

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Chapter 126 I Want To Marry Her

Sally didn't expect that Ceres would cut off ties with her. She had thought that she was the only relative for Ceres.

Although they began to live together until Ceres was twelve years old, Sally could feel that Ceres cared about her. Otherwise, Ceres couldn't complain to her that she was unfair.

Ceres longed for maternal love, affection, and family.

Therefore, Sally hurt her again and again.

But this time, Ceres cut ties with her.

"Mom, don't be sad. Now she has Johny. So she doesn't care about you any more." Mary comforted her.

Sally calmed down and sat down by the bed. "Mary, my good daughter. I don't like her. From now on, I only have one daughter."

Mary nodded obediently.

Mary's eyes glinted with hatred as she was in Sally's arms.

Mary wanted to take revenge for her unfinished wedding and her unborn child. This was the first step!

Ceres had destroyed her wedding, the most glorious moment of her life. She was mocked by others. She would take revenge on Ceres.

Ceres, you were toast!

On the way back, Ceres found that her face was covered in tears. She had thought that she had been numb to Sally. But when she heard Sally wanted to cut off ties with her, she felt great heartache.

Her dad had been sent to prison. Now her mom abandoned her.

She didn't have a relative anymore.

Although Sally didn't care about her, Cerea still felt happy when she saw orphans in the orphanage. After all, she had a mother who could offer her residence and food.

But now she had nothing!

She was an orphan...

When she returned home, Ceres threw herself on the bed, and couldn't stop crying.

There was a battle in the chairman's office of the Winsor Group.

On the sofa, Jack leaned back and crossed his legs, looking at Johny.

Johny had established the Eagle Group in a few years, which had dominated the market of artificial intelligence. In the next few years, it would definitely become more powerful.

But Johny had done such things!

It was acceptable that Johny set up the Eagle Group. But Johny dared to challenge him publicly by bringing Ceres to the wedding and announcing her identity.

He would never allow such a woman to become the wife of Johny.

Jack felt strange about the red spot on her face. Although Ceres was beautiful, her background was too poor.

Even if she was in the Morrise family, she was still not qualified to be the wife of Johny. She couldn't marry Johny.

"What happened to her face?"

Johny placed a stack of files in front of Jack, which were about Ceres.

"She was bullied when she lived in the Morrison's. So she had to disguise her appearance. She is so smart that a professor of Imperial University called her a genius. She is also talented in artificial intelligence and now is working in the technology department of Eagle Group."

Johny said a lot of nice things about Ceres.

"So what?" Jack asked with a smile.

"I want to marry her." Johny was outspoken. It didn't sound like a discussion, but more like he had decided it.

However, Jack sneered, "Johny, I have taught you that women are dangerous. You will meet and have many outstanding and beautiful women in the future."

"I only want her." Johny provoked Jack again.

Jack was enraged. "Is it worth doing so many things for Ceres? No matter how beautiful she is, she is just a woman."

Johny was disgusted with his idea.

"So my mother is just a tool to give birth to your children."

"Shut up!" Jack scolded. Then he calmed down and took a deep breath. "You can let her stay with you, but she can't get pregnant. I will select a woman to be your wife, whom you will be satisfied with."

Jack made a concession.

This was the first time he made a concession to his sons.

"No, I want her to be my wife. I want to marry her and hold a grand wedding." Johny reiterated.

"You..."

Jack was very furious!

He was threatened by Johny!

However, he knew that Johny was powerful enough to negotiate with him. Johny was the president both of the Winsor Group and the Eagle Group.

Each clan could encounter a bottleneck after hundred of years. The Winsors also had such problem.

Although the problem had not emerged because of a few hundred years of foundation, Jack and Johny had recognized the significance of the Eagle Group.

Once they had the support of the Eagle Group, the Winsors could tackle their problems.

Therefore, Johny dared to negotiate with Jack.

If Jack didn't agree, Johny would refuse to cooperate with the Winsor Group. And the Eagle Group would never help it.

Jack felt unhappy to be threatened by his son.

"I hope you can think about it." Johny stood up.

Then he walked out of the office. It was a battle with his father, which had just begun. Johny would definitely let Ceres be his wife.

Jack threw the teacup to the ground with anger.

What a good son Johny was!

Henry was not mature enough and even made a lot of mistakes. Therefore, Johny was the only heir of the Winsor family.

Johny returned home. He felt the room was so quiet when he entered the villa. Sofia walked up to him and said, "Johny, have a look at Ceres. She seems to be upset. She doesn't have lunch and has been staying in the bedroom until now."
