

Only Fuel 53

Chapter 53

Scarlett was shy about asking, she knew that Calix saw her pempem when they were children. They even took bath together, they were innocent at that time... Scarlett couldn't believe that Calix's little junior would evolve into a monster cock! She couldn't believe it until she saw it with her very own eyes. The innocent small elephant turned into a ravaging Tyrannosaurus Rex!

Well, she loved it so she didn't have any negative opinions about it. To be precise, she loved Calix inside her. His cock made her breathless, she couldn't believe that she could accept his huge cock and it felt good, she would always turn anew after every sex. Perhaps it was because of Calix's Luck but she didn't care. As long as she's with him, she didn't care about his backlash or Term Attribute at all.

Scarlett forgot about Marianne, that bitch was not worthy of her time. Instead of being angry about her, she would rather spend her time with Calix.

Scarlett played with his chest, to be exact, she was playing with Calix nipples. She was licking his nipples as if they were candies. The man sensed that Scarlett's hormones were kicking again, he shrugged and grabbed her body. Scarlett yelped as Calix put her under him, he pinned her arms around and started kissing her neck. Every smooch sent shivers down her spine, she was in bliss. Her eyes fluttered as she whimpered, she wanted to grab his hair and pull him closer. However, Calix was holding her arms like an Alpha.

Sometimes she would moan when Calix bit her, she felt pleasure instead of pain. The way Calix does her body was majestic and mesmerizing, she was bewitched by his touch. She would groan and sigh as her body being embraced by Calix.

It was still early but they already wanted to do it, Calix lowered his head and kissed her navel. Then he started kissing downwards and reached her clit, Scarlett immediately shuddered as Calix used his tongue and licked her petals. He used his thumb and made circular motions on her clit, Scarlett threw her head backward and clenched her pillow, she had an orgasm. With just his tongue and fingers, he made her cum.

Scarlett understood that nobody could make her like this except Calix. He has the power to make her crazy, the way he does her was insane. Now, she acknowledged that Calix is not born to be a

Vindicator, he's born to be a sex machine, her sex machine, HER ONE AND ONLY SEX MACHINE.

Her legs were wide open and Calix could clearly see her pussy twitching, it was hungry for his big cock. He smirked, his cock sprang up and was ready to penetrate her.

Calix put his cock on her pussy, Scarlett was already cooing even though Calix just scratched her. Even small actions gave her pleasure, she had an expression of begging, she wanted his cock so badly.

Calix gave her a deep kiss before doing his job, then he began inserting his key inside her-- however, before he could even enter her, a noise started ringing in their room. It was a weak sound but it was annoying. It came from Scarlett's phone, it was a message, a unique message solely for her.

Scarlett and Calix turned their heads where the annoying ringtone came from.

Calix stopped his actions and glanced at Scarlett. Scarlett clicked her tongue, she was horny and wanted to have his dick, even her pussy was so wet and ready to gobble his huge dick right now.

Still, she decided to stand up. She recognized this ringtone, she customized her phone and set this ringtone whenever important people would call her.

'Perhaps, it's my dad. We didn't talk for a while since that incident related to shitty Young Master Chen.'

She grabbed the phone and answered the ever disturbing call. It seemed like her deduction was wrong. The person who called her was not her father, she was disappointed, to be honest.

"Principal? Ah, yeah, I'm near to the school. Right now?..... Fine I guess."

She ended the call and swallowed a groan. Something major happened at the border, and they needed her. She's a talented warrior who killed a 3rd Class Aberrant, every strength was needed so she was asked to help them. She was angry and dissatisfied, she wanted to stay here with Calix. She clenched her fists and tears slowly rolled down her cheeks. She couldn't control her emotions and weep. Was she childish? Well, you can decide on your own.

Scarlett has strong feelings for Calix, but with this current situation. She understood that she had to stay at the border for a long time, a month was already a heaven's blessing. This meant that she won't see Calix for a long time, of course, she was going to be sad. She sniffed and wiped her tears, she didn't want to look pitiful but her tears kept falling.

As a Vindicator who was enlisted under the military, under her father to be exact, she couldn't disobey the order of the government. She would be punished, it was her responsibility to protect her country. She didn't have a heavy excuse and she couldn't use her position as a general's daughter to be excused from the mission. Right now that she became one of the most famous talented young ones, the expectations were great and she had to carry that burden.

To be honest, she wanted to take Calix to the border, she was greedy. However, the border was always protected and ordinary people couldn't enter it freely. Calix didn't have the authorization to go to the border. Especially now that the border was in turmoil. She didn't know the exact situation but based on the tone of the principal, she had to go immediately to her office for the briefing.

This made her more dissatisfied! She couldn't have sex with Calix because she had to leave. She was biting her lip as she sniffed, she wiped the tears.

Calix could see that Scarlett was frustrated. He stood up and started showering her with kisses. He had to be strong for her. Scarlett cried on his chest. He gave her encouraging words to make her feel better.
