

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Chapter 301 She Loses Her Memory

"Wait! How did my dad die? Tell me!" Ceres shouted.

But Sally had run away.

Sally seemed to be very scared as if she had seen a ghost.

What had happened?

Ceres smashed his head. She wondered, 'If my dad died in prison, someone would inform me of his death.

'How did he die?'

Some memories suddenly flashed through her mind. But it was so vague that she couldn't tell whether it was reality or fantasy.

She suddenly realized that she didn't feel heartbroken when she heard that George had died.

Just like the last time she had sex with Johny, her reaction was as if she had already experienced it before.

She felt strange why she didn't feel very sad.

It might be because she had experienced George's death before. Then it meant that she lost the memory of Johny and her father's death at the same time.

Therefore, his father's death might be related to Johny.

Ceres suddenly shuddered with fear. Why?

Johny had never told her about her past, nor did he allow others to tell her. Johny always said that they would start over again. Was it because her father's death was related to him?

But how could he be related to her father's death?

Ceres had a headache.

Sally ran to her room and sat down in shock. At her age, she probably started to become superstitious.

When Jamie came in, Sally was still sweating with fear.

"What happened? Did Ceres say something serious?" Jamie looked at her.

Sally grabbed her hands.

Sally said, "Ceres was possessed by a ghost."

She stared at Jamie with wide eyes, which frightened Jamie. Jamie shook off her hands and said, "Nonsense. There are no ghosts in this world."

"Ceres must have been possessed by a ghost. Otherwise, it would be too strange." Sally said.

"What happened? Did you ask her to leave here? What did she say?"

Jamie looked at Sally tentatively.

"George must have figured out something. So he possessed his daughter's body and took revenge on me."

Sally had taken away what belonged to Ceres and helped Mary become Caleb's daughter. Ceres mentioned George just now. However, George was dead and he treated Ceres so well. Therefore Sally wondered if George would come back to take revenge on her.

"Mom!" Jamie grabbed Sally's shoulder.

Sally's body was shivering.

"There are no ghosts in the world. What's more, it's daytime!"

Jamie's roar calmed her down.

"What did she say?" Jamie asked.

"She asked me how her father was. And I told her that her father was dead. She looked at me with shock and asked me how her father died."

Sally felt a chill down her spine when she thought about it.

Jamie knew that George had died. Because of this, Ceres and Johny even had a terrible quarrel. Jamie also incited them into the quarrel.

Jamie couldn't understand why Ceres said those words.

"Jamie, could it be that George returned? He intended to take revenge on me. I took away what belonged to Ceres!"

"Mom, calm down! Don't scare yourself!"

Jamie hugged Sally. Sally leaned into Jamie's arms and said, "A person can't do bad things. If he does bad things, he will be guilty. Sooner or later, he will get his retribution."

"Don't talk nonsense! There are no ghosts in this world!"

Jamie said, "There must be some reason behind this. Maybe Ceres just wanted to scare you."

"To scare me?" Sally thought about it. It seemed to be possible. However, she suddenly felt strange. She said, "But she seemed to be very shocked."

"Are you sure?" Jamie glanced at Sally contemptuously. "Mom, there is another possibility. She may have lost her memory."

"She lost her memory?" Sally asked.

"She forgot that her father was dead," Jamie said.

Sally pondered over her words. Jamie became more sure that her thought was right. Because when they met Ceres, they felt that Ceres seemed to be a little different from before.

"Ceres must have lost her memories and forgotten many things. If she knew what I had done to her, how could she treat me as before? What's more, Ceres had known that she was not George's daughter.

"And you told her that you have never seen her father. So when I become the daughter of Caleb, she should suspect that Caleb is her father." Jamie said.

Sally patted her head and said, "Yes, that's right."

Ceres was clever and must have thought of it. And she would manage to figure it out. However, Ceres only suspected that Jamie was not Caleb's daughter. She didn't realize that Caleb might be her father.

"She might have forgotten many things. She still thought that George was her father and he was in jail." Jamie said.

Sally finally calmed down.

Sally felt relaxed.

Jamie felt very happy. If Ceres really lost her memories, it would be a good opportunity for her.

At the same time, Johny had arrived in Country M.

When Johny was working in the Winsor Group, he had come here for business affairs many times.

The climate in Country M was very pleasant. And its customs were very similar to Country A. Therefore, it was easy for Johny to get accustomed to this place.

There had been a house prepared for Johny in advance. So they went directly to the house.

Johny didn't bring many people with him for the sake of keeping a low profile.

"Mr. Johny, take a break. This plane has been delayed for a few hours. It's so tiring." Nick said.

Nick used to be Ceres's assistant. Later, Johny arranged for him to work in the Eagle Group.

"Let's go to the Bullock's," Johny said.

Nick looked at Johny in shock. "Are we going ... now? It might be too..."

It was too direct.

Johny smiled and didn't say anything.