

Our Billion 1361

Chapter 1361-Just then, the security guard rushed over and reported, “Mr. Jones, here comes another group of people claiming their money back. They are making a fuss in the conference room...”

Sofia was annoyed and she yelled, “Who let them come into the conference room? Kick them away!”

The security guard gave an embarrassed look, “You instructed me earlier to let them wait in the conference room and you said our company had enough money and that you would have the finance department prepare the money for them.”

Sofia was embarrassed, but she couldn’t refute the security guard. She did say the company had money. And now she was furious.

The debtors were getting louder and louder in the conference room. They kept bellowing.

“Where’s your boss?”

“Don’t you have plenty of money? When are you going to pay me back my 10 million dollars? I heard that some of the creditors were taken to the police station because you charged them with rioting! You owe us money and you should pay us back. If you do that, who will dare to do business with you?”

“Exactly! If you don’t pay me today, I won’t leave...”

“We’ve waited so long. Where is your boss? When is he coming? Do you have any manners? Can’t the Mason Group afford to provide us with a glass of water?”

The debtors shouted. The conference room was noisy. All the staff on the same floor could hear them.

They sounded like a bunch of gangsters.

They had tattoos on their arms and chests. Some of the men even wore prominent earrings and nose rings. The employee who received them was terrified.

“What are you guys arguing about?” Suddenly, a man’s fierce voice rang out.

The debtors looked in the direction of the voice, and they saw Trevor.

Immediately, they perked up as if they saw gold. They demanded with sneers, “You’re the new boss, aren’t you? When are you going to pay us back the money Cedrick owes us?”

“Since you have money, pay me back. It’s only thirty million dollars...”

“Simon, how can you act like that? They should pay us back first. The Mason Group owes us 1.3 billion dollars. Since your amount is small, you should wait!”

Trevor’s eyebrows twitched slightly.

‘1.3 billion dollars? What the hell! What cost that much?’ He tried to keep himself calm as Sofia had asked Ralph to come back as soon as possible.

‘How could the Mason Group have such a large debt under Ralph’s supervision? Hadn’t he heard anything about it before?’ At that moment, both Trevor and Sofia wished that this was a misunderstanding and that Ralph could settle it.

Otherwise...

They could not afford to pay such a huge debt. And the Netherlands consortium would not let them off the hook for the 1.5 billion dollars they had embezzled.

On the way to the Mason Group this morning, Sofia received a call from the consortium.

They accused her of embezzling the money without permission. Luckily, Sofia found an excuse to cover it up...

If they couldn't pay the debts, they were finished. Trevor felt a chill run down his spine at the thought. Immediately, he forced a smile at the debtors.

"The Mason Group has been in business for hundreds of years. We are the largest business in Sapphire City. We have countless assets. How can we not afford to pay your debt? We've had some trouble in overseas markets, so we currently fund all our money overseas. We will arrange to pay off your debts once we get through this."

Trevor then took several debtors who owed more than 1 billion dollars aside and tried to calm them down.

However, the debtors insisted on getting their money back today...

Chapter 1362-"My boss gave me a strict order. I have to get the money back! Or I'll be fired!" The man with a dragon tattoo rolled up his sleeves and roared gruffly.

Another man with a tiger tattoo patted his thigh and cried miserably, 'You just will be fired, but I'm going to disappear from Sapphire City if I don't get the money back..."

"Hey, you guys are luckier than me. If I don't get the money back, my whole family will be cut up and fed to the sharks, so please pay the money back."

Trevor was speechless.

He found that the people who came to ask for the debt were not the legal people of those companies but a group of special debt collectors employed by those companies.

In other words, it was no use talking to them about repayment dates.

Trevor said a lot and used many ways to calm down these debt collectors and stall for time. Finally, Ralph came back in a hurry.

Ralph was petrified when he heard the roar of a large group of people in the conference room, thinking, 'Where did all these people come from? Do they treat the company as a vegetable market?' Before he lost his temper, Sofia appeared and asked him to go to the president's office.

When there was no one around them, Sofia could no longer control her temper and smashed all the account books with large sums of bad debts on Ralph's head.

"Explain to me what these are all about!" The papers were scattered in the air, and a piece of paper happened to be affixed to Ralph's face. Ralph pulled down the paper and found that it was a purchase order.

