"The daughter of the Morrise family... Sawyer."

When Jack heard that it was the Morrise family, he immediately raised his head, "Sawyer Morrise?"

"Yes, Dad. The Morrise family had a pair of twins. However, one was sickly and had been raised in other places. It was only in recent years when she got better that the Morrise family took her back. Dad, if you agree, I can bring her here during this holiday."

Johny remained silent.

Henry was sure that to protect Ceres, Johny would not say a word about the truth in front of Jack. It was not good for both sides.

Jack nodded. "Alright, then bring her back and let me have a look."

He had never paid much attention to Henry's marriage. What concerned him the most was naturally Johny's marriage. However, Johny's wife, another daughter of the Morrise family, was too ugly. She should be replaced sooner or later.

The Morrise family used to be among the top clans. They had been rich and esteemed for centuries. But it had fallen into the decline during Mike's father's generation. And things only got worse when Mike took charge. Fortunately, Mike was quite resourceful. If they could win the Winsors' support, they would certainly return to the previous status.

It was a good idea to get rid of Johny's ugly bride and let Henry marry the daughter of the Morrise family.

"Alright, then I'll make an appointment immediately!" Henry was extremely excited, and he even looked at Johny provocatively.

Johny had been silent the entire time. He felt that they must be plotting something again.

In Evian Town.

Everyone was a little tired after a busy day. Actually, they had been busy for an entire year, and could only have a good rest during the Spring Festival. Therefore, they left not long after watching the TV.

Only Ceres was left in the living room.

Mia made a cup of coffee for her. Since everyone had left, she secretly poured a small bag of powder into the coffee, stirred it, and handed it to Ceres.

"Mrs. Winsor, are you going to stay up till midnight? I made a cup of coffee for you."

"Oh, thank you," Ceres glanced at her. "You could go to sleep, too. I don't need anyone to serve me."

"Alright, then I'll go to sleep." Mia looked at Ceres before leaving.

Ceres watched the television alone. Even the comedies went upstairs, thinking of the rooster that she had married, and went into its room.

The rooster hadn't seen her for a you as lonely as me? Then let's accompany each other." Ceres picked the rooster up.

When she was away, the servants knew that Ceres cared a lot about this rooster, so they fed it exceptionally well. It seemed to be fatter than the last Ceres saw it.

Ceres carried the rooster to the balcony, "There will be fireworks at midnight. Let's wait here, okay?"

The rooster seemed to understand human language, and crowed in response.

Ceres stood there. The past was so happen yesterday. She used to chat with the bodyguard on this balcony but she had never seen him since they left last time.

"Hubby, what do you think Johny is doing? Would he miss me? There are four people in his family. Are they sitting together watching TV? How nice it would be. Unfortunately, I have no family..."

Ceres was getting sadder, "However, Johny would save Dad before long. I will be able to celebrate the New Year with Dad in the candies. And the meatballs. Ah, they are too delicious."

Ceres was about to drool as she spoke. She missed her father so much that tears welled up in her eyes.

Nine years, her father had been in prison for nine years. And she had lived nine years without a father, nine years of lonely and helpless days.

Suddenly, someone came over and put a coat on her. Ceres was startled at first, but she saw Johny as she turned around. "Johny!"

She cried out in excitement.

"Why are you back?"

Johnny was just about to hold Ceres in his arms when he noticed that the big rooster in Ceres's arms. He frowned. Ceres immediately placed the rooster on the ground. The rooster seemed to be protesting, and it crowed unhappily.

"Why are you back?" Ceres threw herself into Johnny's arms.

"Because I had nothing to do in my home."

Johnny did not intend to come back so soon, but he was really worried about Ceres. So, he rushed back after dinner.

Sure enough, she was lonely here.

Johnny gently caressed Ceres's cheek. "You're crying?"

"Of course not!" Ceres's eyes were even more beautiful as they now sparkled with tears, "Why should I cry during the New Year? I just miss my father a little."

"Next year, next year, you will be able to reunite with him."

Johnny didn't intend to give her a promise in afraid of disappointment, but he really couldn't help it.

"Really?"

"Sure!"

"Then next year, we will be able to eat the meatballs my father made. And the pastries. He is really good at making pastries!"

