create a miracle.

She was wrong. Now, Calix was still suffering.

'What we did is let Calix die!! Instead of saving him, we pursued our pleasure and let him suffer! Marianne! You bitch! You know that you can't live without Calix! Yet you pushed him to death!'

Marianne cursed herself. She was blaming her stupid mind for thinking of a stupid way to save Calix.

She hates herself for doing this.

Marianne tried to stand up but her weak legs were not listening. Especially her ice leg, it was slowly melting.

"Move your dumb legs!! Move!!"

She talked to her legs but they were still shaking. The shock that Calix would die affected her physically. Her tears started falling, she had to do something.

Both Scarlett and Marianne were distressed.

However, Calix, the one who was dying right now was not afraid at all.

"Thank you, guys..."

"N- no, Calix don't talk! Don't waste your energy! Don't worry, we try to find a way to save you! I swear! I will never let you die just like how you swore to protect me!"

Scarlett hugged him and weakly cried. Her tears landed on Calix.

"No, what I'm saying is--"

"Marianne! You bitch! Go and find a hospital! Can't you see that Calix is hallucinating!? Calix, baby, don't ever go to the light!! Don't ever follow the light!"

Scarlett screamed as she hugged him tightly. Even Marianne began crawling just to find a hospital.

Calix didn't know what to say.

"No, all I'm saying is that--"

"Calix, wwaahh!!!"

Scarlett started crying as if Calix was already dead.

"I'm not dead, okay!? Just listen to me for at least a fucking minute!"

Losing his patience, Calix raised his voice. He knew that sometimes these two elegant girls lost their reasoning, but he could not believe that they would turn into hysterical dumb girls!

"Huh?"

The two women stopped moving and looked at Calix.

"Calix?"

"I'm not dead. But I will really die if the two of you don't calm your tits right now!"

He was fuming. His body was already aching and these two were acting like bitches.

"O- okay."

The two nod their heads and took a deep breath to calm their minds.

Calix sighed as he looked at the two. Their appearance looked devastated.

Marianne lost one of her legs and she had bruises and burns all around her body.

Scarlett may look healthy because she didn't have any scratches, but only a fool would believe it. Even now, the woman was trembling, trying her best not to lose consciousness. She was at her limits, the only thing that kept her awake was Calix.

"Listen, you can see that my hair grow longer, right?"

Calix explained like a kindergarten teacher.

"Yes, we can see it."

The two nodded like children.

"That means that I transcended."

"R- really?"

The two women were shocked. Indeed, now that they think of it, they could sense that Calix's aura evolved. His physical appearance improved too. If not for his burned skin, it would be obvious to see.

"Now, I just want you to follow my very simple instruction."

"Okay!"

"Give me my gun."

"Okay!"

Calix commanded and Marianne grabbed the old pistol. She gave it to him. She trust that Calix had a plan.

'Maybe he gained enlightenment and found a way to overcome this situation.'

Marianne clasped her palms. She didn't believe in Gods, but now, she was ready to pray to any Gods just to save Calix.

Now that Calix was holding his weapon, he did not think twice and pointed it to his head and pulled the trigger!

-- Bang!

"Calix!"

Together with their voices, the sound of a gunshot resounded. Literally ending with a bang.

Chapter 237

When Calix was desperate to save Scarlett, he gained enlightenment and his Term Attribute evolved.

'Fate Reversal, the power to change destiny.'

It was a powerful Term Attribute that even Calix was amazed at. He could not believe that there is an ability like this, furthermore, it was his ability.

'Hero Rank, huh...'

He did not have enough knowledge about this class because it was washed away by history.

'Anyway, it's not the time to think about it.'

Calix said to himself as he grabbed the pistol. While having sex, his mind became clearer and learned how his new power works.

'I can change the fate of a person, from bad to good. From good to bad... but there's a lot of conditions.'

Right now, Calix could not experiment to further understand his new Term Attribute.

However.

'In this state, where my body is burned and I'm going to die: this is the best moment to test my ability.'

Calix thought of it.

To be honest, he was afraid of pointing his gun on his head but it was now or never. He might as well do it.

The Blood Moon is still going on and as time goes on, it is going to be dangerous for them to stay here.

So Calix gritted his teeth and released all of his courage to pull the trigger.

--Bang!

"Calix!"

Together with the scream of the girls, the loud gunshot echoed.

In slow motion, the bullet came out of the pistol, it had an azure aura as it touched Calix's skin.

However, the bullet did not penetrate his skin... Because it was not a real bullet, it was a rubber bullet.

