Chapter 95

Ladies and gentlemen, I announce to you, the stalker of this series... Please don't hate her.

WARNING: I recommend you to skip her arc instead if you don't like her, or you can't stomach her.

[Yuna Garcia]

[Teleport Term Attribute]

[Fuel: Unknown.]

[Backlash: Her emotions will be far away, almost none existent, unless she finds her Fuel.]

...

Yuna Garcia.

A simple woman... Has lovely pink hair tied in twin tails, and precious golden eyes. However, despite her appearance of an angel...

Some people call her slut, they couldn't blame it. Yuna would always be in the arms of different men every month or two. She was famous for having relationships with a lot of men, so the term slut may describe her well.

However, Yuna didn't care. After all, she didn't have the emotions to care. None at all. She was like a robot. And the only time where she felt alive was when she was having sex. That was the only time where she could show her emotions. Her emotions would slightly show up whenever she was close to a man without clothes between them. To be honest, it was not emotions, the best term to describe it was natural reactions of her body, such as moaning and orgasm.

It was slight but for Yuna, it was her everything. That's why she liked having sex because that was the only time where she could say that she had a purpose.

Yuna was one of the students who couldn't decipher her Term Attribute. That's why she was suffering from the consequences.

She wasn't like that when she was a child. In fact, she was a showy type of girl and she would always reveal her emotions to the people around her. It all changed when she turned fifteen and awakened her Term Attribute. That was the time where her life started to get fucked up. She wanted to cry, but she couldn't. She wanted to smile, but she couldn't. Her emotions were caged and she couldn't show it unless she had sex. She was suffering and she even thought of ending her life but even that idea would immediately disappear since she didn't have a feeling of regret or despair. She was a robot wearing human skin.

That's why no man could stand having a long-term relationship with her. Sure she was beautiful, but her lack of response to conversations made her a boring partner.

As men come and go around her, Yuna didn't have a choice but to nod to their advance. After all, she wanted to realize being alive. She won't hesitate to have sex with anyone as long as she could have her passions even for a minute. Of course, men took advantage of her. They would invite her to sex and sometimes gangbang, it wasn't considered rape because Yuna would always give her consent, a slight nod, that is.

She would always agree, maybe some of her emotions were still there because she still felt the excitement before having sex.

Yuna did her best to decipher her Term Attribute. The word Teleport could be found in the dictionary. It means to travel, often instantaneously, from one point to another without physically crossing the distance between the two points.

With this description alone, it was already obvious that her power would be powerful. Only a few people had the power to travel like that. At first, the school took significance in guiding her but as time passed, they lost interest because it seemed like her fuel would never be found.

Yuna read the meaning of Teleport many times, perhaps millions of times. She went to different places, hoping that her Term Attribute would react. She tried sky diving, she even tried the most famous yet expensive way to travel, using a Portal. She put all her life saving just to experience it once, but she couldn't find a connection even after experiencing using a Portal.

She failed, miserably. The gazes of people around her were filled with mockery. Even the men who used her as playthings did not treat her right. She was a cumdumpster in their ideology.

Perhaps she was going to die because of gangbang one day. Well, she won't say no to that. After all, she loves sex. That was the only thing that gave her satisfaction. She didn't care what people think of her, she didn't have emotions to begin with.

However, one day, her whole life changed. Three months ago. She met someone, or rather, her gaze met him and her heart started beating again. As if she met her savior.

Yuna met Calix one time while she got out of her fuckbuddy's room. She was in the hallway as she was going to leave the dorm. The first time she saw him, her heart uncontrollably throbbed so fast that she was going to palpitate. However, that sensation immediately vanished when Calix entered his room.

Yuna thought that something was unique about Calix, so after three days, she tried to look for him. However, she confirmed that Calix was just a normal person, he didn't have anything about him. In fact, they were both miserable as they didn't decipher their Term Attributes.

Yuna lost her interest but when she met Calix for the third time, the sensation she experienced came back again. Twice was enough to make her curious.

Since then, Yuna started stalking him. She would follow Calix whenever she had free time. She lost her interest in sex and she declined all of the men who tried to make a move on her... She was actually surprised that she could do that.

Then, as time went on and she kept stalking Calix, she realized that her emotions started to show up. Not only that, she awakened her Term Attribute.

Yuna realized the power of her Term Attribute. She could travel 150 meters distance in a second as long as she could see it. Since then, her stalking became easier and more exciting. Sometimes she would invade his room and smell his clothes to masturbate!

She didn't know that doing that would make her heart skip a beat! She feels so alive!! She feels like she's human again. And it was all because of Calix. If Yuna didn't meet him, maybe she was still stuck in the suffering of being a robot. One way or another, she got the gist that stalking and teleporting have a connection.

[Yuna Garcia]

[Teleport Term Attribute]

[Fuel: Stalking her most beloved without getting caught within ten hours.]

[Backlash (accurate): She has to stalk her most beloved once a week to keep her emotions close to her. If she failed, her emotions will teleport away.]
