

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Chapter 315 Her Suspicion

"Go home!" Ceres blurted out in annoyance.

"Home? It looks like you are not tired at all."

Ceres was like a deflated ball. She realized what Johny meant and immediately fell into his arms. "I'm tired. I'm very tired. I can't move."

She wanted to show off her might, but now, she seemed like an obedient cat.

Johny smiled and threw his phone aside. "I'll accompany you."

Ceres was in Johny's arms. She caressed his cheeks and chin with her fingers.

He was such a handsome man. Even though Ceres thought she wasn't a love-struck fool, she was still mesmerized by him.

But when she thought of the red spots on her face, the smile on her face disappeared.

"Johny, there is something I want to tell you."

"What's the matter?"

"I lied to you. I didn't make the red spots on my face myself. It was made by Jamie. She knew that the red spots on my face would disappear sometimes. She mixed something else in the potion, and the red spots on my face could not be removed."

Ceres originally did not intend to say it. She thought that maybe Matt would bring the antidote back.

However, she could not deceive him. If there were no antidote, her face would be like this for the rest of her life.

"I know."

"You know? How did you know?" Ceres jumped in surprise.

"The color of your red spot is similar to the previous one, but this time, the color is slightly deeper. In addition, you looked evasive when you speak to me. I am certain."

It turned out that it was also under his control.

"Then why didn't you ask?" Ceres looked at Johny in astonishment.

Ceres thought, 'His beautiful wife is in such misery. Why didn't he ask?

What if I could not recover my appearance?

Was he not afraid?'

"Why should I ask?"

Johny's question made Ceres a little upset.

"Don't you mind? Your wife is so ugly now. How can I go out to meet people? It's so embarrassing to bring me out! And don't you feel disgusted looking at me?"

Looking at Ceres's vexed expression, Johny laughed instead.

"Don't laugh! I am very serious! I am very serious now!" Ceres glared at Johny.

"I don't think there's anything to ask, because when I first met you, you were like this, and I didn't know that the red spots on your face could fade."

"Are you saying that I was like this when we first met?" Ceres stared at Johny with wide eyes.

Johny realized that he could not continue, so he simply hugged Ceres in his arms. "Alright, forget it. It's enough that you know that I won't dislike you."

"Jamie lied to me again!" Ceres knew that she had been fooled again by her own cleverness. She knew Jamie and forgot that Jamie also knew her.

"I knew it was her, but I don't blame her for this."

"If you don't blame her, who should you blame?" Ceres glared at Johny.

"Blame you," Johny also became serious, "Blame your suspicion and distrust of me."

Ceres opened her mouth but did not say a word. She knew he was right.

"You can't blame me for this. I don't know what I was like in the past. I don't understand the feelings between us. It's normal for me to be suspicious of you."

"That's why I'm not going to punish you this time. I'll spare you."

Johny scratched Ceres's nose.

Ceres snorted and picked up her clothes as usual. Johny directly took the clothes from her.

"Why are we still leaving?"

"I have to go back. I have something important to do." Ceres looked at Johny and bit her lips. "I have a bold guess."

Johny tilted his head.

"Caleb is very likely to be my biological father."

Johny furrowed his brows.

In the beginning, he had also had such a guess. After all, he had not found Ceres's father yet. However, he gave up on this idea. With Caleb's identity, he must have done many investigations and conducted a DNA test.

Plus, Sally had cheated once in the marriage, so it was not surprising that she had cheated twice.

"Do you remember that before we got married, I was kidnapped once and nothing happened? I came back on my own."

"I remember." Johny also had a lingering fear about that incident. He was also investigating it, but unfortunately, the clues were too few to be investigated.

When I came back, I was dizzy, and you took me to the hospital. I was too sleepy at that time and was in a daze. At that time, the nurse was ready to draw off blood for me. Later, she asked me to change my arm and said that this hand had drawn off blood once.

I was really sleepy at that time and didn't care about it. Later, I forgot about it."

"You mean, Jamie kidnapped you and draw off your blood to do a DNA test?"

Johny was shocked.

"It is possible. But because I felt dizzy, I do not know if it is my illusion. When I was in the Bullock family, my mother kept asking me to leave immediately, saying that Jamie might kill me. Jamie seemed to be very afraid that I would stay in the Bullock family.

That's why I think she's afraid that I'll find out."

Ceres increasingly suspected that she was Caleb's biological daughter.

"In that case, my guess at the beginning was correct."

"So you had suspected it long ago."

Ceres pouted her lips.

"Anyway, I must go back and figure it out. If Caleb were just an ordinary rich person, it would be fine to give my identity to Jamie. At most, she would not have to worry about subsistence in her next life. However, Caleb is not an ordinary rich person. I only found out when I went to the Bullock family. He donated several hundred million to charity every year.

The Bullock Group carried the dreams and lives of many people. If it fell into the hands of Jamie, with her personality, she would ruin everything."

Johny sighed, "It's too dangerous. If it's true, she must really want to kill you. Only by killing you can she be free of worries and be the only daughter of the Bullock family.

Maybe she will take the risk."

"Don't worry. I'm not that stupid. Moreover, Caleb can see everything. She doesn't dare to act rashly. Besides, if Roy knows about this, he will definitely help me."

"Roy? You seem to have a good relationship with him." Johny frowned.