Just then, the sky suddenly lit up with fireworks. Countless sparks rushed into the sky and then bloomed into flowers of all shades of colors.

"Fireworks!"

It was already midnight.

Ceres nestled in Johnny's arms, looking at the sky full of fireworks with a happy smile. She must have saved the whole galaxy in her last life to be so lucky in this life.

After the fireworks, Johnny carried Ceres back to the bedroom and directly threw her on the bed.

When Ceres woke up the next day, it was already nine o'clock. The firecrackers in the morning had not woken her up, but Johnny was no longer by her side.

But Johnny had left a note at her bedside, which said, "I'll be back in the afternoon."

Looking at Johnny's beautiful handwriting, Ceres revealed a happy smile.

In the Morrise family.

The Morrise family was also full of joy. However, they were a little unaccustomed that Ceres did not work in their house.

Sally asked outside the bathroom, "Mary, are you done?"

Mary opened the door with a sullen face.

According to her look, Sally knew she failed, "It's fine, it's fine. There are plenty of opportunities."

"Mom, I'm pregnant!" Mary showed Sally the pregnancy test stick in her hand.

"Awesome! Mary is so good!"

Sally hugged Mary and shouted happily.

"Mom, what is the miracle medicine? It is so effective?" Mary was also very happy.

"It's my secret. Let's tell your dad this good news!" Sally was proud of it.

Mike was watching TV in the living room. It was the worst Spring Festival for him. He would felt angry once he saw his broken finger.

When he heard that Mary was pregnant, Mike shouted excitedly, "Really?"

"It's true. It can't be wrong." Sally asked Mary to sit down. "We're going to be grandparents."

Mary smiled. Since she decided to take revenge, Mary had met Henry many times. And having sex was common for them.

Henry had seen many women. Mary was a young student, beautiful and good at playing the piano. Moreover, she could make him happy. Therefore, Henry was fascinated by her.

Mike had decided to cooperate with Henry and Henry also agreed with this idea.

"But, Dad, I don't understand why I have to marry in the name of Sawyer. It's so awkward. I suppose I should tell Jack the true identity of Ceres. If Jack loses his temper, Johnny will be toast."

Mary was confused. Recently, they had been studying the Winsors. Jack attached great importance to the blood lineage. Ceres couldn't enter the Winsor family. If her real identity was revealed, the problem would be addressed.

Mike shook his head. "Mary, you are smart but too short-sighted. You only see the surface and one side. It is not enough."

Mary pursed her lips with displeasure.

"If we reveal Ceres's identity, the matter about her marriage would also be exposed. Then we will be involved in it. Jack has spent 500 million. What do you think he will do if he knows the truth?"

Only then did Mary realize that the problem was not as easy as she thought.

"It is common that men at the critical moment, he might abandon her to protect himself. Then we will fail to defeat him."

Mary nodded. "Sally also your pregnancy, lest Johnny hurt you."

"I understand, Dad."

Mike continued, "Mary, you're an adult. If it weren't for these things, I won't let you get married. But when you are married and enter the Winsor family, you have to be careful. Listen more and think more. Don't be impulsive."

Mary nodded seriously.

In this period, Johnny ran back and forth between the Winsor's and Evian Town. He had to show up in the Winsor's occasionally. But most of the time, he occasionally. Bill had gone overseas for a vacation, but he sometimes chatted with Ceres via video.

It was probably the happiest time for Ceres in Imperial City. Every day, she got up until she woke up. She learned how to make delicious food. Or she just stayed in bed with Johnny.

This day, Johnny was not at home. Ceres had a video call with Alice.

"Ceres, I haven't seen you for a few days. You become rounder. Johnny has treated you so well."

Ceres pinched her face and felt that she was a little more fleshy than before. "You also become rounder. We are the same."

Alice suddenly put on a bitter face. Ceres asked, "What happened? You seem unhappy."

"I'm in menses. I ate a lot of meat and other food during the New Year. Two days ago, I went to buy ice cream. So I'm in great pain now" Alice looked painful.

"You eat so many cold things." Ceres suddenly realized, "Alice, do you remember when my period came last time?"

Alice thought for a moment, "Last time, yours was a week earlier than mine. This month, it comes a few days later than usual. What about you?"

