

Only Fuel 311

Chapter 311

Calix admitted the truth. Sex is exhausting, but it is something he could never let go of. The satisfaction and happiness he gets after procreation completes him as a human. Maybe that is the human instinct.

Calix yawned and wiped his eyes. He had just woken up to find that the two women were not in the bed.

He shrugged and dragged his naked body into the kitchen. As he expected, Yuna and Kimberly were having breakfast.

"Baby~ Do you want anything? Do you want a bath? Do you want breakfast? Or maybe you want me?"

Kimberly giggled and leaned in closer. She was not wearing her glasses, so her true motives were obvious. But before she could touch Calix, her foot slipped and she fell.

"Ack!"

"What a clumsy bitch hehe."

Yuna giggled behind her. She jumped up and hugged Calix. It was her first hug of the morning.

"Did you miss me?"

"Yuna, we fucked last night."

"So did you miss me?"

She tilted her head. Her expression was cute, like a kitten.

"Yes, I miss you."

He pinched her cheeks and Yuna pouted.

"Hm. I'm cooking sunny-side-up eggs and there's a toasted sandwich for you."

"Thank you."

Despite being a Yandere, Yuna was a good cook. She was even better than Nikki, who was a certified mother.

"I helped too."

Kimberly joined in and Calix kissed her forehead before she could throw a tantrum. Kimberly without her glasses was moody and hard to calm. He had to cuddle her just to make her smile.

"Hehe~"

"Here are your glasses."

Calix gave her the glasses and Kimberly gladly put them on.

"Good morning Calix."

Her clumsy expression disappeared and the mischievous smile emerged instead.

As she expected, her plan worked. Although Yuna was with them to disrupt their relationship, it was something Kimberly accepted.

She had to sacrifice something to achieve something greater.

'Creating a teleportation device is tedious, but it seems that I have to create one. I have some runes that can help me.'

She looked at Yuna who was stuffing her mouth with bread.

Creating runic items was difficult because she needed Calix's luck.

'I can use this as an excuse to suck energy from Calix...'

She thought about sucking him...

"By the way, I thought you were busy. You shouldn't neglect your job, you are an important part of our society."

"Don't worry, I'm here because I need your luck. I'm trying to create a special item that can detect Aberrants. I asked Yuna to bring me to you and she agreed."

"I see."

Kimberly smiled. A perfect excuse and Calix accepted it easily. Calix would never say no to her as long as it was for research.

'He never denied me, he always accepted my request without asking for anything.'

"I know your research is important, but you have to take care of yourself as well. Your health is more important than your research."

Calix said, placing a vegetable salad on her plate.

Instead of being angry, Kimberly almost squirmed when she saw his affection. Her smile almost reached her ears. She fanned her flushed face and nodded like a broken record.

A simple gesture made her heart race.

'Calix Romoel! I love you I love you I love you I love you I loveyouI loveyou!!!'

This phrase kept repeating in her mind and her pupils turned heart-shaped.

'How can I not love someone as sincere as him? Oh my God, I want to have his baby!'

She said to herself.

'Kimberly, calm down! You need to think this through! If you get pregnant, there is a chance that you will not have sex with Calix for a few months!'

She began to weigh the pros and cons of having a child, which was a good thing. Having a child was not an easy task.

While Kimberly fantasized, Yuna stared at her with cold eyes.

'That bitch thinks she is the female lead. Humph! Pathetic! I'm the only one who can get you to Calix! If not for your phone that can contact Calix, I will never have an alliance with you!'

Yuna had the means of transportation, while Kimberly had the means of communication. So they agreed to this plan and took advantage of the situation.

They hoped to use this chance to increase Calix's love for them.

'Just wait, with my power I can visit this place every night. Fufu.'

While Kimberly was busy with her fantasy, Yuna planned to take the lead in this competition.

'Now that Calix has settled into this apartment, I can easily reach this place.'

She had already memorized the place and could return there whenever she wanted.

"Fufufu."

The two girls started giggling like crazy.

Calix continued to eat his food. He was used to it, these girls always giggled for unknown reasons. He thought it was normal.

"Then we will leave now."

The two finished their business and had to return.

"Hm. Take care of yourself."

"Calix, you have to watch out for Junian."

Yuna's expression was serious. She spied on Ancas and Junian. She didn't find any real proof, but she felt that the two countries were doing something dangerous that could affect them.

She found out that the two countries had secret facilities near the Forest of Death where they were experimenting.

"I will."

He nodded. Calix was in enemy territory and he had to be careful.

Yuna created a portal back to Kimberly's lab. However...

"Just as I thought. They are doing something behind our backs."

When they opened the portal, Scarlett and Marianne were staring at them.

"You think you can outsmart us?"

"Tch."

The two women clicked their tongues. They thought they could use this method for a long time, but Scarlett and Marianne stopped them after using it once.

"... Um, I think I have something to do."

"Hah, Calix Romoel. You and your excuses."

Scarlett looked at Calix and the man averted his gaze. He faked a cough and slowly left the kitchen.

Kimberly is smart, but that doesn't mean the others are stupid.

Chapter 312

Scarlett and Marianne confronted Kimberly and Yuna. The two had no choice but to end their plan. Since their plan had been discovered, it was useless to hide it any longer. Besides, Scarlett and Marianne were strong opponents. It was impossible to ignore them, unlike Nikki.

In the end, the four of them made an agreement. Every three days, they would visit Calix to help him 'replenish' his Term Attribute.

Of course, Calix had no say in the matter and could only nod his head. How could he say no when the four vixens were staring at him?

"Okay, I agree. I will wait for you every three days."

He said. He had no choice.

After that, of course, Scarlett and Marianne would get some of deez nutz. Since they were here, they might as well have some fun with Calix.

In the end, the four women and Calix had sex early in the morning.

.....

.....

...

After they left, Calix gave them a goodbye kiss on the forehead and the girls left giggling.

"I guess I have to start my day."

He showered and left the dorm. He met students on his way and some of them glanced at him before pulling their eyes away.

Calix had a nice figure, but the hair that covered most of his face made him look like a depressed emo.

"I guess this is my classroom..."

He muttered to himself as he stared at the room with the word 'Archaeology' written on the door.

He asked people where to find the Archaeology classroom and it took him a few minutes to find it. Fortunately, he was not late and the professor was not there yet.