"Ack--! Guh! I know that rubber bullet is not deadly but damn! It still fucking hurts!"

Calix groaned as he curled up. His head was stinging. The bullet didn't kill him but it was still painful.

"What? I'm not that crazy to use a real bullet on me!"

He said. He used the bullet to pass the azure aura to his body.

"Calix! Are you okay!!"

Scarlett and Marianne approached him. They were worried as they heard him screaming in pain.

"What did you do?"

Marianne sighed in relief when she found that Calix didn't shoot himself with a real bullet. She almost fainted when she saw him shooting himself. Even now her heart was still beating so fast.

"Hehe, it's nothing. I'm just doing an experiment."

"Experiment? Calix, you shot yourself!! Don't ever do that again!"

"Okay, I promise."

Scarlett glared at him. She was nervous too. Sometimes she could not understand what was running in Calix's head.

How could he shoot himself? Even if it was a rubber bullet, it was still frightening.

"You should be. Shooting a rubber bullet at that close distance is dangerous. It's fortunate that nothing bad happened."

"Maybe I'm just Lucky."

Calix regained his strength as he slowly stood up.

"Calix your body! It's healing!!"

Both women were surprised as they witnessed how his injuries began healing. His flesh was gradually covered with new skin. All of his bruises disappeared too.

"Wow..."

They looked at him with amazement.

"How did you do that?"

"I will tell you later. For now, we have to leave here and find the others."

Calix waved his hand and the spatial ring that he was wearing glowed and spat three sets of clothes. One for him, and one for each of the women.

His gratitude for Kimberly further increased as he realized how practical the space ring was. Sadly, Kimberly only created two space rings because it was time-consuming, and creating one needed tremendous concentration. One mistake and the ring would turn into a failure.

The three began wearing the clothes. They were baggy for the two girls because the size of the clothes was for men. Furthermore, each of them wore a battlesuit just to be safe.

"Let's go. I know where we can find Nikki."

They began walking away.

However, an ear-deafening cry shook their very existence.

"Kaaaaaarrrrggghhhh--!!"

It was so loud that their eardrums almost popped. They immediately covered their ears and duck down, hiding from the danger.

"What is happening!!?"

They were shocked and afraid.

Only a few creatures could do this kind of frightening roar.

They felt that their stomachs were churning.

They could sense it. An enormous creature was going to show up. Even though they could not see it, they could feel its presence.

Marianne and Scarlett's expressions turned pale. They want to vomit. The pressure was so strong that they could not move.

Gradually, the cry of the creature disappeared but the three of them still had tinnitus.

They gasped for air, it was so suffocating that they almost pee in their newly worn pants.

"Gahah--! Agh!"

Marianne failed to hold herself and vomited. That pressure was too much.

"T- that's a Demon-God, no explanation needed! That's a Demon-God!"

Even Scarlett was frightened. In her whole life fighting Aberrants, this was the first time that she experienced a Demon-God.

"Calm down, guys! We have to calm down and think of a way to--"

"Gtrrraaahh!!"

Sadly, it seemed that the situation turned worst.

The island had been split in half!

The ground began to shake, and they completely lost their balance and stumbled.

Then, a giant creature sprung from the middle of the island!! It was so big that it almost covered the red sky.

They witnessed for the first time, the true destruction. The manifestation of a Demon-God!

"That's a Bakunawa..."

Calix was stunned that he didn't know what to do. He stared at the magnificent yet frightening creature.

He felt that hope was shattered and their lives were going to disappear together with the island. His hands were trembling as he tightly held his weapon.

Bakunawa, it is a species of giant serpents that are living in the ocean. They are Aberrants that mostly live deep within the trenches of the ocean. They are territorial and aggressive.

The weakest class that a Bakunawa can be is a Tiger-Class, and the strongest is a Demon-God. This means that the whole species of Bakunawa can be an army of Tiger-Class Aberrants or even stronger.

Even a single Bakunawa Demon-God could eradicate this island.

"Shit!"

That was the only thing that Calix could say.

They were in deep shit.

"Ugh..."

[Hey, partner! Wake up!! This is bad, there is a Demon-God!! You have to wake up partner!!]

A telepathic voice was talking but it could only talk to one person. And that person was currently sleeping.

"... Ugh."

[Nikki!! We have to leave now!! I'm still not strong to fight a Demon-God!! Maybe my quiet brother can do something but definitely not me!!]

Corco talked but Nikki was still not waking up.

[Nikki, remember that you still have a daughter to protect!!]