Ceres realized that it hadn't come for a long time.

"Are you pregnant?" Alice looked nervous.

Ceres smiled awkwardly. "It's impossible. We just had sex not long ago."

Johny had said that in one or two months, there were only ten percent of women would get pregnant if they had sex. How could she be so lucky?

But she was worried now.

"You should take it seriously. Ceres, how about buying a pregnancy test kit? If you are pregnant, you have to make good preparation."

Because Alice's relatives had arrived, they had to stop chatting. Alice warned her again when they finished video chatting.

Ceres thought about it carefully. Finally, she ran out and bought a pregnancy test kit.

Then she did according to the instruction manual.

There was a long wait.

It was probably the longest wait in her life. But she found no change of it.

"I might don't get pregnant." Ceres took it out. Under the sunlight, she saw a very shallow line. If she didn't look carefully, she would not be able to see it.

"What does this mean?"

The instructions said that two lines meant pregnancy. But there was one deep line and one shallow line, which was very, very shallow.

She began to search online.

"Ceres!" The door suddenly opened. She was scared into throwing the pregnancy test kit on the ground.

As soon as Johny entered, he saw something thrown from her hand. He picked it up and asked, "What is it?"

"A pregnancy test kit." Ceres looked at him with embarrassment.

"You..."

Johny was shocked.

"No, my period has been delayed for a long time. So I bought it to see whether I get pregnant. But I don't understand what it means."

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 108

/ One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

"Just one line, isn't it?" Johny looked at the stick.

"No!" Ceres pulled Johny towards the window. In the sunlight, Johny could see that there were really two lines, one of which was very faint.

If he didn't see carefully, it couldn't be noticed.

"Am I...? My period should have come days ago."

Johny took out his phone and checked. "Your average menstrual cycle for the past few months is 35 days. The shortest cycle is 26 days, and the longest is 38 days. Now it has been 39 days since your last period. So it's only one day late. The cycle is similar to the longest one."

Ceres was stunned. Why was he so familiar with her period cycle?

"Why are you so familiar with it?"

Johny didn't know how to answer. He just wanted to be clear about his girl's periods.

"So it's normal. Don't worry."

"What about this?"

Johny immediately called Bill and put him on speaker.

"Hey Johny, what's up?" Bill pretended a sweet voice.

"What does it mean if the pregnancy test stick shows two lines, and one of them is faint?"

"What? Is Ceres pregnant? Amazing, Johny! Awesome! You made it in such a short time!"

Bill's laughter from the other end made Ceres blush.

"Stop! Answer me now!"

"Well, the pregnancy test sticks are only 70% accurate, or even lower. If it is of low quality, it is not reliable at all. Generally speaking, you may see one faint line in the two in early pregnancy because the hormone level is still low. But..."

Bill paused for a second before continuing, "Before the period comes, many women will suffer hormonal confusion, and it may lead to this situation. Ceres, is your period regular?"

"Why are you asking this?"

"If you don't tell me, I can't analyze it for you."

"Not regular."

"That's it. Then Ceres must have hormonal confusion. That's why you need to work hard! I thought you were going to be a daddy!"

Johny didn't want to chat with Bill. He hung pursed her lips.

She knew little about that, but Bill could clearly explain it.

"He gets along with women." Johny chuckled.

Ceres covered her mouth and laughed, but she was still not relieved. "Then what's wrong with me? I may be in early pregnancy, right?"

"So how about going to the hospital? You also need to do a checkup. I will take you there when I'm free."

It would be troublesome if she was found having any disease when they wanted a was going to work tomorrow and they couldn't stay together. She wanted to spend more time with Johny.

"Forget it. It's not so easy to be pregnant. My period is always irregular."

"Then hurry up!" Johny carried Ceres onto the bed.

“What are you doing? Stop it!”

Johny threw Ceres onto the bed and kissed her...

When Ceres woke up the next day, Johny had left. Probably Johny wanted to enjoy the end of the holiday. Last night, they made love again and again, so Ceres was exhausted.

Ceres felt pain in her belly. She immediately went to the bathroom and found that there was a little blood on her underwear.

She felt a little sad that she was not pregnant.

