

Chapter 17

Ashton

I wake up with my goddess in my arms, her head tucked into my chest, Lex is spooning her from behind and Ace is asleep behind me, Lex kisses her shoulder and she stirs, her hands moving down my stomach, stroking, getting closer to my co.ck.

Lex pulls her hip back, leaning her on his chest. He cups her breast, rolling her nipple between his thumb and forefinger. She moans in her sleep, spreading her legs slightly. It's all the invitation I need.

I rub her pus.sy lips, slipping a finger into her slit to find the hood of her cl.it, I slowly rub circles around the sensitive nub, her moans are getting loader now, her eyes slowly opening, I kissed her slowly, running my tongue over hers, as I increase the pressure on her cli.t,

Lex leans over her, taking her nipple into his mouth, sucking and lapping gently, her legs spread further, her foot hooking behind Lex's leg.

I feel Ace moving behind me as I position myself between her legs and gently lap at her labia, sucking them into my mouth. She groans and thrusts her hips.

Lex holds her thigh and I place my hand on her stomach to hold her still. Ace kisses her slowly, calming her, as I spread her open and continue to love her with my mouth, sucking her cl.it then lapping at it. She is a groaning mess now, "Ohhh, Ash please,"

Lex sucks on his marking spot on her neck, sending shivers down her body, "what do you want baby, what do you need Ash to do to you?" He sucks her nipple into his mouth again, causing her to arch her back and reach for both their cocks.

They both chuckle and get up to kneel on each side of her head. Ace turns her head so she can suck on his tip, “hungry for co.ck this morning, Tink?” She strokes him while sucking on his tip, then turns her head to do the same to Lex.

I increase the tempo of my tongue on her cl.it and insert a finger, pumping hard and fast. I feel her body tense as she screams around Lex’s co.ck,

I kneel and lift her hips and push my co.ck in all the way to the hilt. Fuck she feels so good, tight and wet, I pump my hips slowly, enjoying every inch as I push in and out of her, while watching her alternate between my brothers' cocks. She is a fucking goddess.

Ace leans behind him and reaches into the bedside drawer, and pulls out a stimulating wand. He turns it on so it gently hums and runs it first over her nipples, which makes her buck and moan, and then on her clit which makes her scream and gush all over my dick, “fuck, love you clenched so tight I nearly came,” I thrust into her, faster and faster till I am growling my release, my cum squirting into her tight pussy,

I held the wand on her clit made her cum over and over as I watched as first Lex then Ace deep throat her and come in her mouth.

I lie down on top of her, kissing her neck, “I love you so fucking much Starlight,” She smiles down at me, “I love you too, Ash.”

Ace pulls me out of the way and kisses my love, “I’ll get us some breakfast Tink, I think everyone could do with replenishing some calories,” she grins and runs her hand over his di.ck, “you already fed me this morning baby.” she flutters her eyelashes at him, he smirks at her, “keep looking at me like that and I will feed you again,” she bites her lip and groans, fu.ck she is insatiable.

Ace walks out the room naked, her eyes following his ass, “horny little Fairy, what will we do with you,” she straddles Alexei, “the moon goddess knew that as soon as my cherry was popped, I would become a sex crazed ho, that's why she gave me three of you, you now have to suffer the consequences."

He grabs her ass and grinds her on him, "we are not complaining one bit, baby, I could fuck your pussy all day long," she pecks his lips and climbs off him. He tries to grab her, but she jumps out of his grasp and runs into the dressing room.

"Fu.ck dude I have never been this horny in my life, my di.ck is constantly hard," I smirked at him, "just imagine what she will be like when she is on heat, thank the goddess there's three of us, I always worried that one mate wouldn't be able to handle all our needs, but I think it will be us begging for rest."

We heard a very unladylike "SHIT" come from the dressing room. Star walks out with a frown on her face, a sexy bra in her hands, "what's up goddess?" She put the bra against her chest, it's fucking tiny against her newly grown tits, "nothing fits me, my bra barely covers my nipples, my ass eats my panties, and I can't get my jeans past my thighs, you have a fat mate." Lex jumps off the bed, pulling her to the full-length mirror, standing behind her he cups her breast, "you are not fat baby, your glorious tits were literally made to fit my hands, your sexy hips were made to carry our pups, and your ass, fu.ck your ass is designed to keep our dicks at full erection at all times, you are perfect, and we love you and your sexy body," he kisses her shoulder as he cups her breasts.

Ace comes in with a tray of coffee and toast, and places it on the bed. He lifts an eyebrow at me, "after brunch we are going to take our curvy sex monster shopping, her new curves have outgrown her clothes," His eyes. light up, "an afternoon spent watching my princess, modelling clothes for me, best day ever,"

As we drink our coffee and nibble at our toast, Ace brings the conversation round to Saffron, "so Saffy is Sexy as fuck, and the most powerful wolf I have ever seen. Can she tell us about her powers?"

Star leaned into me, and I wrapped my arms around her, “she is not 100% sure, but she thinks she is a weather wolf, like an Elemental, but can control all weather. She thinks we will be able to control electricity and water too, but wants us to spend time learning to control it. Last night she was terrified of hurting one of you. Because she held off my shift because of my injuries, the power had built up, and then when the three of you marked me, the power and strength you gave me sent her over the edge and she couldn’t control it anymore. We need to find out who I am, though, because I am definitely not Gemma and Alvin Anderson’s daughter.”

I kissed her temple, “we will talk to mum and dad at brunch, see what they have to say, but I don’t want you to worry, we will find the answers you need, okay?”

Nodding, she heads for the shower. She looks over her shoulder at us. “You coming?”

We jump off the bed and race to the bathroom behind a giggling star. Thank you, Moon Goddess, she is so fucking perfect.