He entered the large study hall and went to the back of the class. He did not want to attract attention, and sitting in the back was the best option.

"Do you think there will be a war?"

"I hope not. I don't understand why Junian is avoiding the blame. It's obvious they're doing something behind our backs."

Calix listened to their conversation and kept his ears open.

'It seems that even the citizens of Junian have a negative opinion of their government. Well, considering Junian's history, I can't blame the people.'

Junian was still ruled by the royal family. The king of the country was the descendant of the tyrant who enslaved the demihumans.

Even though they had changed sides and established a good government, it was hard to wash away the sins committed by their ancestors. Moreover, the current king was a hedonistic pig who did nothing but live in vice and sin.

The only thing that kept this country from collapsing was the higher-ups who tried to make things better.

"I will go to the Church of Amore and pray for the pig to die so that Prince Diane can become king!"

"Count me in!"

"Me too!"

Calix turned the pages of the book as he listened to them.

'Now that I think about it, the Church of Amore is an old religion. They were founded before the slavery of the demihumans. Maybe they have something to do with the Dark Elves.'

The Church of Amore was one of the most powerful religions. They proclaim the glory and goodness of their goddess, the goddess of love, Amore.

'The last time I visited her temple, a light bulb hit my head...'

He pinched his chin. He began to think of ways to gather information about the Dark Elves.

"Hello, are you the new student?"

A man approached Calix.

"Yes, I'm Lucky T. Tiko from Carrillo. Nice to meet you."

"Hey, Quandale Dingle here. Nice to meet you too."

The man, Quandale Dingle, was about six feet tall and had brown skin. What caught Calix's attention were the long ears.

"Are you...?"

Quandale chuckled when he saw his reaction.

"Yes, if you're talking about my ears, I am indeed a half-elf. Though I'm not sure half-elf is the best way to describe me, maybe a quarter-elf? My great-great-grandmother is an elf."

"I see."

Calix nodded. He had seen many people with the blood of demihumans in his life, so he was not surprised.

Even Marianne was one, and the aura she had was gentle and noble. Maybe Marianne was the closest to an elf, except for Esmeralda of course.

"You're new here, so you can ask me if you don't understand something."

"Thank you. I appreciate it."

They started talking to each other and were both surprised that they had the same hobby.

"Man, I never thought that Eren would become a bird."

"Yeah, and he got NTR'd by Jean."

"What a pathetic guy."

"Still, Shingeki No Kyojin is a masterpiece."

"Fax."

They began to talk and laugh. It was a short time, but they were already having a nice conversation.

"You know, Quandale, you are a nice person."

"You're a cool person too, Lucky."

They shook hands as if they were already brothers. Men, they are simple creatures.

Suddenly, a woman's screaming voice hit the students. The woman came into the room excitedly, breathing heavily.

"Oh my God! Oh my God! My Goddess is here! Everyone! Shoujo Ramune is here!"

"Seriously!?"

"What!? This is a scoop!"

"I have to take pictures!"

The students started to make a commotion. They were excited to see their idol.

"Shoujo Ramune? Isn't that the famous actress who won the Hoescar Award last year?"

Calix was stunned. He did not expect to see someone as famous as her.

Shoujo Ramune is a famous actress who has starred in many movies. Each of her movies earned hundreds of millions of dollars at the box office. Her name was known throughout the world.

"In fact, she is my idol too!"

Even Quandale was excited.

"She's our classmate, but she rarely shows up because she's busy shooting her latest movie."

He added.

Calix and Quandale stood up just to see the famous actress.

Calix's interest in actresses was not that great. But it was impossible to ignore someone as famous as Shoujo Ramune. The two men waited for the actress to appear.

Chapter 313

The two guys stretched their necks like giraffes. They are men. And men like women. Staring at a beautiful woman is not a sin, it's a natural instinct that men should be proud of.

"Oh my God, she's so beautiful!!"

"Kyaahh!! Miss Shoujo Ramune!!"

"My heart!"

A bunch of voices from different genders started to act out. Their eyes were all fixed on the woman walking down the corridor.

The people were stunned. They asked themselves, "How can there be such a beautiful woman?"

One even fainted when she caught a glimpse of her idol.

Shoujo Ramune waved her hair like a shampoo model and strutted confidently.

She was 5'9 feet, quite tall for a woman. She had an F-cup chest, enough to be fondled, motorboated, and paizuri'd. She had orange hair that came down to her waist and bounced happily. She had a pair of fox ears.

However, her true weapon was the nine tails that swayed around her back.

In fact, Shoujo Ramune was a descendant of the legendary Beastkin, the Nine-Tailed Fox.

Because of this simple portrayal, Shoujo Ramune was treated like royalty.

Her mother was from the lineage of the long-lost Fox Tribe. However, no one expected that Shoujo Ramune would inherit the most beautiful rare blood of the Nine-Tailed Fox.

Since then, Shoujo has been like a treasure that everyone cherishes.

"This isn't the first time I've seen her, but I still can't deny that she's beautiful. Those pink eyes shine like the stars in the sky. Those fluffy tails, damn it, I want to squeeze them and play with them."

Calix could not help but agree with Quandale. Shoujo was a beautiful woman. There was no other way to describe her than beautiful.

Still, Calix was not greatly affected by Shoujo's appearance. He admired her beauty, but there was nothing more.

Calix has a vampire girlfriend. After becoming a 3rd Advanced and awakening her vampire blood, Scarlett became even more beautiful. Her body and appearance are optimized to another level. Scarlett can compete with Shoujo Ramune in beauty.

'I think even Marianne can compete with Shoujo. Marianne has this unique aura of nobility and perfection.'

Calix also remembered Esmeralda's true appearance.

Esmeralda Margaret is the very definition of a demihuman. She is a pure high elf, and her beauty is unparalleled. She is a person from the lost ages, a true royalty. To stand against the other beauty is a complete disrespect to her.

Calix loved Scarlett the most, but he could not deny that Esmeralda was the most beautiful woman he had ever met.

'... I must spank her ass when I get back.'

Remembering Esmeralda's breedable and submissive appearance, Calix wanted to bully her even more. He looked down and saw that his junior agreed with him.

'Junior, this is not the time to be angry, calm down.'

Before things got dangerous, he controlled his urge and relaxed. Having a hard-on in public is the most dangerous thing that can happen to a man. And for Calix, who had a big package, it would be downright breathtaking.