"Sofia, Isn't... isn't this the purchase order of the group half a month ago? This is the normal demand for a technology company. What's the problem?" Sofia did not ask Ralph to do much in the past, so she never thought that he would sign casually without carefully looking at the details of the purchase order, which was worth two hundred million dollars!

The most important thing was that the group was in dire straits!

"What's the problem? I want to ask you whether your eyes are broken. Don't you know how to check the accounts?"

Why haven't I received any news that the Mason Group owes tens of billions of dollars in debt and lost a lot in the overseas market? Don't you boast that you are better than Trevor? This is the Mason Group you transferred to me? A bunch of bad debts! Do you know what those people in the conference room do? They are debt collectors! They come to me for money!"

'What? Debt collectors? For money? Tens of billions of dollars in debt?' Ralph rolled his eyes with guilty. After he replaced the real Cedrick, he had been swaggering and arrogant, not knowing how to manage the company.

At first, Sofia arranged some tough and powerful professional managers for him, but every now and then those people told him what he was doing wrong...

He was tired of those people. Suddenly, he thought of Charles, who was praised as the first assistant of the Mason Group, and asked Charles to deal with those professional managers.

Unexpectedly, Charles solved these contradictions perfectly. Meanwhile, Charles flattered Ralph and gave him a lot of benefits. Therefore, Ralph gradually handed over some unimportant things to Charles to do, and what he just needed to do was to listen to the reports by several competent departments.

Sometimes Ralph felt impatient while listening to their reports and fell asleep, so he asked Charles to sort out the detailed documents for him, and he just needed to glance at the documents.

After all, before he transferred the company to Sofia, he was still Cedrick, and he thought Charles had no reason to make trouble for him.

When he checked the accounts before, the account of the company was flowing in tens or even hundreds of millions of dollars.

‘Where’s the money? Why did the money suddenly turn into bad debts?’ Ralph stared at the huge arrears, his forehead sweating, and his hands shaking.

“How... how is that possible? These records must be fake. Aren’t the overseas projects going well? Charles said that it had been very smooth, and he also asked me to approve more investment in these projects, so I stopped several domestic projects and transferred funds. No... it’s impossible.”

“Charles?” When Sofia heard Charles’s name, all her anger was ignited. She patted the table and rebuked angrily, “I’ve raised you for more than twenty years, but what have you got in your head? Charles is Cedrick’s confidant, and he must have a good grasp of everything about Cedrick. I asked you to make sure he had no right to interfere with the company, but you actually listened to him. You... you’d better pray that I can get through this difficulty, or I will let you bear the consequence with me! What a waste of millions I spent on your face!”

The more she spoke, the more angry and dizzy she felt.

Chapter 1363-Sofia had a vague feeling that she had been tricked.

These accounts were perfect in every way...

How could Charles make them alone?

Where did the mistake occur? Could it be that Charles has long recognized that the “Cedrick” in front of him was a fake? Was he prepared for this?

Sofia felt dizzy.

Ralph, who was scolded, was a bit scared and confused about the situation.

He was about to call Charles in and ask for clarification.

Bang!

Suddenly, the office door was slammed open from the outside.

“Ms. Evans, I found something terrible...”

“Shit, Trevor, are you courting death?” Ralph was startled by Trevor’s sudden appearance, his eyelids fluttering violently. Ralph cursed, “Don’t you know Ms.

Evans and I are talking about something? Are you blind, or are your hands broken? Why did you just barge in? Get out of here right now!”

Sofia saw Trevor’s anxious face, and the foreboding in her heart grew stronger...

It was like a fire burning all the plans which she had worked so hard for.

“Shut up!” Sofia snarled at Ralph.

Ralph looked at Sofia with an aggrieved face and tried to say something else, but Sofia asked Trevor with concern, “What’s up?”

“Ms. Evans, I think we’ve been fooled by Cedrick!” Trevor anxiously took several bills and handed them to Sofia. “These are all the Mason Group’s debts, which are up to one billion. With the group’s capital chain, hundreds of billions flowed to overseas markets. I’m afraid even 100 million cannot be approved in our country, and these were all signed after Ralph replaced Cedrick. The most terrible thing is...”

Sofia’s heart jumped into her throat. She held her breath.

“What’s it?”

“These companies are all related to the same famous international consortium named Crowdyn. In other words, most of our debts are to this consortium...”

Crowdyn?

Sofia’s pupils contracted.

She had heard of this international consortium, the headquarters of which was in Paris. It emerged last year.

