

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Chapter 164 Reunion

Bill gave Bob a look and walked out of the private room.

He walked to the corridor and made a phone call. "Yes. Bring me someone nice and beautiful, and book a room at the hotel, and wait there."

After giving his instructions, Bill returned to the private room.

Johny ate and drank by himself. He got a little drunk. Bill said, "Johny, you drank too much. Let's go home!"

Bill and Bob helped Johny up. Bob was about to send Johny back to Villa Amio, but he received an urgent phone call from the company and had to leave Johny to Bill.

Bill helped Johny to the hotel.

"Johny, forget the past. You can always find women, especially those with long legs!"

"Show your ability later! Well, you must be energetic after taking the pill. After tonight, everything will be over," Bill said as he supported Johny.

Bill was proud of his intelligence.

Johny drank too much. He didn't know what Bill had said, and his mind was only filled with Ceres.

Bill took out a few Durex and stuffed them into Johny's pocket. "These should be enough for you. Remember to use them, or it will be troublesome to get her pregnant."

Bill finally found the hotel room he had arranged for Johny. A graceful woman was waiting at the door.

The wavy hair woman was in a sexy suspender red dress, bare feet. Bill observed her for a while and nodded. "Pretty good! Make him happy!"

"No problem, Mr. Jaden."

Johny only spied his familiar red color.

'Ceres's red color!'

'Ceres's favorite red color!'

Johny suddenly looked up at the woman. He pushed her to the corner and caressed her face with one hand. "Ceres?"

"Damn! Johny! Go into the room!" Bill was surprised, thinking that Johny hadn't touched a woman for a long time.

If he had known that Johny was horny, he would have done this long ago!

Ceres came out of the room next door. She did not expect that Nyla was so heavy. She was so tired after pulling Nyla over.

Ceres rubbed her shoulders as she walked.

Bill was completely stunned the moment he saw Ceres!

"Ceres!" Bill couldn't believe that!

Ceres appeared! Bill had always thought that Ceres was dead, so did Bob.

After all, they had searched for so long but find nothing. Moreover, they knew that Ceres might die being controlled by Jack.

But he didn't expect her to appear just like this!

Ceres had never thought that her reunion with Johny would be like this!

Johny reeked of alcohol with blurred eyes. He stroked the cheek of that sexy girl with one hand. Ceres couldn't be more familiar with that scene. He used to touch her cheek and caress her cheekbones.

However, he was doing the same thing to another woman. Ceres felt disgusted!

They were flirty with bodies closed to each other. 'How horny are they? They can't wait to enter the room?'

"Darling, let's go into the room? People are watching here. How embarrassing!" That pretty girl wrapped her arms around Johny's neck. She knew that her sexy appearance had attracted Johny.

That was Johny!

The most powerful man in Imperial City!

Being able to sleep with him for a night was a blessing, and she could not wait.

"Well, you may leave!" Bill was still tactful, immediately pulling away the young girl.

Johny slowly turned around and suddenly saw Ceres. He thought he was hallucinating.

He stumbled towards Ceres, who looked at him and could not move.

Ceres did not expect that many years later, she would still be attracted by Johny's delicate face.

She couldn't control it!

"Ceres? You're back..." Johny pushed Ceres against the wall all of a sudden, with his hand caressing her cheek.

The person he missed day and night finally appeared.

Many times, he felt that maybe she was gone as people said, but he was so stubborn.

Even if she died, he wanted to see her body.

Now she finally appeared.

Johny couldn't tell if it was an illusion or reality.

"Ceres, I've been looking for you so hard. Ceres, where have you been? Tell me! Why haven't you come to me for so long?" Johny muttered to himself.

Ceres looked at Johny coldly, "Please behave yourself!"

Johny frowned and looked at Ceres. "Ceres..."

"Ceres, it's me. I'm Johny. Don't you remember me?" Johny was pushed away.

Ceres turned around and left. She did not want to be entangled with him!

"Where are you going? I won't let you go!" Johny followed.

Ceres flung Johny's hand away and slapped him!

The slap echoed in the empty corridor, crisp and clear.

Bill was surprised speechless.

Johny was slapped and his body tilted. Something fell out of his pocket.

Ceres subconsciously looked over. It was a series of condoms!

She took a deep breath.

"Disgusting!"

With that, she strode away!

Bill immediately supported Johny, who was badly drunk. Bill had to bring him into the hotel room and send the woman away.

Johny fell asleep the moment he entered the room.

He slept very uneasily that night.

Johny woke up and found that he was in the hotel. His head was splitting.