In conclusion, Scarlett, Marianne, and Esmeralda. One of them is enough to topple Shoujo's beauty.

Of course, Yuna, Kimberly, and Nikki were also beautiful. It's just that having the blood of demihumans enhanced that beauty.

'Nikki is an ogre. I don't want to be ashamed of my blood as an Ogre descendant, but to see a female Ogre is quite frightening. I recalled what happened in the Port Of Aoneon...'

He shook his head. It was not the time to think about his harem.

After staring at Shoujo Ramune for a few seconds, Calix decided to return to his seat.

But before he could turn around, something shockingly caught his vision.

He did not care about Shoujo. But this time, he was greatly affected.

"Lou."

He mumbled the name of the woman he had sex with when he returned to his hometown.

Calix's eyes were all on the woman walking next to Shoujo.

Lou Viola had that sincere smile on her face as she chatted with Shoujo. Her black hair was simply tied into a ponytail and her neck was visible. She was wearing a nice blue dress that came down to her knees.

'God, I want to kiss her neck and smell her scent again.'

Simplicity is beauty.

Lou Viola has that womanly vibe about her. Her gentle smile attracted the men around her. Unlike Shoujo Ramune, who had a unique aura and was difficult to approach, Lou Viola had a homely and gentle aura.

Calix's pupils dilated as he realized that the men were staring at Lou with hidden intentions.

'No way.'

Calix did not care about the actress, but he would hit anyone who tried to touch Lou. Maybe his obsessive tendencies showed up after he realized that there might be a man who could take Lou away from him.

Calix had another job to do.

'I have to protect Lou from the filthy men around her. It's my duty to protect her. Nanny Lola will agree with me.'

He nodded after finding a nice excuse to justify his intention.

From what he could see, Shoujo Ramune and Lou Viola seemed to be close friends. They were chatting and smiling, not seeing the others watching them with dirty thoughts.

Calix decided to go back to his seat. He had to take his time and plan his movements carefully.

"Hm?"

Lou Viola turned around. She thought she saw someone.

"What is it, Lou? Did you see someone?"

Shoujo asked curiously.

"No, I thought I saw someone I know."

She shook her head and smiled. She remembered the man who had taken her first time.

"Is it your boyfriend that you haven't seen for a long time? Perhaps you just miss him."

"N-no."

Shoujo teased her and laughed after seeing her reaction.

"You're so cute Lou~"

"Don't pinch me Staashp!"

Shoujo giggled and pinched Lou's cheeks.

Shoujo was busy most of the time and Lou was the only classmate she was close to. Lou is cute and Shoujo likes her. She even invited Lou to her shooting so she could show off her acting skills.

"Fufu."

She giggled as she watched Lou massage her red cheeks.

Chapter 314

The day arrived and Calix was about to meet the spy. As usual, he woke up with the girls at the beginning of his day. They were naked and bruised by him, especially their buttocks.

After tending to their needs and tidying up his appearance, he came out of his apartment and looked at the students passing by.

This floor was for rich students, so the people here had a good sense of fashion and appearance. In fact, he could see a dog woman wearing a diamond necklace walking casually. Her face was nicely shaved and she was wearing only a skimpy bikini.

Calix knew that the Beastkin had different cultures. He would not dare to judge a person based on their appearance.

'Even I look like a depressed emo.'

He was still new here and only knew Quandale Dingle and Oni Chichi.

'My first day at college is not so bad.'

He greeted the dog woman with a smile and she nodded her head. Since they both lived on the same floor, it showed that they were financially well off. Even an 'emo' like him would have 7 digits in his bank account.

'The rent is 500 thousand dollars a year, so I can understand why Oni Chichi felt uncomfortable around me.'

Anyway, this would be the last time he would bother the woman.

He went down to the 3rd floor and found room 420. He knocked on the door and was greeted by a tall woman. He already predicted that Oni Chichi had roommates to share the rent.

"Hello, is Oni Chichi there?"

"Huh? You're looking for the nerd?"

"Yes."

He stopped his face from twitching.

"Hey Nerd! Someone's looking for you. He looks like a depressed asshole who got dumped by his crush!"

She shouted like a thug, showing no respect.

"Hey you, what's your name?"

"I'm Lucky T. Tiko. I'm a transfer student from Carrillo."

"Hm."

The tall woman nodded and left the door open. She didn't care that Calix looked like a depressed emo. His appearance kept her from caring.

'He looks like a weak guy who suffered from bullying, this Lucky and this nerd are compatible.'

After a few minutes, Oni Chichi came out of the room. It looked like she had just woken up because her hair was grizzled and unkempt. Even her face was a bit oily.

"Did I disturb you?"

Calix felt bad.

"I'm your guide, so it's normal for you to ask me."

"Is that so, I actually want to invite you to a movie if you want."

He scratched his head.

"R- really?"

Oni was shocked and did not expect Calix to ask for something like that.

"I want to see the place and I hope I can compensate your time, how about dinner if you don't want to watch a movie?"

"No, I think watching a movie is fine. You don't have to be polite to me."

She replied. To be honest, she was tired because she had spent the whole night working on her thesis. As a nerdy woman who was usually bullied, this was the first time anyone had asked her to watch a movie.

It would be a lie to say that she was not excited. Even if this hair-covered-eyed man was the one who asked her out on a date.

'A date?'

Oni Chichi thought.

"Just to be clear, you just want me as a guide to show you around?"

She narrowed her eyes and Calix nodded.

"I don't know anyone who can help me... You can pick the movie if you want."

"... Just give me half an hour."

That was her job anyway. She was forced to take responsibility. She did not want to be blamed by the professors, so she had no choice but to become Calix's guide.

"Thank you."

Calix smiled.

.....

.....

...

Just as Oni Chichi had promised, she took Calix to different places to familiarize him.

Horvart University was a citywide university. Thousands of buildings were constructed all over the university. It would be impossible to explore every corner.

Still, Oni Chichi was confident that he could lead Calix to known places like the Ancient Library.

"... So this is the Ancient Library."

Calix muttered and looked around. The entrance of the library was so huge as if it was made for giants.

"The deepest part of the Ancient Library is only allowed to a few people."

Oni added. They stared at the dome-like building. The library was protected by TA users, and most of them were 2nd Advanced. It would be difficult to infiltrate the library.