It had set up branches all over the world.

It had a branch in the Netherlands, the scale of which was comparable to Via Group.

Crowdyn was known for its venture investment. It liked to invest in high-risk, high-return, and short projects.

It once shorted the currency of a small country overnight, causing the collapse of its currency system and netting hundreds of billions of dollars from it. Why did such a consortium appear in Sapphire City?

The Mason Group owed billions of dollars. How could all the debtors be Crowdyn?

According to all the signs so far, the only explanation was that...

This was a trap!

Chapter 1364-The people behind the Crowdyn Group deliberately set a trap for her!

It was too horrible to contemplate. Sofia's throat suddenly welled up with blood, which choked her throat.

"Sofia?" Seeing that Sofia was staggering, Ralph came over to help her with a trembling heart.

Sofia gave him a slap with her backhand, "Get the hell out of here! It's all your fault! You stupid bastard! I've told you a thousand times to keep an eye on the Mason Group and to get rid of Charles as soon as possible, but what did you do? I've been smart all my life, but how could I have raised such a foolish bastard like you? You were born in a slum, and you should be a tramp your whole life. I hate you...Puff!"

Sofia spat out a big mouthful of blood. Her body was half bent and the corners of her mouth were covered in blood.

Ralph was stunned by the slap. He thought he had done nothing wrong. It was all Charles' fault.

"Sofia, It's all because of Cedrick and his people! They are too cunning! Don't be angry with them. They are not worth it. Don't you still have the Via Group and Mr. Swale behind you? It's okay. We will definitely turn things around..."

Speak of the devil and he came. Sofia's phone rang just as the words of Ralph fell.

The caller was none other than the headquarters of the Via Group.

Sofia suddenly had a terrible premonition and intended to play dead to the end.

However, Ralph seemed to see his savior. He immediately pressed the answer button and directly cried and begged for money on the phone, "Hello? Mr.

Joshua. This is Ralph, the adopted son of Sofia. There is something wrong with the Top Secret No.1 Project here in Sapphire. Could you please lend us another 1.5 billion? We will pay back double in the future! I..."

The man on the other end heard a male voice knowing about the top secret No.1 project. His voice instantly became cold.

Sofia's face changed. She immediately grabbed the phone from Ralph and repeatedly apologized into the phone.

But Joshua showed little mercy at all— "Ms. Evans, at first we chose to cooperate with you because you were just a player behind the scenes, and you knew your place. But now you told an unreliable third party about our cooperation without permission, and at the same time you misappropriated the money allocated to you by the group. You must pay back the 1.5 billion within one day. Otherwise, we may start the Removal Plan."

Removal Plan...

The last two words chilled her to the spine.

When she had worked together with Joshua before, he had often mentioned the Removal Plan.

In short, it was to send groups of mercenaries to remove the stumbling blocks.

Sofia breathed slightly, then she changed her tone and became extremely sincere, and even a bit humble and appealing, "Joshua, we have been cooperating pleasantly for so many years, so you should know my ability. As long as we can win the top secret No. 1 project in the capital city, your group can get even 15 billion, let alone 1.5 billion. This time it was my fault. Please give me another chance..."

No matter how humble she was, Joshua's voice was as cold and high-and-mighty as ever, "It's not that I don't give you a chance, but our group has chosen to cooperate with the Crowdyn Group. They have already given us the No. 1 project in the capital city for nothing. In other words, you are useless now! For the sake of the former cooperation, you're allowed 24 hours to pay back 1.5 billion. Or you will suffer the consequences."

After saying that, Joshua hung up the phone relentlessly.

Sofia dully held her phone and suddenly collapsed on the sofa, as if her soul was taken away.

Her eyes were full of despair, and not a gleam could be seen in her eyes.

She was so proud of her mediation ability. She believed that it could help her to get various projects in Lanchester for the Via Group...

But how could the Crowdyn Group directly give it to the Via Group without any effort?

Who was behind this?

Was it Cedrick? No.

He had already been hunted by her people before and was still missing.

The Crowdyn Group had been developing for a year or two!

It could not be him!

Then how to explain Charles' deception?

Sofia tried desperately to tell herself that she did not lose to Cedrick and that the Crowdyn Group could not belong to Cedrick. Only in this way could she barely feel better.

