

Only Fuel 36

Chapter 36

In a certain hideout in a certain place at a certain time... A certain person was mad and fidgeting like crazy.

Young Master Chen was looking at his phone, he was waiting for the good news to arrive. Behind him, there are dozens of people waiting for his command and they are all Term Attribute Users. Young Master Chen hired these people using the money he had. And apart from that, Young Master Chen hired two 2nd Advanced Vindicators. He didn't hold back and decided to go with all the money.

2nd Advanced Vindicators are those who attained the second evolution of their Term Attributes. They are powerful and much stronger than a normal Vindicator.

Young Master Chen was not anxious about his safety at all... Well, he was convincing himself. He had multiple people that would protect him. He was not even afraid to face Scarlett or her maid at all.

'That Athena is a 2nd Advanced Vindicator but I'm confident that she can't fight these two that I hire. They are mercenaries and they hone their talents in battles, in death wars.'

He sneered and kept checking his phone. However, no matter how long he waited, the phone didn't vibrate at all, it was silent still. Young Master Chen's forehead started to furrow as he didn't like these signs. He waited for ten minutes but no one called him. Now, his face was twitching and he wanted to punch someone. He was starting to sense the premonition of failure.

He was not stupid, if no one called him, then it meant that his lackeys failed.

'I understand that they can't abduct Scarlett, that woman is protected. But that Calix is different!! He's just a normal person, he didn't even know how to decipher his power!!! Don't tell me they can't kidnap a weak person like him!! Goddamn it! I even sent a veteran Vindicator just to make sure that it will not fail!! Fucking retards!! They are failures!!!'

Young Master Chen cracked his phone and threw it to the ground. He was furious! He looked towards his two 2nd Advanced Term Attribute Users and said that "I want you to find out what happened!!"

He angrily screamed as he spat like a madman, his bloodshot eyes made him look crazy. He used his own money just to accomplish his plan. He even sold 5% percent of his company shares just to hire these two 2nd Advanced. He couldn't afford to fail here, he must not, or else only doom would occur to him.

He urged the two to move, the two 2nd Advanced looked at each other and shrugged. Still, they obeyed their client's order. They are paid for the job and they are professional. They started moving and walked towards the door.

However, before they could even open the door, the walls of the hideout were blasted open by two different persons. Each side of the hideout was now open for them to see.

The hooligans and even Chen were surprised.

"Where is Scarlett/Calix!!!"

The couple simultaneously yelled and glared at Chen. But it didn't take a long time for them to realize that something was wrong. Then they looked at each other, they are shocked to see both of them wearing battle suits.

"Scarlett/Calix are you okay?"

Again, they asked at the same time. It was sweet that they inquired about the well-being of each other before asking something else. This means that they really loved each other and put importance on the well-being of one another. They started running, they are elated to see that both of them are fine.

They didn't hesitate and embraced, Calix caught her lips and Scarlett gladly welcomed his advance. It was a long smooch with tongue actions, I tell you.

"Scarlett are you okay?"

"Hm, I'm okay. How about you?"

They looked eye to eye and almost forget about the audience.

"Scarlett!! You traitor!! How can you do this to me? I am your fiancée!!"

Young Master Chen was red from head to toe, he was furious to see Scarlett having a relationship with another man. And worst, they started making out in front of him. He felt like he was betrayed like an MC from an NTR doujin manga. His teeth almost cracked because of his strong grit. Frustrated, he was fucking frustrated!!

"Shut your mouth, Chen. I know what you did to me. You drugged me, if I didn't escape, I know that my life will be over. You don't have the right to call yourself my fiancée. You are more disgusting than a pig! You are an ugly bastard!!"

Scarlett shot back. Her eyes are shining red and this meant that she was activating her spell.

"Hmmp! It's unfortunate that you escaped, I should have raped you when I have my time. Since this is the choice you make. I will make you regret it! I will rape you while your weak-ass boyfriend watching!!"

He gained confidence realizing that Scarlett was alone. It seemed like her hidden guards won't help him this time.

"This means that General Robinson approved and liked my plan. Hehe, this is a win for me. Be ready Scarlett, I will never let you sleep after this!!"

He grinned as his eyes flashed with lust.

"Attack the man, crumple his legs!!"

He yelled and pointed his finger at Calix. Calix is weak and he is Scarlett's weakness. If they defeated Calix then everything would fall onto his palms, Scarlett would definitely beg him to spare Calix.

However, instead of running away, Calix remained standing and didn't budge at all. Calix glanced at Scarlett and the woman just clicked her tongue. She knew that Calix won't be stopped anymore. From a young age, Scarlett knew how Calix fought. His father taught him martial arts and Calix easily absorbed them like a sponge.

'Calix is a natural fighter.'

Her mother died in a war 13 years ago, their country was attacked by millions of Aberrants and her mother was part of the casualties. She was sad at that time and her father started changing, but Calix was always there for her.

He was the one who always protected her when her mother died. Whenever someone hurt her, Calix would always show up and beat them. One time, he even argued with her father regarding his way of teaching. Calix is not weak at all, the only reason he looked weak and flimsy is because of his Backlash. But now that nothing was restricting him, Calix could do it.

"They are Term Attribute Users so beware."

Scarlett mumbled.

"So am I."

He grinned and ran towards them, he was wearing a battle suit so he was going to be fine.
