

Chapter 102

Star

As I enter the cell, Trent is just finishing his food. He drops the bread in his hand and bares his neck, "please Trent, finish your food, I have come to talk to you, before you can go and rest for a while with mother."

He looked up at me and I smiled, "did mother speak to you, my queen? Did she tell you what I wanted to do?" I nodded and sat across from him. Ace linked me.

"We are just outside the door, princess, we will be there in seconds if you need us." I look behind me and smirked, "I will be fine, my prince. Trent will not hurt me."

"Okay Trent, thank you for helping us apprehend Jax Miller. I know it was a hard decision to betray your other half. Can you tell me everything you know about Jax and Barton?"

He gives me a sad smile, "There was no choice, my queen. My human is weak and greedy, and his brother is consumed with the same madness that their father had. I only wish I had the courage to do this earlier, but I have been subdued for so long, I could only complete this mission with mother's help."

Saffron is clawing at my head, wanting to push forward, "Trent, before we start my wolf would like to talk to you, would that be, okay?"

His eyes widened in shock, but he nodded his head. I allowed Saffy to push forward and sit back and listen.

"Hello my darling, I know mother did not tell you who I am, so I wanted to talk to you, it has been a long time since we have spoken."

He stares at us, tears fill his eyes, "mama? is that you?" Saffron pushes us to our feet and walks towards him, pulling his head into our stomach.

"Yes, my beautiful boy, it is me. I have missed you and your siblings so much. Mother and Star have allowed you to pair with one of our twins, so you and I will be together in your next life."

She places his hand on our stomach, "You will be loved, my gorgeous pup, you will have me and Star, but also your fathers, Ace, Alexei and Ashton and their wonderful wolves, Maximus, Storm and Hunter, as well as your twin brother or sister, we will all love and protect you."

We followed his gaze to our mates, his face hopeful but cautious. Lex walks into the room, "She is right, Trent, you will be a special part of our family, and we will always protect you."

Ace and Ash nodded in agreement. Tears are running down his face now, "Thank you all so much. I never expected this, I thought I would have to begin again as an Omega, which I would deserve."

Saffy kisses his head before giving me back control. I retake my seat and Lex returns to the outside of the cell. He winks at me as he passes.

I smirked at Trent, "are you ready sweetie?" the joy radiating out of him filled me with hope, "I am ready, my queen."

He settled himself, "I suppose the best information I have is Bartons location. He has a villa on the Island of Antipaxos. It is the Island next to Paxos. The villa is located on the headland closest to Paxos, near Paralia Vrika beach."

I can see my mates already bringing up Google maps on their phones. "That's great Trent, do you know what forces he has? And are they all rogues or does he have any more elementals working for him?"

"He has many rogues, at least 300 the last time Jax saw him, I know that he did have another three elementals, a wind, an electrical and a night wolf."

I nodded, Trent went over all the things we knew about already, but he did give us all the names of the packs and Alphas that brought potions from them, as well as the heat potion. They were also selling fake mate bond potions, and a shimmer potion to make them look like anyone they wanted, they just needed to add some hair of the person they wanted to imitate to the potion, fucking assholes.

After he has finished telling his story, he smiles, "I am ready to go now. You should chain me up before I go, he will be very angry about this."

My three mates walk into the cell, they embrace him in turn. When it's my turn, I hugged him tight, "We will see you in 18 years my son. Enjoy your peace."

He hugs me back and whispers, "goodbye mama, I will see you soon." my mates carefully sit him on the cot against the wall, and cuff his wrists and ankles with silver chains.

He flinches as the silver burns his skin. Ace cups his cheek, "I am so sorry we have to do this, Trent."

Smiling, he grins at Ace, "it's okay papa, mother will heal me when I get to her garden. Now, step back all of you, I don't want him to hurt you."

I give him a kiss on his head, "see you soon little wolf, we will be here waiting." I step back into Ashton's arms as Trent closes his eyes, a calming wind rushes through the cell and Trent is gone.

Jax screams and pulls at the chains, trying to break free. I smirked at him, "Aiden? Have at it dude, we don't need any more information, so have fun."

I walked out of the cell. As I passed Aiden he nodded his thanks, an evil glint in his eye. Jax's screams of agony followed us as we left the prison.

We walked in silence until we reached our suite. One of the boys must have linked everyone because our lounge is overflowing with people.

Amanda is already in the kitchen getting refreshments. I help her carry everything in and then once everyone is settled, Ace takes the floor and tells them everything that has happened in the last couple of hours.

Cam gets to his feet, "so we are finally going to Greece then, time for sun, sand, and ass kicking." everyone laughs, but Ace calls for attention, "I am not happy about Star going at the moment, not while she is pregnant."

I wrapped my arms around him, "I have to do this baby, Saffy will protect the pups, this is my destiny. We need to talk to the elementals, and see if they are up for some revenge."

He was going to argue when Ash cuts him off, "she is right bro, we need to trust in our Luna, she is stronger than the three of us combined, it's time to let her lead us."

Lex smirks, "took the words out of my mouth little bro. Luna, I will need a week to train the elementals to fight, and you will need time to help them with their powers. They have all done well so far, and have really stepped up in training."

I nodded at him, "Okay, so we leave in a week. Max, can you organize a meeting with the girls, Amanda and Mamo. We will need child care for any of the women that want to go, Lex, organize your warriors, decide who is going and who is staying, Ace, Ash and Andrew, reach out to our allies, see if they will join us in shutting this asshole down for good. Kurtis, Jonah, Soph and Nat, you will be staying here with papa Duncan and uncle Harris to keep our people safe, Dad and Cam, grab your friends and reach out to the Howling Moon on Paxos, fill him in on what's happening. Everyone else, join a group and let's get ready."

I look around the room, and see the pride they all have in me, they all stand and shout. ". Yes, Luna." Then they all rush out to complete the tasks I have set them.

My mates all stay behind and as soon as the door to the suite closes, I am lifted and sandwiched between them. Ace sucks on my neck, whispering "Fuck Tink, you are so fucking sexy when you take charge, my dick is so fucking hard right now."

I moan as my dress is lifted over my head and Lex takes a nipple into his mouth, "Guys, we have so much to do, and I need to go meet the girls."

Ash bites my shoulder, "I linked Max and dad and told them you needed a rest before any meetings. They know what to do, so we have a couple of hours to kill."

Lex wraps my legs around his waist and stalks to the bedroom and throws me on the bed, I bounce as I hit the mattress, my husband's stand around the bed and strip off their clothes. All three stroke their cocks as they climb on the bed.

I lick my lips, I guess everything could wait for a couple of hours, right?