Chapter 1365-Trevor knew they couldn't pay off their debts. He was very frustrated. "If you had listened to my advice not to spend $ 1.5 billion buying those stocks, maybe things wouldn't be so bad!" Sofia had a gloomy face. ' No, this's not the end of it! I haven't lost the game! I have Wayion. I can definitely turn things around..."

"Mr. Jones, here's another debtor from Crowdyn. We are heavily in debt to him..." Just then, a security guard rushed into the door. He was sweating on his forehead.

Sofia's face immediately darkened. She looked like she was about to explode with rage at any moment.

Under the Mason Group's building, a row of luxury cars were parked at the front door. And the men getting out of the cars all looked intimidating and arrogant.

There were many passersby stopping to watch.

The sun was scorching. The road seemed to be melting. The air was suffocating.

The financial press and gossip magazines had received word that something big was going to happen at the Mason Group today, and many journalists were sent over to cover the event.

A fleet of limousines blocked the road, so the journalists had to carry their cameras through the crowd to capture the scene.

As Trevor and Sofia, the latter wearing a mask, came down from the top floor of the building, they saw the crowd downstairs.

The big boss was sitting in his car, waiting patiently.

The bodyguards were all standing around the car and blocking the onlookers at a distance.

When Trevor appeared...

Instantly, the door of the black limousine surrounded by bodyguards was pulled open.

A pair of shiny leather shoes stomped on the ground. A man got out of the car.

He was wearing a neat suit and gave out a condescending aura, which made him look very intimidating. But after people saw his face...

Everyone was shocked!

Trevor was also stunned- "Why is it you?"

Cedrick was dressed as Terrence. He had a large ugly red birthmark on his face. He ignored Trevor, turned to the limousine, bent slightly, and extended his right hand toward the car.

"Honey, please." He said softly.

A slim hand rested on "Terrence's" palm, and then a woman with a graceful figure got out of the car. Then people saw Catelyn's beautiful face!

Trevor and Sofia looked at each other, resentment in both their eyes.

'Crowdyn...

'Catelyn...

'No wonder I always thought that Crowdyn sounded familiar...' Even if Sofia didn't want to admit it, her body swayed.

It was Catelyn who was manipulating Crowdyn, revealing Sofia's secrets, getting the Via Group to stop supporting Sofia, fooling Ralph, and ultimately getting Sofia to buy a company that was about to go bankrupt...

'It must be Cedrick's idea!' Sofia had used information about Jennie to lure Cedrick out. She wanted to use the chance to have him murdered. Later, Cedrick disappeared. Sofia had wondered if Cedrick was really dead...

Now it seemed that Cedrick was not dead! And he was right around her!

Chapter 1366-Catelyn looked at Sofia's pale face and couldn't help thinking of the photos that had been posted on the Internet,' Sofia is also a woman. How could she post the photos of her mother insulted by Ezekiel on the Internet to humiliate her?

Her eyes were full of anger.

Catelyn took out a specific potion from her bag and gently wiped the red mask on Cedrick's face.

A few seconds later, the red mask slowly fell off, and then Cedrick's handsome face appeared!

In an instant, there was dead silence.

The security guards and executives were even more shocked!

They wondered, 'What happened? Isn't Mr. Mason upstairs? Who is he? Why does he look exactly like Mr. Mason?

All the media went wild, and someone thought, 'Two Mr. Mason? Oh, my God.

No wonder Mr. Mason suddenly had an affair, changed dramatically, and did many strange things.' Several days ago, Cedrick cheated on Catelyn, got drunk, and made trouble in the middle of the night. The whole Mason Group was messed up by him. Now the reason for all these things finally came to light!

It turned out that a fake Cedrick took the place of the true Cedrick!

Cedrick Mason, the eldest son of the most powerful family in Sapphire City, was still the noble man.

Even though Sofia had already guessed that the man in front of her was Cedrick, she could not control her emotions. Her body shook, her chest heaved violently, and then she pointed at Cedrick angrily, "It's you! You planned the whole thing. You weren't dead at all, right? Cedrick, you are so despicable!"

When she thought of the fact that she had thought she would take over the whole Mason Group, her heart thumped with rage.

The taste of blood kept coming up to her throat, and she swallowed it desperately.

Her face twisted with anger, and her make-up got messed up.

Confronting Sofia, Catelyn rebutted, "So what if he was not dead? Do you really think that idiot you trained can coax me into transferring all the assets of the group to him? Am I that stupid? Or are you out of your mind? If I didn't want to see who the famous Mr. Denham was, I would have dealt with you earlier.

