

Only Fuel 57

Chapter 57

"Say, how much time do we have?"

"Fufu right now? I can say we have thirty minutes."

Scarlett seductively grinned, her red lips glistened as she licked them. They already had understanding, they understood that they love each other so much.

Calix didn't think anymore and brought her inside the storage room. He pushed her body against the wall and bend her over. Scarlett's hands and cheek were leaning against the wall as she felt his rough hands looming and rubbing her ass. She raised her ass up and gave him a good view. She was wearing a skirt and Calix could see that her black thong was soaked with her juices.

"Aaahhh...."

Calix kneeled and started eating her out. He just slid the thong sideways as he used his tongue to make her cum. He tasted her juices flowing and swallowed them as if he was thirsty. He inserted his tongue inside her and Scarlett swallowed a groan. It didn't take a long time for her to get it on. Her hips trembled and she cooed.

"Mmm baby, you're making me crazy. Please, pretty please, give it to me."

Calix couldn't wait any longer and opened his pants, he didn't take them off. His pants were over his knees as he buckled up his giant schlong. He adjusted Scarlett's thong putting it on the left side of her butt cheek.

With just a slight insertion, Calix could clearly feel that Scarlett was so wet. She easily devoured his thick cock as if the inside was the real place it belongs. Scarlett bit her lip as she created muffled sounds. It was still early and she didn't want anyone to notice them. To be exact, she didn't want anyone to disturb them, especially now that they started fucking.

The chopper finally arrived. Calix was away from the landing area but his strong eyesight could see the people entering the chopper. Just a few minutes ago, Scarlett was in his arms. Now, she was going across the country to fight monsters.

Calix recognized that Scarlett was strong, especially now that she became a 2nd Advanced. However, he couldn't help but worry. His woman was going to a war instead of him. As of now, the news about the border was broadcasted over the country and every military base had to send reinforcement.

He wanted to fight together with Scarlett but he was weak. Despite deciphering his Term Attribute, he realized that his spell was not fit for battle. Just like last time, he fought Lok but he was defeated instead. He had broken ribs and stayed in the hospital. Calix clenched his fists, he couldn't accept this outcome. His palms turned white as his nails dig deeper.

"I spent three years of my life deciphering my Term Attribute. Then I will do my best to find alternatives to fight Aberrant."

He said it with firm conviction. He was watching as the chopper took off and flew into the sky. The chopper slowly vanished and Calix closed his eyes regulating his emotions. Calix walked away from the place, he made up his mind.

He turned on his phone and decided to call his father. Based on what he knew, his father was on the border and fighting monsters. He asked his father to protect Scarlett. He felt pathetic because he couldn't do it himself, he swallowed his pride and pushed the button.

As he left the place, Calix overlooked one thing. He didn't see that someone was staring at him from afar. A pair of golden eyes looked at him with great intensity.

The chopper was traveling. The journey was shaky and the people inside felt the tension. Yet one person was not affected by the atmosphere.

Scarlett was humming and she was definitely blooming right now. She was shining so bright that other students who joined the expedition couldn't look at her brilliant smile. It was too blinding.

Before she stepped into the chopper, Calix gave her the best fucking she ever had. It was exciting that in the middle of intercourse, she couldn't control her voice and moaned so loudly and their lovemaking was almost compromised. The thrill was getting over them. The fact that they were having sex in the middle of the day inside the storage room which was near the school was making her horny.

The thought itself was exciting. Calix pumped everything and sent her to heaven. On top of that, after they had passionate sex, Calix promised her that he would wait for her return. He said that he would talk to his dad about their relationship.

Scarlett was so happy to know that Calix had the intention of telling their relationship to Lieutenant Romoel. The Lieutenant is a good person and he always smiles, he is the only one who could talk to her father without sweating. Scarlett has a good impression of him.

As a woman who had the intention of getting married, of course she was happy that her partner wanted to talk to his father about her. This means that Calix was serious about her.

A lot of men don't even let their girlfriend meet their parents, this means a no-go. They didn't have any intention of getting serious, Calix is the exact opposite of those assholes. With his actions alone, you could say that he was planning for the future. Scarlett smiled and couldn't control herself and squealed. Gosh, he is so sweet.

'This means that uncle will now see me as a daughter-in-law. Gosh, my face is hot right now.'

She touched her cheeks and felt the warmth, she was blushing hard. The corners of her lips twitched thinking about it.

However, there was one thing that she forgot. Or to be exact, there was one thing that she erased in her mind.

It was not daughter-in-law, rather it was daughters-in-law, lots of them!! God knows how many girls would the protagonist fuck!! God knows how many will marry him! Hah! With his Term Attribute alone, millions of females will not hesitate to slide inside his pants. Furthermore, he is handsome and a gentleman who turns vicious when someone hurt his loved ones.

Scarlett Robinson, her fate was already entangled with him. And many more will be entangled.