"Is there a way for me to use the library?"

"There are several ways. You can use money to pay for entrance, but you can only enter the surface area of the Library, the deepest part is restricted. The other way is to become an intelligent student who has contributed to important studies..."

Oni stared at the structure with longing. Once her thesis was finished, there was a chance that she could enter the library.

After sightseeing and looking at the known places of the university, the two decided to go to the nearest mall. Calix kept his promise and let Oni choose the movie.

Unexpectedly, the nerd with braces on her teeth chose Scavengers: The Start Game. Calix thought the woman would pick a romantic movie.

Calix bought drinks and snacks and entered the theater.

"I am looking forward to watching this movie. I've been too busy these past few days and haven't had time to relax. Thank you for taking me to a movie."

The woman smiled in the darkness. She was happy and felt appreciated. Still, she understood that Lucky T. Tiko was just being nice to her. She understood it very well.

"I'm glad I can help you."

He could not see her expression in this dark movie theater. And to be honest, he did not care.

His real reason for bringing Oni here was to cover his intentions.

The spy would contact him here.

He started munching on the hot dog in his hand as he watched the beginning of the movie.

'I'm on Thanos' side, by the way, killing half the population is the right answer...'

Chapter 315

The two had a good time watching the movie. The battle was spectacular, even though Disney cut corners on the CGI.

'From what I know, Disney is killing their visual effect workers. They release tons of movies and shows that force the workers to kill themselves, their salaries are probably not enough to keep them alive. Damn you Disney!'

Besides, their movies push their agenda in a disgusting way. Calix felt sorry for the parents and children who saw Buzz Light Year.

"Ketchup really is the best sauce for hot dogs."

Calix heard Oni say something about hot dogs. She happily put more ketchup on her hot dog.

'Ketchup is not bad, although I prefer mustard.'

Everyone had their preferences and Calix would accept everyone's opinion.

"Especially banana ketchup! They taste good!"

"Kack!"

Calix choked on his food when he heard what she said. He almost died.

In the darkness, his vision caught Oni Chichi putting banana ketchup on her food! Calix shuddered as he witnessed the abomination!

'How the hell could you choose banana ketchup over real tomato ketchup? You're a disgrace to the Italians! They will kill you!'

Calix averted his eyes and watched the movie, trying to forget what he had seen.

Oni noticed that Calix was acting strangely.

"Do you want some ketchup? I have some packets here."

"No thanks."

Calix denied her benevolence. He was afraid that something bad would happen if he accepted and tasted the ketchup.

'I changed my mind, there are some things I can never respect, even if the opinions are valid.'

Tomato ketchup > banana ketchup. Don't fuck around or you'll be kidnapped by the secret society.

After finishing the hot dog, Calix began to munch on his popcorn. He wiped his lips with the handkerchief the theater store gave him.

As he wiped, however, Calix noticed something written on the tissue.

[Go to the bathroom after Tony Stork died].

"..."

Just as he expected, the spy contacted him. He looked around to make sure. Everyone was busy watching the movie and no one bothered him. It looked like the spy was not in the theater.

Calix had a strong vision. His lineage had strengthened his senses after awakening his second Term Attribute. He was confident that he could see everything in this darkness.

'If he is not here, it means he did not follow me.'

He received the tissue from the theater shop along with the hot dogs. He remembered that the one who gave him the hot dogs and the tissue was a man.

'Looks like I have to go back and ask him...'

For now, Calix decided to watch the movie and wait for Tony to die. He had nothing to do anyway.

"Sniff sniff... Wuwuwu. Ironman..."

"Why did he have to sacrifice himself..."

Calix heard the audience wail as Tony's death was announced. Seeing their favorite superhero die made them cry.

Still, Calix did not have time to get emotional. He got up and went to the restroom.

His eyes searched the whole place and found something under the farthest stall.

Calix confirmed one thing after knowing that the place was desolate.

'... He doesn't want to meet me.'

The spy wanted to keep his identity a secret. Calix understood and was not disappointed. A spy had to keep his secret, that's the essence of being a spy.

'Still, why do you have to use the toilet as a contact point? And you want me to open a stall?'

He sighed. He had no choice. He opened the door and shit. He casually picked up the tiny memory card on the floor. It was fortunate that the memory card was not damaged.

"Looks like I have to spend some time here."

He had to keep up his act so it wouldn't be weird. Using the tissue as a wiper.

.....

.....

...

"Thank you for asking me out on a date-- I mean, thank you."

Oni Chichi stammered and backed away when she realized she had said something embarrassing.

They were already in the dormitory.

"No, it's okay. I had fun too."

"Hm."

The two separated. Oni entered her room and closed the door.

To be honest, Oni Chichi is not ugly. Her freckles are quite nice to look at. She is sweet and innocent.

'I can't say anything about her braces either. If she can smile confidently, she will be beautiful.'

Maybe the woman just needs a push to move forward. Calix could see that Oni Chichi would become popular once she started fixing herself.

Anyway, Calix has completed his mission and doesn't need her anymore. He has already contacted the spy... It was a one-way communication, to be honest.

Calix reached his room and immediately inserted the memory card into his hard drive.

'These are files about the Dark Elves. This will help me a lot.'

He was grateful to the spy but had no way to return the favor.

He started to sort out the important things.

It says here that a Dark Elf family lives near Melbed, the capital of Junian.

Now he had the first clue, and it was near Horvart University. It would take him a day to get there.

"But first... You don't have to hide, I can sense you."

Calix turned and stared into the darkness.

"Fufu, as expected from my Master."

The silhouette of a woman began to appear. Esmeralda Margaret approached him like a wild cat.

"I thought you were busy."

"Yes, there are a lot of problems I have to solve. Taxes are getting serious and the citizens want a subsidy... I'm thinking of using the upcoming war as an excuse to raise taxes. What do you think?"

"You're a bad woman."

She giggled and sat down on his lap. She began to rub her ass against his lap and she could feel the tension building in his pants.

"I miss you Master."

"Me too."

The two began to kiss. Esmeralda wrapped her arms around his neck and showered each other with kisses.

"This is my first visit to this place, so I sent Yuna away."

"You must have used your power or Yuna will not follow your order."

"As expected from my Master. You know me so well. Don't worry, I didn't hit her, I just gave her another job to do."