You're just an old and wrinkled woman in your fifties. Don't take yourself seriously. You stole my daughter away from me, posted those photos, and arranged the assassination. You are the one who is despicable! You destroyed a family, so you deserve to be abandoned, and you should be punished."

Originally, Catelyn and Cedrick planned to deal with Sofia in private because they thought there was no need to make the bad things Sofia had done known to everyone.

Even if Cedrick's reputation was tarnished, they had no intention of clarifying what had happened before.

However, Sofia posted the photos of her mother insulted by Ezekiel on the Internet, so Catelyn thought there was no need to save face for such a malicious woman!

Catelyn directly exposed Sofia's identity, "Sofia is the mayor's wife. More than twenty years ago, she was a homewrecker, and she even caused a car accident, which killed Cedrick's parents!"

After a brief silence, there was an uproar!

Chapter 1367-The cameras kept flashing at Sofia.

"Oh, my God! She is the mayor's wife! No wonder I found she looked so familiar.

She accompanied the mayor to the ribbon-cutting of an orphanage, so she became the top of the list of Sapphire City's female philanthropists!"

' Ms. Evans, Mrs. Mason said you were a homewrecker and were involved in a murder. What do you want to say?"

"Today is the day that the Mason Group changes its president. Trevor Jones is the new president. Why are you here?"

"What's your relationship with the new president?"

"What role do you and Mr. Swale play in this matter?"

"Mrs. Swale..."

“Please explain.”

“Stop! Stop filming! Stop it right now!” Trevor’s eyes went scarlet. He subconsciously took off his coat to cover Sofia, ‘Sofia has Wayion on her side, so we still have a chance to make a comeback as long as Sofia doesn’t admit anything.’ What Sofia cared about most was that she was alleged to have gotten between Cedrick’s parents.

It was the deepest pain in her heart, so she turned furious.

She pulled off her mask and shouted at Catelyn angrily, “Yes, I’m Wayion’s wife, Sofia Evans. But I’m not a homewrecker. Desmond and I love each other! It was his mother who went crazy and shamelessly stole the man I loved! I am the abandoned woman!”

“Speaking of the homewrecker, Catelyn, you hooked up with Cedrick and coaxed him into abandoning his fiancée, Maia Clark. You are a real homewrecker! I think I have a clear conscience!”

“Click, click!” As her hysterical swearing fell, all the journalists’ eyes sparkled, ‘It’s really Mrs. Swale, Sofia Evans! And she admitted that she had an affair with Mr. Mason’s father. This news is really shocking and valuable!’ Catelyn smiled and then ridiculed coldly, “Do you brainwash yourself every day that all the women in the world are homewreckers and that you are the only one who is not a homewrecker?”

Sofia stared at Catelyn and Cedrick and said firmly to the media, “Do you think you know the truth? I’m telling you, the truth is that I was Desmond’s woman long before Desmond married Cedrick’s mother, Daphne! I had three miscarriages and could no longer have children. I quit my well-paid job and gave up my career for him. I stayed at home cooking and cleaning for him. I gave him the best years of a woman, but he abandoned me! As soon as he got a new lover, he immediately dumped me. I didn’t agree to break up, so he found someone to murder me! He was so vicious! Look, I have scars all over my body because of that explosion! Tell me, should I hate him or not? From the beginning to the end, I don’t owe the Mason family anything. Instead, it’s the Mason family who owes me a lot! I also helped Desmond to establish the Mason Group, so I won’t feel flattered even if I take over the Mason Group!”

She added in her heart, ‘The Mason family owes me a lot. I’m the victim! No matter what has happened, no matter how much Cedrick slandered me, I’m innocent!’ Cedrick stared at Sofia coldly and deeply. Sofia could feel that she seemed to be dead in his eyes.

Cedrick was thinking, 'No matter what she said, my parents died because of her.

They are both dead, so she can say whatever she wants. There is no proof.' All the journalists stared at Cedrick, asking if what Sofia said was true.

"She lied!" At this time, an old but powerful male voice came from the crowd.

Chapter 1368-The old man's voice was tired but domineering.

Then the journalists and onlookers made a way for the man...

Yael wheeled Dracon wobbly through the crowd, "Grandpa?" Catelyn and Cedrick turned to the old man.