It should be good, but somehow, she felt a bit disappointed.

Yesterday she even thought that if she really got pregnant, she would be a mother.

Johny was busy with the business of the two groups. He was fully occupied with work. Ceres went back to her home in Villa Amio. Recently, Johny left before she woke up and returned after she fell asleep.

Johny also came back late today. It was the Lantern Festival tomorrow and he wanted to spend it with Ceres, so he finished the work for tomorrow. He thought that Ceres should be sleeping, but he found that the light in the room was on.

He opened the door and found Ceres sitting on the bed in a daze.

She looked worried.

“What’s the matter?” Johny went to the bed.

Ceres threw herself into his arms. “I think I am really pregnant.”

“Aren’t you...”

Johny noticed the sanitary pads in the bathroom. But he had been too busy in the past few days and talked little to her. He had asked the servants to prepare warm milk for Ceres.

“On the next day after we left the Evian Town, my period came. But I felt something wrong these days. It has been very light. Usually, it just happens on the first two days of the period. But now it has been a week. It is still light and did not end.”

Ceres had been in fear for several days. “I searched the Internet. This is like a sign of threatened abortion, not a period.”

Ceres nodded.

"Don't worry. You will be fine."

Johny and Ceres did not have a good sleep. They went to the hospital early in the morning and saw the best gynecologist.

They sat opposite the doctor, waiting for the report.

The doctor checked the data carefully and looked serious. "Mrs. Winsor, is it a large amount of blood?"

"No. It has lasted for a week."

"Does your belly hurt?"

"A little bit, just like the pain during periods."

"When was the last menstruation?"

"More than forty days ago."

"Did you have sex recently?"

Ceres and Johny exchanged glances. "Yes, a week ago."

"Mrs. Winsor, you are indeed pregnant. But be prepared. You show symptoms of threatened abortion." The doctor put the report on the table.

"What?"

Although Ceres had prepared herself, she was still surprised to hear it.

Not to mention Johny.

"You two should be careful. It is very easy to have a miscarriage in the first three months of pregnancy. You can't have sex during this time. Mrs. Winsor, now you need to stay in the hospital for treatment."

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 109

Ceres was arranged for the exclusive ward for the Winsor family. The doctor prescribed medication and she was put on a drip.

Johny had a serious expression on his face while Ceres seemed to be much more relaxed.

He poured a glass of water for Ceres and sat at her bed. "Are you hungry? The food is on the way."

Ceres ate nothing this morning because she was afraid that she would have physical exams on an empty stomach.

Ceres shook her head. "I'm not hungry."

Johny sat on the bed and embraced Ceres. "I'm sorry, Ceres."

That day, he thought that he would have to work and was going to be busy soon, so he had sex with her for times. He didn't expect that Ceres had got pregnant. If he had known this, he would have taken Ceres to the hospital that day.

"It's okay. You don't know then." Ceres did not want to blame Johny. She grabbed Johny's hand and placed it on her belly. "I can't believe that we have a baby."

Johny smiled bitterly. He couldn't believe it either.

He knew that Ceres did not want to have a baby now. After all, she was still young. He did not want either, but it just came...

"Ceres, if this baby..."

"I'll accept everything as it comes." Ceres wasn't flustered at all. Perhaps she had prepared herself. She said, "Swedum."

"What? It is the Lantern Festival today. Do you want to eat sweet dumplings? I can ask someone to buy it for you." Johny held Ceres in his arms, his heart aching.

"No, I mean today is the Lantern Festival. Why don't we call our baby Swedum? What do you think?"

Seeing her big smile, Johny suddenly felt relieved. It seemed that Ceres was stronger and more optimistic than he had thought.

“Alright.”

“Then let’s pray that it will recover soon.”

Mary also came to the hospital with Sally. Mary had only done a few pregnancy tests at home. The examination at the hospital would be more reliable.

After they got the report and her pregnancy was confirmed, Sally and Mary finally sighed with relief.

Sally took out some money and handed it to the doctor. “Doctor, thank you. The doctor said with a smile, “No, thanks. Mr. Henry has instructed me.”

The doctor was arranged by Henry.

“Take it.” Sally doctor’s office.

Both of them wore masks in case that they met acquaintances.