She said as she slowly unbuttoned her blazer. Her cleavage was showing and Calix wanted to take a bite of that chocolate breast.

Chapter 316

Calix kissed and sucked her breasts and Esmeralda's back arched. She was sensitive as Calix's smooching made her shiver.

Fortunately, the chair was strong enough for two adults.

She pulled his hair gently as she pushed him closer to her breasts.

"Mmm--"

Calix found her nipples and began to nibble and pinch them. Esmeralda's breasts were large. Their scent was so addictive that Calix wanted to take it all.

"Nnnngghh. Master, you're so good."

The woman moaned as Calix gently bit her nipple. In fact, she wanted Calix to bite it harder because it was making her hornier.

"More~"

She gasped as Calix obliged. A bite mark appeared on her left boob and it made her shiver. She could feel her skirt slowly getting wet.

'Oh God, maybe I'm crazy already.'

The fact that she came because Calix bit her tit was impressive. Maybe pain was her true pleasure.

Calix was too preoccupied to think about her feelings. His hands were already exploring her back and slowly reached her ass. Her soft ass cheeks were so nice to hold.

Having a nice ass to hold was definitely something Calix was happy to have.

"So good."

They stayed in this position for a few minutes before Esmeralda lost the battle. She wanted his thick cock inside her.

She turned and sat down between his legs. She rubbed her ass against his bulging pants and Calix grunted.

"You..."

He forcibly lifted her skirt. Esmeralda was wearing a sexy red thong. The intricate linings and the seductive little piece of fabric made him swallow his saliva. Indeed, a woman in her sexy lingerie is much better than a naked one.

'I don't know, but there is something exciting when I see a woman wearing sexy lingerie. Is it just me or do other men think the same?'

He was having a midlife crisis over a thong, and it was understandable.

Calix would feel bad if he ripped it, he wanted to see Esmeralda wear it again next time, so he decided to let it stay.

Instead, he just set the thin thread aside. He opened his zipper and his standing soldier slapped her ass.

"Nngh!"

Esmeralda was electrified. Her breathing became rapid as she turned her head and looked at Calix with a pleading look.

'Please, I want it.

'Oh, you do.'

They communicated with their gazes as if they could read each other's minds.

Esmeralda began to rub her ass against his cock to stimulate it.

Since Calix did not bother to stop her, the horny Esmeralda lifted her ass and slowly inserted the thick rod into her.

"Fuuccckkkk~ Shit that feels so good~"

Her eyes rolled up as the mighty shaft stretched her walls.

Even Calix grunted as he penetrated her, her fleshy walls grinding him. She fit snugly and sucked him deeper.

Watching her chocolate ass devour his cock, Calix was amazed and satisfied. He wanted to shoot a thick load of cum, but his pride as a man kept him from doing so.

'I have to make her cum first before I can do what I want. I must do it as a man.'

It would be shameful and extremely lacking if he were to cum after only one penetration. How could he face his ogre ancestors when they found out that he could not last long?

Still, he admitted that the vixen sitting on his lap was unique.

'Now that I have you, no man will ever taste you again.'

His greed took over. He could not change Esmeralda's past, but he would make sure that Esmeralda's future belonged only to him.

"... Phew."

The woman shuddered as she sighed. Now that she had adjusted to his size, she began to raise her hips.

As she sat between his legs, her hands rested on his legs to help her move her hips.

The sound of their hips colliding echoed throughout the room. It was fortunate that this room was soundproofed.

"Nnnngghh Uggh ughh ughhn guuhn ughhn hghuuh!"

She could not help but moan. The pain and the pleasure all came together and stirred her brain. As if she was nothing more than a woman in heat who wanted to fuck.

"Uaagh ugha aargg ngggnnhh! It's so big! It's so fucking big!"

"Then get some more!"

"Master! Fuck this pussy! Fuck my sweet little tight pussy! I want you inside me! Oh God I'm going crazy~"

"Grrr!"

"Haaahh!! Oh yeah! Oh yeah! Fuck fuck fuck fuck~"

Their fucking began to pick up speed and Esmeralda was bobbing her ass up and down. She was bouncing on his cock and her ass was like jelly, rippling at every contact with his crotch. White cream built up at the base of his cock every time her pussy slid down.

"Kack!"

Calix couldn't help himself and grabbed her waist. This thin waist was soft, but Calix did not care. He grabbed her waist and helped Esmeralda pick up the pace.

They began to fuck like rabbits with no restraint. Esmeralda was a crazy bitch who kept drooling his cock with her love juice. Her pussy ate and swallowed his huge penis back and forth with no sign of stopping.

As for Calix, he was also moaning as his dick kept grinding against her tight walls and hitting her womb.

He began to lose his mind, forgetting that Esmeralda was a woman. He thought he was fucking a fuck toy and began to pound her pussy to the limit.

His hips slapped wetly, considering the juices were all over her lower parts.

"Master~~! I feel strange! I think I'm going crazy!! Ahh ahhh ggahh ggah!"

Guttural sounds escaped from her mouth as Calix slapped her beautifully shaped ass. Her eyes were already filled with tears and her face was drenched in sweat.

"Aahhh--!! Cummiinnngggg~~"

She felt her brain stop working. White lights flashed across her vision, blinding her. Her body was shaking.

"Raaahh!!"

At the same time, Calix reached his limit and shot all of his white cum deep inside her. His cock twitched and released its load against her tight cunt. The walls were truly painted with his seed. He created a masterpiece with her fleshy walls.

Esmeralda lost her balance and landed on the floor with her ass up to the ceiling. The sperm slowly came out and began to drip down. Calix never pulled out, not with that tight pussy sucking him hard.

Chapter 317

"So? Why are you asking me?"

Esmeralda giggled as she rested her head on Calix's shoulder. The two were sitting next to each other on the bed, holding hot chocolate milk that Calix had made.

"Nothing, I'm just wondering about the spy..."

After watching the movie, Calix returned to the theater store to ask about the man who gave him the handkerchief. He realized that the man was not a spy because he behaved normally.

"I guess he is not a store clerk. The movie theater is not the best place to gather information, in my opinion."

He thought. He was just curious about the spy.

"Hm."

Esmeralda's lips curled.

"She is difficult to identify, I tell you. She is a person I have personally recruited."

"Wait. What? You?"

Calix looked at her. The woman kept rubbing her body against his.

"That's right."

