

Chapter 58

Star

We are all sitting in the lounge on the ground floor of the pack house. Amanda is bringing a continuous stream of snacks and drinks, anything to keep busy.

I am sitting with Sophia and Nat, doing everything I can to keep them both calm.

Fergus and Aaron, my father's men who stayed behind with their new mates, have joined us as we wait. They are both pacing and I can feel their guilt for not being with their Alpha.

Ash is also pacing and I know he is torn between staying by my side and going to help his brothers. I stand and walk towards him. He opens his arms to me with a grin. "You ok angel? They will be fine. We would both know if they weren't." I rub his back soothingly.

Jumping out of my skin when his phone rings, making him chuckle. He answers and a smile spread across his face. He passes the phone to me. "Someone wants to speak to you"

Grabbing the phone I say, "Hello."

"Tink, we are coming home love, can you tell the girls that we are all OK? Lex, your dad and Cam are with us."

"They are all ok, they are on their way home." The chorus of sighs echo around the room.

"You have two tired and bruised mates that are going to need lots of attention when we get home."

“So put your foot down, Alpha and I will give you all the attention you could want.” His chuckle makes my heart flutter.

“We will be there soon. Love you.” He hangs up, and we all stand at the window waiting for the cars to pull up.

As soon as I spot cars coming up the drive, I am off. Flinging open the door, I sprint down the steps, racing down the drive. The cars screech to a stop and both my boys climb out.

I leap at them, wrapping my legs around Lex and my arms around Ace, crying my eyes out in relief. “Tink, its ok love, we are here. Please don’t cry.”

I hold on to them so tightly, thanking the goddess for returning me safely.

They carry me back to the house, which must have been awkward AF, considering I am wrapped around them like a boa constrictor.

As we pass everyone, I reach out and grab Ash. All three boys chuckle as they head to the elevator. I didn’t even know we had an elevator.

When I voiced this to the boys, Ace grins, “Grandpa had it installed when grandma was struggling with the stairs. It actually opens in our lounge”

“No way, where? Why have I not noticed it?”

“You know how grandma is. She hates to look weak, so both doorways are hidden behind fake panels in the wall.”

Ash chuckles, “Which means, when they come to visit, they will stay with us.”

we get to our suite and I link Ace and Lex, “darlings, your brother needs you, I am going to run a bath and open so, e wine and get ready to sooth your aches and pains, but before that Ash needs to make sure you are both ok, it’s been hard on him today, knowing that the two of you were fighting for your lives and he was here babysitting, do this for me, please.”

“Of course, baby, his job today was more important than anyone’s. He was keeping our most precious treasure safe.”

they put me down, and I tell them to relax as I run a bath.

As I pass the kitchen, I grab a bottle of wine and three glasses and a silver tray, and head to the bathroom. I search under the sink for a bottle of soda thing bubble bath, adding a generous dollop to the running water and turning the jets on low.

Lighting the many candles around the room and lowering the blackout blinds, I look around the room and smile with satisfaction. Once the bath is full, I head to the closet. The boy bought me the perfect outfit.

Squeezing into the tight white nurse’s outfit, the material is so thin you can see my pink nipples through it, the skirt barely covers my ass, the bottom curve of my cheeks popping into view as I walk. I decide to forget about underwear.

letting my hair cascade down my back, it’s almost as long as my outfit, I pin the little nurse’s hat on my head, and put a pair of bright red strappy heels.

I stand at the door and call for the boys, “your bath is ready my Alphas, I am just grabbing towels from the closet so get in and I will be with you.”

Then I hide in the closet and wait for them to make themselves comfortable. I hear Ash say something about him not disturbing their bath, and the other two telling him to move his ass.

Once I am sure they are all three settled in the bubbles, I grab the tray and walk into the bathroom. I put a sexy sway to my hips. All three pairs of eyes watch my every move.

Turning my back on them, I bend slightly to rest the tray on the vanity. I smirk at the three groans from the bathtub. Widening my stance slightly, I pour three glasses of wine.

Taking the first glass, I walk towards the eldest Alpha, keeping my back to the other two, I bend across Ace, making sure I brush my nipples over his lips, he nips at my bud as I pass him, “nice outfit Tink.” His voice is husky with lust,

“Thank you, Alpha, I am glad it pleases you.”

I straighten and pick up the next glass, Lex is sitting on the other side of the giant tub, so I have to lean over Ash, and put my knee on the tub to reach, giving Ace a perfect view of my naked pussy, he sucks in a huge breath.

“Fucking hell Tink, you're killing me.”

Lex leans up and sucks a nipple into his mouth. “I forgot we brought this baby. I knew it would come in handy for something.”

Straightening, I retrieve the last glass. I sit on the side of the tub and stroke Ash’s cheek as I place his glass on the side.

Grabbing a loofah and squeezing on somebody wash, I give it a good rub to get it nice and foamy, I stand behind Ace and purr in his ear, as I stroke the loofah over his chest, “now Alpha why don’t you tell me where it hurts,”

He tries to grab me but I move out of his reach, “now, now, Alpha naughty boys go to the back of the queue”, I walk away from him to stand behind Lex, keeping eye contact with Ace as I soap Lex’s shoulders, back and then his chest.

He leans his head back with a moan, leaving me room to lean over him. Letting go of the loofah. My hand wraps around Lex’s hard cock. “Ohhh Alpha, you seem very tense right here. Would you like a massage?”

“Aahhh fuck baby, keep touching me like that and I’m going to cum really quick.” I drag my hand back up his chest and turn to walk to Ash.

Before I can move, Lex grabs me from behind and lets me into the bath. Ace pulls me onto his lap while Ash and Lex get rid of my shoes. Ace grabs the front of my outfit and rips it open.

“I think nurse naught can clock off now.” He kisses my shoulder and passes me his glass of wine. I take a sip and snuggle back into his body. “Thank you, baby. That was exactly what we needed after today. It’s been hell.”

I kiss them one at a time, then grab the rest of the bottle and sit beside Ace. Taking a big swig from the bottle, I turn on the warming jets and say, “so let’s get drunk and you can tell me all about it.”

Ash leaps from the bath, water flying everywhere, “we are going to need a lot more wine than.” He runs from the room, returning a few minutes later with a basket filled with wine crackers and all the cheese from the fridge. He passes me a glass of my own and gets back into the bath. “I think I just blinded your dad and Cam.”

I stare at him, then smirk, “it could have been worse, baby, it could have been grandma.”

The sound of our laughter echoes around the room, and I know everything will be ok. I have my triplets and nothing else matters. For now, anyway.
