

----- The Only Fuel Is Using The D. #Chapter--9-

----- Lucky 9

The storage room was dark and cold, the smell of the rusty equipment lingered but the couple was too busy and they didn't care about it. Even if it was dark, they could see each other's figure, their eyes shone with lust. As for the cold, their bodies released heat warming each other. Their bodies were touching and they could hear their excited breathings. The smell of the rusty equipment was overwhelmed by the scent that they were creating, the fragrance of their lovemaking filled the room.

Scarlett was on top of Calix, she just climaxed. The sensation was a stranger to her but she fell in love with it. Her muscles tensed up and released after, it was magnificent. Her breathing was rough and Calix clearly heard her, she was resting on his body because she was tired.

However, Calix was still not satisfied, he wanted to cum! Scarlett's sexy voice was so addicting especially when she moaned. Calix lost his mind whenever he heard her. All he wanted was to make her cry, whimper, and moan while he was thrusting his dick in her. Calix embraced her and moved, he rotated their position, he was holding Scarlett and safely put her on the floor. His action was smooth and protective but his intention was not, he wanted to ravage her.

His fierce eyes stared at her, Scarlett's pink blush was cute. Calix lowered his head and kissed her cheek, after that, he kissed her neck down to her tits. Scarlett gasped as his lips touched her nipples. Calix nibbled one while his hand was playing with the other.

"Hhuuupppp"

She moaned when Calix weakly bit her nipple, she caressed his hair while he was busy with her breast. Then, Calix raised his head, there was one part that he really wanted to invade. He caught her lips, seizing her tongue, and assaulted her. Scarlett felt the heat rising in her as Calix passionately kissed her. She clutched her hands against his back, at this moment, they were in sync.

Calix started moving his hips, they were still connected and his rod was begging for action. He began with a slow stroke, Scarlett moaned as her head nuzzled against his neck.

"Auuggghh aahhnn ahhn yes yeesss."

Calix loved hearing her voice, his hips moved faster and reached deeper into her. Scarlett started whispering sweet words leading Calix to do his job seriously, his piston became stronger. His balls slapped onto her butt and the noise of their intercourse echoed.

"Yes yes uuhhhh yes more more!"

Scarlett begged for greater pleasure, the climax she experienced dissipated as she wanted more. Her moaning loudly pleaded and Calix answer it with vigor. Every stroke brought sensation for both of them, Calix wanted to see more of her expression. His thrusting dug deeper, his thick cock explored her and shaped her private place. Calix craved to mark her, he was eager to have her and make her his property.

" Oh...Yeah...Ooooo, fuck me with this big cock....Oh, it's so big...it's so good...Oh....that's it. Aauughh!! Ooooh, yeah, Calix...Fuck...fuck...FUCK..."

Scarlett learned that this was the best way to make a man thrust harder.

Scarlett cried begging to be dominated, she whimpered and felt the tingling ecstasy. The sensation was tremendous and she lost control of her body. Her mind was not working and only guttural noise came out of her mouth. The tension caused by Calix's battering sent signals throughout her body. Her muscles contracted and a warm feeling emanated and spread to her entire body. She had an orgasm again.

"I'm close!"

And just like her, Calix was going to cum too. The dick in Scarlett started bulging leading her to have another pleasurable feeling.

"Yes give it to me, pleaseeee!!!"

For the last time, her body arched back together with Calix's cumming. He released all his semen in her, he pumped it deep in her. Scarlett trembled as Calix's bulging cock dumped all the liquid inside her.

They both rest on each other, the strength and vitality that they had vanished as euphoria filled them. They were breathing hard, Calix's rod was still in Scarlett's pussy. They remained like this until they fall asleep. They closed their eyes while embracing each other, the heat and cozy sensation made them sleepy.

They were both exhausted, Scarlett escaped the people coming after her. She was intoxicated to aphrodisiac and her senses were groggy, it was obvious that she was depleted. On top of that, this was her first time, the recreation had worn her energy till the last drop.

As for Calix, the man fought another group of thugs. It was apparent that he would sleep after one session, after all this was his first time too. His wheezing was weak and he looked innocent and cute while he was sleeping.

The childhood friends slept together just like when they were children. Although this time, their relationship was on the next level... And they were sleeping naked.

...

Pah!

"Why can't you find her!"

Young Master Chen angrily yelled, his saliva spat out as he furiously slapped one of his lackeys. He raised his hand again and smacked another man, he was mad. He thought he could taste Scarlett but the bitch got away.

"How can she escape? She's drugged! For god's sake, why can't you find her?!"

He was fuming, he looked like a gangster boss who lost his best merchandise. He dreamed of fucking Scarlett, he wanted to smell the woman while she was begging. He imagined doing it many times but Scarlett was hard to crack. He tried to get friendly with her but the woman was too righteous. She didn't have any flaws, no matter how much he tried to coerce her, Scarlett won't bow her head. He wanted to see her submitting herself.

However, Scarlett became famous and killed a third-class Aberrant. Master Chen realized that he must have her before some dickhead tried to seduce and fuck her. He decided to do this cowardly act to acquire her, but it seemed like he failed!

[Not enough? Maybe this can help you. Don't worry, these are wholesome. If you are a man of culture, then I know that you know these numbers, hehe.]