Yael wheeled Dracon up to Catelyn and Cedrick. Yael waved his hand resignedly, "I tried to persuade Grandpa Mason into resting at home. But he insisted on coming to see who stirred so much trouble for our family."

Sofia's eyes gleamed with anger as she saw Dracon.

"It's you! You're still alive!"

Though Dracon didn't receive chemo, he looked strained and weary due to cancer.

He couldn't fall asleep due to the severe pain.

His eyes were sunken deep into their sockets. Also, there were dark circles beneath his eyes.

Looking at Sofia, who appeared to be so arrogant, Dracon sneered, "How could I die before you, you wicked woman! Ced, don't believe her. Your parents always loved each other!"

Catelyn conjectured that there was an inside story and thought it was an opportunity to reveal the truth.

She pretended to know nothing about it and asked, "Grandpa, you mean Mrs.

Evans is lying? What's the real story?"

Dracon took a look at Cedrick, who looked a bit odd.

His memory raced back through the years:

About twenty years ago, Cedrick's father was young and decided to remain celibate for life because of the hereditary illnesses in his family. And then, he joined the army and became a captain.

Later, he accidentally rescued Daphne from an earthquake.

At that time, they were trapped under the rubble of a supermarket. A romantic spark flew when they were huddled in the confined space. Desmond, however, had no courage to express his feelings, because he knew what was in store for his children.

However, Daphne thought Desmond was the one, so she applied for an army medical doctor to follow Desmond.

Her courage moved and annoyed Desmond.

Desmond had tried to persuade her to leave many times but failed. Later, he could only give up...

At the same time, Sofia appeared.

Sofia, from an honored family, was also an army medical doctor and had taken a liking to Desmond on their first meeting. She ran after Desmond, though everyone thought Desmond and Daphne was the perfect match.

Dracon was in Sapphire City then. He made up his mind to separate them when he knew his son was in love with a country girl of humble birth. He contacted Sofia and expressed his willingness to support her.

Since then, Sofia had taken herself as Desmond's fiancée.

Later on, Desmond suffered terrible injuries on a mission and needed immediate medical help.

Taking advantage of her network, Sofia stood in for the doctor who was arranged to treat Desmond. Besides, she used the opportunity of taking care of Desmond to provoke Daphne deliberately.

Daphne refused to be the other woman. In an inconsolable mood of despair, she opted out of the competition and ran a clinic in her hometown in an effort to help with disaster recovery.

After almost losing his life, Desmond realized he couldn't live without Daphne, even if their children might get his family disease.

Anyway, at least they had happy memories!

Therefore, he asked for a leave of absence to get her back.

Instead of giving up, Sofia sent people to rape Daphne and drugged Desmond in an attempt to have his baby.

Furious, Desmond threw Sofia out of the army through his power and warned her that he would return blow for blow if she didn't change her nature. Outwardly Sofia admitted her mistake, but in reality, she did not spare Daphne...

Chapter 1369-Draco had helped Sofia many times, but nothing could interfere with Desmond and Daphne.

In order to get rid of Draco's control, Desmond went to increasingly desperate lengths when he went on missions, and he got promoted quickly. However, his injuries became increasingly worse after he came back from each mission...

One time, Desmond almost got himself killed! At that time, Daphne was pregnant with Desmond's child.

She could no longer bear the fear of losing Desmond at any moment, so she asked Desmond about their future...

Draco didn't want his son to be killed, so he made a deal with Desmond that he would allow him to marry Daphne as long as Desmond quit the army and came home to undertake the family business.

Finally, Desmond and Daphne returned to the Mason family. Although Draco was unhappy with Daphne, he accepted her. The woman, after all, was carrying his grandchild...

The child was Cedrick.

Desmond was always worried that Cedrick would inherit the family's virus and die early, but Cedrick was a strong boy. He survived every crisis. Thinking of the baby, Draco finally threw a grand wedding for the couple.

However, to everyone's surprise, on the day of the wedding, Sofia came! And she was pregnant!

Sofia told everyone that Desmond had abandoned her. He was with Sofia during Daphne's pregnancy. He made Sofia pregnant but he didn't want to be responsible.

Daphne was stunned. Desmond had been so considerate to her all these months. How could he have hooked up with Sofia?

Sofia brought the parent test report of Desmond and her baby, and it showed that Desmond was the father of the baby!

However, Desmond denied that he ever had sex with Sofia...

Soon, they found out Sofia had stolen Desmond's semen and later got pregnant through artificial insemination with the semen.