As they were chatting, a nurse walked by. The nurse was talking on the phone while walking in a hurry. Then she accidentally bumped into them.

“Hey, be careful. If you hurt my daughter, you can’t get away!” Sally hurriedly protected Mary.

“Sorry, sorry, I didn’t do it on purpose!” The nurse quickly squatted and picked up the reports that fell on the ground.

“Really? I don’t think so!”

a report.

Mary picked it up. She was right!

“Mom, look...” Mary immediately showed it to Sally.

After picking up all the reports and finding that Mary was holding one, the nurse hurriedly and politely said, “Thank you.”

Mary returned it to the nurse. Sally changed her attitude and said, “Be careful next time.”

“I will. I am new here, so I was a little anxious. And this patient is very special, so ... I am really sorry.”

The nurse apologized.

"Ceres Taylor? I have a friend called this name. I don't know if it is her. She is from the Winsor family..." Mary said.

"Yes! It's her! Mr. Johnny sent her here and she's now staying in the exclusive ward for the Winsor family."

"Then what's wrong with her?" Sally and Mary exchanged glances.

"She comes to keep her baby. She has symptoms of threatened abortion. Oh, I have to work now." The nurse left in a hurry.

Sally's face turned pale.

Ceres was pregnant too.

"She's pregnant! Things are getting complicated!" Sally sighed.

"Mom, what do you mean?" Mary was not worried.

"Silly girl. Ceres and you are pregnant. If she gives birth earlier than you, then it will be the eldest son's kid and the eldest grandson. If you give birth earlier, it's only the eldest grandson. They are different."

Sally sighed again. "My plan is ruined."

"Maybe she can't keep the baby!" Mary rolled her eyes.

It seemed that Mary was not worried about this at all.

"What did you say?" Sally immediately became serious. "Mary, she is your sister and my daughter. You can't hurt her."

"Mom, what did the nurse say? Ceres is here to keep the baby. Threatened abortion! If she can't keep it, she can't blame anyone else, right?"

"That's true. If she can't keep it, that will be great. But you can't hurt her!"

Sally repeated before they went home.

It was the Lantern Festival. After Mary confirmed that she was pregnant, Henry took her to the Winsor's.

Mary was from a wealthy family and knew how to please people from the rich family. She impressed Zara soon after she arrived.

Jack was happy that she looked dignified and elegant.

"Come with your father next time to talk about the wedding." Jack finally said.

Henry, Mary, and Zara were overjoyed.

"I won't intervene in your wedding. Arrange it by yourself." Jack continued.

"Alright," said Zara.

Johny was supposed to come back on the Lantern Festival, but he did not even show up when it was time for supper.

Jack asked, "Where is Johny?"

The company was on holiday today, so Johny didn't need to work.

Zara served Jack a bowl of soup. "Johny seemed to be very busy during the Spring Festival. He didn't even stay on the eve. That's weird."

"Really?" Jack did not know about this.

"That's not weird. He went to the Evian Town."

"Why?" Jack was more confused.

"Of course he was staying with Ceres!" Henry quickly replied.

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 110

/ One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Jack put on a long face.

Mary hurriedly explained, "Ceres told my mother that Johny doted on her and kept her company. So she wants to stay in Evian Town and she even didn't come back during the Spring Festival."

Jack's face turned gloomier.

Zara hurriedly said, "Alright. Let's not talk about this. Johny must be busy with something. I'll call and ask him later."

Mary and Henry exchanged glances.

Jack wouldn't let it go. After dinner, he called the old butler, Colin Wills, into the room.

Colin and Jack were about the same age.

“What is Johny busy with during the Spring Festival?”

Colin bent and replied, “I’m not too sure. I only know that Mr. Johny went to Evian Town on New Year’s Eve. But he rushed back before dawn and then returned to Evian Town again in the afternoon.”

Jack trusted Colin and knew that Colin would not lie to him.

It seemed that someone in Evian Town had hooked up with Johny. Could it really be that ugly woman?

Last time, Jack went to Evian Town to test Johny. Johny had pretended in front of him. But now, he knew that Johny chose to run back and forth during the Spring Festival. It could be seen how much Johny liked that woman.

“A siren.”

