

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Chapter 242 Get Married Next Month

At that moment, she saw that Johny was happy like a child.

Ceres looked at Johny. She thought she should not know this man, but she felt she was familiar with him.

She wondered where that feeling of familiarity came from.

Swedum also came to the hospital when he knew that Johny was injured. Of course, Johny had told Swedum about Ceres's promise to marry him.

When Ceres was in the ward, she suddenly heard a tender voice.

"Mommy!"

She was stunned and subconsciously turned around, seeing Swedum running towards her with open arms.

"Mommy!"

'This child...'

Swedum pounced into Ceres' arms. Johny found that her countenance was not good. He thought, 'Could it be that Swedum's call that was very normal could also arouse her memories?'

"Mommy, what's wrong?" Swedum rubbed against Ceres' face.

"Elian, just call me sister," Ceres felt strange the way she was addressed.

She felt both familiar and unfamiliar about that, making her very uncomfortable.

"Why? Didn't you promise to marry my daddy? Then you are my mommy!" Swedum blinked his eyes.

Swedum thought, 'Daddy is really amazing. He gets mommy back so quickly. That is really my daddy!'

Johny coughed lightly, "My wound is a little itchy. Dear, help me call a doctor to come over and see."

"Your wound is itchy? Okay, I'll go right away!" Ceres touched Swedum's head, "Elian, wait here for a while. I'll be back soon."

As she said, she walked out of the ward.

"What's wrong, daddy? Did I do something wrong?" said Swedum, who also noticed that Johny seemed to have intentionally sent Mommy away.

"No, Swedum. You know that mommy has been hypnotized, right? We can't arouse her memories. You have called her mommy countless times since you were a child. She must remember it subconsciously, so you can't call her mommy from now on."

Johny said to his son very seriously.

"Then what should I call her?" Swedum lowered her eyes.

'She is my mummy. Why should I be careful even when calling her?'

Johny naturally knew the bitterness in his son's heart. He had tasted this kind of feeling more than his son. He could understand his son's feelings, but he had no choice.

"Swedum, can you call her mom from now on? You are a good boy. You also want mommy to come back to us earlier, right?"

Swedum nodded. When he raised his head, he still seemed unhappy.

"Daddy, if you and mommy get married, should we pretend that we know nothing about the past?"

Johny couldn't deny it.

At the very least, this was what he was planning now.

But if he told Swedum, he was worried that Swedum couldn't accept it. After all, Swedum was only a little over three years old.

"We have to do step by step. Maybe one day, mommy will suddenly remember us, and it will not cause confusion in her mind. But before that, we still have to maintain the current situation and not arouse her memories. Do you understand?"

Swedum nodded sensibly.

Ceres quickly called the doctor over. The doctor checked Johny's wound and said that the inflammation was subsiding and it was normal to have some itchiness.

Swedum was standing around Ceres and changed his way of addressing immediately, "Mom, when will you and daddy get married?"

"Why aren't you calling me mommy anymore?" Ceres was a little surprised that Swedum had suddenly changed his tone.

"Daddy said that 'mommy' doesn't sound good. He was afraid that you wouldn't like it, so he asked me to call you 'mom.' I also felt that 'mom' was very good, so I changed!"

Ceres looked at Johny.

Johny, on the other hand, didn't seem to care at all, "Anyway, when he grows up, he has to change it sooner or later."

Ceres did not care too much about it.

"Mom, tell me quickly. When are you going to get married?"

"It might take some time," Ceres replied awkwardly.

"Why do you need some time? No time like the present, how about getting married tomorrow?" Johny hurriedly said.

"You want to be the groom with a limp?"

Johny immediately changed his words, "Then next month! My leg will be fine soon! Anyway, I don't care. And another leg is fine! It won't delay the wedding night."

Ceres shot daggers at Johny, 'How could you say such things in front of a child?'

Johny immediately turned to look at Swedum, "Daddy is talking about this leg."

"I see," Swedum hurriedly nodded.

"Did you hear that? I'll immediately ask someone to prepare. We'll get married next month!" Johny said as if giving an order, and he immediately picked up his phone and dialed Bob's number. "Bob, I'm going to get married next month. You get ready first."

"Hey, don't be that anxious!"

Johny hung up the phone and said to her, "I want."

Swedum was snickering aside.

Ceres didn't want to argue with Johny anymore.

After a while, it was time to have meals. Ceres prepared the tableware for Swedum and let him eat at the small table. Since Johny could not get out of bed, he could only eat on the table that was put on the bed.

When Ceres was about to eat, Johny suddenly coughed a few times.

"Do you want a patient to eat on his own?" Johny looked at Ceres with a serious expression, "I couldn't move on the bed because I wanted to save you. I was soaking in the water that day and don't have much strength now."

Ceres immediately picked up his bowl, scooped a spoonful of rice, and sent it into his mouth.

Johny happily had his meal. He enjoyed the feeling of being served by Ceres.

Looking at the two people, Swedum pursed his lips. "Daddy, you seem to have injured your leg, not your hands!"

Johny shot daggers at Swedum, "Shut up! Have your own meal!"

"How can I eat if I shut up!" Swedum suddenly felt that his mommy had been snatched away by his daddy.

'In the past, mommy would only feed me. Daddy was already an adult, yet he still wanted mommy to feed him.

'He goes too far!'

Ceres also felt that this was not appropriate. She handed the bowl and spoon to Johny and said, "Eat it yourself!"

"Hey, you can't stop it halfway, right?"

"I need to go to the toilet!" Ceres said and walked out.

"There is a toilet in this room. Where are you going?"

Ceres ignored what Johny was saying. She walked out of the ward and stretched.

'I'm going to get married to Johny.

'It's like a dream!

'What is a wedding like?'

She seemed to start to look forward to it as well.