Esmeralda nodded and sipped at her chocolate milk. She liked drinking it because Calix had made it for her personally.

"She?"

He never thought the spy was actually a woman.

"You can fuck her if you want. I don't mind, but you have to find her first."

"What the hell? Anyway, why are you saying that? You can't push me around and tell me who I can have sex with."

"I can't?"

She smiled, but it wasn't friendly.

"...Well."

Calix didn't know what to say.

"Last time you said I could fuck your daughter (currently missing). And now you're saying I can fuck your spy too? What the hell is wrong with you? Don't tell me you want me to fuck your secretary too!?"

He grumbled in his heart as he tasted the hot chocolate milk. This was getting stupid and he did not know what to say. The women in his life were quite manipulative in his opinion.

"So where did you meet this spy? Is she a Dellian?"

"I met her when she visited Dellia. As for her nationality, fufu, you have to guess for yourself. It's no fun for me to give you clues."

She kissed his cheek and Calix could only click his tongue. It seemed that Esmeralda was still hard to crack, despite giving her a good dicking.

'Even last time she didn't tell me the whole story about her daughter. I didn't even know her whole past, all I know is that she's a High Dark Elf.'

"This tastes really good."

"Ma'am, I just added hot water to instant chocolate milk, so don't look at me like I'm a chef."

"But it tastes amazing."

She finished her drink and stood up. She stretched her body, her skin had nice bruises all over it.

"Anyway, I won't stop you from contacting her. But you have to be careful, Junian is sensitive to spies and you might endanger her."

"Is that why you want me to have sex with her?"

"That's right. She's an important contact and has already proven her loyalty. I don't want to see her get hurt."

She was serious, her expression said a lot. She grabbed her clothes and started to put them on.

"I will do my best."

Calix could see that Esmeralda cared about the spy. It was the first time he had seen her show affection for someone other than him. As a man who wanted to keep Esmeralda for himself, he wanted to see her smile.

"Then, Master. I will leave now."

"Wait, I think you forgot something."

"Hm?"

Esmeralda was confused at first, but she swallowed her moan as Calix devoured her lips.

Calix cupped her ass for the last time, feeling her slit against the skirt.

"Master, haaah... Please don't tease me..."

She sulked and looked at him weakly. Calix just chuckled and slapped her ass, making Esmeralda moan and blush.

Just a slap in the ass made her feel horny again. Whenever there's pain, there's a pleasure. Maybe that was Esmeralda's motto.

Just in time, a portal appeared and Yuna came out with a grumpy face.

She was raging and staring at Esmeralda with full hate.

In fact, Calix could hear Yuna muttering "kill kill kill" like a madwoman.

"Let's go."

Esmeralda was unaffected by the hatred directed at her. As if a cute kitten like Yuna would scare her. She faced much scarier creatures than her and killed them all.

"Humph!!"

Yuna snorted. Then she looked at Calix with a loving look, as if she forgot that she was mad.

"Calix~"

She tried to hug him, but a pair of dark hands wrapped around Yuna.

"What are you doing!!?"

Yuna screamed like crazy. She glared at Esmeralda.

"Let's go, we have no time to waste."

"Let me go!! I want to hug Calix!!"

"Nope, not gonna happen. By the way, did you finish what I told you to do?"

"You fucking bitch!!"

"Uh-huh, that's not the way to talk to your superior. You don't want me to give you more work, do you?"

"I hate you."

"I know."

The two women disappeared immediately after that. Esmeralda controlled someone like Yuna easily.

"Even I will have a hard time controlling Yuna."

Calix was impressed.

True power is indeed the answer to everything.

'Why do I feel like I'm a muscle-head?'

.....

.....

...

The next day, Calix attended his first class of the morning, World History. World History was closely related to Archaeology. Besides, Calix had been interested in this subject since he was young. He wanted to know more about the world.

'I am curious about what they are going to teach me. Horvart University is a famous place, and many old scholars live here. Maybe they know something the world doesn't.'

The history over a thousand years ago was fuzzy because the Aberrants destroyed most of the civilizations and killed a large part of the population.

When he entered the classroom, he was slightly surprised to see Oni Chichi. He was even more shocked because the woman was sitting next to Lou Viola.

'... Are they friends?'

To be honest, he did not expect to see Oni Chichi again.

Oni smiled when she saw him and shyly waved her hand in greeting.

"Hello."

Calix nodded and returned the greeting.

Chapter 318

"Good morning Oni."

Calix greeted the shy, freckled, teeth-braced woman. Oni Chichi unconsciously tucked her hair behind her ear and greeted him back.

"G- Good morning."

Then Calix looked at Lou Viola.

"And this is..."

"Her name is Lou Viola, we are talking about the expedition that will take place in the next two months. Oh, it's a group project. Since you are new here, you can ask me anytime."

Oni smiled.

"Hello, I'm Lucky T. Tiko. I'm from Carillo."

"I'm Lou Viola, nice to meet you."

She didn't add her nationality since the friction between the two countries was a hot topic at the moment.

Calix nodded and did not ask further. He did not want to act strange. He had a cover he needed to maintain. Besides, he could contact Lou as soon as he confirmed that it was safe to contact her. He had to stay in this university for a long time, considering that he had to find a Dark Elf, who was probably hard to find.

He walked past the two women when he noticed Quandale Dingle waving his hand. He was sitting next to his friends and it looked like he wanted to introduce Calix.

"Hey, Quandale Dingle here."

"What's up!"

Despite meeting twice, Calix and Quandale easily became friends. Quandale introduced Calix to his friends.

Their group accepted Calix because he was easy to get along with. Despite Calix's appearance, he was a nice guy.

A few minutes later, class started and their professor arrived.

The woman had white and green dyed hair, his hair looked like toothpaste. She looked serious and self-centered at the same time.

The class was quiet. It seemed that this professor was a terror.

"Hm, I heard that we have a new student. Introduce yourself."

The professor used a nasal voice, and frankly, it was irritating to hear.

Calix understood that he was the person the professor was talking about.

"I'm Lucky T. Tiko."

He simply introduced himself and sat down.

"There are only two ways to get into this prestigious university. Either you're smart or you're rich... Looking at you now, I guess you are rich."

"..."

Calix kept his mouth shut, but he was actually cursing inside.

'... Looks like this woman hasn't had a dick in a while.'