Jack’s eyes were like a deep pool that had existed for many years, deep and unfathomable.

“Master, at this age, it is normal for Mr. Johny to fall in love with a girl. He is not young anymore and is indeed at the marriage age.”

Colin had accompanied Johny for many years, so he spoke up for him.

Jack was silent for a moment, “He is indeed at the age where he should get married.”

But that woman was not worthy of him.

He would never allow his son to spend so much effort on a woman. Beauties were sources of trouble. A such a mistake.

However, since Johny protected that woman carefully, then he must not force Johny.

Ceres had been put on a finally stopped bleeding. Johny had been guarding Ceres all the time.

The doctor finally agreed to let Ceres be discharged.

“Mr. Winsor, although Mrs. Winsor is not bleeding now, you still can’t be careless. This is her first child, so you have to be extra careful. For the first three months, having sex must be forbidden.”

When it came to this topic, Ceres felt a little embarrassed.

They were probably the first couple who came to prevent miscarriage because of having sex.

menstrual period is not punctual, the implantation of fertilized eggs may be late. A week or ten days later, you can come here to check the fetal heart rate and embryo bud."

The doctor gave a lot of instructions, and Johnny took Ceres home.

After recuperating at home for a few days, school started.

Ceres and Alice had not seen each other for a whole holiday. The moment they met, they chatted endlessly. They also got along better with Lily. The three quietly told Alice about her pregnancy.

Alice was so surprised that she almost fell to the ground!

"Really?"

"Absolutely true," Ceres told Alice she had come to the hospital to prevent miscarriage.

Alice burst into laughter, "You are so funny. Aren't you embarrassed? Anyway, Ceres, it's a good thing to be pregnant."

She reached out her hand and touched Ceres's flat belly, "Can I be a godmother of the baby?"

"Of course you can."

Alice pursed her lips, "Forget it. Your baby has such powerful daddy and mommy. If I am his godmother, I may lose his face," she said.

Ceres understood what Alice meant. She poked Alice in the head, "What nonsense are you talking about? My baby's godmother will be an international superstar in the future!"

"I can't even find a signed company, not to mention the international superstar." Alice could not help but sigh, "Ceres, to tell you the truth, my mother found me a dance troupe in my hometown. She said that I could join it after graduation. Perhaps I should listen to my mother."

Alice reclined on the chair, unable to cheer up.

"Don't give up, Alice. Isn't there still some time before graduation?"

"I heard that the annual internal selection of Shiry Entertainment Group has begun. I originally thought that I could give it a try, but they told me that those who don't have a registration form can't enter. But where can I find a registration form? After asking around, I found out that some agents will send out registration forms only for those they have selected."

Ceres thought of something and then sent Bill a message.

That afternoon, Bill sent someone to bring Ceres a registration form. Ceres was happy and immediately gave it to Alice.

Alice looked at the registration form and rubbed her eyes several times. She still couldn't believe her eyes when she saw the official seal of Shiry Entertainment Group.

"This is true. Don't worry. Quickly fill out the form. Tomorrow is the last day. At four P. M., in room 808 of the Royal Hotel."

"How did you get this?" Alice held the form and still felt that it was a bit dreamy.

"Thanks for Johny, but he said that he can only do this. Whether you can sign with Shiry Entertainment Group, it all depends on your ability."

"It's good to have a registration form! I'm very satisfied! Besides, pulling strings is not that interesting!"

Alice took out a pen and began to fill in the form.

Ceres revealed a smile as she looked at Alice.

Ceres knew that Alice had a strong personality. If she wanted to pull some strings, she would just ask Ceres to let Johny do it. However, she did not mention a word about it. Therefore, Ceres thought that this was the best way to help her.

Ceres believed that Alice was competent enough to sign the contract.

The next day, Alice began to review her lessons from six in the morning. As she did not know what examinations Shiry Entertainment Group was going to take, she could only review some of the content that the teacher had taught in class.

After lunch, she dressed up and arrived at the Royal Hotel at four on time.

The entire eighth floor was filled with people from Shiry Entertainment Group. It was a very formal internal selection. After submitting the registration form, Alice waited quietly according to the process.

While she was waiting, Alice suddenly saw a familiar person.

It was the man who saved her that day!
