

Chapter 89

Star

I wake up surrounded by warmth, my head is resting on a firm chest and kisses are being peppered across my back and shoulders, “are you okay, baby? We thought you were going to stay out all night.”

“Lex? Fuck, did you guys make me pass out? Again?” His chest rumbles as he chuckles, “yep, we sure did,” he sounds so proud of himself that I slap the chest under my cheek, “her Tink, why are you hitting me?”

“Ace? Sorry, I thought you were Lex.”

“Wow, we really did a number on you if you can’t tell us apart baby,” he gives me a harp slap to my ass, “ouch you fucker.”

I am spun around and I am suddenly lying on my back with my warrior lying on top of me, “such language, you have a filthy mouth baby-girl, I think we need to do something about that, don’t you?”

He is nestled between my thighs and his rock-hard cock I’d pressing against my core. Lifting my hips, I rub against his shaft, “you can definitely punish me with that baby”

Lex is pulled off me and I am lifted up and cradled in the arms of Ash. “Come on guys, give her a break. I’ve made you some food goddess, lets replenish your energy, shall we?”

He sits down, keeping me on his lap. My other two mates join us on the couch and feed me sandwiches from a tray. “Mmmm, Ash, thank you baby, I didn’t realize how hungry I was.”

planting a kiss on his lips as I grab another sandwich, Ace grabs my chin, “if you're handing out kisses Tink, you need to play fair and share them around.”

I bop him on the nose, “Ash got a kiss for bringing me food,” Ash lifts me so I’m straddling him, “I brought drinks too angel,” I smirk and rise up so I can impale myself on his already hard cock.

He groans as I sheath him in my warmth, “you look after me so well Ashton, you more than deserve my gratitude.” I gently ride him, my movements slow but firm.

I lean forward, and our kiss is full of tenderness.

Moaning into his mouth. “I love you, Ashton.” He picks me up and lays me on the floor, covering my body with his.

Our love making is full of love, slow and meaning full. I look at my other two men. They stroke themselves as they watch their little brother love me.

I feel my body heat and tighten. “Oh Ash, fuck.” He pushes up and looks into my eyes and he continues to pump into me, “I’m close angel, come with me.” We both ease over the edge, shuddering as we fall.

Collapsing onto me, he kisses my neck, “you are my everything angel,” Lifting off me, he places a tender kiss on my lips, then moves away for his brother.

Ace kneels between my legs, “goddess you are so fucking hot. Roll over princess, daddy wants your ass.” I growl with need and quickly flip over and raise my ass to my Alpha. His tongue probes at my hole before pushing its way inside.

“Mmmm, Ace, fuck, I love it when you eat my ass.” I growl when he pulls back from me, causing him to chuckle, “it’s okay Tink, I’ve got something better for you.”

He pushes the head of his cock in, making my asshole stretch. I moan at the sharp sting of pain as it mixes with a wave of pleasure as he pushes all the way in.

As he fucks me with firm, even strokes, he pulls my shoulders up so my back is against his chest. He sucks on my neck as one hand reaches to play with my clit and the other pulls at my nipple.

“Fuck that’s so fucking hot,” Lex comes to kneel in front of me, taking my other nipple in his mouth, Ace whispers in my ear, “do you want Lex it put his big dick in your pussy princess?”

I nod, unable to form words. My legs are lifted onto Lexi’s shoulders and his dick slides into my pussy. “Fuck you’re so tight baby; I’m not going to last long.”

They both pump into me, their hips pistoning as they fuck me. I am a moaning, groaning mess as they bring me to heaven and I shatter into a million pieces.

I hear their growls as they follow me into bliss. Sometime later, they pull out of me and I am held on top of Ashton’s chest. My other mates lay on either side of us.

I feel myself drifting off and hear the steady breathing of my gorgeous husbands; I kiss Ashton’s chest before snuggling into him and drifting off to sleep.

We are awoken with a start to banging on the door. Amanda’s voice, filled with panic, comes through the letterbox. “STAR? JESSICA HAS GONE INTO LABOUR, AND HER POWERS ARE GOING CRAZY, SHE IS SCREAMING FOR YOU.”

Shit, I jump to my feet, “I’M COMMITTED AMANDA.” I trip over a cushion in my haste. Luckily Ace is there to catch me before I face plant the floor.

The boys rush around and find my clothes, helping me get dressed. I kiss them all good buy and rush out of the door. The sight that greets me chills me to the bones.

All the pregnant she-wolves are standing outside the house shivering, but the thing that makes my heart clench is the house itself. The entire building is covered with thick ice, and I can hear Jessica's cries of pain coming from inside.
