Chapter 82

The more Calix learned about Kimberly, the more he realized that she was not an ordinary person. He did not know Kimberly's true identity but he felt like she was something important, especially whenever he looked at the inside of the laboratory. It was filled with machinery and bizarre stuff. He strongly believe that Kimberly was part of something bigger.

Fixing the size of the battle suit by using Runes.

He was in awe, he could not believe that the problem that most soldiers and TA Users could be solved by one person, and that person was standing right before him. He could not help but smile, at the same time, his heart started to realize that Kimberly was shining so brightly. It was so bright that Calix closed his eyes, afraid of being blind. Kimberly was releasing that kind of brightness.

Calix was having the emotion he had when he acknowledged that he could never stand equal with Scarlett. Kimberly reminded him of that sensation because Kimberly was a person that he could never stand equal to. He was frustrated, the two women in his life were walking ahead yet he was stagnant.

Sure he had a unique Term Attribute but it was not enough, he felt like it was not his achievement. Scarlett and Kimberly gained something when they have sex with him but Calix felt like they were not his accomplishments. Because in the first place, he did nothing but use his dick! He could not justify that they become smarter nor stronger because of having sex with him! It was outrageous.

Despite knowing the truth, that he was the reason for their greatness, Calix had a hard time accepting it. He did not feel a sense of satisfaction despite making the two women powerful. He wanted to achieve something, using his own hands. He was happy that he decipher his power, yet he was frustrated at the same time. He wanted to achieve something that he could proudly say his own.

Kimberly was busy with copying the Runic Symbols, she was immersed. Her concentration was at its utmost limit, Calix found it gorgeous. He gulped in amazement and unconsciously grinned. He was starting to see Kimberly as part of his life, he accepted her, wholeheartedly.

Calix's gaze moved around until his eyes stared at her bubbly ass. God knows how much he hammered that ass! That ass that always bounced up and down when it collided with his hips, he recalled how his balls bumped to her clitoris whenever he pushed in.

*Gulped!

Calix swallowed the saliva stuck in his throat. His foot took a step and his hand moved without his approval. He cupped her ass and Kimberly felt the electricity. She glanced and purred at Calix, his hand moved beneath and started rubbing her pussy through the pants.

"What are you doing?"

Calix innocently asked while his fingers poked her pussy and made Kimberly squeal. He was so innocent as if he was not doing something perverse. He wanted to tease Kimberly because she was so cute!!!

"I- ahhhhnn kyah! I.... I'm writing Runes... Mmmmm hhhaaaa...."

"That's great. Go on."

"B-but your hand... Ahn!"

"What about it?"

She moaned and Calix kept fingering her. Her thighs rubbed against each other while the fingers in the middle stroked her pussy. She bit her lip and hissed at Calix.

"You know that this can be qualified as sexual harassment right?"

Kimberly said. Her eyes were glistening and Calix chuckled. He released her from suffering and his hand parted from her great ass. Yet, Kimberly became frustrated, she raised her voice.

"But I didn't tell you to stop!"

She glared at Calix, annoyed and begging him to continue. Calix shrugged, he loved her reaction. She was angry yet pleading.

He gave her a peck but Kimberly was eager for more. She could not help herself, whenever Calix started touching her, her emotions would pour out like a broken dam. With just one touch, she would become crazy. Her wet lips wanted more and Calix gave her what she wanted. They had a long passionate kiss, they did not stop until their lips turned red and bruised.

They were panting and their faces so close to each other, they could feel each other's breath.

"We just did it a few hours ago."

Kimberly said while staring at his lips, she wanted to kiss him more. Her hands clutched on Calix's shirt, not wanting to let him go.

"I know but I want it again. Besides, I know that you want it to."

"Ahn~".

Kimberly moaned as Calix grabbed her ass, his fingers slid inside her bikini and he felt that her pussy was wet. She was horny, no denying that fact. Their eyes reflected each other and they shared a passionate kiss.

So let's summarize what they did the whole afternoon.

-Some sucking of dick and licking of pussy.

-Penetration(fucking) with some poses, such as doggy, missionary, cow-girl, and the newly trend Jack-O pose.

- She used her mouth, busty tits, face, and pussy to catch all of his cum. Some landed on the floor but it was not important.

-After a good fucking, it was Kimberly's job to clean Calix's thick cock with her mouth and tongue. Of course, she took great care of his cock, she was serious about her job.

When they were finished, both of them decided to take a rest and go to Kimberly's room. They started wearing their clothes to leave the laboratory.

While wearing his pants, his wallet fell to the floor and his money came out. Kimberly giggled and decided to help him pick them.

However, Calix and Kimberly sensed something suspicious. They looked around and found that the pistol on the table was vibrating as if an invisible force was pulling it.

Not only that, Calix frowned when he realized that the commemorative coin that he was holding was shining and vibrating. The room was slowly getting covered by light. Both of them were surprised.

"What is happening?"

Calix wanted to sell this antique commemorative coin so that he could earn money. He knew that this coin could be sold at 10-20 thousand dollars. However, it seemed like his plan had to be put on hold because the coin has a secret that Calix and Kimberly discovered.