Desmond was enraged. In front of all the guests, he kicked Sofia hard in the belly and told her that he never wanted to see her again!

Sofia was pregnant with a pair of twins, but she lost the babies because of Desmond's kicking.

Sofia was devastated. She was so desperate to get back at Desmond and Daphne.

Afterwards, once Desmond took Daphne back to her hometown, Sofia had the brakes of Desmond's car broken. Both Desmond and Daphne died in the car accident...

Draco soon found out that Sofia had set up the accident, so he took revenge on her in the same way. However, unexpectedly, Sofia did not die. In addition, she later hooked up with Waylon and became the wife of the mayor!

After Draco's statement, everyone was shocked!

People were so surprised that Sofia was such an evil woman!

The mayor's wife of Sapphire City was such a shameless woman twenty years ago...

Desmond didn't love her, so she got him and his wife killed!

Poor Cedrick! He became an orphan after he was just born...

“Shut up! That’s not true! That bitch stole Desmond from me! And I lost my babies because of her! I should have married Desmond. You said we were family...”

Seeing Sofia going mad, Yale was happy. Before anyone could speak, he taunted, “Tsk, you are such a crazy woman! What man would dare to marry you?”

“Poor Mr. Swale! He’s so unlucky to marry you. You can’t give him a baby but get him into a lot of trouble.”

Chapter 1370-“If I were Cedrick’s father, I wouldn’t love you either!

“By the way, what’s wrong with you? Why did you attack everyone you met? You lived with Mr. Swale for so many years. I wonder if he has been affected by you.

I’m laughing my ass off...”

Catelyn was speechless. She never knew that Yael could be so sharp-tongued.

He was as noisy as a thousand ducks.

He kept speaking, and Sofia did not even have a chance to retort.

Sofia was furious.

Countless beams of limelight shot over, and countless debtors surged toward her.

Some were waiting to see Waylon in trouble, and some were urging Sofia to pay back the money...

Some wanted to find scandals about her.

Everyone seemed to want to swallow her up with a wide mouth.

Sofia suddenly couldn't take it and began to break down.

For years, she had no children or other blood relatives. Only Wayion was by her side, but she didn't love him.

She lived just to get back at the Mason family.

Desmond was dead, yet he had a son and grandchildren. Sofia wanted to destroy the Mason family, which Desmond was guarding until his death, to make him unable to live in heaven in peace or face his ancestors. She wanted the whole Mason family to die with her aborted children.

But now she realized that she had lost completely.

Clearly, Cedrick's Crowdyn in France could have beaten her a long time ago, but he set a trap for her...

He watched her fall into the trap and become deep in debt.

And then he invited the reporters to show everyone her sorry state...

Her scandalous past, her identity, and her current situation were all dragging her down.

A small oversight ruined her plan and effort.

She was finished.

"I was not the other woman who ruined their relationship. He said he would give me and our children a home, yet he ended up abandoning me. I'm the victim.

You guys know nothing about it!

“Old guy, you’re talking nonsense. You were the one who caused the explosion that almost killed me. Why didn’t I poison you earlier and let you go to hell?”

Sofia’s face became stiff, and it twitched slightly.

She broke out into curses.

It was as if she was brainwashing herself that as long as she kept claiming she was the victim, everything she said would come true.

However, Cedrick had called the police on the way here.

The police soon came to the door.

They were going to arrest Sofia on two charges.

One was her fraud. The police claimed financial arbitration and temporary detention to prevent her from absconding with the money.

Second was her involvement in the murder of Cedrick’s parents more than twenty years ago.

How could Sofia be willing to go with them? Even though she couldn’t pay back the money and she would be hunted by Via Group, if she stayed alive, at least there would be a chance of survival. She made up her mind and exchanged a look with Trevor.

Almost in a flash, Trevor suddenly pulled out a pistol and took the nearest person hostage.

The black muzzle was pressed against the temple of one of the Mason Group's employees...

The employee hadn't even reacted yet when he felt the wind in his face and something cold on his head, and then he was controlled.

"Back off! All of you back off!" Trevor shouted at the police officers and the crowd.

Sofia quickly regained her senses. She clenched her teeth, and her hands balled into fists. She said to Cedrick and Catelyn, "I know you hate me and want to kill me. Just do it. In front of the media, let's see whether you guys are faster or Trevor's bullets are faster."