Not that it mattered, Calix didn't bother to correct the professor. He wanted to keep a low profile and complete his mission. He did not care so much about his grade. Besides, he actually used money to get to this place.

"Anyway, I don't care if you are rich or smart. In this classroom, I'm the leader, I'm your god. The only way to pass is to have a good grade or eat my pussy, but I'm picky. And you can't do anything to stop me... Or I'll give you a failing grade. Most of you here understand that my class is important for you to graduate, so don't fight me."

The professor muttered and everyone could hear her. Some of the students lowered their heads as if the professor was punishing some of them.

"If you are right, then you are wrong as long as I say you are wrong."

She added.

"Since there's a new face, I'm Professor Fannie Vurke. I'm your professor of world history. Now, can anyone tell me where we left off?"

Someone raised their hand enthusiastically.

"Ma'am, we ended in possible civilization in the Forest of Death."

"Thank you, plus points."

She said, making notes on her schedule.

"Just like I said last time. Based on the studies that archaeologists have done on the Forest of Death, there is a strong possibility that there was a civilization in the Forest of Death. This civilization collapsed when the Aberrants invaded the place. But it's still a theory, and no one can really prove it, because the Forest of Death is the lair of powerful Aberrants."

She began to lecture and the students took notes. Despite her attitude, Professor Fannie was good at her job.

She had vast knowledge and her speech was easy to understand despite her nasal voice. She was a professor at the famous Horvart University, so she had enough talent and credibility.

"Wait a minute."

Professor Fannie stopped when her vision caught something disgusting. She frowned and looked at the students coldly.

"Who changed the flag?"

The students turned around and realized that the flag in the back was the Junian flag. The flag represented the golden crown and staff, the symbol of royalty, and the flag of Junian.

"Who changed the flag?"

She repeated vehemently, and the students didn't answer. Nobody knows who changed the flag.

"Tch, probably the last class that used this room yesterday changed the flag..."

She clicked her tongue. She felt uncomfortable looking at the national flag.

"Find the last flag and I will give you an A," she ordered the students.

Although not related to her subject of world history, Professor Fannie used her position to find the missing flag.

The students moved around excitedly. Their professor was strict, and she wasn't going to give out extra credit easily. This was a rare opportunity to raise their grades.

Even Calix and his friends started to look around. The room was large and could accommodate a hundred students.

Some of the students looked under their seats and desks, while others went to the nearest trash can.

Calix had no idea where the flag was, but he had a plan.

'Show me where the flag is.'

He used his Luck to find it.

He grabbed a broom and dropped it.

Using the broom, Calix deduced the location. The head of the broom landed in the corner of the room, indicating where the flag was.

Calix approached the spot and found the flag.

"This is..."

The flag had a simple design, the colors of the rainbow.

Calix didn't think much about it and grabbed it. Then he handed the flag to Professor Fannie.

"You did a good job."

The woman nodded in praise. She went to the flag pole and angrily snatched Junian's flag and replaced it with the Pride Flag.

"Now... I want you to pledge allegiance to the Pride Flag."

She ordered.

Chapter 319

"Of course I'm just kidding. I'm not some sick fuck that forces people around me to do and follow my beliefs."

Professor Fannie chuckled and Calix quickly wiped his forehead. He was actually surprised and thought that the professor was not joking.

He looked around and noticed that the students were not surprised. It seemed that this was not the first time this had happened.

Anyway, Calix decided to go back to his seat and listen to the lecture. Despite her attitude, Professor Fannie was a good teacher. She explained every important part to make sure the students understood. However, she was too strict. Whenever she found something she didn't like, she would frown and write something on her paper.

'Looks like she is going to be my teacher for the whole semester...'

When the class was over, Quandale Dingle invited Calix to join his group and go to the nearest arcade. This was their usual timetable after the first subject.

Calix's schedule was a bit loose since he didn't have any extra classes this semester. So he agreed and joined their gang. Besides, he wanted to see how cool the university's arcade was.

'Maybe I can steal, I mean, maybe I can win more jackpots this time.'

"Um, excuse me..."

"Hm?"

Before they left the classroom, Calix realized that Lou Viola had called him.

Lou Viola was acting confident, but it was obvious that she was nervous.

Calix looked around and could not find Oni Chichi. Maybe Oni Chichi had already left. She looked like a serious student. Perhaps she was preparing for her next subject.

"You're Lou Viola, right? Why are you looking for me?"

Calix pretended to be confused.

"N- nothing... You just remind me of someone."

She shook her head. She was a bit disappointed. To be honest, she wanted to touch his bang because she wanted to confirm something. But when she saw Lucky T. Tiko calmly talking to her, she thought she was just hallucinating.

"Are you talking about your boyfriend?"

"W- wha! N- no, he is just a friend."

"Looking at you now, I don't believe you."

Calix joked and the woman started to blush. She looked away.

"Anyway, nice to see you again..."

"Lou~ I miss you!"

Before Lou could finish her sentence, a sweet, soft voice disturbed her. The woman had a bundle of tails swaying behind her and a pair of fox ears twitching excitedly.

"Shoujo, I'm glad to see you. I thought we were going to meet at the mall later."

Lou was confused, but she adjusted easily. She knew that Shoujo was an affectionate friend.

"I want to see you!"

The sexy woman hugged her tightly. If not for the fact that they were both women, people might think that they were a couple.

"Oh, you didn't introduce me to your new friend."

Shoujo Ramune pouted. She was clearly acting like a jealous wife.

"This is Lucky T. Tiko, a transfer student from Carrillo."

"Hello!"

Shoujo just nodded. She didn't bother to extend her hand.

"It's a pleasure to meet you Miss Shoujo Ramune, I'm one of your fans."

Calix was excited at first.

"Hm," she looked at him before pulling Lou out of the classroom. "Anyway, we're going now."

The two women disappeared just like that.

"Is it me or do I feel like Shoujo Ramune hates me?"

Calix sensed that the woman held a grudge against him. This was the first time they spoke and she was already showing hostility.

He decided not to think about it and followed his friends to the arcade. Just as he expected, he stole almost all of the top prizes. The workers cried as they saw their arcade being ransacked in broad daylight.

"Phew, winning is the best."

.....

.....

...

"Fufu, you're really beautiful, Lou! Why don't you show off your nice curves? I'm sure a lot of guys will look at you!"

