

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Chapter 270 Try on the Wedding Dress

At the Imperial City Airport.

A graceful woman walked out from the exit, followed by a delicate-looking man.

The man seemed curious about everything and kept looking back and forth.

The woman took off her sunglasses and exposed her beautiful face.

She, Mary, was finally back.

However, her name was no longer Mary but was Jamie.

She was pure and gorgeous like jasmine.

Caleb gave her such a name when he saw her the first time.

Jamie was already the heir of the Bullock family in Country M. Caleb loved her very much. As soon as she returned to the Bullock family, Caleb presented her with many industries. He even made her the vice president of the Bullock Group.

Many people said that Jamie was an overnight princess.

"Jamie, the Imperial City is so prosperous. It's no worse than the capital of Country M, Townley City!"

The delicate-looking boy ran over, pulled Jamie, and said, looking excited.

Jamie put on her sunglasses again. "You'll have fun here. Let's go home first."

"Alright."

The boy's name was Jakob Nevill. He was the son of Caleb's younger sister. He was also the only one who had a relationship with Caleb apart from his daughter.

Jamie did not like him, but Jakob had just met his cousin and was very excited. He always pestered Jamie and asked her all sorts of questions. Jamie said she wanted to return to the Imperial City, so he followed her.

As she sat in the car, she saw familiar scenery outside the window. This place had not changed at all, but she had changed.

Her heart was riddled with holes.

However, she always remembered who had given her such a broken heart, so she returned to take revenge.

She couldn't bear it.

She needed revenge!

"Jamie, I heard from my uncle that you did not live well in Imperial City and often got bullied. Now that you have an uncle to support you, do you want to bully those people back?"

Jakob patted Jamie on the shoulder.

Jamie smiled calmly. "Jakob, that's all in the past. I don't want to mention it anymore."

Jakob was a little surprised. "Are you going to let go of those guys?"

"Forget it. I am grateful that I have started a new life and found my father. It may be a gift to me, so everything in the past is written off."

Jakob looked at his cousin and admired her. "You have such a good temper. No wonder my uncle loves you so much."

"Jakob, I want to keep a low profile this time, so I hope you don't mention my name when you play outside, okay? Dad gave me a task. We'll leave after I finish it."

"Can't we stay longer? It wasn't easy for me to come out." Jakob held Jamie's arm.

Jamie was disgusted, but she had to deal with him.

"I will try my best to let you stay for a few more days."

"Good! You're the best!"

Jamie turned her head to the window.

They stayed in the Royal Hotel. Jamie did not want to stay here because it belonged to the Winsor family. She was worried that someone would remember her. She had once come to the Royal Hotel as Mrs. Winsor.

But she had no choice. If she did not live here, she would be suspected.

Caleb was nice to her, even making Jamie feel that it was a little too much. He booked the hotel for her.

As soon as they entered the hotel, Caleb called for a video call. Jamie responded with a few words and went to bed.

Jakob was tired from taking the plane and fell asleep.

However, Jamie didn't want to waste a second. Her time was limited, so she had to hurry up.

At a wedding dress store.

The day of Ceres and Johny's wedding was coming. The wedding dress store told Ceres that her wedding dress was ready. She had to come over to try it on.

Ceres was excited. It was the first time she had worn a wedding dress. However, the wedding was a bit rushed. She and Johny did not even take the wedding photos.

After all, they were just photos and could be taken at any time.

On the way, Ceres received a call from Swedum, who was in the Winsor's.

"Mommy, what are you doing?"

"I going to try the wedding dress. What's wrong?"

"Wedding dress? I want to see it too. Mommy, wait for me!"

"Okay, I'll wait for you. I'll send you the location. You can ask Grandpa's driver to send you over."

"Alright!"

Ceres hung up the phone. She went to the store and waited for Swedum. In the end, she found two children coming out of the car.

Swedum held Dahlia's hand.

"This is..."

"I'm sorry, Mommy. I brought Dahlia here without telling you. Dahlia is pitiful. She hasn't come out since she came here, so I secretly..."

Dahlia looked down at her feet.

Ceres squatted down. "Swedum, I don't blame you for bringing Dahlia out, but you have to tell Grandpa. If you secretly take her out like this, they will be anxious and search for her."

"I'm sorry." Swedum lowered his head.

"Alright, I'll settle it for you this time. I'll call the family and say that I bring Dahlia out to play for a while, okay?"

Swedum and Dahlia looked at each other and smiled. "I told you that my mommy is the best mommy in the world!"

Ceres called the Winsor family and told them that Dahlia was here.

Then, Ceres entered the dressing room to try out the wedding dress.

The sound of high heels came down from upstairs. "Miss Jamie, we promise that we will complete your gowns in time."

Jamie wore sunglasses and looked indifferent.

This wedding dress shop offered custom-made dresses. Jamie came to order some evening gowns. She had some occasions to attend, so these dresses were indispensable.

Suddenly, two children ran over, and a little girl bumped into her.

"What are you doing!"

"Sorry, she didn't do it on purpose." Swedum ran over to help Dahlia up.

Dahlia was somewhat frightened.

Jamie saw that the boy looked familiar. When she looked at the girl, she was instantly dumbfounded!