When Nikki heard it, her weak eyes opened up. Her head was aching as she slowly raised up. She felt that her whole body was aching.

"... What happened to me?"

She asked herself weakly. She blacked out after she was stabbed, she didn't know what happened after that. She looked at her battlesuit, it was ripped and only her private parts were protected.

"... Ugh."

Her head was aching like a pulsing pain. She felt that she fought endlessly.

"I remember that I was stabbed... But where is the wound?"

She could not find any wounds or injuries, her skin looked smooth and healthy. However, her body was aching like crazy.

[Nikki, this is not the time to think about that. We have to escape this island! This Island is sinking!!]

"Who's there!!??"

Someone talked to her. She was surprised as she looked around, but she could not find any person.

[You have to calm down. I'm your partner! I'm Corco! The legendary hammer of the Ogre King!]

Nikki looked down and realized that her weapon was talking.

"Corco?"

She tilted her head, looking confused.

[Yes! Corco, that's me!]

"... I'm probably hallucinating. Maybe my head hit something earlier."

Nikki shook her head. Perhaps this situation caused her to become crazy.

"That's right, I have to look for my daughter. She is in the house right now."

She mumbled.

She decided to forget that someone was talking to her. It was not the time to think of her craziness.

She began looking around...

However, as she looked at the sky, she realized that a great problem was right before her.

"What is that!?"

Her scream was surprising. She was stunned and afraid at the same time. She could not believe that there was a gigantic serpent looming over the island. The creature was covering the red sky.

Nikki almost lost her strength to move but Corco gave her the push.

[Don't lose hope!! I hate to say this but as long as you are close to that guy you can leave this place! Your man is Lucky and you have to take advantage of that!!]

"I... I have to move. I have to find them!!"

Nikki gritted her teeth and started running. She didn't know where the others were but she had to move. If she didn't move, she would really die.

{Foolish humans! From now on, this island is mine!!}

Suddenly, a heavy growling voice echoed. The voice had a hint of aura that even Nikki could feel it.

She looked up and realized that the Bakunawa talked.

"It says that unique Aberrants and Demon-Gods can talk... If this creature is not the former then..."

The Bakunawa is a Demon-God. The strongest class of all.

The fact that it could speak was enough to frighten her.

She clenched her fists and began running faster. She disregarded her aching body, she had to do something to save her daughter and her comrades.

"Calix..."

She muttered, she knew that Calix had the ability to make someone Lucky. She was hoping that she could get at least an ounce of his Luck to save her loved ones.

{Graahhh--! You foolish woman!! You think your power is enough to fight me!}

Nikki looked up and realized that the ginormous serpent was being encircled by black tendril hands.

"That's the Vice-President's ability!!"

For a second, Nikki looked happy. She knew that Vice President Esmeralda has a powerful Term Attribute. If there is someone who can face the Bakunawa, that should be her.

But that moment of hope was shattered as the Bakunawa opened its mouth and released a fire breath to destroy the black tendrils. The black hands started disintegrating.

"T- that's impossible!! The Vice President's black hands should be tougher than that!"

Nikki overlooked something. It was still daytime, and Esmeralda could not use her full power if it was not night. So right now, Esmeralda was using the serpent's huge shadow to create the black tendrils but they were not enough to contain the creature.

.....

.....

...

"Tch, as expected they are not enough."

Esmeralda clicked her tongue. She wiped her sweat as she looked at the giant creature. Its presence was so strong that every human on the island was screaming in fear.

"His presence alone is enough to spread fear. As expected of a Demon-God."

Only tough-minded people could withstand its pressure.

"But even a tough-minded person can't hurt it. Damn this Blood Moon, I have already prepared my team in case something like this happened, but they are in the mainland."

Perhaps she was not that prepared at all.

"... I can only use its shadow to fuel my power, but the best I can do is to hold it down. I can't kill it."

Added that the Bakunawa was currently receiving power from the Blood Moon, Esmeralda could never defeat it.

"Looks like I gain its attention."

Esmeralda found that the serpent was looking at her with resentment. The Bakunawa opened its mouth and shoot another fire breath.

Immediately, Esmeralda merged with the darkness and teleported to another location. She could do short-distance teleportation but she could not use it continuously.

She was gasping for air as she looked at the serpent. Surely enough, the Bakunawa shoot another fire. It was getting stronger as time goes on, Blood Moon was giving it unlimited strength.

Chapter 239

The Aberrants were destroying the island, their eyes were on the pitiful citizens. They attacked the weak and tear their flesh, eating them deliciously.

