Chapter 81

Scarlett destroyed a radio, her hand unconsciously moved and broke the closest thing to her. Scarlett sneered, it seemed like this woman had the guts to talk to her.

"Hoh, it's an honor to meet a woman like you. I hope you will treat Calix better while I'm away. You know, Calix will return to me anyway when I come back. He loves me soooooooo much~ So take your pity time."

Scarlett used the sweetest voice she could ever make. She was confident in her ability to talk and to make someone angry with her mouth alone. She would make this Kimberly regretted her decision. Calix was hers, she was just being generous and letting some girls get close to him. However, it does not mean that Calix would become gigolo, that man was so in love with her. She knew that fact.

"..."

Kimberly was actually infuriated, Scarlett was treating her wounds with salt. Kimberly knew that Calix's feelings for her were shallow. Perhaps it was in the stage of being a fuck buddy, just a lustful desire. She understood that if Scarlett tried to talk to Calix, Calix would not hesitate to leave her. That's how stronger Scarlett is this time.

Kimberly closed her eyes, she was using her Focus Term Attribute. She was trying to find the best comeback.

"It does not matter, while you are away, I will slowly seduce Calix. When you come back, you will realize that he does not have feelings for you anymore."

"You!!"

Kimberly giggled and ended the call.

Scarlett was fuming in anger, Kimberly said everything that she worries about the most. Calix may have strong feelings for her at the moment but she knew that feelings can change. She was afraid that Calix would love Kimberly more than her while she was away.

She gritted her teeth, this woman was great with using words. She was defeated. Scarlett was confident in her ability to destroy someone with words but it seemed like Kimberly was stronger. She immediately found Scarlett's weakness!

"That woman!"

Usually, Scarlett won't easily show any emotions but Kimberly made her mad so much that she wanted to burn a house. Kimberly was threatening Scarlett by stealing Calix. Scarlett loved Calix the most so her calm emotions were washed away when Kimberly said those words.

As expected from the genius who invented new things, she knew how to use her brain. Kimberly damaged Scarlett.

"I, I have to call her again! Hah!! If she thinks that she won, then she made a big mistake!"

Scarlett called again but she realized that reception became weak. She tried to call again but the signal completely disappeared. She gritted her teeth and almost destroy the phone, she was not usually like this but Kimberly hit her weakest point.

Since then, the reception and signal of the communication device in the border died. The Aberrants attacked the newly built tower and it would take two months to repair it. Only the highest position could send information but even that was hard to get by.

Scarlett can't contact Calix for two weeks and she became anxious, she felt like she had to end this farce. She had to kill Aberrants, the faster the better, the more the better. As long as this crisis ended, she would immediately return.

While Scarlett was busy with the Aberrants, Calix and Kimberly were set in a problem too.

...

Let's not forget that Scarlett was not the main heroine of this arc, and she was not the lucky girl this time. Perhaps Luck was the reason why the tower was destroyed, giving Kimberly the chance to have some alone time with Calix. Perhaps.

Overall, we can conclude that Kimberly is lucky.

Ten days already passed, Kimberly and Calix learned a lot about each other. They were starting to get warmer and they realized that they were compatible. In a way, they were both into giving. They always prioritized their partners before themselves.

While they were having "getting to know each other", Kimberly did not forget her promise. She conducted different examinations to decipher Calix's Luck and she found something interesting.

She found that Calix would turn into a normal person, without Backlash and Luck if she only gave him a blowjob. This means that sexual intercourse is a must to activate his power. This also means that Calix can become a normal person if he experienced only a blowjob once every three days. So far, Kimberly proved her ability and Calix started respecting her. Since then, he learned that he only have to hide his face or have a blowjob to prevent women from flirting with him.

It was great, Calix was getting tired of their stares and Kimberly found a way to fix that without awakening his Backlash. He felt indebted, so he gave Kimberly the best fuck she could ever have. Although every sex was the best fuck in her opinion, Calix was so good.

"What are you doing?"

"Ah, this? I'm trying to find a way to shrink the size of the battle suit."

The Cudgel Tech was asking Kimberly to help with this project. She did not join but she decided to find a way alone. She was used to being alone anyway.

"The maximum size of battle suit that can be shrink is 12 by 12 inches at best without weakening the quality of the suit."

That's why the battle suit was usually the size of a handheld suitcase. If they tried to shrink it further, the battle suit would lose its quality and it would be prone to have a weak defense. It was bad for the user.

"Really? That's going to be great if you found a way to do that. I'm gonna be honest, it's tough to carry a suitcase."

Calix said his opinion. A battle suit had a time limit and they could never be used constantly because they need energy.

"Yeah, I get you, sometimes it prevents you from doing stuff. That's why I'm trying to find a way."

"Then how can you do it, do you have an idea?"

Kimberly grinned and pulled out a document. A symbol was written together with its description and meaning. Calix started to realize it, he got goosebumps.

"I will use Runes to fix that problem."

Kimberly announced and heaved her chest out, she was proud of what she was doing.