Shoujo teased Lou who was relaxing in the indoor pool. This pool was inside Shoujo's huge mansion and she usually liked to stay here. Of course, she always invited Lou to swim with her.

"I think I'm fine already. I don't like to show my skin to others."

"But you are in a bikini right now.

"Because you made me wear it!"

Lou replied, her breasts wiggling under the water.

"Because it looks good on you."

"... Really?"

She looked at her body. She didn't understand her true beauty.

"I'll be honest with you Lou, you're wife material. You know how to cook, you're gentle and sweet, and I'm sure you'll always put your partner first... especially in bed."

Shoujo looked at Lou's legs down to the toes, she appreciated their beauty.

"What are you talking about?"

Lou rolled her eyes. She was already used to Shoujo's teasing.

"Anyway, don't wear a long-sleeved shirt, and don't hide your beauty. I have some clothes here if you want."

She giggled.

"No thanks, I can buy my own."

"Hm, with your boyfriend's money? So when are you going to introduce me?"

"Just like I said, he is not my boyfriend."

"I don't believe you. You always smile when you receive his letter. You never even let me read those letters."

Communication through another country had to be thoroughly filtered. Letters became the common means of communication.

"Why is he even giving you money when you keep saying you're not going to use it?"

Lou never touched the money Calix sent to her bank account. She got a part-time job instead of using it. She just felt it was wrong.

"..."

Lou smiled melancholically and decided to swim across the pool.

To be honest, she was hoping that Lucky T. Tiko was Calix Romoel. Maybe she really missed him. So much so that she forced his identity on the new transfer student.

'Lou, what are you doing? You know Calix and Scarlett Robinson are together. There is no hope between you and him. Maybe going to Horvart University is a sign for you to forget him and let go of your first love.'

She sighed. She felt conflicted and her heart was heavy.

Chapter 320

After swimming and eating lunch, Lou said goodbye and went to her next subject. Unlike Shoujo who had free time, Lou had a hectic schedule.

Shoujo actually did her best to help Lou take some time to relax. After all, the woman was too serious in her life and always put work and studies first.

"If not for me..."

She stopped speaking when she sensed several people hiding in the dark.

"What do you want?"

Her voice changed from playful to serious and heavy. There was no trace of nervousness or fear. Her ability to control her emotions was top-notch, considering she was a very famous actress.

"We are the Council of Torment. We are here to negotiate."

The people spoke simultaneously as if they were one.

Shoujo's eyes twinkled.

"Interesting..."

A mocking smile appeared on her face.

.....

.....

...

Daylight.

A tall man was cleaning his bar as there were no customers. The man's name was Berto Alb, he was Calix's uncle, but they didn't know each other. Perhaps fate was playing games with them.

While wiping the table, Berto frowned when he noticed a person approaching his bar.

"Tch, he didn't even hide his identity."

He clicked his tongue in annoyance. He had already promised himself that he would never work again. He was already tired of bloodshed, and the fact that he could not help but dream of hell made it worse.

The unknown man wore a Horvart emblem on his shirt.

"Berto."

"Shut up, Berto's not here."

He replied coldly and concentrated on wiping the table. He retired long ago.

'If not because of the Blood Moon, these people will not contact me.'

He had no choice but to use his ability to fight the Aberrants at that time. Unlike Dellia, that has Obice, flying monsters were free to attack Junian.

Left with no choice, Berto fought the powerful monsters. Since then, his old employer was asking for his help again.

His contact began to speak to him, noticing that his fangs were still sharp.

"The Principal needs you."

"Tell him I don't want to. Can you please stop bothering me? I'm already done, I don't want to go back to the battlefield."

Berto was no fool. Junian and Dellia were having disputes right now. There was a good chance that a war would break out.

Berto's brother-in-law was a general of Dellia and guarded the border. If Berto joined the battle, they would definitely face each other because of their position.

'I have no feelings for Andreas, but I don't want his son to lose his father.'

That's right, he was doing it for Calix, whom he hadn't met in almost two decades.

'He is my nephew... But if I really meet Andreas on the battlefield, I'll definitely beat his ass. That motherfucker let my sister die, I have to make sure he knows what he did.'

It seemed that Berto hated Andreas. He was confident that he would defeat him.

"Tell the Principal that I will not coming back. Besides, you have tons of TA Users in your organization, why do you keep asking for my help?"

"Because your Term Attributes are special."

"Fuck off."

"Don't worry, we will never force you to join the war. There's still a chance to settle the disputes, the Principal will convince the King to solve the problem."

"I just hope that nothing bad will happen this time. You know that the three countries went to war four decades ago."

He reminded.

If the three powerful countries fought a war, then the Empire in the central part of the Continent might use it to their advantage.

"Sigh... What do you want me to do this time?"

He lost his temper and decided to listen first before agreeing. If it was too dangerous, he would never accept the job.

"It's about the University. We found out that the Council of Torment has made a move and some of them have infiltrated the University. Your child is currently studying at Horvart University..."

"I accept."

Berto decided that this job was meant for him. First, he had a grudge against the Council of Torment. Second, his child might be in danger.

"We know that you will agree as soon as you hear about it."

The man nodded.

"Just go, I still have something to do."

He replied coldly.

"... Okay."

Now that Berto, the hell summoner, agreed, there was no reason to stay. The man from Horvart University left as quickly as he had appeared.

"Things are getting complicated..."

He didn't want to jinx it, but he had the feeling that the Council's movement had something to do with the upcoming war. After all, the sole purpose of the Council of Torment was to spread despair.

Two months passed, and Calix's situation was better than before. He had already made friends and his life as a student was simple and complete.

He would attend lectures and hang out with his friends. Of course, to make sure he didn't get a Backlash, the girls would show up every night.

In fact, he had different girls every night. It seemed that the harem had come to an agreement and solved their problem. Now each girl would have one night with Calix, and the full cycle was every six days.

In his spare time, Calix read the files the spy gave him. In his opinion, only 15% of the files could help him.

'I'll be leaving the University next week.'

It was embarrassing to leave the university right after he just got there, so he decided to pass some time. Next week was a full week's vacation.

"It is Freedom Week. Junian celebrates the abolition of demihuman slavery."

It was the right time to make his move. His first step was to contact an old woman who knew something about Dark Elves. She was the closest to the University, she lived in the capital, Melbed.