Furthermore, these monsters were using blunt weapons such as wooden spears. They appeared to be like an ancient army, but the fear they spread was enough.

"H- help me!!!"

The screaming was all around. Everyone was afraid, especially when a ginormous creature was soaring over the island and shooting fire. The Bakunawa was destroying the island slowly.

In the middle of the sea, an island of fire was getting created. The island was getting covered by flame and no one could escape it.

Calix and the others were caught by the crisis. They were fighting rabid Aberrants that were attacking them.

Together with the suffocating pressure that was coming from the Demon-God, the three persevered and fought valiantly.

They were close to their limits and they understood that they would faint at any moment. However, they knew that losing their consciousness would bring them nothing but death.

They would die if they don't fight.

They had to leave this place, but they could not.

The island was already over, it was going to sink and it was impossible to save it.

"We have to find Yuna!!"

The only answer to their problem was Yuna Garcia. She could create portals to escape this island.

"Calix! I don't know how your power works but is it possible to save this island? Our country took a decade to build this island, it's a waste if this sink! This island houses millions of people, and all of them will die if we don't do something."

Marianne explained. Her face was already haggard and pale. She glanced at her ice leg, it was obvious that she lost a great amount of blood.

"I will try!!"

Calix gritted his teeth as he killed a monster.

His weapon transformed into a Thunder 50 BMG and pointed it at the ground. Using his remaining power, he gathered the azure energy in his body and passed it into the bullet.

He started coughing blood. It seemed that he was pushing himself to the limit. But he didn't stop. Instead, he gathered enough energy and pulled the trigger.

A powerful gunshot reverted, penetrating the ground.

"Guah--!"

Calix lost his strength and kneeled to the ground. He began coughing blood nonstop. This was the first time he exceeded his limit. His vision was getting blurry.

"Calix!"

Suddenly, the shaking of the ground stopped. Even the Aberrants were confused as if the earthquake was nothing but an illusion.

.....

.....

...

{Huh? Why did half of the island stop sinking?}

The Bakunawa was shocked as it glanced at the place. The Demon-God made sure that the island was cut in half and destroyed its foundation beneath.

It confirmed that the island was sinking. However, when he looked at it again, he found that half of it was floating still.

"Hey, don't look at the other while fighting me. It's disrespectful!"

{Graahhh!!}

Esmeralda used her ability and darkness began strangling the Bakunawa.

She could feel that something was happening on the island. She did not know what was it but she could see that it was a good thing for them. So she decided to confront the Demon-God to prevent it from destroying the island.

Her body was in tatters, she had wounds all around. She admitted that the current circumstances were a disadvantage for her.

The darkness was not enough to fight the Bakunawa and she was slowly losing the battle. The only thing she could do was to keep the monster and wait for reinforcement.

"Well, at this moment, I'm not sure if they have the spare military strength to send reinforcement."

It looked like on the other side of the country, a war was happening too. The country was getting attacked by both sides.

"... I wonder if the Obice can withstand it."

So far, she could not see any flying-type Aberrants. She understood that it would be devastating if the flying-type Aberrants attacked them.

Blood Moon, the moment when monsters evolved and attacked humanity.

{You foolish woman! Your species is already dead! You should follow them!}

"What do you know about me to say that, huh?"

Esmeralda grinned and created black spikes and shoot them. Yet, the Bakunawa received them like nothing, the monster's scales were tough and impossible to penetrate.

"Tch, that's why I hate the sun."

{You always hate the sun! You should have died in Junian!}

The Bakunawa roared and shoot a fire breath. Esmeralda successfully escaped it.

"It will not be long till I lose, I need something to turn this thing around. Fortunately, the other half of the island is still intact. At least the citizens have a safe place to stay."

.....

.....

...

"Calix!"

Scarlett and Marianne approached him. Half of the island was safe but Calix was not.

Marianne created an ice barrier to protect them from the monsters. The three hide inside.

"I'm sorry, I should not have pushed you to do it!"

"No, it's fine."

Calix wiped his blood.

"Besides, while I'm still awake, I need you to help me."

"Calix you are already weak."

"Listen to me, this is about the Demon-God. I have a way to kill it."

He looked at the two seriously. He have to do it, or else they were going to die.

"To be honest, I don't know if this will work but we don't have a choice. I have to do it."

He was determined. That's what it takes to be a man. As long as he can fight, Calix will do it. Even if he has to sacrifice himself.

"I..."

The two women didn't know what to say but Calix's determined gaze affected them.

