

Chapter 98

Alexei

I lay my beautiful wife on the bed, and gazed down at her. I don't know what I did to deserve her, but I will spend the rest of my life earning the blessing I have been given.

She reaches up and brushes my hair from my face, and caresses my cheeks. Leaning down, I captured her lips in a tender kiss, our lips explored each other softly. Moaning into my mouth, she pulls me closer.

Kissing my way down her jaw as her hands tangle in my hair, holding me to her, she groans as I nibble on the spot on her neck that is mine alone.

Making my way down to her collarbone, I lap at the indent and hook my fingers around the straps of her dress, pulling them down her arms, pulling the fabric down and revealing her perfect tits.

I suck one glorious nipple into my mouth. Due to the pregnancy, her nipples have become so sensitive, she arches her back pushing her breasts up, demanding more.

I take my time cupping her large mounds in my hands while licking and sucking on one erect bud, before turning my attention to the other.

"Fuck baby, it's so good your gonna make me cum," She is writhing beneath me, grinding her pussy against my thigh, her breath is coming out in gasps. I can feel how close she is, so I pinch both of her nipples, sending her over the edge. Her body trembles as she groans out her orgasm.

I grin against her skin as I continue to pull her dress down her body, kissing and nibbling the skin that I expose. I spend some time kissing and whispering at the slight bump on her stomach, telling my children how much I love them.

Moving down to her naval, I lap her skin as I finally push the fabric over her hips.

I smirked up at her, "naughty fairy forgot her panties." she grins, "I didn't think they would stay on for long, so I couldn't see the point."

I lie down between her legs and run my tongue through the folds of her pussy, inhaling her sweet, musky scent. Storm growls at the taste of her.

She grabs the front of my hair and pulls my head back, "I see you my warrior wolf, are you going to eat my pussy till I cum all over your face?"

Storm is bouncing in my head, he is prancing around repeating "PLEASE! PLEASE! ALEXEI PLEASE!" What the hell, he should have some fun with Star. I retreated to the back of my mind, allowing him to come forward and I found a nice cozy corner and relax and watch the show.

Storm's POV

"Yes, my warrior Luna, I am going to make you cum over and over again until you beg me to fuck you." My perfect human mate, wraps her sexy legs over my shoulders, and smirks down at me.

"Do your worst wolf" such a naughty mate, I will punish her for that later. I spread her folds and dive in, I suck on her clit, and push two fingers into her tight snatch, fucking her roughly, making her gasp and buck against me.

The taste of her drives me crazy, making me growl with pleasure, I suck on her tight bud until she screams for me, but I do not stop, I make her cum over and over again.

Finally, she submits to me and begs for me to take her. Flipping her over and pulling her up onto her knees and pushing her head into the pillow.

"Now my naughty little mate, time to punish your cheekiness." I plant a sharp slap on her beautiful plump ass, she moans loudly and shakes her behind at me.

The move reminds me so much of my Saffron that I lean over to look into her eyes, but Star's gorgeous green eyes stare back at me, I spank her other cheek, pulling another moan out of her.

"Is that all you've got, wolf?" I growled at her, and gave her four sharp spanks, alternating cheeks, her juices run down her thighs and I cannot resist lapping them up.

I line my cock up with her entrance and ram into her. She screams at the pleasure/pain of the intrusion. I don't give her time to catch her breath as I pound into her.

Within seconds, sweat was running down my back, I couldn't stop the deep howl that rips from my throat, as I pounded into my mate's cervix.

I feel my balls tighten, ready to release. Pulling her upright, I feel my fangs elongate and I bite into her neck. She screams and her pussy clenches around my cock as she falls over the edge into bliss.

Her walls milk my cock, and I shoot my seed into her.

Laying my forehead on her back, I try to calm my heart before it beats out of my chest. This is the first time I have had sex in my human's body. Alexei has fucked lots of girls, but I always retreated to the back of his mind, the thought of being with a human girl was nauseating.

Until Star, watching Alexei and our brothers fuck our mate excited me beyond anything I have felt before, but actually being the one to love her, I cannot describe the joy. And knowing my pups are growing inside her makes my heart want to burst.

I fell onto the bed on my back and pulled my love onto my chest. "I love you mate, you and my Saffron. I never knew I could feel this deeply for anyone."

Pushing up on my chest, she stared into my eyes, "I love you too, my warrior, thank you for spending time with me today, you have made both Saffy and myself very happy."

She yawned, making me giggle. Pulling her back into my arms, I kissed her head, "sleep little mate, I will see you tomorrow, we have a trip down the Tor in the afternoon."

I lay listening to her gentle breathing, and the sound of her heart beating, as they slowly lulled me to sleep.
