

Chapter 108

Star

The atmosphere at breakfast this morning was full of hope. We have returned our fallen to their homes and will hold their funerals in a few days when we return. Andrew, Ace, Blair and Suzie have returned with them, so they can speak to the families.

They will all return later this morning, before we head to my mother's Pack.

I looked around and smiled as my eyes locked with Jess's. The meeting we had last night, though sad, leaves me with a feeling of joy, I fully understand how Jess feels, and although I will miss the three of them, we have made a pact to visit at least once a year each, and they have promised to wait until after Max's birthday on the 12th.

Jess has asked us to be Starlight's godparents, making our bond even stronger.

They were not the only meeting we had last night. Hayley will be staying here with Leander, they will be returning with us for a few days, to pack and collect Lily.

And Stella will be heading to Rising Moon in Scotland, to be with Callum. All three of my gorgeous girls have completed their mating with their wonderful men. I guess their time with Barton yesterday has allowed them to move on and grab happiness.

A quick indrawn breath beside me draws my attention to my warrior. I rubbed his back, "Okay, baby? Are you in pain?" he sighs dramatically,

"a little, but the doc said that having my cock sucked will speed up the healing, so if you want to tend to my needs...."

The sound of Suzie choking from across the table cuts him off.

Blair pats her back, as she narrows her eyes at Lex, "I can't believe you said that at the breakfast table, people are trying to eat, they don't want to hear about your penis."

Lex grinned at her, "there was a time when you used to beg Star to talk about our dicks, Blair, you need to work on your technique dude, you are turning Suzie into a prude, and a cock block."

Suzie put her finger up at him, and the whole table rolled with laughter. There were still giggles as we left the table.

I take Lex back to our room so he can rest before we go to Spirit Moon, and because I do like his dick, I push him on the bed and pull his sweat pants down.

He smirks down at me, while I stroke his cock until he groans, I lick my lips as pre-cum seeps out of the slit in the head of his dick, "Please baby, don't tease me," his groaning plea makes me grin.

Lowering my head I lick his tip, "Mmmm, you taste so good baby," I can't wait anymore and I take him all the way in to the base of his cock, his hips jump, and he growls in pleasure.

I bob my head, setting a fast rhythm, licking the underside with each bob. I hollow my cheeks as I pull off. before long, his hand is tangled in my hair and he is thrusting up into my mouth.

"Fuck, baby I'm gonna cum, aahhh, fffuuucckk." his seed shoots to the back of my throat in ribbons, he holds my head still as he thrusts into my mouth, milking every last drop of cum.

I looked up at him, a huge smirk on my face, "feeling better baby?" He nodded his head, panting. I crawled up his body and kiss him long and deep, before snuggling into his side and drifting off to sleep.

Ash wakes me with a kiss, "wake up sleeping beauty, Ace is on his way back, you have time for a cup of tea and a quick shower, then we are leaving."

Sitting up, I lean into him, kissing his neck, "mmwhamtmmeisitmm?" He chuckles at my attempt to speak, but showing just how well my gorgeous caring mate knows me, he answers with, "its 11:30 angel."

After waking up and jumping in the shower, we headed out to meet everyone just as the clock chimed 12:00. I walked into Ace's arms. He looked completely devastated. I know he would struggle with telling pack members that their loved ones were not coming home.

Picking me up and wrapping my legs around his waist, he buries his face in my neck, "fuck I needed this, that was so fucking hard love." I stroke his hair as he clings to me, we stand like this for what seems like hours, but it is only about ten minutes,

Lex and Ash join our hug, all of us giving strength to the eldest Alpha. Andrew calls for everyone to move out and Ace puts me down and grips my hand.

Hellios and Dad took the lead, as we walked the four miles to Spirit Moon. All of my girls walked with us, excited to see the home of the elementals.

Max and Suzie caught up to me, "how are you feeling honey, it feels like we have been waiting forever to get here?" I linked my arms with my two best friends.

"I don't know. Excited, nervous, sick, giddy. You name it and I am feeling it."

When we are about half way there, I started to feel like my skin was buzzing. It seemed to get stronger with every step I took, I was so lost in the feeling, that Max shook me to snap me out of it.

I looked around and saw that everyone had stopped about a hundred yards behind me. Anne-Marie walked towards me, "You feel it too? it's like I am being called forward."

I nod, "my skin is buzzing, like there is electricity surrounding me. I think it's the pack."

She smiles, "I feel the call of a sister witch, it feels like there is someone still alive in there, so I thought it wouldn't hurt if we cast a translation spell on everyone. Thalia did not know any English at the beginning."

It's a good idea, "sounds good, let's do it."

The coven spreads out around us, chanting as they walk around the group. I feel a tingling in my ears. When they stopped, I looked at Leander.

He smiles and starts to talk, "Boreíte na me katalávete? (can you understand me)" I giggle, "Yes Leander, I can understand you."

With that sorted, we returned to our journey. The buzzing returns, building in intensity. A voice called out to me, "You are here at last. Come to us, my child. We mean you no harm."

I turned to Anne-Marie, "did you hear that?" She tilted her head, listening, "I hear a murmur, but the voice is not for me, it means no harm though."

I continued forward, Saffy stood up in my head, "We are here, Star. Tell everyone to stay back. We must do this alone." I hold up my hands to stop everyone, "I need to continue alone for now, wait here."

My mates shook their heads, Lex stepped towards me, "are you sure baby, this place feels wrong." I smiled, "it's okay love, that feeling is to stop people getting too close, I don't feel like that, I am supposed to be here."

They sighed in resignation, and stepped away from me. I walked towards the pack, until I felt the barrier in front of me. I placed my hands out in front of me and felt the invisible wall.

"Just let your power out, the barrier will recognize you, only you have the power to set us free."

Great no pressure then, closing my eyes, I push all my powers out at once, the barrier absorbs it all, and a rainbow of colors explodes outwards from my hands, I feel the barrier fall.

I felt a presence in front of me and a woman of Mamo's age walked towards me. Her face is lit with a beaming smile. "Hello my granddaughter, it is so good to finally meet you. I am Thalia's stepmother, Naomi."

I hear a gasp from behind me, Anne-Marie has her head bowed in respect, "Blessed be, mother Naomi." Naomi bows back to her.

My mates came to stand beside me. Naomi looked them over, then met my eyes, "Three? Well, aren't you a lucky girl?" I smirked. she motioned for us to follow her, "Come, everyone is excited about meeting you all, we have not seen any new faces in over 18 years, so excuse their stares."

She leads us through the trees, and then the pack comes into view. I can't stop the gasp of wonder escaping my lips. I had been expecting ruins and bodies, but the pack was beautiful white-walled villas on either side of us, and a beautiful courtyard ahead.

But the most astounding thing is the people. They are everywhere. They are watching us with smiles on their faces, bowing as we pass.

I hear Hellios call out, "Dimitris? Is that you? my old friend." he ran to a man to our left, and they embraced, both crying openly. Naomi laughs joyfully.

Pups ran around me, a cute little girl, about 4 years old, with masses of blond curls, held her arms up to me. I can't resist picking her up. She whispers in my ear, "are you really Thalia's daughter? Have you come to set us free?"

Pressing a kiss to her soft cheek, I whisper back, "yes my angel, I am."