Chapter 240

Calix closed his eyes and controlled his beating heart. His heart was beating so fast as if he was palpitating. Furthermore, his body was aching all over. He felt that his body was going to break at any moment.

His heart gradually calmed down. He erased anything that might distract him and concentrated on one thing. This was the fourth time that he would use his azure aura and he understood that he was doing suicide.

'Well, all I can do is put trust in my Luck.'

He mumbled. He could feel it, the remaining azure energy in his body. He grabbed it and his body began being covered by the aura.

Then, when he opened his eyes, his pupils had a golden shade. They were glowing, looking at the entity in the sky.

Currently, the Bakunawa was fighting the Vice-President. Their battle was fierce but it was obvious that Esmeralda was being pushed back.

As his eyes started bleeding, Calix grabbed his weapon. Mento transformed into an Anzio 20mm Anti-Material Rifle. This rifle had a powerful recoil but its firepower was frightening. It could destroy a tank.

Calix set his rifle steadily on the ground. He lay down and fix his left eye on the scope. He was so calm right now that he was not affected by the current situation. Everything around him was fighting.

Scarlett and Marianne were fighting the Aberrants, giving him the time and space to shoot the Bakunawa.

More monsters appeared and they were stronger, but the two women were pushing them.

"Haahh... Phew..."

Calix took a deep breath, his rifle was calmly pointing at the monster in the sky. His stance was perfect and his location was perfect too.

'The Bakunawa is big and I can shoot him anywhere, but I have to make sure that it will die. So I have to hit the brain or heart to kill it.'

He felt that the world was moving slowly. As if he took enhancing drug.

He sensed the changes in the wind, he could feel the surroundings and the shaking of the ground.

He was waiting for the right moment to shoot.

Then, when the wind changed its trajectory, Calix, who was already pointing his rifle at the monster's head gradually pulled the trigger.

However, an unexpected event happened.

An Umibozo shot Calix's face which was unprotected. The nail-like bullet penetrated his skin.

He didn't suffer any major injury because the bullet was weak. But it caused an effect on his sense of movement.

The nail bullet of the Umibozo could paralyze a person, and right now, Calix was suffering from that.

"Ugh--!!"

He groaned. He couldn't control his body and his legs jerked up.

'What the fuck? I thought I have immunity against their bullets. Then why am I getting paralyzed right now? I thought I was Lucky?'

Luck is incomprehensible, sometimes you don't know if an unfortunate event may have been the Luck itself.

Calix gritted his teeth but he still failed to control his body.

Unfortunately, his finger was already on the trigger. As his body spasmed, his finger betrayed him.

The finger fingered the trigger!!

-- Bang!

Powerful combustion transpired and the surrounding was covered by its sound.

Calix could see that Marianne and Scarlett approached him. They were anxious as they found that Calix was not moving.

But Calix didn't have the time to think about it.

'Shit! Fucking shit!'

He cursed himself as his body trembled without his consent. His eyes were red, showing his anger.

He failed. The last remaining energy in his body disappeared together the moment the bullet flew.

'Damn it!'

He thought his Luck was omnipotent, but he was wrong. It seemed that even his Luck fucked him up.

The bullet drifted into the sky. It was so fast, in fact, it was only milliseconds before it reached its target.

Sadly, it didn't hit the monster's head.

The bullet hit the monster's butt instead!

'Out of all the things that it can hit, why is it the ass!?!'

Calix said in his mind. He was completely paralyzed and it would take at least an hour before he could move again.

His eyes didn't leave the monster.

'Huh?'

Calix was confused as he realized that the monster began acting up.

It looked like the Bakunawa was in deep pain.

{Graahhhhh---!}

It roared but it sounded desperate.

'Now that I think about it, I'm not really sure if I hit his ass. After all, he is so big--!'

{Who dares hit my ass!}

'Thought so, it is indeed his ass.'

The monster started coiling around. The Bakunawa began weakening.

As a monster who had great intelligence, the Bakunawa understood that its body has weaknesses too. Such as the heart and brain.

That's why the monster changed the location of his organs. Its brain was in the middle part of its body while its heart was on its rear, close to the ass.

But the creature didn't think that someone would attack its weak point!

{Grah--!!}

'I don't know what is happening but I guess it worked huh? I thought the Bakunawa will die immediately but I guess my power is not that omnipotent.'

His power could change fate, and the Bakunawa's fate was still not determined so the best that his power could do was to bring enough misfortune.

After that, Calix slowly closed his eyes. He already reached his limit.

He lost consciousness and he did not know what happened after that.
