

Chapter 86

Star

I massage half a tub of hair mask into each of the girl's hair, and leave it to sink in, then I apply face masks to their beautiful faces, before bringing a table next to the bath and placing the tray of hot chocolate and fruit on top.

“their you are ladies, help yourselves, while I try to untangle your hair, okay?”

I grab a stool and brushes and combs and tease the knots out of Jessica's hair, “so what shall we talk about? You are having your hair done, so it seems only fair that we gossip.” I reach over and turn all the jets on.

Jessica starts with a question, “umm, I've never seen a power like yours, and you hardly used any effort....” I grin down at her, “my story is unfinished but I will happily tell you what I know....”

I recant the story of my mother and her pack, trying not to leave out any details. I told them about how we think my mother's wolf went mad with grief and was paranoid to the point she took complete control of my mother.

The abuse I suffered at the hands of my aunt and uncle and then waking up mated to my triplets and finding my father, when it came to being captured I spoke quietly, I didn't want them to have to relive their own kidnapping.

“So that's where we are now. I am not sure how far my powers will grow, but I feel like there is more to come. I won't find all the answers until I go to my mother's pack in Greece.”

I have managed to get most of the tangles out of their hair there were a few clumps underneath that I had to cut, but I was pleased with my effort.

“Okay ladies, you are sure to be prunes by now, so let’s get you out and wrapped in something warm and soft.” They had both become so relaxed that I had to practically lift them out of the bath.

Both are desperately thin, making their baby bumps look huge on their tiny frames. I wrapped them both in terry toweling bathrobes and led them to the bedroom.

The floor next to their beds was covered in bags from the pack boutique, and pajamas and Linder wear were laid out on their beds. I smirked and made a mental note to reward my alphas.

once the girls were dressed, and I had helped them put on some flurry socks, there was a tap at the door, and one of the domestic omegas popped her head around the door.

“Luna? The Alphas have sent over food for dinner. It is ready for you all in the dining room.” She bows to me.

“Thanks Alice, I’m starving, we will be down in a moment. We would be grateful if you could get someone to lend us a hand getting down the stairs.”

“Of course Luna, I will grab one of the female warriors right away.”

I turn back to the two girls and they are both looking at me in shock, “oh my goodness, I didn’t even think, I am so sorry Luna, you should not have been waiting on us.”

I grin at them, “and why not? I am no better than you, as Luna my job is to provide care to my pack, and right now that means the ten of you.”

Stephanie, one of our female warriors, arrived, and we helped our guests to the lounge and made them comfortable. The boys had arranged for a hot buffet that could be eaten on our laps. Everyone dug in. I didn't realise how hungry I was until I started eating.

The conversation was kept light, but after a while I had to ask the women if they wanted us to contact their packs, to let them know they were here.

There were a few firm head shakes and a few tears, but most replied with anger. Jessica sighed loudly. I swung my head at her with a look of confusion.

“Well, I suppose I will go first, my father sold me to the bastards, they waited till I had my first shift to make sure I was special, then when I was returning to my human form I was shot with a dart that paralyzed me. I watched as my pussy Omega father took money for me.”

I look at her, stunned, but as I look around the room, the nodding heads make me blanch.

“They killed my family to get me. My whole pack is gone.” There were a few ‘same here,’ or ‘me too’ rang out. I look around the room.

“So none of you have anywhere to go?” They all nod sadly. Amanda and Mamo both jump up. “Yes, you do, girls. You will all have a home here if you want it.”

Mamo smiled, “and the same for our pack in Scotland, you are not alone ladies.” I grin at the relief on the faces of the surrounding women.

Jessica leans forward, well as much as she can with her huge belly, “Thank you, all of you for what you have done for us, our babies may have been made with pain and suffering, but I am so happy that they will have a safe place to grow, and belong.”

Grabbing her hand I give her a smile, “our children are the future, and we will help you in any way we can.”

I feel a push in my mind, "baby, can you come next door and say goodnight? We can't go to sleep without seeing you." I smirk, sorry ladies but I'm going to have to slip out for a minute, I have three big babies that need to be tucked in."

Laughter follows me out of the room, I slip on a pair of boots and head to the house next door, I am expecting lots of people but the only ones in the house are my Alphas.
