

Only Fuel 56

Chapter 56

The two gorgeous women left the place. They had affection towards Calix, the man was oozing with manliness. Still, they knew when to back down. Scarlett's appearance was a surprise to them but they didn't have the wealth nor power to ask her why she wanted to speak with Calix. All they could do was to escape while their tails tucked in.

Scarlett was glaring at them, her glare alone was frightening. What if she tried to cast her spell? It would surely burn this place to ashes. God knows how much she was holding back.

Calix saw her reaction and shrugged. He grabbed her and scrupled her hair, even pinching her cheeks. Scarlett's hatred easily dissipated as Calix touched her. Although she was pouting and she was hella cute right now!

"Why did they do?"

"Well, they saw me waiting here and they want to talk. At first, it was cool but then I can see that they are getting flirty.

Scarlett clicked her tongue, those girls were trying to seduce her man? Hah! What a stupid way to die! She heard that the nearest morgue was not getting enough, perhaps she could help them.

"Are you really sure that you want this?"

"Hm? Do you mean keeping our relationship a secret? Yes, it will be better for us."

Scarlett nodded but she was grumpy. She didn't have a problem if people find that she is Calix's girlfriend. In fact, it was better. She sighed and agreed with his decision.

"Well, I don't have a problem with this. All I want is your safety, I want you to stay safe. You know how people will react if they found that you and I have a relationship. The last thing I want to do is to hurt you."

Calix sincerely said. Scarlett felt guilty, she was selfish and didn't think about Calix's opinion. And worst, she was already prepared if Calix tried to have sex with another woman!

'I'm a bad person. I already think that Calix will cheat on me. I should have trust him better.'

She grimly smiled. This whole time, when she received the message from the Principal, Scarlett had already prepared her heart in case Calix might cheat on her if she was away. What kind of girlfriend she is for not trusting him?

She couldn't help it, with Calix's ability, she knew that she could never have him alone. Calix is far more important because of his unique ability to make a woman stronger. Scarlett understood that the reason why she became 2nd Advanced was not of her talent alone. Luck pushed her beyond her limits and she breakthrough. She knew her body than anyone, and she knew that it would take years for her to advance yet she accomplished it because of him.

Calix was the important factor why she became a 2nd Advanced. She understood that she would never have him alone. Calix's purpose was to bring Luck towards every woman.

HOWEVER, there is one thing that she could never let go of. That is being his wife, or first wife, whatever.

She must have the biggest part of his heart! She is the first wife! Period!!

If someone tried to take that position away from her, she would burn her to death. She has principles, she was already forgiving when she accepted that Calix could have a sexual relationship with another woman.

'It's ironic that I accepted the idea yet when I saw him talking with women, my blood boiled and I almost lost myself.'

She was ashamed, she couldn't control herself. She couldn't control her love for him.

"Hm? What's the problem?" Calix kissed her forehead and she felt at ease being with him. The kiss alone made her sadness go away.

"Mm, Calix remember when you said how your power works?"

"Yeah, I remember. I said that my Luck works if I have sex with a woman. Why? Is there a problem?..... Scarlett don't worry, I won't cheat on you."

Calix quickly understood what she meant when Scarlett asked. He knew that she was in distress about this. Scarlett might blame herself if Calix became a tragic man again.

"This is my decision. I will never hurt you. If I have to be a luckless man, I will do it. I'm ready to do it."

He said with determination. Scarlett's heart swelled listening to him, she understood that Calix would hold his promise. That's the type of person he is. Heck, he even ate a pineapple on pizza just for her. She knew how Calix hated that food. He said that except for tomatoes, no fruits are worthy to be on pizza. Pineapple and pizza are not meant to be! Yet, he overcame that obstacle and realized that eating Hawaiian pizza was not that bad.

[For the people reading this, Hawaiian Pizza is lit!!]

Scarlett smiled and touched his hand, she rubbed her cheek on his hand and kissed his palm. It wasn't a sensual act but the way she did it was so damn hot, she was like a cat purring against her master.

Calix gulped staring hard at her.

"No, I... I don't want you to be hurt. To be honest, I think about it hundreds of times. I know how you suffered and I don't want you to experience it again. I know that you are doing this for me, but I'm fine." She touched his chest. "I love you, no matter what happened, that will remain the same. Even if you have sex with another, I will love you. I'm sure of it."

She smiled looking up at him. Her eyes glistened like crystals inducing Calix to hug her. He couldn't control himself and grabbed her shoulders, he devoured her lips and didn't let her go.

"You say that you give me the approval to cheat, but I still have the last decision. As long as I can, I will never do it."

"Mmm."

Scarlett nodded. She trusted Calix but she knew that destiny was not under their control. She didn't know what would happen in the future. What if something bad happened and Calix didn't have a choice but to have intercourse just to save his life? Scarlett would rather see him having sex than seeing him die.

She knew the graveness of Calix backlash, the fact that she didn't help him for three years was already frightening. His backlash could affect even the feelings of people, Scarlett acknowledged that his backlash was not ordinary. It was worthy backlash for a powerful Term Attribute.

If the only answer was to have sex with another woman, then Scarlett would accept that no matter how much it hurt her.
